Scottish Singer Ed Miller October 15

Scottish folksinger Ed Miller, who wowed FSGW members in his Washington debut concert in 1981, will return to D.C. for an encore performance on Saturday, October 18th, at the WES Auditorium, 7750 16th St., NW (near Kalvia). The concert begins at 8:30 pm. Admission is $4. for FSGW members, and $6. for nonmembers, with a $1. discount for senior citizens. Doors will open at approximately 7:45. Tickets are available ONLY at the door.

A native of Edinburgh, Scotland, Ed Miller has spent most of the last 17 years in Austin, Texas. As a result, he spices his extensive repertoire of traditional and contemporary Scottish songs with an occasional number like the "West Texas Waltz," or other cowboy gems. A fine singer and guitarist who has won singing prizes at several Scottish folk festivals, his programs include lyric songs, ballads, and more recent songs about modern Scotland on subjects ranging from urban renewal, soccer rivalries, and emigration, to North Sea oil and nationalism. He has been involved in the Scots folksong revival since the early 1960s, when he was organizer and resident singer at two Edinburgh folk clubs. Since moving to the U.S. in 1968, he has produced folk music radio programs, obtained a Ph.D. in folklore, and served as musical director of the annual Pioneer Farm Folk Festival in Austin.

You won't want to miss this opportunity to hear a warm, witty, and wonderful performer!

GETAWAY XXII
OCTOBER 10-12

October 10 thru 12 (Columbus Day Weekend) are the dates for this year's edition of the FSGW Getaway, one of the oldest folk music campouts, and one of the most enjoyable, too. It's Friday night through Sunday night at YMCA's Camp Letts, on the shore of the Chesapeake Bay near nearby Annapolis, MD.

A pot-luck supper starts Friday evening off, followed by the FSGW Junior Prom (sock hop), with disc jockey Tom McHenry and a song swap 'til the wee hours. Saturday has music, song, and dance workshops, craft teach-ins, storytelling, and informal music-making, plus an evening concert and a ghost story spook-in, too. Sunday has more of the same, complete with evening concert. Campers and "day trippers" alike will enjoy the events and meeting new people, too. (There's nothing like the feeling you get from chopping a hundred onions in a kitchen full of fellow folkies.

There is still plenty of space in cabins for the Getaway. Another option many choose is "daytime registration", which admits you to all events, but excludes meals and cabin space. To come for the weekend, send a registration form (in Sept. Newsletter or flyers available from the Membership table at FSGW events.) with a check for $55. per adult, ($30. per child under 15, under 2 free.) to FSGW Getaway, c/o Jody, P.O.Box 553, Bladensburg, MD 20710-0553. Registration for "daytime only" is done at the Camp upon arrival. Costs are $8. per adult per a day ($10 for nonmembers). Children are half-price, and under five are free.

INSIDE: House Concert, Dances
Jez Lowe & Jake Walton
House Concert Oct. 8

Jez Lowe and Jake Walton, two of England's top solo performers, will be returning to Washington on Wednesday, October 8th, for an FSGW house concert at the home of Ursy Potter and Carter Hearn in McLean, VA. For directions to the concert, which begins at 8:30 pm, call Ursy or Carter at (703)821-1373. Admission is $5. for FSGW members, and $6. for nonmembers, with a $1. discount for senior citizens.

Versatile musicians, Jez and Jake play hurdy gurdy, cittern, guitar, dulcimer, whistle, and harmonica. Both are skilled songwriters who perform their own material as well as traditional songs and tunes from the British Isles, Brittany, and Spain. Jake, who lives in London, has a particular affinity for Cornwall and music based on Celtic traditions. Jez, from the northeast of England, focuses most of his musical interest on the coal mining region that is his home. Both have solo albums. Jez and Jake's long-awaited duo album on Fellside Records should be available at the October 8th concert.

FSGW SUNDAY DANCES

The FSGW Sunday Night Dance is not a beginners' dance per se, but all are welcome. Each dance is explained by the caller and a brief walk-through is done if needed. Dances start promptly at 8 pm and end about 10:30 pm. Admission is $3.50 for FSGW Members, $5. for nonmembers, unless otherwise noted below. All dances are held at the Spanish Ballroom at Glen Echo Park, Glen Echo, MD. The schedule for October:

Oct. 5- CONNIE WARING calling with SPAELIMENNIR. A fine combination of contras and couple dancing. Connie joins us from the Philadelphia area and Spaelimenninir from the Faroe Islands.

