BOK, TRICKETT & MUIR Special event Dec. 14

Back by popular demand, the Folklore Society of Greater Washington is pleased to present Gordon Bok, Ed Trickett, and Ann Mayo Muir in concert on Saturday, Dec. 14 at 8:30 p.m. As advance ticket sales indicate many of you need no introduction to these extraordinary musicians, who together have been delighting audiences for almost ten years.

The three are not a "trio" in the conventional sense. Even sharing a concert stage, each retains his or her own musical identity. The texture of their concerts is extremely rich and varied as each brings their own tastes and experiences in music. You may hear sea or mountain songs, dance tunes, stories, classical pieces, and an array of instrumental combinations. The sense of wholeness the audience feels from their performances arises from their mutual affection and respect for each other and their music.

The concert will take place at Gaston Hall at Georgetown University. Admission is $5.00 for FSGW members and $7.00 for non-members. Advance tickets are available by sending a check payable to FSGW and a SASE to "Bok, Trickett, and Muir Tickets" c/o Leslie Barr 7004 Sycamore Ave. Takoma Park, MD 20912. If checks are received too late to return tickets by mail, they will be held at the door the night of the concert.

ROY BOOKBINDER--Program Dec. 13

Roy Bookbinder says if he hadn't met bluesman Rev. Gary Davis, "I'd be respectable now." Instead of that awful fate, Bookbinder became a nationally known interpreter of country blues and finger-style guitar. Since studying and working with Gary Davis, Bookbinder has played and sung all across the country and toured with musicians including Bonnie Raitt, John Hartford, Doc Watson, and B.B. King. He will pull his Airstream motorhome into Washington on Dec. 13 for our Dec. Program. Plan to attend this evening of laid back blues and stories of the road. The concert begins at 8:30 p.m. at the WES Hall, 7750 16th St. N.W. Admission is free for FSGW members and $4.00 for non-members.
WFF VOLUNTEERS SOUGHT

Organization is beginning for the Washington Folk Festival, to be held June 7 and 8, 1986 at Glen Echo Park, Glen Echo, Md. This is the Festival's 10th Anniversary. We want to make it a special celebration, and your help is needed.

What makes the Festival so extraordinary is that it runs completely on volunteer effort. Including the donated talent of musicians, craftspeople, and behind the scenes staff like sound technicians and stage managers, all of whom are from the Washington area. One reason the FSGW is able to produce an event enjoyed by some 20,000 people over the course of the day of the Festival, or to help plan the Festival for any evening concert, and a dance featuring the New England Band Swallowtail, whose members will be participating in workshops earlier in the day.

Program of events and the full bill for the evening concert have not yet been set, but tentative plans call for Helen Schneyer, storyteller Al Booth and the Mill Run Dulcimer Band, plus others to entertain in the evening concert.

Prices for the mini are $5.00 for FSGW members, and $7.00 for non-members for a day or evening session, or you may purchase a combined ticket for both sessions, $7.00 for FSGW members and $9.00 for non-members. Children under 14 are half-price, and children under two are admitted free.

Make plans to attend, and make plans to volunteer too, to make this a fine event. To volunteer contact Bob Clayton or Jennifer Woods at (703) 528-0537.

MINI-FESTIVAL NEWS

The 1986 edition of FSGW's annual mini-Festival comes our way Saturday, Jan. 25 at Takoma Park Jr. High School, 7611 Piney Branch Rd. Takoma Park. The noon to midnight event features daytime music and dance workshops, mini-concerts, crafts and food. The evening is devoted to an old-fashioned sampler concert, and a dance featuring the New England Band Swallowtail, whose members will be participating in workshops earlier in the day.

Program of events and the full bill for the evening concert have not yet been set, but tentative plans call for Helen Schneyer, storyteller Al Booth and the Mill Run Dulcimer Band, plus others to entertain in the evening concert.

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The FSGW Board met on Oct. 2, and Nov. 6, Among other motions passed, the budget for 1985-1986 was approved. The budget assumes a 5% growth in membership, and a relatively optimistic projection for FSGW programs and events.

OPEN SING

Bob Hitchcock wants people willing to brave the Dec. weather (and pre-Christmas shopping traffic) to sing of brave deeds and nefarious doings in Dec. 6th's Open Sing, "Heroes and Villains," at the Washington Ethical Society Auditorium, 7750 16th St. N.W. The admission to the 8:30 p.m. singing session is $2.00 and includes light refreshments (wine and punch).

You won't need to learn any new songs for Jan.'s Open Sing. Tom McHenry wants to hear "Oh, no! Not again!!" Songs that have been OVERDONE. See you on Friday Jan. 3, 1986.

GOSPEL SING

No copy was submitted for the Gospel Sing this month.

