Travelin' Man Roy Book Binder Saturday, November 12th

A hot picker, an expressive singer, a hilarious character and a supreme storyteller, Roy Book Binder will pull his airstream motorhome up to Bradley Hills Church on Saturday, November 12 at 8:30 pm to perform his country blues and tell his riotous tales of life on the road.

A devotee of the Rev. Gary Davis and 20s and 30s bluesmen Pigmeat Pete, Cat Juice Charlie and Pink Anderson, Book Binder is committed to preserving and presenting their music and is funniest when describing his personal experiences with these colorful characters.

His fingerpick guitar is flawlessly crisp and clean and his wide repertoire covers blues, gospel and medicine show tunes delivered with a breezy, laid-back style.

Roy is celebrating the release of his new album, "BOOKEROO!" on the Rounder label and produced by dobro wizard Jerry Douglas. With three other albums to his credit, Roy Book Binder is a top-notch performer with the rare distinction of being a master musician as well as a master showman. The guy's a riot. Don't miss him.

Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church is at 6601 Bradley Blvd., (3.2 miles west of Wisconsin Ave.) Bethesda, MD. Admission at the door is $6. FSGW members, $8. nonmembers.

Program: Four from Fast Folk Friday, November 11th

The November FSGW Program, 8:30 pm, Friday, November 11th should be memorable, as "Fast Folk Magazine" artists present an evening of modern songwriters.

Ever wonder what happens when a bunch of singer-songwriters get together? Yes, they swap songs and experiences, but sometimes they do much more. When Steve Key, Lydia Adams-Davis, Dennis Pearne and Dean Stevens assemble, they put out a magazine on a disc rather than a page.

Thus, in the early 80s, when Fast Folk Magazine was founded in New York City (yes, Greenwich Village), one of its main purposes was to present a fresh format for young, soon-to-be established folksingers.

Dean Stevens, born in Costa Rica, readily absorbed the musical influences of Latin America. Now living in Boston, Dean is at once refreshing and entertaining, an eclectic performer of original songs, traditional ballads, absurdities, songs in Spanish, and songs from the 30s and 40s.

Lydia Adams-Davis, NY based singer and songwriter, is a high energy entertainer with a warm expressive voice and a true gift for songwriting.

As a “Good Company Productions” recording artist, Dennis Pearne displays his versatility on lead guitar, back-up guitar, and bass.

Steve Key is a singer, songwriter and guitarist as well as a “Senior Editor” of Fast Folk Magazine. His songs have been compared to Harry Chapin, in that they are mostly true life stories about subway singers, lovers, leavers, campers and yes, cab drivers.

The program takes place at the WES Auditorium, 7750 16th St., N.W., DC, (just down from the corner of Kalmia Rd & 16th St., two blocks inside DC from the District Line). The Program is FREE for FSGW members, $4 for nonmembers. Please feel free to call David Eisner at 270-9090 for directions, etc. — Or call the FSGW Hotline 281-2228.

Anonyma: House Concert, Nov. 22nd.
Anne Lister & Mary McLaughlin

The English folk duo ANONYMA, following the release of its highly acclaimed LP, Burnt Feathers, is on its first American tour and will perform in Northwest D.C. in a house concert on Tuesday, November 22, at 8 pm at the home of Caroline Quandt.

ANONYMA is English singer Anne Lister and Irish singer Mary McLaughlin. Their material is an exciting mixture of traditional music from the British Isles and their own original songs. Anne Lister’s most well-known song, “Icarus,” has been recorded internationally; Martin Simpson, Archie Fisher, Sara Grey and others have recorded her work. Both members write material for the duo and accompany themselves on guitar and synthesizer.

Sing Out! call Burnt Feathers “an album filled with songs equally extraordinary and haunting.” And so their concert will be. This is a rare opportunity to experience this music in an intimate setting.

For directions, call Caroline at 966-6233. Admission is $5. for FSGW members, $7. nonmembers. $1. discount for seniors.

Bob Carlin & Bruce Molsky, Saturday, December 3rd

Individually, Bob Carlin and Bruce Molsky are stunning musicians; their energy combined, there’ll be a danger of combustion when they perform on Saturday, December 3, 8:30 pm at St. Columba’s Episcopal Church in D.C.

Two of the country’s finest old-time banjo and fiddle players, Bruce and Bob will demonstrate the best in banjo-fiddle duets. Bob was voted Best Folk & Old-Time Banjo player three years running by Frets magazine. He has a serious and thorough knowledge of the music, having produced Our Musical Heritage, a radio series based on the Library of Congress Archives, and hosts two radio shows on Philadelphia’s WHYY-FM.

Bruce’s explosive rhythmic fiddling has driven several old-time bands including Ace Weems and the Fat Meat Boys, The Correctone String Band, and most recently A Robic and the Exertions. Additionally a blues guitarist, banjo flier and fine singer, Bruce now performs with the Hellbenders, Mike Seeger, Mr. Carlin and as a solo.

