Bill Staines
Friday, June 23, 8:30 pm
Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church
6601 Bradley Boulevard, Bethesda

Popular singer, songwriter and consummate entertainer Bill Staines will appear in concert on Fri., June 23, 8:30 pm, at Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church (6601 Bradley Boulevard, Bethesda, MD).

A concert by Bill Staines is an enlightening, enlivening musical journey around the country. His travels throughout No. America over the past 20 years have inspired songs set in Wyoming, Louisiana, Alaska, Virginia, Nebraska, Massachusetts, & Texas. Lihting melodies & homespun lyrics capture the flavor of American life. "I try to write a song that can be universally understood," says Staines. He likes "trying to bring audiences from different parts of the country together" through the geographically diverse topics of his songs.

But Staines is more than just a typical singer-songwriter; he is a multi-talented performer who offers countless surprises on stage. One of the most noticeable is his fluid, expert guitar picking—all the more intriguing to watch because, being left-handed, he plays the instrument upside-down and backwards.

Staines is also a captivating storyteller, engaging his audience with charming and often hilarious anecdotes that serve as smooth introductions to his songs. He delights in having the audience sing choruses, an easy task as those he writes are particularly catchy and instantly memorable. (Continued on page 3.)

Washington Folk Festival — June 3 & 4

The 13th Annual Washington Folk Festival is here! Held June 3 and 4 at Glen Echo Park, Glen Echo, MD, the Festival presents 500 Washington area performers and craftspeople. From noon to 10 pm Saturday, and noon to 6 pm Sunday, enjoy music and dance performances on five stages, plus children's and storytelling stages, crafts demonstrations, dance workshops and a square and contra dance from 8:30 to 11 pm Saturday in the Ballroom.

The Festival is free, and goes on rain or shine. Parking in the Park lots is limited — especially since the recent flood — so carpool or use public transportation if you can. (The Park is on MacArthur Blvd. at Goldsboro Rd., a short ride on the N8 bus from the Friendship Heights Metro station). Food is available (hot dogs, hamburgers, etc.) or you can bring a picnic to eat on the grass. A full schedule appears on page two of this Newsletter.

Deadline: 12th of July for August Issue!
Eileen McGann
From Ontario, Canada
Friday, July 28, 8:30pm

Canada’s Eileen McGann will give a house concert on Friday, July 28, 8:30pm at a location to be announced. A songwriter of intelligence and power, she uses historic and traditional folklore of her native Canada, & of Ireland and Britain. Delivered from a feminist perspective with humor and poignancy, her repertoire is nicely rounded out with original pieces ranging in topic from celebrations of the northern wilderness to tales of political ineptitude to stories of women in non-traditional roles throughout the centuries. With a background in theatre, she is an engaging storyteller as well.

Her recently released album, Elements, has consistently received excellent reviews and includes collaboration with Garnet Rogers, Grit Laskin & Ken Whiteley. He song "Isabella Gunn," the story of a woman working as a fur trader in the 19th century, will be included on the upcoming Fast Folk album of Canadian performers. A veteran of Canadian festivals, folk clubs, & radio shows, Eileen will be featured on Mountain Stage this month.

This house concert will be Eileen’s first DC area appearance. It is your chance to hear in an intimate informal setting a performer whose voice has been said to have the clarity & tone of a fine china bell. Sing Out describes her as "a talented songwriter, fine singer and sensitive interpreter of traditional music all merged into one performer."

For house concert location & info, call the FSGW Hotline (703) 281-2888. Admission: $5, members; $7, nonmembers.

With a rich, supple baritone voice with considerable range & warmth, his vocal skills stretch far beyond singing. He is an expert yodeller, in the style of Jimmie Rodgers and Montana Slim, although he insists that yodelling initially resulted from climbing accidents in the Alps. He has also been known to perform the "Staines Trumpet Concerto in E-Flat," with an amazingly accurate display of vocal and facial contortions, but without a trumpet.

Staines has performed on television for PBS and was heard frequently on "A Prairie Home Companion." Some of his familiar song titles include "A Place in the Choir" (which was recently turned into a children’s book), "Roseville Fair," and "Sweet Wyoming Home."

