RUMISONKÖ to appear September 13

Rumisonko, Washington-based performers of Andean music, will present the first monthly program of this year, Friday, Sept. 13 at the Hoover Auditorium (not the WES Hall). Rumisonko means "heart of Stone" in Quechua language, and that phrase well describes the strength and endurance of the Andean native cultures, which have survived 500 years of colonization. The quartet plays a mixture of traditional and original material in the traditional style and the contemporary style of Nueva Cancion (New Song). The group includes Bolivians Carlos Arrien, Alvaro Encinas, and Alberto Lora, and Omar Martinez from El Salvador. Their instruments include zamponas (pan pipes), quena (bamboo flute), bombo (drum), charango, cuatro, and tiple. The concert coincides with the release of Rumisonko's first album, El Huerto (The Backyard), whose title reflects the image of Latin America as the "backyard" of the United States. But El Huerto has another meaning — "fruit garden" — suggesting the fruitfulness of the region's people. As always, admission is free for FSGW members and $4.00 for non-members. The program begins at 8:30 p.m. at the Commerce Department Hoover Auditorium on 14th St. NW, between Constitution and Pennsylvania Avenues. For information call (703) 581-5558.

GETAWAY 1985 OCTOBER 11-13 at CAMP LETTS

It's almost here — the weekend many FSGW members wait for all year! It's the annual Folklore Society GETAWAY, which will be held again this year at YMCA Camp Letts in Edgewater, MD, on the long weekend of Oct. 11-13. (Columbus Day was specially scheduled for Monday, Oct. 14 to allow you to recover from all the fun.

If you've been to a Getaway before, you know what to expect: a chance to leave Washington cares behind; to meet with old friends -- and make new ones; to lead a group in song or sing along on a chorus; to do a dance or two; to try your hand at a traditional craft; to remember a long-forgotten childhood song or game; to recall an old story; or to paddle a canoe in a quiet inlet or ride a horse along a wooded trail. Whether you like to sing or play, dance, or just listen, the Getaway is a chance to surround yourself with the people who (Continued on Insert Page A)

INSIDE: Louis Killen, Dance News & More!!
LOUIS KILLEN SEPT. 28

On Saturday, Sept. 28, FSGW will present the English singer Louis Killen in concert at the Washington Ethical Society auditorium, 7750 16th St. N.W. (at Kalmia Rd.) Admission to this Special Event concert will be $4.00 for FSGW members, and $6.00 for non-members. The concert will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Originally from Gateshead-on-Tyne in the region of Northumbria, England, Killen performs the songs and music of his homeland. An authority on British traditional and industrial ballads, Killen also delights audiences with songs of the sea and humorous monologues. He is equally adept at a cappella ballads and at singing to the accompaniment of his own English concertina.

Many of us in Washington have enjoyed Lou numerous times at FSGW concerts. But since he moved to the West Coast, his visits to this area have been less frequent. All the more reason to take advantage of this chance to see and hear him!

More FSGW News

OPEN SING

Come open your throats and sing in honor of the other reasons to open your throat: to "Eat, Drink and Make Merry," at the Sept. Open Sing, led by Judy Cook. Songs gastronomic, alcoholic, and fun-and-frolic will be the order of the evening, Sept. 6, starting at 8:30 p.m. at the Washington Ethical Society auditorium, 7750 16th St. NW (at Kalmia Rd.) Admission is $2.00 and covers simple refreshments.

October's Open Sing topic will be "The Opposite Sex, or the Lack Thereof," led by Pete Krameter.

GOSPEL SING

The Gospel Sing resumes monthly gatherings Sunday, Sept. 8 at the home of Hunter and Peggy Jones in Potomac, MD. Singing will begin around 4:00 p.m. with potluck dinner at 6:00. More singing after dinner. For information and directions call the Joneses at (301) 762-6343.

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The FSGW Board met on July 3 and August 7. The highlights for these meetings will appear in the October NEWSLETTER.

STORYTELLERS

The FSGW storytellers will meet Saturday, Sept. 21 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Sharon Butler in Chevy Chase. For directions call 652-7835.

ALAN MACKALL DIES

We sadly note the passing of Alan James Mackall, 40, of Takoma Park, on July 29. Alan was a longtime member of the Folklore Society. He served on the FSGW Board as Treasurer and Special Events Chairman, and helped organize Getaways, Festivals, and many other events. Alan loved folk music, and especially enjoyed playing Irish folk music. He performed often in the Washington area and in Los Angeles. Alan is survived by his wife, Carly Gewirz Mackall. The family suggests that contributions in Alan's memory be made to the Joe Heaney Memorial Fund, c/o Cait Callen, 2606 NW 95th St., Seattle, WA 98117. This fund provides grants for the advancement and study of Irish folk music.

Alan will be very much missed by all his many friends. But we know that the music he loved and shared with us will continue to spread and bring delight to others.
SUNDAY NIGHT DANCES

Sunday Night Dances continue at Glen Echo's Spanish Ballroom at 8pm. The Admission is $3.00 for FSGW members, and $4.00 for non-members unless otherwise noted. These are not beginner's dances, but all are welcome, and there will be a brief walk-through before each dance.

September 1  NO DANCE

ENGLISH DANCE WORKSHOPS

The 1985 fall series of English Playford and Apte Dance Workshops will begin on Tuesday, Sept. 17 at 7:30 p.m., at Christ Church Parish Hall, 3116 "O" St. NW, in Georgetown. The series will continue with workshops on Oct. 22, Nov. 19, and Dec. 17. Admission is $3.00 per workshop, or $10.00 for the series. Interested musicians should contact Elizabeth Donaldson, (301) 986-1291. For other information call Peter Fricke, (301) 565-9530.