Both have several recordings on Rounder, Kicking Mule and Flying Fish. Don’t miss one of the most exciting concerts of the year.

St Columba’s is at 4201 Albermarle St., N.W., one block off Wisconsin, behind Sears, near the Tenleytown Metro Station (Red Line). Parking is available. Admission at the door is $6. FSGW members, $8. nonmembers, $1. off for senior citizens.
The Sunday Night Dance returns to Takoma Park Intermediate School (7611 Piney Branch Rd., just off East-West Highway in Takoma Park, MD) for the winter. The dance is aimed at the intermediate to advanced dancer, meaning little teaching, short walk-throughs, and lots of music and dancing. The dance runs from 8 to 11 pm. Admission is $3.50 for FSGW members, and $5 for nonmembers. The schedule for November is:

Nov. 6: JANET PETERS with BILL TOMCZAK and ROBERT MILLS — Fantastic clarinetist Bill Tomczak of BLT and Schlock Therapy is in town from Amherst, Mass. to work his magic while Robert Mills of Princeton tickles the ivories. Janet Peters of Princeton calls a collection of mostly contra.

Nov. 13: GAIL HEIL and BOB BOVEE with RALPH GORDON — Gail Heil and Bob Bovee are real old-timey musicians from Minnesota. Gail plays fiddle and also calls (lots of squares) and Bob plays guitar. Ralph Gordon is in from Shepherdstown to play bass with them.

Nov. 20: CAROLTTA WELLINGTON and THE BLARNEY STONES — Carlotta Wellington comes up from Charlottesville to call a collection of contra dances, including some she wrote. Music by the incomparable Blarney Stones (Steve Hickman, fiddle, Dennis "Doc" Botzer, piano; John O'Laughlin, pennywhistle & trombone; Ritchie Schuman, guitar & banjo, and Bruce Hickman, drums).

Nov. 27: TOM HINDS with CRITTON HOLLOW — Be thankful for the Critton Hollow Stringband: Sam Herman on hammered dulcimer, Joe Herman fiddle & mandolin and Joe Fallon guitar. Our own Tom Hinds calls a mixture of squares & contra.

NOTE CHANGE OF LOCATION!!!!

Country Dance & Song Society's Leadership Workshop

The Country Dance and Song Society and the Folklore Society of Greater Washington are co-sponsoring a "Leadership Workshop," January 20-22, 1989, in Washington, D.C. This workshop is designed to enhance the leadership skills of dancers, musicians and singers interested in taking enhanced roles and responsibilities in their groups, bands or clubs. In two days of seminars, workshops and roundtable discussions, CDSS teachers, assisted by FSGW members, will provide information on the administration of dance and music groups; running regular events, such as dances and folksong club nights, and special events, e.g. festivals; sound systems; calling and teaching techniques; dance, music and song collecting and interpretation; and community outreach and relations with the media.

For information about the workshop contact Brad Foster ([413]584-9913) concerning programs, or Peter Fricke ([301]565-9530) concerning local arrangements. Volunteers to help Peter with local arrangements for the workshop are needed.

17th Annual FSGW Mini Festival: Coming Soon!

Mark your calendars NOW (get a new one if you need to). The 17th Annual FSGW Mini Festival will be held snow or shine at the Takoma Park Intermediate School, Saturday, January 28, 1989. It's a great way to welcome in the new year with crafts, singing, dancing, and good food too.

Throughout the day, the "Mini" offers something for everyone and every age: local craftspersons displaying their art, mini-concerts by both new and established local folk artists, tutorial and participatory song workshops, introductory and exhibition folk dances, yummy food from Ma McClatchy's Trail's End Kitchen, and tapes, records, music and instruments for sale from HMT.

After dinner, the "Mini" offers both a concert and a dance to tickle your ears and your feet too. (continued on page 4)
The modest cost for all this fun is well worth it: $5 for the day or evening ($7, nonmembers) and $8 for both the day and evening ($10 nonmembers). Want to join FSGW? You can do so right at the “Mini” and save before you come in. Come and beat the mid winter blues; enjoy the crafts, song, dance and food at the FSGW “Mini.”

Being a part of an FSGW event is even more fun than just attending, and volunteers are always needed. Want to help at the “Mini” for an hour? Call Judy Cook at (301)776-4314 (in Laurel, MD), and get involved!

Open Sing
Friday, November 4, 8:30 pm
COME and SING or just listen Friday, November 4 at the Open Sing. Everyone is welcome as Bill Day will lead us "Beating around the bush," singing about similes, metaphors, euphemisms and other circuitious locutions. The Sings are held at the WES Auditorium, 7750 16th St., NW, DC, at 8:30 pm the first Friday of each month. The sing has a suggested topic of the month to encourage us to learn new songs, but we relax, enjoy ourselves, and have a good sing. With this month’s topic, you can sing about anything you please as long as it is approached deviously and preferably not named at all.