Interspersed among his original songs, Bill Staines also includes songs ranging from traditional folk tunes to contemporary country ballads. He has recorded eleven albums, & has a songbook of his own compositions published by Folk Legacy Records. His songs have also been recorded by other musicians, including Makem & Liam Clancy, and Grandpa Jones.

Tickets, available at the door, are $8 FSGW members; $10 nonmembers.

Dewey Balfa and Friends
Special Cajun Dance Event
Sunday, July 16, 4:30pm

On Sun., July 16, premier Louisiana Cajun fiddler Dewey Balfa returns to Glen Echo Park to play an evening of Cajun music for your dancing enjoyment. He will be joined by Tracy Schwarz, accordion; son Peter Schwarz, fiddle; & Charlie Terr, guitar. Together they make some of the country’s best Cajun music. Cajun Jitterbug workshop in the afternoon, taught by Millie Ortego and Jim Dugas. Millie, now living in Minnesota, grew up & learned to dance in Louisiana. She wowed us last year at the Chesapeake Spring Dance Weekend & at a Glen Echo workshop last August. Jim Dugas, one of Millie’s favorite partners, is a native of Lafayette, LA, and specializes in Cajun jitterbug.

Workshop in Spanish Ballroom 4:30pm. Cajun potluck dinner 6pm in picnic grove (Bumper Car Pavilion in case of rain). Dance in Spanish Ballroom 8pm. Admission: FSGW members: $5 dance, $5 workshop, or $8 both. Nonmembers: $7 dance, $6 workshop, $10 both. FSGW provides eating utensils. Glen Echo Park is off MacArthur Blvd. in Glen Echo, MD.
FSGW Sunday Night Dances

GLEN ECHO PARK, MARYLAND

The FSGW Sunday night contra and square dance continues for the summer at the SPANISH BALLROOM at GLEN ECHO PARK, just off MacArthur Blvd., in Glen Echo, Maryland. DUE TO FLOODING IN THE GLEN ECHO LOT, PARKING IS EXTREMELY LIMITED. CAR POOL IF POSSIBLE; YOU MAY HAVE TO FIND ON-STREET PARKING. 7:30 to 11:00 pm. The dance is aimed at the intermediate to advanced dancer, meaning little teaching, short walk-throughs, and lots of music and dancing. Admission: $3.50 FSGW members, $5 for nonmembers, except July 16 as noted. The schedule for June and July is:

June 4: LOU SHAPIRO and the NEW FINDHORN CEILIDH BAND. Long-time Washington-area caller Lou Shapiro calls an evening of squares & contras with his own special brand of hash calls. The Band is Steve Hickman & Malcolm Stephens, fiddles; Marty Taylor, flute & concertina; Liz Donaldson, piano & accordion; Len Mitchard, bass; Matt Kuldell, drums. Teams up with Susie Petrov, pianist from Boston, & our own Charlie Pilzer on bass & accordion for some exciting contra dance music.

July 2: WILD ASPARAGUS. The always-exciting, always-popular Wild Asparagus is in town once again. George Marshall calls contras & plays concertina with David Cantieni on flute & oboe, Ann Percival on piano, & Kerry Elkin on fiddle.

June 11: DAVID MACLEOD with TWO OUT OF THREE HATS. David MacLeod's Sunday night calling debut was snowed out in January. We promised him it wouldn't snow this time (floods maybe?). Two out of Three Hats plays New England-style music: newly-wed Al Taylor, fiddle; Alice Markham, piano; & Richie Schuman, tenor banjo & mandolin.

July 9: TOM HINDS with SURPRISE! (One of Steve Hickman's bands, maybe even the Quicksteps! or the Blarney Stars, or the Evening Stones, or...). Tom Hinds agreed to take a chance on calling an evening of contras & squares to music provided by our own national treasure, Steve Hickman, on fiddle, playing with some assortment of his friends. We can't go wrong!