FSGW TAPERING POLICY

FSGW members are reminded that tape recording of FSGW concerts and special events IS NOT ALLOWED. Our performers are assured that only an FSGW archive tape will be made of their concert.

If you would like to re-live a particular FSGW concert, listening copies of FSGW archive tapes are available for a fee (tape cost, plus recording engineer's time). For more information, call the FSGW hotline at 281-2228, and leave a message.

EDITORIAL NOTE

Every effort is made to include all notices submitted by the deadline to the FSGW Newsletter. However, in some instances it is impossible to print an announcement in full due to space considerations. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news, with last priority given to out-of-town non-FSGW news.

The Editor
The Capitol Area Bluegrass and Old Time Music Association (CABOMA) holds open jam sessions on the second and fourth Sundays of each month, at the Lyon Park Community Center, North Fillmore St. at Pershing Dr., Arlington, from 2:00 to 6:00 p.m. For information call (703) 451-4785.

For information call 270-8960.

CHRISTMAS REVELS AUDITIONS

Volunteer singers, dancers, and instrumentalists are needed for the third annual Christmas Revels, a pageant of carols, dancing, and mumming in celebration of the Winter Solstice. This year's revels will be Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, Dec. 6, 7, & 8, at George Washington University's Lisner Auditorium. The show will celebrate America with material from Appalachian, Black American, Shaker, and New England traditions. FSGW members will be especially interested to know that the show will feature Kentucky folksinger Jean Ritchie. Much of the production will portray family Christmas traditions described in Jean's book, Singing Family of the Cumberlands.

Singers' auditions are Tuesday, Sept. 10 and Wednesday, Sept. 11, at St. Columba's Church, 4201 Albemarle St. NW (one block from the Tenleytown Metro stop), between 4:00 and 9:00 p.m. Auditions are informal; no sight-reading is required. Just bring a favorite carol, hymn, pub song, or folk song to sing, either accompanied or not. To set an audition appointment or get further information, call Mary Swope at (202) 364-8744.

FSGW VOLUNTEERS THANKED

FSGW volunteers provided hospitality at the dorms for the participants of the Smithsonian Festival of American Folklife. The Smithsonian sent along these thanks: The Smithsonian Institution and The National Park Service present to The Folklore Society of Greater Washington a Certificate of Appreciation in official recognition and appreciation of exceptional contribution to the Festival of American Folklife 1985.

It's people of all ages sharing the music, lore, and fellowship that have drawn so many to the Folklore Society over the years. If you've never been to a Getaway, why not join us for the fun this year? There's plenty of room, and everyone's welcome.

As in past years, the Getaway will start on Friday evening with a potluck supper in the dining hall. (Bring a special dish to share. Kitchen facilities will be available for reheating/refrigerating food.) After supper, you can choose between a dance party with live music in the dining hall and a song-swap in the boathouse or you can do a little of both.

All day Saturday and Sunday, there will be workshops in several locations on a wide variety of topics. So far, the program includes a selection of old favorites (blues, sea songs, gospel, ballads, parodies, and Sacred Harp songs) and new ideas (camp songs, honky-tonk music, supernatural songs, songs of disasters, mumblety-peg, and "sex in song." To name a few) to please singers, dancers, instrumentalists, story-tellers and crafts enthusiasts.

Once again, there will be a special area set aside for "Lead-Your-Own" workshops. If there's a workshop topic you've always wanted to explore, but have never been asked to lead, here is your chance! Sign-up sheets for these workshops will be posted beginning Friday night, and workshop leaders and topics will be announced at meals. You'll also have a chance to sign up and sing in the Getaway's Saturday or Sunday evening concerts.

A number of special invited guests also will share their music with us at this year's Getaway. They include Cliff Haslam, Barbara Carns, Bob Zentz, Heather Wood, Andy Wallace, David Jones, Merle Schlesinger, and Mark Gilston.

The cost of this great weekend, which includes six meals (lots of good food planned and cooked by FSGW), hearty midnight snacks, and lodging, is the same as it was last year—just $45.00 for adults and $30.00 for kids 3-15. (Kids 2 and under are admitted free.)

FSGW members get first preference in registration: those who send in their forms by Sept. 20 receive priority over non-member applications. After Sept. 20, all applications will be accepted in order of receipt. All applications, with payment in full, MUST be received by Tuesday, Oct. 1. (No registrations will be accepted without payment.)

There would be plenty of room for everyone who applies. However, specific requests for accommodations (i.e. bathrooms in cabins) can only be honored on a first-come, first-served basis, as these facilities are limited. So register early, using the form on the other side of this page. Registrations should be sent to: Jennifer Woods and Dolores Nichols, FSGW Getaway, 1220 N.Vermont St. Arlington, VA 22201. A letter confirming your registration will be sent, along with a map, shortly before the Getaway.

If you can't come for the whole weekend, you can still enjoy the Getaway as a day registrant. Day registration is $8.00 per day for FSGW members $10.00 for non-members ages 16 and over. Day registration for those age 3-15 is $4.00 for FSGW members, and $5.00 for non-members.

Daytime registration does not entitle you to meals or a cabin space. Day registrants must provide their own food, but cooking is not allowed at the Getaway site. Tent camping is available nearby, for a fee. (For information call Jennifer Woods at (703) 528-8537.) To register for the day, mail the form below with payment, or come to Lamp Letts and pay when you arrive.
