Nov. 8 Program--Jim Payne & Kelly Russell

We have come to know and appreciate many of the young musicians in the U.S. who have devoted themselves to seeking out and preserving the musical treasures of older traditional performers. Fortunately for us, this process has been occurring in other countries as well. The Nov. monthly program will feature the music of Newfoundland as performed by two such preservers of the culture, Jim Payne and Kelly Russell. Jim and Kelly are well known in Canada for their performances on fiddle, guitar, concertina, bouzouki, and dulcimer. Much of their effort however is dedicated to preserving the traditions they have learned from 85 yr. old Rufus Guincharg--a logger, sailor, fisherman, and one of the last old time Newfoundland fiddlers. They have toured and performed with Guincharg in England, Europe, and Japan, as well as producing books and records documenting the traditions. On Nov. 8, Jim and Kelly will be in Washington to perform the traditional songs and music of their region as well as their own songs. They will also play for The FSGW Sunday dance and offer workshops (see articles elsewhere in this Newsletter). The concert will start at 8:30 p.m. at the WES Hall, 7750 16th St. N.W. Admission is free for FSGW members, $4.00 for non-members.

Doug Elliot--Nov. 15 Spec. Event

On Friday Nov. 15 FSGW brings Doug Elliot from North Carolina for an evening of storytelling. Doug is a naturalist, herbalist, wildlife photographer, basket maker, teacher and bee keeper, and his tales draw upon his rich experiences and love for the natural environment. With his fine ear for dialect, he has collected some delightful stories in his travels around the country. Whether he tells a personal anecdote, an ancient Indian legend, a humorous haunted tale or an outrageous possum poem, Doug brings something special to his audiences.

This Special Event concert will begin at 8:30 p.m. at the WES Hall, 7750 16th St. N.W. Admission is $4.00 for FSGW members, $6.00 for non-members.
Nov. 30 Tompkins County Horseflies

On Saturday Nov. 30, the FSGW will present the neo-primitive old-time music of the Tompkins County Horseflies, one of the most innovative and exciting bands in the current old-time music scene. Hailing from Ithaca, New York, their music has been described as "Coming from the place where Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and the Caribbean meet." And that just about sums it up. Their music is traditional, new wave, and terrific.

Judy Hyman plays fiddle, Richie Stearns, banjo, Jeff Claus, guitar, and John Haywood on bass. Together they have played concerts, festivals and dances throughout the U.S., Canada and Europe, and recently released an album on Rounder Records.

Clogger Rodney Sutton will be joining the band to dance a few tunes.

The 8:30 p.m. concert will take place at the WES auditorium, 7750 16th St. N.W. Admission is $4.00 for FSGW members and $6.00 for non-members.

Bok, Trickett, Muir Tickets

The FSGW is pleased to bring back Gordon Bok, Ed Trickett, and Ann Mayo Muir for a special holiday concert on Saturday Dec. 14 at Gaston Hall, Georgetown University. Advance tickets are available now, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope and a check (payable to FSGW) to "Bok, Trickett, and Muir Tickets" c/o Leslie Barr 7004 Sycamore Ave, Takoma Park, MD 20912. Tickets are $5.00 for FSGW members and $7.00 for non-members.

OPEN SING

Nobody’s purfeck, they say, but Rita Ferrara wants to hear all the gory details in her "Misteaks, miscalculations, and misunderstandings" this month’s Open Sing. The Sing will be held Nov. 1, from 8:30 to midnight at the Washington Ethical Society, 7750 16th St. N.W.

Bring songs about goofs, blunders, minor errors and horrendous snafus, or just come to join the singing and camaraderie. Admission is $2.00 and will include light refreshments.

Dec.'s Sing will bring us Bob Hitchcock leading on "Heroes and Villains"

GOSPEL SING

You don’t have to be an able bodied seaman to sing sea chanteys, and you don’t have to be born again to sing gospel. Atheists, Pentacostals, Jews, Muslims, Methodists and whatever are all equally welcome. This is not a religious service. The atmosphere is relaxed, the singing joyous. Usually the singing is unaccompanied, but if someone brings an instrument, so much the better.

This month’s Gospel Sing will be at the home of Kathie Mack in Takoma Park, starting at 4:00 p.m. on Nov. 17. Call Kathie at (301) 270-5367 for directions, and don’t forget to bring something for the potluck.

STORYTELLERS

This month’s storytelling meeting will be on Saturday Nov. 23 at the home of Bruce Schneier in Silver Spring, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Call 445-5835 for more information and directions.

BOARD MEETING

The next FSGW Board meeting will be on Wednesday, Nov. 6 at 8:00 p.m. at the home of Special Events Chair Leslie Barr, in Takoma Park, MD. For directions call Leslie in the evenings at (301) 270-4483.
EDITORIAL NOTE

Every effort is made to include all notices submitted by the deadline to the FSGW Newsletter. However, in some instances it is impossible to print an announcement in full due to space considerations. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news, with last priority given to out-of-town non-FSGW news.

ROY HARRIS TO PRESENT NOV. 9 HOUSE CONCERT

English folksinger Roy Harris will return to Washington on Saturday, November 9, for a house concert at the home of Uray Potter in McLean, Virginia. Considered one of his country's premier singers of traditional songs, Roy sings ballads, lyric songs, topical songs, and a wealth of other material—all of which he presents to audiences with great style and humor.

A full-time singer since 1964, Roy has made many solo LPs (the most recent one issued in September), and also has recorded with such British folk song notables as Martin Carthy and the late A.L. Lloyd. Born in Nottingham, where he still lives, Roy founded the Nottingham Traditional Music Club in 1967, and also has been the principal organizer of the Loughboro Folk Festival.

The concert begins at 8:30 p.m. For more information, call Kathy Hickerson at 684-2879 (day) or 270-1107 (eve.). For directions, call Uray at 821-1373.

FOLK ARCHIVE NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

The Archive of Folk Culture at the Library of Congress needs volunteers to help with typing, filing, searching, etc. If you are free a few hours a week (on weekdays) and would like to help with this exciting and interesting work, call Joe Hickerson or Gerry Parsons at 287-5510.
