The Buffalo Chipkickers, from State College, Pa., are as colorful on stage as their name implies. They play good hard-driving Bluegrass, as well as some fine old-timey string-band tunes from such good old-time bands as Gid Tanner and The Skillet Lickers, and Charley Poole and The North Carolina Ramblers. Those bands were probably the forerunners of classic Bluegrass. The instrumentation is just about the same: fiddle, banjo, guitar and bass with a mandolin creeping in occasionally. Bill Monroe, widely acclaimed as the 'Father of Bluegrass' grew up listening to the old-timey bands, took the basic feel of the music and with the help of several innovative banjo players (particularly Earl Scruggs), who developed different styles of finger picking, created bluegrass.

The Chipkickers have not forgotten their roots in old-timey music. They manage to sound like four good ole boys in a North Carolina barn pickin' & grinnin', but they also put on a show a la modern bluegrass bands. During their last appearance in the Washington area, at the Birchmere in Arlington, Va., they thrilled a somewhat jaded crowd with their fresh innovative approach to such heavy old standards as 'The Orange Blossom Special.' The Buffalo Chipkickers are not only great instrumentalists but they are a visual delight as well. They act like they enjoy what they are doing and communicate that to their audience. So come prepared for an evening of good hand-slappin', toe tappin' music. The program is on April 14th, 8:30 p.m., at the Washington Ethical Society, 16th & Kalmia Rd. N.W. Admission is free for members and $2.00 for non-members. See you there.

Dave.
APRIL 16th - GORDON BOK, ANN MUIR, and ED TRICKETT

Gordon Bok, singer, sailor, storyteller, songwriter and guitarist from Camden, Maine will give a concert together with Ann Muir and Ed Trickett on Sunday, April 16th, 8:00 p.m., at Albert Einstein Senior Highschool, Kensington, Md.

Gordon requires little introduction to Society members. For those who have not yet had the pleasure of hearing him, Gordon sings traditional and original songs of the sea with a sensitivity born of his years as a sailor and fisherman. He is an exquisite guitarist and as fine a singer as you will ever hear. His friends add their voices to his rich mellow sound and together they produce incredible three part harmonies. They accompany themselves on guitar, flute and hammered dulcimer. Admission is $2 for members and $3 for non-members.

To reach Albert Einstein H.S., New Port Mill Rd. Kensington, go north on Connecticut beyond the beltway. Stay right onto University Blvd. when Conn. bears left. Turn after 2-3 blocks onto New Port Mill Rd. and follow this until it bears to the right. The school is 2-3 blocks beyond the bend, on the right hand side. For further information call Debbie, 270-2217.

ANTOINETTE & JOE MCKENNA HOUSE CONCERT

Antoinette and Joe McKenna, who were hits at the 1977 National Folk Festival, will present a house concert of traditional Irish music on Friday, April 28th, 8:30 p.m., at the home of Susan and George Schwelling in Chevy Chase, Md. Joe is an expert on the Uillean pipes (twice all Ireland and 1975 all Britain champion). His family has even revived the art of making them at the family workshop in Dublin. Antoinette sings and accompanies herself and Joe on the Irish harp. Don't miss this chance to meet and hear them in the intimate surroundings of a living room. Call 270-2217 or 657-85551 for further information and directions. Admission is $2 for members, $3 for non-members.

APRIL 30th - MICHAEL COONEY

Michael Cooney, one of the best known traditional singers in the country, will perform for the Society on Sunday, April 30th, 8 p.m., at the Washington Ethical Society Building, 16th and Kalmia Rd. N.W. Admission is $2 for members and $3 for non-members. Michael sings (English traditional, old-timey, blues, ragtime etc.), plays (guitar, banjo, concertina, etc.), and performs as well as anyone in the current folk music revival. He has traveled throughout this country and abroad performing at just about every festival, club, and coffeehouse worth mentioning. The titles of his two albums on Folk Legacy pretty much tell the story, "The Cheese Stands Alone" and "Singer of Old Songs" (Front Hall label). Come early to get a seat.

BRUCE HUTTON FEATURED FOR CHILDREN'S CONCERT

The April Children's Concert will be held on Saturday, April 15th at 10:30 A.M. Bruce is known to children in area schools as the "man with all those instruments". He plays a large variety of stringed instruments and introduces each with a brief history. His program will include many favorites of children. Recommended for ages 6-12. Admission will be 75¢ for children and $1.50 for adults. Call Debbie, 270-2217 for further information.

P.S. Welcome to Daniel Taub Hutton and congratulations to Debbie and Bruce. Weighing in at 3 lbs. 14 oz., and two months sooner than expected, Daniel (now a heavy 5 pounder) is home and his PSCW extended family plans to spoil him royally with constant love and attention.

