FIDDLE FEVER JULY 14

Calling themselves "a fiddlers' convention on wheels," Fiddle Fever will bring its unique blend of fiddle music and songs to Washington on Saturday, July 14th. The band consists of five top-notch solo musicians, four of whom play (you guessed it!) fiddle. Their music includes mountain, Scandinavian, swing, bluegrass, Cajun, and Celtic fiddling traditions. The concert will be held at Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church, 6601 Bradley Blvd., Bethesda, MD, (AIR CONDITIONED) and begins at 8:30 pm. Admission is $4. for FSGW members, and $5. for nonmembers.

Band leader Jay Ungar is a versatile musician whose fiddling can be heard on more than 30 albums. He also

The 8th Annual WASHINGTON FOLK FESTIVAL

JUNE 2 & 3

The stages are in place, the tents are up, and the performers are finishing their rehearsals for the 8th annual Washington Folk Festival, Saturday, June 2nd and Sunday, June 3rd. Music, dance, crafts and storytelling await you at Glen Echo Park from noon to 10 pm Saturday, and from noon to 6 pm Sunday. Sponsored by the Folklore Society and the National Park Service, the Festival showcases the talents of over 400 Washington area residents in concerts, demonstrations and workshops presented free of all cost to the public.

To get to the Festival from Virginia, take the Beltway to the first Maryland exit north of the pays a mean mandolin. Fiddle and viola player Evan Stover is a whiz at country/western and bluegrass music, and has performed and recorded with an impressive variety of bands and artists. Matt Glaser, on fiddle and piano, plays jazz and swing, and also serves as chairman of the string department of the Berklee School of Music in Boston. Guitarist and fiddler Russ Barenberg is the author of several guitar instruction books, and has played both lead and back-up guitar with many performers. Bass player Molly Mason, who also plays guitar, has been a regular musician on "A Prairie Home Companion," and is a much-sought-after accompanist.

They'll all be here to explore a whole world of traditional fiddle tunes and songs on Saturday, July 14th. Be there for a toe-tapping first appearance for FSGW by this exciting band. This one is bound to be a sure-fire cure for those midsummer doldrums!

British Isles Music With Holdstock & MacLeod June 15

Allan MacLeod and Dick Holdstock bring songs, tunes and stories from their native Scotland and England to an FSGW house concert on Friday, June 15. The duo has delighted audiences from Massachusetts to California with their songs of love, labor and the sea, as well as their mandolin and guitar playing. Their last East Coast tour was in 1981, and included a house concert here, and an appearance at the Mystic Seaport Festival in Mystic, Connecticut.

Allan MacLeod was born in Armadale, Scotland, and was actively involved in the early days of the British Folk Revival. Dick Holdstock, from Sittingbourne, Kent, England, has appeared at clubs and concerts on the West Coast, and has sponsored concerts of traditional performers for over ten years. Both men play guitar & mandolin, and Allan is also a first-rate storyteller. They always sing songs with great choruses, and involve the audience in each performance.

This concert will be held at the home of Ursy Potter, conveniently located in McLean, Virginia, just off the beltway near the Cabin John Bridge from Maryland. The 8:30 concert costs $3 for FSGW members, and $4 for non-members. Call 821-1373 for directions.

SAUL BROUDY HOUSE CONCERT JUNE 28

Singer, guitar player, and harmonica virtuoso Saul Broudy is a dynamic and varied performer with a songbag of traditional country songs, blues, instrumentals, and contemporary compositions. Long a mainstay of the Philadelphia area, Saul imbues his performances with his ability, his knowledge, and his whimsical wit. Saul traveled for a time with U. Utah Phillips, acting as accompanist, companion, and co-author.

Saul seldom visits the Washington area, and comes even more rarely to perform. He usually travels to this city only to work on the staff of the Smithsonian Festival of American Folklife, where he acts as stage manager, researcher, and technical assistant, so it is a special treat to get to hear him actually sing and play.

This concert will be held in the new home of Bob Clayton and Jennifer Woods, located in Arlington, VA, near the Glebe Rd. exit from I-66, and only four blocks from the Ballston Metro station. Admission is $3 for FSGW members and $4 for non-members. Call 528-8537 for directions.

