10th Annual Washington Folk Festival

Hundreds of talented local musicians, craftspeople, and storytellers will help the Folklore Society celebrate the Tenth Annual Washington Folk Festival on May 31 and June 1 at Glen Echo Park, MD. This year's Festival, sponsored in cooperation with the National Park Service, will bring Washington-area residents an extraordinary sampler of music from many different national and cultural traditions.

Watch an Indonesian shadow puppet show accompanied by the gongs and chimes of a gamelan orchestra; listen to the eerie sound of alphorns from Switzerland. Sing along to old favorites from Woody Guthrie or Uncle Dave Macon; listen to blues guitar and harmonica or old-time hillbilly music; come hear all kinds of work songs, from rail-lining calls to lullabyes. Join the dancing, from zydeco to flamenco, Morris to swing.

Storytellers will entertain with folktales from Africa and Appalachia, and stories of scandals and ghosts. And if that isn't enough to fascinate the kids, there will be a special Children's Area with a full program of music and crafts specially designed for youngsters. In the crafts area, all ages can watch a potter at the wheel, a stonecarver making a grotesque for the National Cathedral, and demonstrations of many other crafts, including weaving, spinning, quilting and jewelry-making.

The Festival is free to the public and will take place rain or shine. This year there will be the added security of large tents covering both performers and audiences at the two biggest stages. Free parking is available at the Park, but space is limited and carpooling is encouraged. Or take the N-8 Metrobus from Friendship Heights to the Park. There will be some concession food for sale, but many people prefer to bring their own food and picnic under the trees.

Whether it's your first Festival or your tenth, come help us celebrate this special anniversary year -- a weekend that is always

Rain or Shine

Ola Belle Reed -- June 13 Program

Ola Belle Reed, a pioneer and matriarch of country music, will be featured at the FSGW monthly program for June, the last for this season. Ola Belle was born 70 years ago in Ashe County, NC, and grew up with a variety of musical influences. Both her father and grandfather were fiddlers with musical contacts all over the mountains. She was also influenced by black music sources and the music of the Carter Family. She sang with Arthur Woods and the North Carolina Ridge Runners, and later with her brother Alex in the New River Boys. With her husband, Bud, she has enjoyed a long career of festival and radio performances. Though Ola Belle lives not far from Washington, she rarely performs here. Be sure to attend this concert by an outstanding authority on rural music and life. The concert will begin at 8:30 p.m. at the WES Hall, 7750 16th St. NW. Admission is free for FSGW members, $4.00 for non-members.

Holdstock & MacLeod June 19 House Concert

On Thursday, June 19, the British duo of Holdstock and MacLeod will return to Washington for an FSGW house concert at the home of Ursy Potter and Carter Hearn in McLean, VA. Dick Holdstock, born in Sittingham, Kent, is a fine singer of traditional and contemporary songs from his native England. Allan MacLeod, who hails from Armadale, Scotland, contributes ballads and lyric songs -- old and new -- of his country. The pair are known for their rousing renditions of sea songs and chanteys, their rich harmonies, and their ability to get audiences to join in on choruses.

Now living in the San Francisco area, where they are resident singers at the Castle Folk Club, Holdstock and MacLeod have been performing together for more than seven years. Whether singing unaccompanied or adding guitar and mandolin, they are a musical treat. If you haven't heard this fine duo in one of their previous FSGW concerts, be at this one and get your summer off to a singing start!

The concert begins at 8:30 p.m.; admission is $4.00 for FSGW members, $5.00 for non-members (No Advance Sales). For information and directions call Ursy or Carter, 821-1373.

Helen Schneyer Farewell Concert -- June 21

Well, folks, it's the end of an era. She's retiring. Leaving Washington. Moving to Vermont. Founding FSGW member Helen Schneyer is skipping town. But we won't let her go without one last chance to see her 40 pounds of Navajo jewelry and her white dresses — and to hear that wonderful voice belting out gospel songs, ballads, mining songs, Victorian parlor music, and heartrending "mother" songs. Helen Schneyer will present her "Farewell to Washington" concert on Saturday, June 21 at 8:30 p.m. at Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church, 6601 Bradley Blvd., in Bethesda. You won't want to miss it — Vermont is a 1-o-o-o-o-o-ng way away!

Helen, as one of FSGW's Founding Mothers, is one of a handful of FSGW members who have been active in the Society for all of its 21 years. She has always been willing to share her music at Washington Folk Festivals (all ten of them), Mini-Festivals, samplers, and benefit concerts. And what music it has been! Whether Helen sings a cappella or with her own piano accompaniment, whether alone or with family and friends, her voice always fills the room.