HARRY TUFTS HOUSE CONCERT

Harry Tufts, founder of the Denver Folklore Center who is on a rare trip to the East, calls himself a singer of traditional and contemporary ballads. He also sings songs of "social import" and promises plenty of choruses. Harry will be giving a house concert at Helen Schneyer’s home in Kensington, Md. on April 15th, 8:30 p.m., Admission is $2 for members and $3 for non-members. Call 270-2217 or 949-4552 for further information and directions. Take advantage of this opportunity to meet and hear a fine musician.

CAVALIER DAYS, HISTORICAL FOLK FESTIVAL

Saturday thru Tuesday, May 27th-30th, Prince Frederick, Md. More about the festival in the May newsletter.
SACRED HARP SING

Hymn singing from "The Sacred Harp" will be held April 23rd at 4 p.m. Our host this month is Peggy Bruton in Takoma Park, Md. Call her at 359-0614 for directions, what dish you are bringing for pot-luck, and how many are coming. We need hosts for July and August with nice outdoor singing space. That may sound far in the future, but we want to print a summer schedule of sings in the June newsletter. Give me a call if you'd like to host.

Karen F. 585-7065

AND GOSPEL SING TOO!

Amazing success of the March gospel sing has all participants looking forward to the next, which will be held on April 9th, 4 p.m., at Karen Martel's home, 382-9639. Call for directions and to let her know what you will be bringing for pot-luck. All welcome, do join us.

Kathy C. 234-5115

P.S. If you left a glass baking dish and/or a copy of The Broadman Hymnal at last month's Gospel Sing, please call Nancy Schatz, 933-3073, to arrange to get them back.

OPEN SING

For all of you who have trouble coming up with songs to fit some of the more obscure Open Sing topics, here's one for you. Two of the most common preoccupations of the human race are love and death, which by no small coincidence are two of the most common themes in folk music. We'll gather at the Washington Ethical Society, 16th and Kalmia Rd. N.W., on April 7th at about 9 p.m. Admission is $1 and includes liquid refreshments. Come and join leader Tom McHenry and the rest of the bunch for "Songs of Love and Death". (Note: not love songs or death songs, but songs with both subjects included).

On May 5th, Mary Cliff and Nancy Schatz will lead "Songs About Money".

Nancy, 933-3073

GETAWAY NEWS-----ALREADY!!!

Believe it or not, plans are now being made for the annual Fall FSGW Getaway! As you may remember the Getaway is held at Prince William's State Park in October. Tom McHenry has been appointed to be Chairman again this year. Various committees are being established with specific duties assigned. If you would like to participate in planning the Getaway by serving in one of these groups, please inform Tom, 533-1397. Here is a list of the various groups and their duties:

Publicity: Advertise the Getaway, design signs, oversee printing of signs etc.
Workshop Set-up: Recommend workshops, topics, leaders, schedule workshops.
Mini-Concert: Recommend policy for nightly mini-concerts and organizes them.
Volunteers: Responsible for the volunteers' sign-up for, and fulfillment of, jobs at the Getaway (i.e. Registration, food duties etc.)
Clean-up: Ensure grounds are ship-shape after/during Getaway to pass Park Police inspection.
Parking: Establish parking areas, ensure parking regulations
Health Services: Responsible for maintenance of health facilities (on call for emergencies)
Dance: Responsible for setting up dancing (outside of workshops).
DANCE NEWS

Put on your dancing shoes 'cause with the Spring comes many dances in many places.

For Further Information call Glen Echo Park.

QUESTIONS AND MORE QUESTIONS! PLEASE

SEND US SOME ANSWERS........

The FSGW Board would like to know more about the memberships' interests and abilities, in hopes of increasing participation in various activities, and so has decided to send out a questionnaire around mid-April, which you will receive in the mail with your ballots for the FSGW annual elections. The questionnaire will be about your preferences in FSGW activities and your ability/interest in helping the Society. Of course you will vote (!) and the board hopes that you will take a few minutes to provide some answers which will help us to run the society the way YOU want it. You may send the questionnaire back in the same envelope with your ballot (which will save us all postage and time) or mail it separately, or give it to any board member at any event. Thanks for your help.

DESIGN A POSTER CONTEST

As you know, the Washington Folk Festival is coming up on June 3rd and 4th at Glen Echo Park. There has been great interest expressed by many people, and we thought some of you would like to participate by submitting a design for a Festival poster. Let your design express the excitement of the festival's richness and diversity of music, song and dance (International as well as American) with all performers from the Washington area! Please include the festival name, date, location, (Glen Echo Park, Md., Sat. June 3rd-12-10 p.m., and Sun., June 4th-12-6 p.m.) and free admission. The prize will be the pleasure of participation in this special event, which is the same "payment" as all the performers and staff involved in this festival so that we can make this event available to the general public without charge. Send your design to Jeff Deitchman, 16 Manchester Pl., #103 Silver Spring, Md. 20901. Deadline is April 28th. Be part of a festival which is bringing Washington its own music.
