ED TRICKETT FEB. 28

The music of erstwhile FSGW member Ed Trickett is familiar to many Washington folk music fans, but audiences seldom get the treat of a whole evening of Ed's singing. A rare exception will be a special FSGW solo concert on Saturday, February 28, when Ed will bring his wonderful songs and guitar and hammered dulcimer playing to the WES auditorium, 7750 Sixteenth St., N.W. (just south of the D.C./Silver Spring line near Kalmia Rd.). The concert begins at 8:30 pm. Admission is $4. for FSGW members and $6. for nonmembers, with a $1. discount for senior citizens. Tickets are available ONLY at the door; doors open at approximately 7:45 pm.

Ed has been collecting and interpreting traditional and tradition-based folksongs for more than 20 years. His repertoire includes a wide range of ballads, sea songs, and songs of love and protest, which he accompanies on six- and twelve-string guitar, hammered dulcimer and piano. Beginning with his participation as a member of The Golden Ring (Folk Legacy records) in 1964, Ed has sung and played on more than 30 LP records, including three solo LPs and five with Gordon Bok and Ann Mayo Muir, all on the Folk Legacy label. Don't miss this special special event.

Norman Kennedy February 13 Program

Scottish music comes to FSGW Friday, February 13, when Norman Kennedy returns for our February program, at 8:30 pm in the WES auditorium, 7750 Sixteenth St., N.W. The red-haired weaver (somewhat more silver-haired now) absorbed an impressive number of the old songs in his Aberdeen childhood. Both his parents were good singers, and for a time Jeannie Robertson lived across the road. Music was a part of daily life. When he later sang with a traveling dance group, folks would teach him their oldest songs.

Norman Kennedy still knows those old songs, still sings beautifully, still has that wonderful twinkle in his eye. And isn't it always the case that the finest traditional singers have the best stories to tell us about the songs, too? We'll hear ballads and broadsides, mouth music and work songs. During the British Folk Revival, Norman spent several years singing in folk clubs. Invited to the Newport Folk Festival in 1965, Norman's lived in the US ever since, spending five years as Master Weaver in Colonial Williamsburg, and since 1975, heading the Marshfield School of Weaving in Vermont.

FSGW programs are free to members, $4. for nonmembers. NO advance tickets.

INSIDE: Orrin Star, Ian MacGregor

Flatpicker Orrin Star In Special Event, Feb. 7

"Fun songs and fancy picking" is how National Flatpicking Champion Orrin Star describes his music. He'll bring his dazzling guitar, mandolin, and banjo playing, wide repertoire of songs, and wry sense of humor to Washington on Saturday, February 7, in an FSGW concert at Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church, 6601 Bradley Blvd., Bethesda. The concert begins at 8:30 pm. Admission is $4. for FSGW members, $6. for nonmembers, with a $1. discount for senior citizens. Tickets are available ONLY at the door; doors open at approximately 7:45 pm.

A folk and bluegrass performer who has won acclaim at folk festivals and clubs throughout the U.S. and abroad, Orrin Star first achieved national notice when he won the National Flatpicking Championship in 1976. He has been a member of three bluegrass bands, toured with Gary Mehalick for eight years, and also toured with banjo great Bill Keith. He has two LPs on the Flying Fish label, and is the author of a flatpicking instruction book. He will also be doing a flat-picking guitar workshop at HMT that same day. See the HMT article in the Non-FSGW New section of this Newsletter.

Scottish Music With Ian MacGregor Feb. 14

If you love Scottish music, you'll want to reserve Valentine's Day for a special house concert by singer, guitarist, and piper Ian MacGregor. The concert begins at 8:30 pm, Saturday, February 14, at the home of Ursy Potter and Carter Hearn in McLean, VA. Admission is $4. for FSGW members, $6. for nonmembers, with a $1. discount for senior citizens. For more information and/or directions, call 528-8537.

