Roy Harris Featured in April 10 Program

Our April program will feature folksinger Roy Harris. Roy, who comes from Nottingham, England, is one of the finest singers of traditional songs and ballads. His repertoire is about 80% traditional song with the rest being a mixture of contemporary material, parodies, music hall numbers, even an occasional popular song from the 1930's. All are presented with a warm, sometimes humorous style that's all Roy's own.

Roy has been singing full-time since 1964 in folk clubs all over Europe, Canada, and the United States. He has served as director of the National Folk Festival in Loughborough, England, for four years. He founded the Nottingham traditional Music Club.

He has six solo albums, five of them on the Topic label and one on Fellside.

The program begins at 8:30 p.m., Friday, April 10. The place: the Washington Ethical Society auditorium, 7750 16th St., N.W. (at Kalmia Rd.) Admission is free to FSGW members, $2 for non-members. Come early to be sure of getting a seat.

Battlefield Band to Perform April 18

Battlefield Band can best be described as a high-energy Scottish band. They have just completed their sixth album (Home Is Where the Van Is, for the Flying Fish label). Individually they are Duncan MacGillivray, who plays highland pipes, whistle, mouth organ, and guitar; Brian McNeill, fiddle, banjo, mandolin, cittern, and concertina; Alan Reid, keyboards; and Ged Foley, Northumbrian pipes and guitar. They all sing, and their music is mostly Scottish, with a few dashes of Irish and English (usually Northumbrian). Alistair Clark of Edinburgh's The Scotsman describes them this way: "What is so marvelous about them is that they can tackle the most complex of interwoven instrumental sequences without sounding like a bunch of drawing-room pansies, and when they let their hair down, they show they can take on any foot-tapping ceili band at their own game, and win." In other words, be prepared not to sit still.

The Battlefield Band will perform in concert at the Washington Ethical Society auditorium, 7750 16th St., N.W., on Saturday, April 18, at 8:30 p.m. Admission is $4 for FSGW members, $5 for non-members.
NOTES OF IMPORTANCE

BOARD MEETING: The April FSGW Board meeting will be held Wednesday, April 1 (no comments please), at 8 p.m., at the home of Claudia Kravets in Reston, VA. Board meetings are open to the membership and your participation is encouraged. For directions, call Claudia at 703/435-2458.

NEWSLETTER DEADLINE: The deadline for the May Newsletter is Wednesday, April 15. Please get your material in on time! WRITE YOUR ARTICLE OUT, and mail it, as early as possible, to Nancy Schatz, 3312 Glenway Dr., Kensington, MD 20795. Remember to include your name and phone number.

FESTIVAL VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: Our annual Washington Folk Festival, to be held at Glen Echo Park June 6 and 7, is shaping up, and now it is time for volunteers, who keep everything (membership table, hospitality, trash detail, craft area, parking lot, set-up, tear-down, etc.) running smoothly, to come forward. This year we will also need people weekday evenings the week before the Festival to help set up stages and get the Park ready. If you are willing to help, please call Jody Fitterer (864-4131) or Julie Musgrave (home 942-4382, or at work Wed.-Sun. nights 686-9189). Thanks—we need you!

GETAWAY PLANS, ALREADY! Do you want to help plan and present the fall Getaway? Good jobs available for those with energy and commitment. Come to a planning meeting on Tuesday evening, April 28. Phone Nan Goland (332-0232) or Nancy Schatz (933-3073) for location and more information.

SUSIE ROTHFIELD & ERIC THOMPSON IN HOUSE CONCERT

Susie Rothfield and Eric Thompson, members of the Backwoods Band, will do an FSGW house concert on Saturday, April 11. Fiddler Susie has performed with the Any Old Time Stringband, Klezmorim, Frankie Armstrong, John Wilcox, and Jody Stecher. Guitarist Eric has a solo bluegrass album and has been featured with Mac Benford, Mike Seeger, Jody Stecher, and the Charles River Valley Boys. Look for old-time, bluegrass, Cajun, blues, and Irish music. They'll be at the Schwellings' in Chevy Chase, MD, on Saturday, April 11, beginning at 8:30 p.m. Admission is $3 for FSGW members, $4 for non-members. For directions, call 986-0629.