June 18: CARLOTTA WELLINGTON with THE BLARNEY STONES and LAURIE ANDRES. Charlottesville's Carlotta Wellington, a popular local favorite, will call an evening of all contras. Laurie Andres, formerly of D.C., now from Seattle, teams up with the Blarney Stones (Steve Hickman, fiddle; John O'Loughlin, guitar & penny whistle; Dennis "Doc" Botzer, piano; Richie Schuman, mandolin & tenor banjo; Bruce Hickman, drums) to virtually recreate the old Boss-Town Buzz-Steps.

July 16: SPECIAL CAJUN DANCE EVENT with DEWEY BALFA & FRIENDS. Cajun Jitterbug Workshop taught by Millie Ortego & Jim Dugas at 4:30 p.m. followed by Potluck Picnic at 6:00 and evening dance at 8:00 with Dewey Balfa & Peter Schwarz on fiddles, Tracy Schwarz on accordion, & Charlie Terr on guitar. Admission for members: $5 for dance, $5 for workshop, $8 for both; for nonmembers: $7 for dance, $6 for workshop, $10 for both. FSGW provides tableware.

July 23: TUPPENCE BLACKWELL with DEVIL AMONG THE TAYLORS. Tuppence Blackwell calls an evening of Tuppence-tested dances especially planned for Washington's experienced dance crowd. Devil Among the Taylors (Marty Taylor on flute & concertina, Wayne Taylor on fiddle, & Jonathan Jensen on piano) provides its special brand of New England dance music.

July 30: GENE HUBERT and SWEETGUM. The creator of such beautiful & well-loved dances as Reunion, the Ritz, Roll in the Hey, & Shades of Shadrach, Gene Hubert will be calling with a New England-style band from Greensboro, N.C. Sweetgum is Dean Olsher on piano, Sarah Rubin on fiddle, & Mary Eldridge on concertina. This evening will be all contras!

Thanks to Kyle Terrell for lettering the calendar page!

Next Deadline: July 12 for Aug. issue
FSGW Editorial Policy

We try to print all copy that is relevant to FSGW's purpose, and membership (Quote from the FSGW Bylaws: "The main purpose of the Society is to further the understanding, investigation, appreciation, and performance of the traditional folk music and folklore of the American people."). However, in most instances, it is simply impossible to print copy in full. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news followed by listings of out-of-town, non-FSGW events.

Society News

FSGW Election Results

The results of the FSGW 1989 Elections are as follows:

Joel Bluestein, President; Mary Cliff, Vice President; Kyle Terrell, Secretary; Dave Renne, Treasurer; David Eisner, Program; Kathy Westra Hickerson, Special Events; Robin Youngelman, Dance; Dolores Nichols, Membership; Helen Gordon, Publications; Charlie Pilzer and Janine Smith, Members-At-Large. We are still looking for a Publicity Chair; we hope to fill it at June's Board Meeting.

The Publicity Chair for FSGW is "responsible for all publicity, advertising, promotion, and public relations activities of the Society. He or she should feel responsible for promoting the visibility of FSGW in the Washington metropolitan area and encouraging public involvement in all of the traditional arts." If you are interested in this position, please call current President Dean Clamons (703) 631-9655, or incoming President Joel Bluestein, (202) 544-7512, or Nominations Chair Jennifer Woods, (703) 528-8537.

FSGW Board Meeting

Combined Old & New Boards

Wednesday, June 7, 8pm

The next meeting of the Board will be a combined meeting of incoming and outgoing Board members. It will be held on Wednesday, June 7, at 8:00 P.M., at the home of Archivist Bill Day in Wheaton, MD. Any member may attend (if they can fit in Bill's basement); call Bill for directions at (301) 946-2161. Call Dean Clamons or Mary LaMarca (preferably by June 1) if you have items of business you'd like the Board to consider.

BOARD HIGHLIGHTS

In April, the Board met at the home of Joel Bluestein in Washington, D.C. The Board voted to:

* Loan FSGW equipment to members representing Victoria's Revenge Dance Weekend and the Glen Echo Irish Festival
* Authorize negotiations for a Balkan music concert this fall.