This is Ian's second visit to Washington. Last time, he played with grandmother Belle Stewart and mother Sheila Stewart to a sellout audience. This time, he brings his skills as a solo performer of Scots songs, both traditional and contemporary. Don't miss a fine evening of music with a third-generation singer from one of Scotland's foremost musical families.

SUNDAY NIGHT DANCES

The Sunday Night Dances continue, with the first one this month taking place at the National Cathedral School, while the rest of the month will be as usual at Takoma Park Junior High, 7611 Piney Branch Road (2 blocks or so north of Philadelphia Ave., (Route 410, also known as East-West Hwy). The dances start at 8 pm and go until 11 pm. Admission is $3.50 for FSGW Members, $5. for nonmembers. The dancing is geared toward the intermediate to advanced dancer -- meaning little teaching, short walk throughs and lots of dance and music. February's schedule is:

Feb. 1- TUPPENCE BLACKWELL with EVENING STAR. Note change of location: this dance will be held at the National Cathedral School, lower hall, Woodley Road at Wisconsin Ave., N.W. Local all-star cast with Tuppence Blackwell calling mostly New England Contrasts to music by Steve Hickman, Claudio Buchwald, David Cradall, June Drucker and John Devine. NOTE CHANGE OF LOCATION!

Feb. 8- BILL TRAUTMAN and the OGDEN NASH RAMBLERS. Lots of squares from our own Bill Trautman to string band music provided by Leslie Barr, Carolee Rand, and Marcy Marxer.

Feb. 15- THE BLARNEY STONES Mostly contra-dance with a touch of Irish brogue from Steve Hickman, Dennis Botzer, John O'Loughlin, Richard Schuman and Bruce Hickman. Guest caller CONNIE WARING from Philadelphia.

Feb. 22- KATHY ANDERSON and the RED HOTS. Red Hot Kathy Anderson from Dayton, Ohio, calls her red hot squares (and some lively contras) to the old-timey music by the North Carolina-based Red Hots: Joe Thrift, fiddle; Riley Baugus, guitar; Tom Riccio, banjo; Alan Firth, bass; and Jody Platt, tenor guitar.

Taj Mahal Glen Echo Benefit Feb. 2

Eclectic black guitarist, songwriter and singer Taj Mahal makes a very rare solo appearance Monday, February 2, at Gaston Hall, Georgetown University, in a benefit, cosponsored by FSGW, radio station WHFS-FM and the Glen Echo Park Foundation. The 8:30 pm concert will help raise funds for efforts to preserve Glen Echo Park as a community resource, forestalling plans to allow commercial development of the land.

Mahal, who recently released his first new recording in nearly a decade, is known as a versatile entertainer who always gives a fine concert. His concerts include blues, as expected, but also include many other types of song, from old-time country to modern songwriters.

For further information, call the Glen Echo Foundation (301)593-6314. Tickets, available at the door, are $15.

11TH WFF, PART 2

How to decide? That's the only problem with the program at the Washington Folk Festival. Last year at one o'clock you could have chosen from a Songs of Woody Guthrie workshop, Bill Jenkins mini concert, Reed Martin mini-concert, Unaccompanied Harmony workshop, Kerry Set dance demo, Tales of "Saki" storytelling, and a Linda Rice-Johnston mini-concert. During the two-day festival over 90 hours of performances were presented and 21 crafts people demonstrated and displayed their work. This year, on Saturday June 7 from noon to 10 pm and Sunday June 8 from noon to 6 pm, the same spirit will return, but not the same people. The program committee of the festival will once again work its magic, and over the next five months the new festival program will be created. The program committee consists of six specialized smaller groups: International, Children's, Dance, Storytelling, General, and Crafts. Each member of these groups has a number of joint and individual responsibilities, among them dreaming up ideas for new workshops and finding performers to lead and present them. One of their goals is to find new performers and new ones are found everywhere, from night clubs and restaurants, to taxi cabs and in line at the bank.