FAMILY DANCE APRIL 4

The April FSGW Family Dance will feature Bob Dalesmer, one of the area's most popular dance callers. His accomplishments are too numerous to mention, but he sings, plays, and calls real good! He will be joined by a few friends for some musical good times. The dance will be Saturday, April 4, at 7:30 p.m., at the Takoma Park Jr. High auxiliary gym, Piney Branch Rd. at Grant St. (just past Rt. 410, Philadelphia Ave./E-W Hwy.) Admission is free to FSGW members; $2 for non-member adults; $1 for non-member kids over 14 (kids under 14 free). Call the FSGW Hot-Line (281-2228) before coming, for any changes. These dances are getting better as the season progresses—see you there!

HOUSE CONCERT WITH BOB WEY

Bob Wey will perform a house concert for FSGW on Thursday, April 23. Bob sings and plays guitar, but he's known mostly for his hammered dulcimer work. He was the 1977 First Place winner of the National Hammered Dulcimer Gathering in Binghamton, N.Y., and was a member of the "Joyful Noise" string-band. He plays fiddle tunes, dance tunes, and more eclectic things, too. So come on out and watch the hammers fly at Mike Rivers' house in Falls Church, VA, at 8 p.m. on Thursday, April 23. Admission for FSGW members is $2, for non-members $3. Call Mike at 241-7445 for directions.

OPEN SING

Ellen Maske, the leader of the April Open Sing, is asking the musical question, "What would you sing if you could choose your own topic?" Come with your answer to the Ethical Society Bldg., 7750 16th St., N.W., on Friday, April 3. Be there around 9 p.m. Admission is $2 for everyone. Refreshments are available.

In May, Bill Day's topic will be "Oaths, Threats, Promises, Wishes, and Assorted Spells and Imprecations."

After the May Open Sing, there will be a 2-month break unless sufficient interest is indicated. This is because the June Open Sing is the night before the Washington Folk Festival (at which we hope many of you will be volunteers) and the July Open Sing is on the July 4th weekend. If you wish to give an opinion, please call Dolores Nichols at 938-4564.

Election of Board Members Coming Up in May

FSGW elections are almost at hand, and all members are encouraged, urged, cajoled, admonished, and/or otherwise invited to VOTE! In the past we have had a disappointingly small "voter turnout," and hope to improve that situation this year. The Folklore Society is your organization, and needs your participation in order to function.

The Nominating Committee has put together a slate of candidates from among those who have indicated a desire to be a part of the Society's administration, but they don't know all of you. Here's your chance to let us know what you're interested in doing. Don't be shy! If you are interested in running for office, call Debbie Hutton (270-2217) and tell her what you'd like to do. If you'd like to help, but not as a Board member, please call the FSGW Hot-Line (281-2228) and leave a message—we'll get back to you!

In order to give you an idea of what the various Board positions are, and what is involved in each of them, a brief description follows. The names and phone numbers of the current incumbents are included; please feel free to call any of them to ask about their jobs and about volunteering for FSGW.

PRESIDENT: Chairman of the Executive Board and senior executive officer of the Society; responsible to the Board for the conduct of the Society's program & affairs; appoints chairman of all special committees; serves as ex officio member of all regular committees except the nominating committee; following term of office serves a term as Past President and voting member of the Board. Lars Hanslin, 654-4317.

VICE PRESIDENT: Vice-chairman of the Executive Board; acts as house manager, sergeant-at-arms and head of the clean-up crew for all of the Society's activities; performs other duties as delegated by the President. Bob Clayton, 671-1975

SECRETARY: Secretary of the Executive Board; responsible for minutes, corporate records, and other correspondence and records; notifies members of all meetings of the Society and of the Board. Susan Schwelling, 986-0629.

TREASURER: Responsible for preparation and custody of all financial records and statements of the Society; serves as ex officio member of any committee whose activities involve expenditures of over $25; responsible for collection and payment of all of the Society's funds; following term of office serves a term as Past Treasurer and voting member of the Board. Nan Goland, 332-0232.

MEMBERSHIP CHAIRMAN: Keeps membership lists and statistics; issues membership cards; collects membership dues & transmits them to the Treasurer. Dolores Nichols, 938-4564.

PROGRAM CHAIRMAN: Prepares the monthly (2nd Friday) programs of the Society & submits to the Board all plans for future programs. Cathy Finkerson, 544-4309.

SPECIAL EVENTS CHAIRMAN: Plans all concerts and other special events and submits to the Board all plans, including financial estimates, for future events. Mary Cliff, 534-7592.

