British Songwriter Dave Goulder Sept. 25

British songwriter and singer Dave Goulder, on a U.S. tour with Gordon Bok, will make his Washington debut in a concert for FSGW on Friday, September 25, at the WES auditorium, 7750 16th St., NW (near the corner of Kalmia Rd. one-half mile south of the D.C./Silver Spring line). Admission to the concert, which begins at 8:30 p.m., is $4. for FSGW members and $6. for nonmembers, with a $1. discount for senior citizens. Tickets will be sold ONLY at the door. Doors open at approximately 7:45 p.m. Plenty of parking is available on 16th St. and Kalmia Rd., or take the Metro’s Red Line to the Silver Spring station and catch a bus south on 16th to WES.

Gordon Bok calls Dave “a strong, sure singer of various traditions and a delightful variety of guitar styles.” Cyril Tawney, himself an acclaimed songwriter, accords Goulder “an unrivalled position of eminence in the estimation of his fellow writers” for such songs as "January Man," "Faraway Tom," and "The Field of the Willows." Goulder will bring his songs—and perhaps a surprise guest or two—to FSGW for the first time Sept. 25. Don’t miss it!

Holdstock & MacLeod Return Sept. 12

Englishman Dick Holdstock and Scotsman Allan MacLeod, now residents of northern California, first gave a concert for FSGW in October 1981. Since then, FSGW audiences have eagerly awaited their return appearances and the chance to join the duo in rousing choruses of deepwater sea chanteys, drinking songs, songs about Napoleon (Dick’s specialty), and lyric Scots songs (Allan’s forte). The pair will be in Washington on Saturday, September 12, for an FSGW special event at the WES auditorium, 7750 16th St., NW. The concert begins at 8:30 p.m. Admission is $5. for FSGW members and $7. for nonmembers, with a $1. discount for senior citizens. Tickets will be sold only at the door. Dick Holdstock, born in Sittingham, Kent, is a fine singer of traditional and contemporary songs from his native England. Allan MacLeod, who hails from Armadale, Scotland, contributes ballads and lyric songs old and new of his country. Together, they offer an incomparable evening of good humor, fine choruses,

INSIDE: Getaway, Program, Gordon Bok
Getaway 23 Oct 9—11 Music, Camping, Fellowship

Picture yourself singing a rousing sea chantey with the waters of the Chesapeake Bay lapping at the boards beneath your feet, or sitting up late swapping songs and tunes with no neighbors to disturb. Imagine meeting new friends over food cooked by the same friends. Think of two days and three nights of music, song, stories, crafts and food, dancing and fellowship, with no TV, radio, newspapers, or modern pressures.

If you were to tell yourself right now, "On October 9—11, I’m going to go to YMCA Camp Letts, and spend the entire weekend with good folks, making good music and good times," you’d be talking about the 23rd FSGW Getaway. The weekend starts Friday evening with a potluck supper, followed by a dance and a sing. Saturday and Sunday are filled with music, crafts, song and dance sessions stressing participation and evening concerts that feature the campers themselves. Meet invited guests, such as Scottish singer Ian MacGregor (of the Stewarts of Blair), juggler Charlie Greenhaus, fiddler/singer Fud Benson, songster Joan Sprung, and other surprises.

This year, the children’s price has been reduced, in an effort to lessen the burden on families, so children’s events are planned, and horseback riding, canoes, and sports equipment are available from the camp staff. There’s plenty of room, but if you want the better accommodations -- the "modern" cabins go first--REGISTER EARLY, as these requests are filled on a first-come, first-served basis. To apply, fill out the application on page 11 and return it with PAYMENT IN FULL to FSGW Getaway c/o Jody, PO Box 553, Bladensburg, MD 20710-0553, by Sunday, October 4. You’ll receive a confirming letter, map and directions.

For those who choose to commute, it’s possible to come for only the days (sorry NO FOOD for daytrippers—you’ll have to bring your own). Campsites for tenters are available.

So look for the registration form on page 11, sign up, come and enjoy. Call Lennice Zickefoose at 270-6848 or Susan Hills at 978-3735.

Bill Clifton Is First Program of Season Sept. 11

To start off our new season of second-Friday FREE-TO-MEMBERS concerts we have singer, guitarist and autoharpist, Bill Clifton. Carter Family and Jimmie Rogers songs caught his ear at an early age, and he’s been playing old-time country and traditional music ever since. As a member of various bluegrass bands as well as performing solo, Bill has taken American musical traditions around the world. He spent many years in England, has recorded albums in Switzerland, the Netherlands, Germany, France, Japan, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and several in England and the U.S. Bill was a founding Director of the Newport Folk Festival, and was organizer of the very first bluegrass festival in the U.S., in Luray, VA, 1961.

