September Program

Features The Smokey Valley Boys

On Friday, September 10, FSGW will hold the first of the new season's regular programs (held the second Friday of the month). In honor of this festive occasion, a fine traditional old-time stringband from North Carolina, The Smokey Valley Boys, will perform. Their sound is a powerful combination of traditional and newer country music. Band members are Benton Flippen, fiddle; Paul Sutthin, guitar; Berlin Clifton, mandolin; and Paul Brown, banjo.

The band is a direct descendent of the Camp Creek Boys, whose members included the legendary Fred Cockerham on fiddle and Kyle Creed on banjo. The Smokey Valley Boys have won at countless fiddlers' conventions in the South, and have appeared at the Festival of American Fiddle Tunes in Port Townsend, Washington; Pinewoods Camp in Massachusetts; and at many concerts, dances, and radio shows.

Benton Flippen has developed a unique fiddling style with a smooth bow technique and plenty of unusual slides. Paul Sutthin calls himself "The Last Clawhammer Guitar Player," and once you've heard--and seen--his amazing right-hand technique, you'll understand why. Paul Brown has picked clawhammer banjo since childhood, and Berlin Clifton completes the lineup with his old-time, chug-along mandolin playing.

Don't miss a great chance to hear a great old-time band, as they play and sing everything from the oldest tunes of their region to classic country songs, original fiddle compositions, and music of Arthur Smith and Tommy Magness.

The concert begins at 8:30 p.m., Friday, Sept. 10, at the WES Auditorium, 7750 16th St., N.W. (near Kalmia). Admission is free to FSGW members, and $4.00 for nonmembers.

To get to the concert via public transportation, take the Metro red line to the Silver Spring station. From there, take the S-4 bus (marked Federal Triangle) to 16th & Kalmia. The bus runs every 15 minutes. Or take the S-4 bus marked "Silver Spring" from Federal Triangle or Metro Center in downtown D.C. Buses leave every 15 minutes and stop near the Ethical Society building.

Rick & Lorraine Lee, Kel Watkins Perform Sept. 17

Kel Watkins

Longtime friends of FSGW Rick and Lorraine Lee will be joined in concert on Friday, September 17, by a newcomer to us and to the U.S., Kel Watkins.

Rick and Lorraine, from Natick, Mass., excel as interpreters of traditional American music, its British and Celtic roots, and its contemporary side. They are both skilled instrumentalists and songwriters, and distinctive singers. Lorraine is recognized as one of the world's most creative and accomplished Appalachian dulcimer players, and has toured and recorded with Jean Ritchie and Roger Nicholson. Rick has developed a uniquely versatile and sensitive piano style that can both back up a mellow ballad and pound out a Country & Western song. The Lees have two records, Living in the Trees on Folk-Legacy, and Contrasts on Front Hall.

The Lees will share the evening with Kel Watkins, of Perth, Australia. Kel is a poet and reciter of Australian bush ballads. These stories from the spoken ballad tradition of Australia bring to life the shearers, drovers, swagmen, and other characters of the Australian outback. "The Man From Ironbark," "Holy Dan," and "The Horizontal Champ" are just a few of the characters you'll meet in stories told by Kel in an entertaining--and often humorous--style.

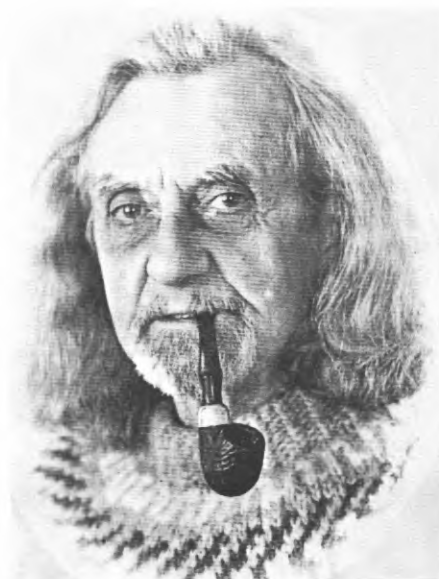

The concert begins at 8:30 p.m., Friday, September 17, at the WES auditorium, 7750 16th St., N.W. Admission is $3.00 for FSGW members, $4.00 for nonmembers.