SACRED HARP SING

The Sacred Harp Sing for Dec. will be held on Dec. 15 at the home of Peggy and Hunter Jones. Call 762-6343 or write to Peggy for more information.

STORYTELLERS

Storytelling and Cookie Exchange will be on Saturday Dec. 7 at 8 p.m. at the home of Richard Henderson in Silver Spring, Md. Please don't wait until the 7th to call 588-2799 for directions.

BOARD MEETING

The next FSGW Board meeting will be on Wednesday, Dec. 4 at 8 p.m. at the home of Vice President Jennifer Woods in Arlington, VA. For directions call Jennifer at 528-0537.
EDITORIAL NOTE

Every effort is made to include all notices submitted by the deadline to the FSGW Newsletter. However, in some instances it is impossible to print an announcement in full due to space considerations. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news, with last priority given to out-of-town non-FSGW news.

Volunteers Needed

The Holy Cross Hospital Adult Day Care Center seeks volunteers to help with the program on a regular basis, as well as performing volunteers to share their talents on one or two occasions. The Center, located in Silver Spring, is a community based program that offers social, recreational, and rehabilitative activities to elderly and medically disabled adults. The Center wishes to extend a special thanks to the following people who have shared their knowledge and talents: Earl Callen, Kathleen Spenser, Steve Hickman, David Eisner, and Bill Jenkins. If you have time available or know anyone who might like to volunteer, please call the Center at 565-1878, or call Elinor Preston at 652-6355.

Cathy Fink Celebrates New Album

Cathy Fink is celebrating the release of her new album, "The Leading Role," with a concert at the Birchmere, 3901 Mt. Vernon Ave. in Alexandria on Dec. 8. Cathy will be joined by her band mates Pete Kennedy, Mike Stein, Marcy Marxer and Bryan Smith. Admission is $17.00.

On Dec. 8 Cathy will continue the celebration at the House of Musical Traditions with a record signing party, from 2 to 5 p.m. For more information about these and other album events, call 270-3873.

Holiday House Concert by the Hickersons

An evening of seasonal carols and songs, hot cider, Christmas cookies, and choruses around the wood stove is planned for Friday, Dec. 20 at 8:30 p.m., when Joe and Kathy Hickerson will present a holiday house concert at the home of Ursy Potter and Carter Hearn in McLean, VA.

Joe and Kathy sing traditional songs from North America, England, Scotland, and Ireland, accompanying their singing on guitars, Appalachian dulcimer, and cello. Their program of holiday music, "The Holiday Connection," was broadcast nationally by NPR as part of its Folk Festival USA series. The Dec. 20 house concert will feature a mixture of familiar and not-so-familiar holiday songs, plus plenty of chances to harmonize on choruses with your friends.

Admission is $14.00, which includes refreshments. Ursy and Carter's home is located at 598 Saigon Rd., McLean. For directions call them at (703) 821-1373. For more information on the concert, call Joe or Kathy at 270-3973 (evenings).

New Tapes Available

Two FSGW members have tapes available in time for the holidays. Anne Sheldon has recorded "Poems of Celtic Legend," a collection of Tennyson, Yeats and Arnold from the early legends of the British Isles. Al Booth has recorded eight of Robert W. Service's Yukon Poems. L.Cee, McGrew, Piteous Fete and One-Eyed Mike are all there along with some others. Both tapes are available from either Anne or Al for $8.00 each, add $.50 for mail.

A Thank You From Roy Harris

Dear Friends of FSGW,

I'd like to send a few words of thanks before I board the plane back home to England.

Firstly, thanks to Ursy Potter for "housing" my concert, and secondly to those who attended and patiently endured my laryngitis affected voice. Nice to know I have such friends in town. Here's to the next occasion, and to a return to a full voice.

Best Wishes,

Roy Harris.

Glen Echo News

The Glen Echo Gallery will open its Tenth Annual Holiday Show of Fine Arts and Crafts on Saturday, Nov. 30 and Sunday Dec. 1 from noon to 5 p.m. There will be gifts available for purchase in a variety of media, pottery, fabric, wearable art, Christmas decorations, carousel items and more. News From the Folk Archive

The Archive of Folk Culture of the Library of Congress has revamped its image and its intern program. In Sept. the Archive published a two-color brochure describing its history, collections, services, publications, and Friends Fund. The cover photo documents the March 17, 1964 visit to the Archive by Mississippi John Hurt, and also shows a young Joe Hickerson in rapt attention.

In addition, the Archive announced last month an expansion of its volunteer intern program. Beginning Sept. 1986, there will be openings for a series of paid internships for graduate students of folklore, ethnomusicology and the like. For further information or copies of the brochure, contact the Archive Library of Congress, Washington, D.C. 20540, or call (202) 224-5510.