Oct. 12- TRISH MILLER AND THE ST. REGIS STRINGBAND. Trish, member of the Green Grass Cloggers, a caller for years, visits us from Asheville, NC. St. Regis returns to us from upstate New York. They will put together a high-spirited evening of squares and contras.

Oct. 19- The timely return of the ever popular SWALLOWTAIL. Prepare for a tantalizing evening of your favorite New England Contras....need more be said?

Oct. 26- An energizing evening with JOHN KRUM and three top-notch Cape Breton musicians: HOWIE MCDONALD, JOHN MORRIS RANKIN, AND HARVEY BEATON. John Krum visits us from Philadelphia after a whirlwind summer of camps and festivals. Howie, John and Harvey are some of the very best of their area so we are in for not only a contra treat but some outstanding music.

"Ragtime Revival" Workshop, Dance Nov. 15

On Saturday, November 15, FSGW and the WASHINGTON SWING DANCE COMMITTEE host a unique dance event at the historic FOREST GLEN BALLROOM, at the Walter Reed Army Medical facility in Silver Spring, Maryland. Built at the turn of the century, this elegant circular ballroom is an appropriate setting for the RAGTIME REVIVAL, adorned with balconies, domed ceiling, stained glass windows and wooden dance floor.

RICHARD POWERS, Vintage Dance Master from Cincinnati, begins the event with a workshop from 10 am to 5 pm. He will teach social dances of the early 20th century such as One Step Variations, early Tango and the Hesitation Waltz.

At 8:30 pm, return to the Ballroom where the fabled DOCTOR SCANTLIN AND HIS IMPERIAL PALMS ORCHESTRA will play rags, blues, tangos, and swing music for your dancing pleasure.

ADVANCE TICKETS ONLY! Workshop is limited to 150, the dance, 200. Balance of sexes will be maintained. Period attire is encouraged. Food may not be brought to the ballroom but lunch is available through the Officers Club for $5. in advance. Admission: WORKSHOP is $8. for FSGW members and $10. for nonmembers. DANCE is $6. for FSGW members, and $8. for nonmembers. LUNCH is $5.

Make check for workshop, dance and lunch payable to: Washington Swing Dance Committee. Mail with SELF-ADDRESSED-STAMPED ENVELOPE to: Ragtime Revial, c/o Anne Townsend, 5127 Baltimore Ave., Bethesda, MD 20816. For more information call Anne Townsend at (301)229-5845 or Leslie Plant at (301)270-6270.
Getaway XXII October 10-12

DIRECTIONS: From town or the Beltway (I-95), take Rte. 50 east toward Annapolis to the Davidsonville exit (Rte. 424). Follow 424 to the 1st light, and turn left on Rte. 214. Stay on 214 across Rte. 468 and Rte. 2 to the camp (on your right).

NOTE: The Getaway this year coincides with the Jewish holiday of Yom Kippur, despite an FSGW policy of avoiding religious holidays. This is due to the fact that Camp Letts set aside the Columbus Day weekend for us and booked the other possible weekends before FSGW requested a different weekend. FSGW and the Getaway Committee apologize, and will seek to avoid such conflicts in the future.

More FSGW News

OPEN SING
Ed Schaffer will lead the October Open Sing; his topic: "Something Old, Something New."--as in the first and most recent songs you've learned, and he'd like to know WHY you learned them, on Friday, October 3rd at 8:30 pm, at the Washington Ethical Society Auditorium, 7750 16th St., NW (near Kalma). #2 Admission includes light refreshments.

Bill Day will lead the November Open Sing Friday, November 7th, with the topic "Mundus decipit (mundus vulpe decipi) (Things are not always as they seem--and it may be just as well). The world deceives (and likes it).

(The Fall Series will be held on the 2nd Tuesday each month thru December). This is not a beginners' workshop, but all are welcome. Admission is $3.50 for FSGW members; $5. for non-members. Guest leader for the evening will be Diane Schmit, who will review dances on the program of the Baltimore Playford Ball (Oct. 25, see out-of-town events). Music will be by Liz Donaldson and John O'Loughlin. For information call Peter Fricke at (301)565-9530.