NOTE: INTERPRETIVE SIGNING FOR THE DEAF WILL BE PROVIDED AT THIS PROGRAM.

Stan Hugill Performs Sea Songs Sept. 23

On Thursday, September 23, FSGW will present a very special house concert by Stan Hugill, one of the world's leading authorities on sea songs and lore. Hugill obtained his knowledge firsthand, as the shantyman on the last British commercial sailing ship, the Garthpool, which sank in 1929. A concert by Stan Hugill is an engaging mix of anecdotes and songs from a vast store of material gleaned during his life at sea. Hugill also is the author of three major collections of sea songs, including Shanties of the Seven Seas.

Don't miss this rare treat. Be there at 8:00 p.m., Thursday, September 23, to hear Stan Hugill at the home of Jennifer Woods and Bob Clayton in Arlington. Admission is $3.00 for FSGW members, $4.00 for nonmembers. For directions, call Jennifer or Bob at 528-8537, or call the FSGW hotline at 281-2228.

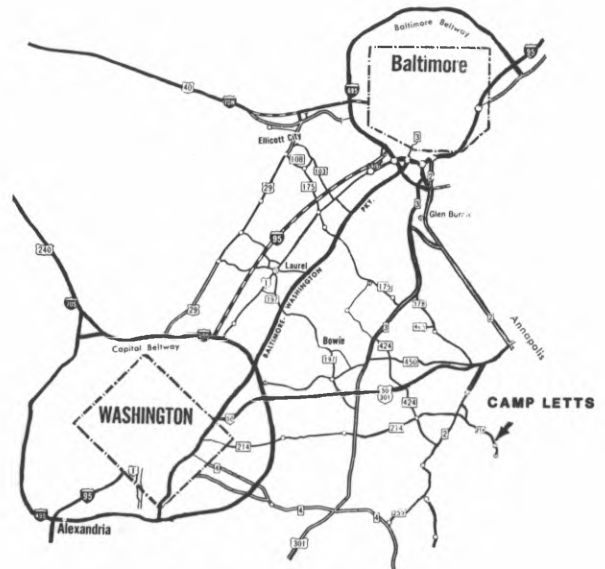

FSGW GETAWAY XVIII - 1982

It's almost here! The 1982 FSGW Getaway will be held September 24-26 at YMCA Camp Letts in Edgewater, Maryland, one mile from the Chesapeake Bay. If you haven't registered to come for the whole week-end, plan to join us as a day registrant. The advance registration form for day attendance is below. Just fill it out and mail to Jody Fitterer, P.O. Box 553, Bladensburg, MD 20710-0553. Or, you can come to the camp on Friday night (for the dance), Saturday, Sunday, or all three, and register and pay there. Admission is $3.00 for the Friday night dance, which begins at 8:30 p.m., and will be called by Bob Dalsemer. Saturday or Sunday admission is $5.00 per day for adults, $2.50 per day for children 14 and under.

Song workshop topics during the weekend will include many of the old favorites, such as ballads, blues, gospel, and Sacred Harp. Other workshops include foreign songs, occupational hazards, Irish and Irish-American songs, train songs, pocket instruments, storytelling, and canoe lore. Also featured: two-day sessions of basic guitar and basic banjo. The Blue Sky Puppet Theatre will once again be on hand to work with (and entertain) the kids.

Dance workshops will include clogging, jitterbug, and Scandinavian dance. Craft workshops on basket weaving, fly tying, and waulking (plan to get wet, and dress accordingly) will be held.

To reach Camp Letts, take Rte. 50 to the Davidsonville exit (Rte. 424). Follow to Davidsonville (1st traffic light), and turn left on Rte. 214. This will take you to the camp, which is a right turn after you pass Rte. 468. Watch the signs. Please plan to carpool if possible. Parking should be adequate, but the fewer cars there are, the easier it will be for all of us. REMEMBER: No pets or alcohol!