GOSPEL SING

The Gospel Sing for the month of June will be held at the Washington Folk Festival on Sunday, June 3.

The July Gospel Sing will be held on July 8th (Sunday) at 4 pm at the home of sing coordinator Kathie Mack in Takoma Park. (Near the Metro Station). Singing is all kinds of Gospel. Break for a potluck dinner around 6 pm. Call Kathie at 270-5367 for directions and details.

Kathie is also looking for houses to have the monthly sings. If she doesn't find some soon, the sings will have to stop. Give her a call if you can volunteer your house, or have a suggestion of someone.

SACRED HARP SING

Come enjoy a sing in the Maryland countryside surrounded by fields, trees and open space. We will meet on Sunday, June 24 at Elizabeth Thornton's near Brinklow, MD, reached by going north from D.C. on Route 650. (New Hampshire Ave.) Singing from Sacred Harp begins about 4 pm and is followed by a potluck supper. After supper we sing from the Christian Harmony. Call Elizabeth (301) 774-7725 or Frank Evans (703) 527-2059 for further information.

The July Sacred Harp Sing will be on Sunday July 22. Full details will be in the August Newsletter.

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The FSGW Board met on Wednesday, May 2nd, at the home of Secretary Carol Lite in Olney, MD. Among other actions/discussions the Board:

- Approved a motion that, before entering into any agreement to cosponsor an event, those delegated to organize events in the name of FSGW obtain the concurrence of the FSGW President or, if the President is unavailable, of a member of the FSGW Executive Committee.
- Approved a motion authorizing up to $600 for the Washington Folk Festival Committee to build a tent to cover one Festival stage area, if a suitable donated tent cannot be located.

Membership chair Don Nichols reported that FSGW now has 2135 paid memberships---a new high.

JUNE AND JULY BOARD MEETINGS

The next meeting of the FSGW Board will be held on Wednesday, June 6, at the home of archivist Bill Day in Wheaton, MD. Both current members and newly-elected members of the Board are expected to attend. Any FSGW member also is welcome to attend. Members' comments, questions, and criticisms are welcomed. The meeting begins at 8 pm. Please call Bill at 946-2161 for directions.

The newly elected Board will hold its first meeting on Wednesday, July 11 at the home of Speical Events chair Bob Clayton in Arlington. Call Bob at 528-8537 for directions.

IN MEMORIAM Joe Heaney 1920-1984

In the Fall of 1968, the Folklore Society of Greater Washington opened its fifth season with a solo concert by Joe Heaney, one of the first given in the U.S. by this supreme Irish sean-nos (singer of songs) and seanchai (teller of tales). Joe came to Washington many times during the next 15 years - for FSGW concerts, Smithsonian Festivals, Gaelic League programs, and a National Council on the Arts presentation. In 1982 the National Endowment for the Arts gave him one of their first National Heritage Awards. Many FSGW members, including Kathy and myself, were his friends, and friends seemed as precious to Joe as a good song or story. Joe's friendship was certainly so for us.

In the Spring of 1984, in Seattle, Washington, Joe Heaney passed away. His body has been flown to Ireland and buried at his birthplace, near Carna, in the Connemara Gaeltacht. His legacy and his spirit are with us, as is Joe himself.

by Joe Hickerson

A Joe Heaney Memorial Fund has been established. Initially, the Fund will be used to pay extraordinary hospital and burial costs, but it is hoped to set up a scholarship or something similar as well. Contributions may be sent to:

Cait Callen
2606 N.W. 95th Street
Seattle, Washington 98117

For further information, contact Judy Walsh at 864-2385.

DUCK DONALD

Duck Donald died suddenly on April 22, 1984. From 1974 to 1979, he worked with Cathy Fink, performing across the U.S. & Canada, including several occasions in this area. They released three LP's. From 1979 to 1984, Duck performed with bluegrass bands in Canada, in concerts, in school programs and radio shows, promoting interest in traditional country music across Canada.

CATHY FINK PERFORMANCES

Cathy Fink appears June 23 and 24 at Sisterfire in Washington, D.C. (234-9308 for details) and at the Smithsonian, July 4 and 11 (12 noon) and July 5 (2 pm). Call 357-1707 for more information.