The Board also discussed the Society's current budget status. FSGW is currently about $7,000 behind budget for fiscal year 88-89, mostly due to major increases in Newsletter printing and postage costs and reduced attendance at FSGW events. The Finance Committee will examine these problems and possible solutions in preparing next year's budget.

In May, the Board met at the home of Peter Dean in Takoma Park, MD. The Board moved to:

* Continue to support the Open Sing by guaranteeing hall rental for October-May. The Sing will be held in people's homes in the summer months (watch the Newsletter for location).
* Approve the guarantee for the Cajun Dance workshop and dance this July (see article this issue).
* Approve holding some Program concerts at the Silver Spring Unitarian Universalist Church hall starting this fall. Program Chair David Eisner would like to hear from members; which location do you like better, WES or SSUUC?
* Appropriate money to run the evening Hospitality Gatherings for the Smithsonian Festival of American Folklife participants. FSGW has successfully sponsored this goodwill project for several years.

Special Thanks

from Special Events

Bunch o' Thanks to everyone who helped out with March, April & May special events, particularly Dan Fox, whose dedication & dependability is acknowledged and greatly appreciated; Lars & Becky Hanslin who generously hosted several house concerts; the J-team of Judy Camero & Judy Baker, who were fast & snappy admission takers; and Pam Mansfield & Janet Stockhausen who helped with everything. More thanks to Dave Shombert, Tom Helde, Bob Rogers, Pete Reinger, Catherine Underwood, Arlene Liegenau, Mary LaMarca, Konrad Alt, Maureen Kennedy, Jan Westervelt, Bill Day, Jill Linzee, Dennis & Judy Cook, and Mike Rivers for a great job in a great big pinch. As always, thanks to Don & Dolores Nichols, FSGW’s Membership Committee. Spring Special Events would not have materialized without the work donated by these people.

* JOINT MEETING *

Thursday, June 22, 8:30pm

FSGW 25th Anniversary: FSGW will celebrate its 25th anniversary in October. There are a number of events that could be held to celebrate the anniversary. Some possibilities include:

1. A concert by founding members
2. A retrospective concert of FSGW favorites
3. A dance
4. A party
5. A picnic
6. A quilt or banner

The anniversary celebration committee is open to any and all ideas. If you are interested in participating in the organization of the anniversary celebration, come to the joint Anniversary-Getaway meeting, Thurs., June 22, 8:30pm at the home of Charlie Pilzer in Takoma Park, MD. Directions / ideas for the 25th anniversary, call Charlie at 565-8518.

Getaway Planning: Several interested parties met at Mary Cliff’s house in April to talk Getaway past, present, & future. Among items discussed were costs (we’ll try to hold them down), location (we’re always looking for other possibilities), guests (there will be some special ones this year; if you’d like particular ones included call or send names & addresses to Mary Cliff ASAP, as the first notice will be going out soon), programming (probably less but planned earlier), promotion (like this article), involvement of staff, newcomers, & kids.

This year’s will be the official 25th anniversary Getaway. Put these dates on your calendar: Fri. through Sun., Oct. 27-29! It will be at Camp Letts in Edgewater, Md., just south of Annapolis, easy to get to for day or weekend. Wanna be on a Committee? Have input? Call Mary Cliff (703) 534-7581 or co-chair Bob Clayton (703) 528-8537. And come to the meeting at Charlie Pilzer’s house on Thurs., June 22, 8:30pm (see 25th Anniversary meeting notice for his # for directions).

Folklore Festival Hospitality

Volunteers Needed: June 21-July 4

FSGW again is coordinating Participant Hospitality for the Smithsonian Festival of American Folklore. We staff evening facilities at the hotel, from setup about 8pm to cleanup about midnight (later some days). This is the time when musicians, other participants, support staff & crew relax after the day on the Mall. As hosts it’s important we be friendly, respectful, interested, relaxed & ready to slice the cheese or pour the drinks or answer visitors’ questions about the Folklore Society or our Nation’s Capital. Four to six volunteers are needed each evening; you can do one night or many. Dates are June 21 through July 4 inclusive. For further info or to sign up, call Mary Cliff at (703) 534-7581.