PUBLICITY CHAIRMAN: Responsible for all publicity, advertising, promotion, and public relations activities of the Society. Claudia Kravets, 435-2458.

PUBLICATIONS CHAIRMAN: Responsible for the preparation, printing, and distribution of all publications, including the Newsletter. Nancy Schatz, 933-3073.

DANCE CHAIRMAN: Plans all activities principally involving dance; submits to the Board all plans for future dances. Dave Olive, 526-0594.

OFFICERS-AT-LARGE (2): Responsible for assisting other officers in their duties as requested by the President. Jody Pitterer, 864-431; Bob Hitchcock, 703/437-8458.

CANDIDATES FOR 1981 - 82

Below are the candidates identified so far by the Nominating Committee. Brief biographical/campaign statements will appear in the May Newsletter, along with your ballot. Remember that nominations are not closed until after the April program—there's still time to add your name to the list, and all you have to do is call Debbie (270-2217) or have someone nominate you from the floor at the April 10 program—you don't even have to get petition signatures! You do, of course, have to do the job if you get elected...

The New Sunshine Jazz Band is back by popular demand at Johnny Lange’s, 5149 Lee Highway (between Glebe Rd. and George Mason Dr.) in Arlington, every Friday, starting at 8:30 p.m. No cover. For information, call 241-9658.

SOUTHERN MARYLAND HIGHLAND GATHERING AND CELTIC FESTIVAL

On Saturday, April 25, the Southern Maryland Highland Gathering and Celtic Festival will be held at King’s Landing YMCA camp. The event is sponsored by the Celtic Society of Southern Maryland. Instrumentalists, song, dance, grafts, games, exhibits, and food will highlight the heritage of England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales. For information, call Ben Williams, 301/535-0292.

ENGLISH CONCERTINA ORCHESTRA

Come to our new Group Squeeze! All levels of musical ability and button dexterity are welcome. We hope to develop an eclectic repertoire of ensemble pieces—anything that’s fun to play. Bring your boxes on Sunday, April 12, at 5 p.m., to the home of Tammy Zeheb in N.W. Washington. Call Tammy (363-9413) for directions, or K.C. King (229-6546) if you have questions.

SQUARE DANCE

On Wednesday, April 8, there will be a beginning Square dance from 8:15-10:15, at the Banneker Community Club, 2500 Georgia Avenue. For information, call Lou Shapiro, 589-0217.

BENEFIT CONCERT OF IRISH MUSIC

The Willie Clancy Summer School Benefit Concert at Liner Auditorium, G.U., on Friday, April 10, at 8 p.m., will aid the small but vital school of traditional Irish music held annually in July in Milford, Delaware. Coming from Ireland is Liam O’Flynn, Planxty’s uileann piper. Also appearing will be Mick Moloney, Eugene O’Donnell, Paddy Reynolds, Celtic Thunder, The Irish Tradition, and others. All are donating their talents. Tickets are $10 at Ticketron and various Irish outlets. Information: 548-2951, 986-9004, or 864-2385.

MUSIC FROM THE RIVER NILE

A symposium on Music from the River Nile will be presented in three parts:

1) Wind and Percussion Instruments—featuring Halim El-Dabh, Egyptian-born composer in performance practices —limited space available for performer participants, plenty of seating for auditors.

2) Al-Oud—featuring Hamza El-Din, master of Al-Oud in a class setting, six participants only, but plenty of room for auditors.

3) Joint presentation by Halim and Hamza, and the performers—participants of the previous sessions, culminating in a public performance as might be experienced in a native celebration.

This workshop will take place April 25-26, in the Dumbarton Ave. Church, 3133 Dumbarton Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. Call 654-9231 for information or write International Conservatory of Music (ICM), Box 4037, Chevy Chase, MD 20015, for the free brochure. Accredited through the University of Maryland.

APPALACHIAN CRAFTS

Andy and Sue Kardos, instrument makers and folk singers of Swannanoa, North Carolina, return at the Appalachian Craft Fair in Arlington April 24-26. They attended the 5th annual Craft Fair in 1979. Andy is a fine craftsman of hammered and lap dulcimers, banjos, and several other stringed instruments. Songs of Northern Appalachia will be provided by Cathy Schimberg. Traditional crafts of North Carolina, Southern Virginia, and West Virginia are featured. Admission is $1.50 benefits charities. Hours of the fair are: Friday, 6-10 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m.-9 p.m.; Sunday, 12-6 p.m. The location is Carlin Springs Road at Rt. 50 near the Arlington-Fairfax County line. For information, call 379-2527.

