Holdstock & MacLeod
In Concert October 3

On Saturday, October 3, Dick Holdstock and Allan MacLeod will present an evening of songs and stories from England and Scotland. Holdstock, a native of Sissingbourne, Kent, has been singing his native music all his life, accompanying his powerful voice with guitar and mandolin. MacLeod, of Armadale, Scotland, has been actively involved in the folksong revival since the late 1950s. He studied under Ewan MacColl, and spent part of his engineering apprenticeship under the famous Tyneside singer, Jack Elliott. In addition to his outstanding renditions of Scottish songs, MacLeod is a great storyteller and guitar and mandolin player. Both musicians now live in Davis, California. This is their first appearance in Washington.

The concert begins at 8:30 p.m. at the Washington Ethical Society auditorium, 7750 16th Street, N.W. (at Kalmia Road). Admission is $3.00 for FSGW members and $4.00 for nonmembers. Be there October 3 for a fine evening of singing and storytelling!

Events for the whole family begin at 7 p.m. These include: a sampler concert featuring Joe Hickerson, Kathy Westra Hickerson, Carly Gewirz Mackall, Allan Mackall, and Helen Schneyer; an open sing led by Joe Hickerson (theme: Ghosties and Ghoulies and Things that Go Bump in the Night); play-party games; dances; stories; and a costume competition (with prizes) for kids of all ages.

After a short set-up period, the Freakers' Ball will begin at Midnight, featuring the music of the Wild Cards, a six-piece rhythm and blues band with a two-piece horn section. DULCIMER PLAYER LEO KRETZNER FEATURED OCTOBER 1

Dulcimer whiz Leo Kretzner will present a house concert for FSGW on Thursday, October 1, at the home of Bruce and Debby Hutton in Takoma Park. Kretzner has gained much notoriety for his unique flatpicking dulcimer style, which he uses to play a variety of Irish and American dance tunes. Besides his exceptional dulcimer playing, he is a fine singer of a wide variety of contemporary and traditional songs, which he accompanies with guitar and harmonica as well as dulcimer. He has two record albums, Dulcimer Fair and Pigtown Fling, on the Traditional and Green Linnet labels, respectively. Kretzner has performed at coffeehouses and festivals throughout the country and also teaches dulcimer.

Be there, Thursday, October 1, at 8:00 p.m. for a fine evening of music and songs. To get directions to the Huttons, call Debby or Bruce at 270-2217. Admission to the concert is $2.00 for FSGW members and $3.00 for nonmembers.

REMINDER: Because of the FSGW Getaway, there will be no regular monthly program on the second Friday of October. Regular programs will resume Friday, November 13, with a concert by Paul Geremia.

ANOTHER REMINDER: It is the policy of FSGW not to allow tape recording of any of the Society's events. Please be courteous to our performers and to other members of the audience by adhering to this policy.

BOARD VOTES TO RAISE DUES

At its September meeting, the FSGW Board voted to raise member dues to $10 per year for individuals and $15 per year for families, effective November 1. A majority of board members felt that rising costs of postage, printing, and performers' travel necessitated the increase.

The benefits of membership remain the same: the FSGW Newsletter by first class mail, free admission to nine monthly programs, and reduced admission to all other FSGW activities. All this for what it costs for three tickets to a first-run movie!

If you would like to join FSGW or renew your membership for one, two, or three years at the old rates, send the application form on page 8 before Nov. 1 to D. Nichols, 307 Broadleaf Dr., Vienna, Virginia 22180.

OCTOBER BOARD MEETING

The next regular meeting of the FSGW Board will be Wednesday, October 7, at 8:00 p.m., at the home of Dwain Winters near the American University campus. Board meetings are open to all FSGW members. For directions to the meeting, call Dwain at 229-5845.

NEWSLETTER DEADLINE

Deadline for the November newsletter is Thursday, October 15. Please, if you are mailing newsletter copy, try to mail it well before the deadline! A number of items mailed for the September newsletter were not included because they took five days or more to be delivered and, consequently, missed the deadline.

Copy should be mailed to Kathy Hickerson, P.O. Box 9062, Washington, D.C. 20003. Do not mail to the FSGW address!

NEWS FLASH! Both Prairie Home Companion shows are sold out. There will be no tickets available at the door on either day.
FSGW's annual woodland retreat will be held October 9-12. Remember, we are using a different camp in Prince William Forest Park (directions below). The gathering spaces in Camp #2, Mawavi, are not as large as we're used to, but there are two fine outdoor areas we'll use, weather permitting. (We're planning rain areas, of course, but keep your fingers crossed for good weather.) Be sure to bring rain gear and WARM CLOTHES for outdoor workshops! A mat or low stool to sit on might be helpful, too. We'll do what we can to help everyone find their way around, but be sure to bring a flashlight!

Registration begins at 5 p.m. Friday. There is a dance at 9 p.m., and an Open Sing at 10. If you're there earlier, come and learn to make cat's cradles. Saturday workshops will start at 10 and go until 6. The evening concert will be at 8, with a campfire sing starting at 11 and a dance at 11:15. On Sunday, workshops are scheduled from 10:30 to 5 p.m. After dinner, there will be a concert from 7 to 9:30, and a campfire sing as our closing activity.

The committee is working extra hard to use the new camp to best advantage, planning some new and different workshops, as well as all our favorites. Start thinking now of songs you can sing and lore you can bring to such workshops as Telephone Songs, Sea Lore (songs, lore, crafts, etc.), Songs of the Thirties, Campfire Lore, Mixing Melodies (Try singing "The Marines' Hymn" while a friend sings "The Caisson Song" - See?), Gospel Songs of the Sea, and lots more. For instrumentalists and would-be instrumentalists, there'll be Hammering-On Guitar, Beginning Clawhammer Banjo, a Slide Guitar Teach-in, a Concertina Orchestra, and others. Also bring rhythm and jug-band instruments, birdcalls, washboards, and what-have-you for our "Anything Goes Rhythm Band." There will be dance workshops both days, too, and crafts such as paper folding, quilting, and basket weaving.

At press time, weekend registration was full, but we are maintaining a waiting list, filling any cancellations with folks from the list (in order of receipt). PLEASE CALL if you find you need to cancel--you'll get a refund if we hear from you in time to fill your place, and someone from the waiting list will be able to attend. Call Gail McHenry at 703/533-1397 with cancellations and questions about registration. (Continued on other side.)

Please print legibly.