Each committee member has a one-on-one relationship with several performers. He or she is responsible for all contact with those performers from the initial contact and agreement to be at the festival through scheduling and the days of the festival. The committee collects and distributes information about their performers and the performing requirements to the other festival committees such as operations, Office Manager and Program Editor. Then they go to the festival and see as much as they can of what they have wrought.

OPEN SING

Kyle Terrell leads the Open Sing, thinking of anything but February in Washington. Help yourself make it through the "longest" month of the year with February's Open Sing, "Other Times and Places." Transport yourself to Ireland in the spring, a boat on a tropical sea, a summer night in Texas.... Escape and enjoy! Join Kyle at the Washington Ethical Society Auditorium, 7750 16th St., N.W. on Friday, February 6th starting at 8:30 pm. Admission is $2. and includes light refreshments. The Open Sing is cosponsored by FSGW and the Washington Ethical Society.

In March Ellen Aaron will lead us in "Winning, losing, and breaking even....."

If you wonder what an Open Sing is, it is people getting together and singing songs on a topic, going around the room in turn. You don't HAVE to sing, you can just come and listen, or you can ask if someone knows a song, fitting the topic, that you'd like to hear. It's also a good way to meet other FSGW members and have a chance to talk to them.

Bruce "U. Utah" Phillips is the performer for FSGW's April program on Friday, April 10. Due to his notoriety and legions of fans, the Program Chair feels that it is prudent to move the concert to a larger hall. The April Program will be held at Bradley Hill Presbyterian Church.

FSGW EDITORIAL POLICY

We try to print all copy that is relevant to FSGW's purpose, and membership [Quote from the FSGW Bylaws: "The main purpose of the Society is to further the understanding, investigation, appreciation, and performance of the traditional folk music and folklore of the American people."] However, in most instances, it is simply impossible to print announcements in full. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news, followed by listings of out-of-town, Non-FSGW events.

FSGW EXPRESSES CONCERN OVER I.N.S. PROPOSAL

New rules proposed by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) were the subject of a recent letter from the FSGW Board to INS officials. The rules, which are not yet in effect, establish criteria for allowing foreign performers to obtain visas to work in the U.S. The criteria are based on a performer's "preeminence," which would be measured by such standards as box-office grosses, record sales, and concert reviews in major publications. FSGW, which over the years has hired many foreign musicians, is concerned that the proposed rules inadvertently discriminate against folk musicians, since even the top folk performers rarely make large salaries, play in major concert halls, sell large number of records, or possess other proposed indicators of "preeminence." The FSGW Board has offered to help INS officials devise rules that would be more fair to folk musicians. A copy of the FSGW letter can be obtained from Secretary David Paynter; some copies will be available at upcoming events. Members who want to send INS their own comments on the proposed rules may wish to base them on the points raised in the Board's letter.

FSGW TAPING POLICY

When FSGW schedules concerts, the Society assures the performers that only an official, archival recording will be made -- with their permission, of course -- of their performance. It is FSGW's policy to allow ABSOLUTELY NO TAPING of any Society concert by individuals. In many cases, performers allow FSGW to make listening copies of official concert tapes for members. When this is allowed, a member pays: 1) a fee for the recording engineer's time, 2) the cost of cassette tape(s), AND 3) a royalty fee for the performer. For more information on obtaining material from FSGW's tape archive, contact our tape archivist, Mike Rivers at (703)241-7445.

GENERAL CONCERT POLICIES

The doors generally open at around 7:45 pm for an 8:30 pm concert, although audience members may have to wait to be seated until all sound checks are completed.

Other general rules-of-thumb include: [1] NO private taping of any FSGW concert; [2] NO flash photography of any FSGW concert without the expressed permission of (a) the FSGW person in charge, and (b) the performer; [3] NO smoking, eating, or drinking in the concert halls.