CHESAPEAKE LORE AT NEW CARROLLTON LIBRARY

Prince George's County Memorial Library System will present "Chesapeake Born," a program illustrated with slides, songs, and stories, with regional artist, educator, and songwriter Tom Wisner on Sunday, April 12, at 2:30 p.m. The show, free to the public, will be held in the New Carrollton Branch Library, 7414 Riverdale Rd.

The presentation will include material on the origin of the Chesapeake Bay region, descriptions of remote coves, marshes, and inlets and the cliffs of Calvert, as well as the skylight fleet and life in Bay waters. Original songs and anecdotes of the oystermen and women of the region will be included. Wisner has appeared in several films and TV documentaries about the Chesapeake Bay, and was a guest on the NBC Today show for a bicentennial broadcast on Maryland. Three of his songs are included, along with those of Woody Guthrie and Pete Seeger, in the National Audubon Society's album, "Equilibrium—Songs of Nature and Humanity." For information, call Maria Pedak-Kari at 699-3500, ext. 399.

INSTRUMENTS AT SMITHSONIAN

IRISH WEEK EVENTS

Irish Week begins Saturday, April 25, at George Mason University Metro Campus, 3001 N. Fairfax Drive, Arlington. Opening the annual series of lectures and performances will be Tony McMahen, traditional musician and TV producer, followed by folklorist Seamus O'Cat again, April 26; Brian Farron, Northern Ireland painter, April 27; author and critic Alan Titlow, April 28; folklorist Liam O'Dochartaigh, April 29; archeologist Peter Harbison, April 30; and actresses Ronnie Masterson in a one-woman show on Friday, May 1. These events are free and begin at 8:30 p.m., followed by a reception. Information: 370-3849 or 323-2220. George Mason site is near Virginia Square Metro station (orange line).

PIERRE BENSUSAN AT MONTGOMERY COLLEGE

French folk guitarist Pierre Bensusan will be appearing at the Rockville Campus of Montgomery College on Tuesday, March 31, at 8 p.m., in the Fine Arts Theatre. This will be Pierre's only performance in the Baltimore-Washington area during his current tour of North America; he performed for FSGW last May. A true virtuoso at the age of 24, Pierre Bensusan incorporates European folk, Renaissance, bluegrass, jazz guitar, and even Argentine tango influences in his playing style.

Tickets are $3 at the door, but advance tickets at $2 each may be purchased at the Cashiers Office, Commons Addition 3ldg., Takoma Park Campus, or Room 212, Campus Center 3ldg., Rockville Campus. For more information, call 229-5922.

A WORD FROM WETA-FM

It's that time of year again, when public radio beckons, and this year especially your contribution is important, with the projected cutbacks in government support. WETA's fundraising marathon is April 24-29. There is some pressure from a few members of the Board of Trustees to eliminate all non-classical music. That would mean cutting Broadway, movie, operetta, avant-garde, jazz, and FOLK music. It's probably not in the cards, but to ensure that folk music stays on the air at PK-91, drop a note or card indicating support for traditional music (and your other favorites) to WETA Radio, Box 2826, Washington, D.C. 20013. Thanks. —Mary

AUGUSTA HERITAGE ARTS DANCE WEEK, AUGUST 9-15

The Augusta Heritage Arts Workshop in Elkins, W.Va., will sponsor a week-long course in traditional mountain dance, August 9-15. Staff teachers and musicians include Bob Dalsemer, the Fiddle Puppet Cloggers, the Easy Street String Band from Bloomington, Ind., Bob Dean, a traditional caller from Pocahontas County, W. Va., and Woody Simmons, West Virginia fiddle champion. Daily classes will include all levels of clog and flatfoot dancing, West Virginia "big circle" dancing, squares and contra, a workshop for dance leaders, and a special workshop on games, songs and dances for children. Each evening there will be a dance party. The dance week will be followed Aug. 14-16 by the Augusta Music Festival, featuring Utah Phillips, Trapseld, and others.

The Augusta Heritage Arts Workshop is being sponsored this year by Davis and Elkins College, and all events will take place on the college campus. Room & board are available at reasonable rates, or you may camp in the nearby National Forest. For more information, write Fargo Selson, Director, Augusta Heritage Arts Workshop, Davis and Elkins College, Elkins, W. Va. 26241, or phone 304/636-0006.
