PICK TEMPLE, BARNSTORMERS ON BARN DANCE PROGRAM
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, IN WASHINGTON ETHICAL SOCIETY AUDITORIUM

Pick Temple, and Aubrey Smith and his Barnstormers headline the Society's monthly program to be held at 8:30 p.m., Friday, February 9, in the Washington Ethical Society auditorium, 7750 - 16th Street NW., Washington, D.C.

Pick Temple is familiar to Washington-area audiences. He often sang folksongs, accompanying himself on guitar, on his children's television program, which for many years was popular here. His singing also may be heard on a record available through the Library of Congress' Archive of Folk Song. On the program he is scheduled to sing folksongs and murder ballads.

Aubrey Smith has been fiddling for years, coming from West Virginia, where he played professionally and was commercially recorded with H.M. Barnes and His Blue Ridge Ramblers. Included in the Barnstormers are Aubrey Smith's wife, Sue, who plays guitar, and Blackie Morgan, another old-time fiddler and a mandolin-player. Also expected to be on the program, which is being arranged and will be moderated by Guthrie Meade, are musical saw and "commode-oleon" virtuoso Tony Alderman, Speedy Baker and his bluegrass-oriented K-Y Boys, and real old-time fiddler Fred Roe.

Admission is free to Society members, one dollar for the general public, and fifty cents for children.

CLANCYS RETURN SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18;
PETE SEEGER HERE SUNDAY, MARCH 3