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS
The FSGW Board met on the 3rd of September at the home of Program Chair, Mary Cliff. Among other actions the Board:
• Approved FSGW's 1986-87 budget.
• Approved loan of Sound System to Joel Bluestein for Cajun Dance & children's concert.
• Approved loan of Sound System as needed monthly for the 86-87 season of the Swing Dance Committee.
• Approved new classified ad policy for Newsletter. (See separate article)

NEW CLASSIFIED AD POLICY
Starting with ads for the November FSGW Newsletter there is a new classified ad policy. Instead of 15 words for $1. it is now 20 words for $2. for private individuals or groups, and $5. for 20 words for commercial interests (HMT, Olde Towne Music, Maggie's Studio, etc.) The limit is still 3 ads per issue, but there is no longer a limit on how many times a year you may submit ads. Also, remember YOU MUST BE AN FSGW MEMBER TO PLACE AN AD. Classifieds have also moved to the last page before the calendar.

HELP! GRAPHIC ARTISTS WANTED!
If you have graphic arts skills, and would be interested in designing, laying out, and pasting-up work for FSGW concerts' publicity, please contact Sondra Stigen at (H)565-2395 or (w) 245-7773. Your help would be welcome.
DEADLINE FOR NOVEMBER ISSUE!

The deadline for the November issue of this Newsletter is Wednesday, October 15th. All copy is due at the home of editor Jennifer Woods, NO LATER THAN MIDNIGHT, Wednesday, October 15th. No copy will be accepted over the telephone. Please include a phone number where you can be reached in case the editor has any questions concerning your copy. Send all copy for October to:

Jennifer Woods, FSGW Newsletter
1220 N. Vermont St.,
Arlington, VA 22201

For those who are new, or have lost the number, and have questions or need directions to hand-deliver copy, call (703) 528-8537.

ADVANCE WARNING ON DECEMBER NEWSLETTER COVERAGE AND EARLY DEADLINE FOR THE MARCH NEWSLETTER

The December issue of this Newsletter will cover the first weekend of January, 1987 due to the fact that the editor feels she can't guarantee the January issue getting out (due to holidays with both the printer and the post office) early enough to cover events that weekend.

And due to the fact that February is such a short month the deadline for the March issue will be Tuesday, February 10th in order to give the editor enough time to get the Newsletter typed and pasted-up so everyone will have the March issue in time for March events. The editor thanks you for your cooperation in this matter.

FSGW EDITORIAL POLICY

We try to print all copy that is relevant to FSGW's purpose, and membership (Quote from the FSGW Bylaws: "The main purpose of the Society is to further the understanding, investigation, appreciation, and performance of the traditional folk music and folklore of the American people.") However, in most instances, it is simply impossible to print announcements in full. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news, followed by listings of out-of-town, Non-FSGW events.

GENERAL CONCERT POLICIES

Unless announced otherwise, FSGW DOES NOT SELL ADVANCE TICKETS TO ANY EVENT!!!! When advance tickets are available, information on purchase will be published in the Newsletter well in advance of the event. (1-3 months in advance) Admission prices announced in the Newsletter are the prices that are charged at the door for members and nonmembers. (Children under 12 are admitted for half the adult price; senior citizens receive a $1. discount.)

The doors generally open at around 7:45 for an 8:30 concert, although audience members may have to wait to be seated until all sound checks are completed.

Other general rules-of-thumb include: [1] NO private taping of any FSGW concert; [2] NO flash photography of any FSGW concert without the expressed permission of (a) the FSGW person in charge, and (b) the performer; [3] NO smoking, eating, or drinking in the concert halls.

FSGW TAPING POLICY

When FSGW schedules concerts, the Society assures the performers that only an official, archival recording will be made—with their permission, of course—of their performance. It is FSGW's policy to allow ABSOLUTELY NO TAPING of any Society concert by individuals. In many cases, performers allow FSGW to make listening copies of official concert tapes for members. When this is allowed, a member pays: 1) a fee for the recording engineer's time, 2) the cost of cassette tape(s), AND 3) a royalty fee for the performer. For more information on obtaining material from FSGW's tape archive, contact our tape archivist, Mike Rivers at (703)241-7445.