She has sung for President Jimmy Carter, and Cosmopolitan Record critic Nat Hentoff once called her "a national resource." She has made two solo LPs on the Folk-Legacy label. She has toured with avant garde composer John Cage. She has presented concerts to hundreds of audiences around the country and, in recent years, has gained a national audience through her appearances on NPR's A Prairie Home Companion.

The best thing about Helen, though, is that she obviously loves to sing. You can tell it the minute she opens her mouth. Helen transfers her love of her music to her audiences, who immediately find themselves singing in 50-part harmony. (Don't ask how; it's magic!)

Come sing along on Saturday, June 21. Admission is $4.00 for FSGW members, $6.00 for non-members (No Advance Sales). For more information call the FSGW Hotline at (703) 281-2228 (a local call from most Washington-area phones).

The Psaltery To Perform July 12 Concert

On Saturday, July 12, FSGW and the Embassy of Canada will co-sponsor a Washington debut concert by The Psaltery, a talented duo from Orono, ME. Liliane Labbe, a fine guitarist and singer in both English and French, brings to the partnership a wealth of traditional French-Canadian and French folk songs, some of which she accompanies with clogging. Don Hinkley is a singer, a songwriter, and an extraordinary guitarist. Together, they present a varied repertoire of traditional and contemporary English and French songs and tunes that should guarantee a most enjoyable evening.

The duo has toured together since 1974, presenting concerts in the U.S., Canada, France, and Italy. The Psaltery has been featured on A Prairie Home Companion and on Canada's CBC radio and television stations. Their most recent recording, Un Canadien Errant, is a collection of French-Canadian material on the Philo label. They also have recorded on the Velodrome label.

The concert begins at 8:30 p.m., Saturday, July 12 at the WES auditorium, 7750 16th St. NW (near Kalmia Rd.). Admission is $4.00 for FSGW members, $6.00 for non-members (No Advance Sales). For information call the FSGW Hotline, (703) 281-2228.

VOLUNTEERS STILL NEEDED

This year -- as every other year -- the Washington Folk Festival is free to the public, thanks to the generosity of all the performers and the hundreds of volunteers who do everything from run sound to hand out programs. Thanks, as well, to generous area businesses and individual donors who contribute the modest budget with which FSGW mounts this two-day celebration. It's not too late to help with your time or other support. Call 978-3735 to volunteer or 229-5845 to give. Or come by the FSGW desk during the Festival. Without people like you there would be no Festival!

OPEN SING

According to leader Clarke Prouty, the topic for June’s Open Sing will be "songs about your origins — where do you come from? If you’re ashamed of your birthplace or don’t know where you came from, sing about a place you wish you were from. Fact or fancy, sing about your start!" The Sing will be Friday, June 6.

Because of Independence Day, the Open Sing will be one week later than usual in July, on Friday, July 11, when Craig Williams will lead. The topic is a favorite: "Follow the Leader," in which you can’t plan ahead what you’re going to sing, but must sing something inspired by the song of the leader or the person just before you.

George Stephens will lead the August Open Sing, in a topic to be announced later. All Open Sings begin at 8:30 p.m. and are held at the Washington Ethical Society auditorium, 7750 16th ST. NW (at Kalmia St.). The $2.00 admission includes light refreshments.

GOSPEL SING

The June Gospel Sing will be Sunday, June 8, at Kathie Mack’s in Takoma Park. Call 270-5367 for directions. The following month’s sing will be Sunday, July 13 at the home of Peggy and Hunter Jones in Potomac. Call 762-6343. Singing starts at 4:00 p.m., and everyone should bring something for a covered dish supper at 6:00 p.m.

FSGW ANNUAL PICNIC

Attention folkies! Now is the time for the annual FSGW picnic! Bring your food (enough to share with a few others), drinks, blankets, lawn chairs, grills, suntan lotion, and friends. Also essential are your voices and musical instruments. Come prepared to enjoy good food, good music, and good company. Be ready to make new friends and meet old ones. The picnic will be Saturday, July 26, from noon until dark, at the home of Dean Clamons and Carly Gewirz on Richards Lane in Clifton, VA. For more information, call Dolores Nichols at 938-4564 in the evenings. On the day of the picnic, call Dean or Carly at 631-9655.

DIRECTIONS: I-66 West from the Beltway to Rte. 50 West Exit (Fair Oaks Mall). Go past the mall to the light at West Ox Rd. (Rte. 608) and turn left. Follow West Ox to Rte. 29 and turn right.