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The FSGW Board met on August 4 at the home of Joanne Turner in Silver Spring. Among the Board's major actions were:

- Approval (with minor revisions) of the 1982-83 budget recommended by Treasurer David Olive. (Copies are available to FSGW members upon request from the Treasurer.)
- Formation of an ad hoc committee to further investigate the issues identified by the Board at its last meeting pertaining to the future directions FSGW should take.

SEPTEMBER BOARD MEETING

The next meeting of the FSGW Board will be held Wednesday, September 1, at 8:00 p.m., at the home of Jennifer Woods in Arlington. Any FSGW member is welcome to attend the meeting. Call Jennifer at 528-8537 for directions.

DEADLINE FOR OCTOBER NEWSLETTER

Copy for the October issue of the FSGW Newsletter must be received no later than Wednesday, September 15. Please mail your typed or otherwise legible copy to Kathy Hickerson, P.O. Box 9062, Washington, D.C. 20003. Do NOT send newsletter copy to the FSGW address!!!!!!

WANTED: CARPOOL COORDINATOR

FSGW would like to find a carpool coordinator, interested in helping arrange rides to FSGW events for non-drivers and in locating riders for those with cars to share. If you are interested in helping in this capacity, please call Joanne Turner at 949-2135.

EWAN MacCOLL & PEGGY SEEGER: ADVANCE TICKETS AVAILABLE

FSGW will sponsor a very special concert by Ewan MacColl and Peggy Seeger on Thursday, November 4, at 8:00 p.m. The concert probably will be held at Georgetown Univ. Watch future newsletters for details. Advance tickets for the concert are available for $4.00 (FSGW members) and $5.00 (nonmembers). Send a self-addressed, stamped envelope, along with a check in the proper amount made out to FSGW, to Jody Fitterer, P.O. Box 553, Bladensburg, MD 20710-0553.

GOSPEL SING

Kathie Mack will be FSGW's new Gospel Sing coordinator, replacing Ellen Maske, who is retiring after two years' service. This month, we'll do our singing at the Getaway. Our next regular meeting will be in October. If you would like to offer your home for a Gospel Sing and potluck supper, please call Kathie at 270-5367. New singers are always welcome!

OPEN SING

September's Open Sing looks ahead to Labor Day. The topic will be "The Works of Man, or, What Hath Got Wrought." Songs about anything that has been built, constructed, fabricated, fashioned, formed, or manufactured, from castles and towers to shirts and shoes are appropriate. Bill Day is the leader. The sing takes place at the Washington Ethical Society auditorium, 7750 16th St., N.W., on Friday, September 3, starting around 9:00 p.m. Admission of $2.00 includes wine and punch. The topic for October will be "Lies, Damn Lies, and Statistics."

SACRED HARP SING

Because of the Getaway on the fourth Sunday, this month's Sacred Harp Sing and potluck supper will be held on the third Sunday, September 19. We will meet at the home of Elizabeth Thornton in Brinklow, MD, about 13 miles north of the District line on Rte. 650 (New Hampshire Ave.). To get a map or for further information, call Frank Evans at 527-2059, or Elizabeth at (301)774-7725. Singing begins at about 4:00 p.m. Come one, come all.

FRIDAY NIGHT DANCE AT GETAWAY

Bob Dalsemer will be calling a square dance at FSGW's Getaway on Friday, September 24, at 8:30 p.m., at Camp Letts in Edgewater, MD. The dance is open to everyone, and will be held in the main dining hall, an attractive building with a wooden floor large enough to accommodate 150 dancers. Directions to Camp Letts are on page 3. Please carpool if possible. Admission to the dance is $3.00. For further information call Ellen Maske at 589-7199.

FSGW SUNDAY NIGHT DANCE

NEW LOCATION!! For September, the dance will be held in the Takoma Park Jr. High School, 7611 Piney Branch Rd., Silver Spring (near East-West Hwy.).