Now living in southwest Virginia, Bill Clifton usually plays bluegrass these days with Red Rector and Don Stover, but we have him solo, to play the traditional old-time music native to the southeastern U.S. Bill Clifton’s concert will be at the NES Auditorium, 7750 16th St., N.W. (near Kalmia Rd.) in D.C., at 8:30 pm, on Friday, September 11. Admission is free to members, $4. to nonmembers at the door.

Gordon Bok Tickets Still Available, Going Fast!

As this issue of the Newsletter goes to press, approximately 200 tickets remain for the solo concert by Gordon Bok, to be held Saturday, September 26, at 8:30 p.m., at Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church, 6601 Bradley Blvd., Bethesda. The concert begins at 8:30 p.m. Admission is $6. for FSGW members and $8. for nonmembers, with a $1. discount for senior citizens.

To order tickets, send payment in full (checks payable to FSGW), along with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to FSGW Tickets, PO Box 5540, Arlington, VA 22205. Tickets will be mailed if orders are received by Sept. 19; otherwise they will be held at the door. PLEASE INCLUDE A PHONE NUMBER SO WE CAN CALL YOU IF THE CONCERT IS ALREADY SOLD OUT WHEN YOUR ORDER IS RECEIVED!!!

Individual FSGW members may order only 1 ticket at member prices; those with family memberships may order 1 ticket per family member. In either case, list names of all members for whom tickets are being purchased. Any tickets remaining on the day of the concert will be sold at the door; check the FSGW hotline, 281-2228, for availability.

Don’t be disappointed. Order your Gordon Bok concert tickets NOW!
Sunday Night Dances

The FSGW Sunday Night Dances continue at the Spanish Ballroom at Glen Echo Park, just off MacArthur Blvd. in Glen Echo, MD. The dances start at 6 pm and go until 11 pm. Admission is $3.50 for FSGW members and $5. for nonmembers. The dancing is geared toward the intermediate to advanced dancer -- meaning little teaching, short walk-throughs, and lots of music and dancing.

This month's schedule is:

Sept. 6 - NOTE CHANGE OF LOCATION -- Ken Haltenhoff with Beyond the Beltway. This dance only takes place at Takoma Park Jr. High School, 7611 Piney Branch Rd. (just off East-West Hwy.) Ken Haltenhoff calls contra to tunes by a new local band: Marty Taylor on flute and concertina, Liz Donaldson on piano, Al Taylor on fiddle and Larry Brandt on guitar and mandolin. NOTE CHANGE OF LOCATION!

Sept. 13- New Caledonia. Carlotta Wellington calls contra, some of her own, and plays hammered dulcimer with Janet Muse on piano, and the new addition to the band, Laura Lite on fiddle. They have a great sound!

Sept. 20- The legendary Yankee Ingenuity with Tony Parkes. The combination that made the Scout House in Concord, Mass. famous makes its Washington debut. Tony Parkes calls New England Squares and contra to music by Pete Barnes (piano, synthesizer, flute, penny whistle), Mary Lea (fiddle), Ruthie Dornfeld (fiddle), Cal Howard (bass), and Jack O'Connor (concertina and rhythm). Don't miss this very special dance! This dance ONLY at 8:30 pm.

Sept. 27- Lou Shapiro with Fiddleston. Lou calls squares and contra to the down-home sound of the band he got together: Steve Hickman and Jon Simmons on fiddle, John Divine on guitar and Jim Bienemann on bass.

More FSGW News

OPEN SING

The regular first-Friday FSGW Open Sing for September will concentrate on "Creature Comforts," led by Rita Ferrara. FSGW EDITORIAL POLICY

We try to print all copy that is relevant to FSGW's purpose, and membership (Quote from the FSGW Bylaws: "The main purpose of the Society is to further the understanding, investigation, appreciation, and performance of the traditional folk music and folklore of the American people.") However, in most instances, it is simply impossible to print copy in full. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news followed by listings of out-of-town, non-FSGW events.
EDITORIAL POLICY FOR DANCE EVENTS

Because so many dancers seek dances with live music, all dance event articles submitted should state whether the music is recorded or live. We do this as a service to our members. No dance copy will be used that does not state live or recorded music.

RESTON/GREAT FALLS CONTRA DANCE

Reston contra and square dances are held at the Great Falls Grange, an historic hall with a hardwood floor, 9818 Georgetown Pike, Great Falls, VA, during the fall. The first dance will be Friday, September 11 from 8-11 pm. Bob Hirsch and Dianne Rowe will call, with music from the June Apple Band. All levels of dancers are welcome. Admission is $6.50. Call 779-8562.