Country Dance & Song Society

25th Anniversary News Galore

Quilts & Banners: CDSS invites you to join in making of a Dance & Music Banner to be made up from individual quilted wallhangings addressing the themes of English & American traditional dance, music, & song. The completed banner will be exhibited around the country to encourage talk about traditional music & dance, & to educate & entertain at galleries, quilt shows, libraries, museums, & festivals.

Now is the time to get rid of those scraps you’ve been saving for 10 years. Recycle your old dance skirts or those festival t-shirts you no longer wear. Use up the leftovers from your group’s banner or morris kits. Immortalize your favorite dance & festival memories in fabric. Do an applique of your dance hall or embroider your favorite saying. Traditional patchwork patterns, original pieced designs, applique, whole-cloth quilting, embroidery, & silkscreen are just some of the options.

Completed quilts are due by Oct. 31, 1989. (Those received by early October will be displayed during CDSS’s Open House & Dance on Oct. 14.) All who love to dance, sing, & play music are encouraged to join us in this project. Write for details: CDSS Banner Project, 17 New South St., Northampton, MA 01060; or call Ann Pearce or Caroline Batson (413) 584-9913 during business hours.

CDSS at the Smithsonian: Plans are being laid for a small exhibit & concurrent month of traditional & revival country dance, music & song in April, 1990, at the Natl. Museum of American History. We need help from people with experience in designing exhibits, & help from writers & others to locate & describe special items from traditional dance & music. Preliminary design work & research will to be done this summer. Interested? Call Peter Fricke (301) 565-9530.

FSGW is related to CDSS: Besides being an autonomous local organization, FSGW is a member group of CDSS. FSGW & CDSS work together & separately to promote folk dance, music & song. FSGW is a "local" organization serving the Greater Washington area with programs of dance, music, song, & story-telling, & is a member group of CDSS. CDSS was founded in 1915 by country dance groups in Boston, Cleveland, New York & Pittsburgh who felt that a national "service" organization would benefit local activities. Today nearly 100 groups across the United States & Canada, & 2100 national members, form a CDSS network promoting American & English traditional & revival dance, music & song. CDSS provides dance & music summer programs at Pinewoods Camp in Massachusetts. CDSS also runs a store, mail-order shopping service (natl. members & groups have 10% discount), a library & archive. There is a small staff to run workshops & assist groups with special events. CDSS is supported by membership fees, donations, net proceeds from sales & camp activities, & the work of enthusiastic volunteers.

Although not well known to the average dancer & singer, CDSS touches nearly all our favorite activities; the majority of callers, musicians & performers in the D.C. area are members &/or have attended CDSS camps or special courses to hone their skills. Fourteen local dance groups are CDSS affiliates. When you travel, take your FSGW membership card with you: most CDSS affiliates grant other CDSS group members reciprocal rights. Info about CDSS: Country Dance & Song Society, 17 New South St., Northampton, MA 01060 / (413) 584-9913. Or ask your local elected CDSS officials: Bob Dalsemer, Jeff Warner, Diane Schmit, Peter Fricke, Chris Spicer.

The Smithsonian's 23rd annual Festival of American Folklife to be held outdoors on the National Mall June 23-27 & June 30-July 4. 11am - 5:30pm; dance parties each evening (except July 4) 5:30-7pm. Events are FREE; food sold on site; parking limited; use Smithsonian Metro station on Blue & Orange lines.
More than 100 participants representing various peoples of Hawaii will present dance, crafts & food traditions, including a Pa'u parade of flower-decked horses & riders on June 25. The bicentennial of the French revolution will be celebrated by some 60 participants from France, Quebec, New England, Louisiana, Missouri & North Dakota, with music, storytelling & crafts. Nearly 50 American Indian participants from six tribes will demonstrate their traditions & discuss the importance of access to natural resources & opportunities for cultural recognition. More than 60 folk musicians, performers & cooks from Puerto Rico, Haiti & Jamaica will show how indigenous, European & African cultures have interacted in the Caribbean to produce unique traditions.
Volunteer for the Festival; call Diane Green (202) 287-3535. (And for helping out after hours, see FSGW news section to be part of Participant Hospitality.)