In December Susan Hills will lead the topic "Something New," songs about surprises, births and beginnings. Admission is $4. per person to cover the cost of the hall. Potluck refreshments.

Gospel Sing
Sunday, November 13, 4 pm
Come to the home of Peggy and Hunter Jones in Potomac, MD., on Sunday, November 13 at 4 pm, for an afternoon and evening of eclectic hymn singing. Hymn books and word sheets provided. Bring something for the potluck supper and call (301)762-6343 for directions.

Sacred Harp Sing
Sunday, November 27, 4 pm
Come to Tim Slattery’s home in Annandale, VA for the monthly Sacred Harp Sing on November 27th, the Sunday following Thanksgiving. Singing starts at 4 pm, breaks at 6 pm for a potluck supper and resumes at 7 pm. Everyone is welcome and extra songbooks are available for use by newcomers. Please call Tim at (703)256-7572 for more information and directions and remember — THIS is your big chance to unload those well disguised turkey leftovers on the unsuspecting and start your life over on Monday with an empty refrigerator!

Storytellers Meeting
Saturday, November 19, 7:30 pm
Storytellers and listeners are welcome to the home of Glenna and Alan Centa in Takoma Park to share stories and snacks at 7:30 pm on Saturday, November 19. Call (301)270-3916 for rsyps and directions.

Board Meeting Highlights
In October the Board met at the home of Member-At-Large Lisa Freedman. Topics discussed and actions taken by the Board included:

• Agreed to publish an updated Membership Directory which will be sold to interested Society members.
• Discussed problems with keeping the Society's van in working order and defined when it should be sent to a repair shop.
• Discussed the need for more trained sound system operators and possible ways to recruit and train new volunteers.
• Voted to get an MCI account for use in the Society's business transactions.
• Agreed to co-sponsor the Second Annual Ski-Dance Weekend with the Sierra Club and PATC (See article on page 5).

"I had a great time. Let’s do it again!"

... says Jack Sheerin of Springfield, VA, a first-time volunteer for special events. And YES, you TOO can have some fun helping run these concerts.

Special Events Chair Diane Walder extends a very special thanks to the following people for their generous help and support at the Tran Van Khe, Shays Rebellion and Sileas Concerts: Jack Sheerin, Lisa Freedman, Stuart Rosenthal, Alan Cohen, Phil Heywood (welcome back, Phill), Craig Williams, Sally & Jerry Freedman, Caroline Quandt and Sue Richards. Thanks to Joel Bluestein, Al Taylor and Mike Rivers for fine sound and a special thanks to the Nichols duo and Bill Day for their deadly reliability.

So if you sometimes wake up in the middle of the night with the sudden strange and undeniable urge to:
• lift and haul heavy sound equipment
• collect door admissions
• sell performer goods
• move chairs around...
call me immediately. Together we'll find a way to satisfy that urge, fulfill that need. Call now and volunteer for the Saturday, December 3 Bruce Molsky/Bob Carlin concert and receive a special bonus. (301)588-5595.
Deadline for December Newsletter
Tuesday, November 15
All copy for the December issue of this Newsletter is due at the home of temporary editor Jennifer Woods, NO LATER THAN MIDNIGHT, Tuesday, November 15th. NO copy will be accepted over the telephone.
Please, as it makes it less likely for your copy to get lost, send it on standard 8 1/2 x 11 paper. Copy has literally gone through the cracks because it was on such small sheets of paper or post cards. Please include a phone number where you can be reached in case the editor has any questions concerning your copy. If you can, please submit your copy in article form; it makes things much easier at this end. Disks are welcome; IBM-PC or Macintosh format.
Send all copy for December to:

Editor Lennice Zickefoose
Resigns with Thanks

"I took the job of Publications Chair reluctantly, knowing that the time commitment might be more than I could give. I've found that I don't have sufficient time for both the Newsletter and my own work and, as a result, both have suffered. Therefore I am resigning as Publications Chair. I would like to thank the people who helped me during my tenure.
"The time and talents of several people are required to produce a publication of this size and quality. I am confident that there are qualified people among our membership who will step forward and continue the work of delivering the Newsletter we have come to rely on."

FSGW Seeking New Editor!

As Lennice Zickefoose has resigned as Publications Chair for FSGW, the Board of Directors would like to thank her for her efforts in editing and producing the Newsletter for the last three months. Jennifer Woods has agreed to edit the Newsletter temporarily, but we are seeking someone to take over as Publications Chair for the next nine months. The Publications Chair is a voting member of the Board of Directors. The job of the Publications Chair is to edit and produce any and all FSGW publications. At present the only publication of the Society is the monthly Newsletter. If you are interested (or know someone who might be interested), please call Dean Clamons at home at 631-9655 or at work at 767-2384.
