LIBANA

Balkan Women's Music
Saturday, September 23, 8:30pm
Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church, Bethesda

Join us for a spectacular evening of dance, song, and instrumental music with Libana on Sat., Sept. 23, 8:30pm, at Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church (6601 Bradley Blvd., Bethesda, MD). A 13-woman ensemble, Libana takes its name from the Arabic word meaning "to nurture from the breast." They perform the music of women of Eastern Europe and the Middle East, including Armenian, Bulgarian, Yugoslavian, Soviet Georgian, Yemenite Jewish, Israeli, and Hungarian pieces. All their songs are about women's lives & universal themes of love, peace, war, aging, loneliness, & dreams.

These talented women, in brilliant costumes, perform with an array of instruments including violin, double bass, clarinet, flute, dumbek, accordion & hammered dulcimer. The uniting of group & solo voices, instrumentals & exuberant dances creates an unforgettably dynamic & moving performance. The concert celebrates their newest release on Shanachie Records, "Sojourns." Come hear this fascinating group at Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church. Plentiful free parking; doors open at 7:45. Admission $8 FSGW members; $10 nonmembers.

Society News

FSGW Board Meeting

Wednesday, September 6, 8pm

The next meeting of the Board will be Wed., Sept. 6, 8pm, at the home of Pres. Joel Bluestein on Capitol Hill. Any FSGW member may attend; call Joel for directions: (202) 544-7512. If you have items you'd like the Board to consider, call Joel or Secretary Kyle Terrell (301) 986-4133.

BOARD HIGHLIGHTS

In August the Board met at the home of Dave Renne in Silver Spring MD and took action on the following:

- * Approved loan of FSGW sound equipment to the Takoma Park Folk Festival (Sept. 10) & CABOMA (Sept. 24).

- * Authorized paying FSGW members who will perform in the 25th Anniversary Concert & the December program.

The Board also received updates on future FSGW activities including 25th anniversary events, the Getaway, & a benefit dance for the Washington Folk Festival. Watch the Newsletter for details.

Open Sing

Open sings are a chance to get together, relax, and enjoy a good sing. The mood is friendly and informal. Generally twenty to thirty people show up and arrange themselves in a loosely defined circle, some on chairs, some on the floor, some stretched out. A different leader each month chooses a suggested topic for the upcoming sing. At the sing, the leader gets things started and we go one way or the other or randomly round the circle so that each person attending has an opportunity to sing or suggest a song that can be related to the topic, however circuitously. (It is also permitted to sing or suggest a song and challenge the other people there to relate it to the topic for you!). After the first round we traditionally have a five minute visiting break for ten minutes and are back in fifteen to have at least another round or two of singing until we all get too sleepy. We've had topics from "Heroes & Villains", "Changes", and "Women", to "Chorus Songs" and "Follow the Leader" where you try to relate your song to the song that was sung immediately before yours. Whatever the topic, we all have fun and singers from professional quality to "I just came to listen" are welcome.

Open sings are held first Friday of each month at the WES Auditorium, 7750 16th St., N.W. We begin around 8:30 p.m. Admission is $3.00 per person to cover the cost of the hall, and we bring our own refreshments. During the summer this year we changed format a bit to meet in members' homes. But we will be back at WES in October.

25th Getaway at Camp Letts Super Line-Up of Special Guests! October 27-29

Plans for the 25th edition of the FSGW Getaway Friday, October 27 through Sunday, October 29, are well under way, and applications are rolling in. Workshops in music, song and dance, concerts, a Friday night dance, and many more activities are planned. The list of special guests who are coming is growing, running the gambit from Gordon Bok to Bob Zentz! (Others include Barbara Carns, Mike Holmes, Kendall Morse, David Jones, Louise Sherman, Maggi Peirce, Tom Lewis, Mark Gilston, Joan Sprung, John & Ginny Dildine).

An application form is on page 15 of this Newsletter. If you can't come for the whole week-end, come down for one day. Day-tripper rates are on the form, and dinner is available if you sign-up in advance (by Oct. 22). Questions & Info: call Getaway Chairs: Bob Clayton (or Jennifer Woods) 703-528-8537 or Mary Cliff (703) 534-7581.

Volunteers Wanted for Getaway Meals Especially!

The FSGW Getaway Committee is looking for chefs to prepare meals at the 25th Annual FSGW Getaway, Friday, October 27 through Sunday, October 29. Friday night's dinner is potluck, but after that we serve meals that we prepare. Jody Fitterer is coordinating chefs & is looking for people to mastermind meals. If you are interested in cooking for 150+ for a meal, please call Jody at 301-864-4131. If you are interested in helping in some other way, please call Getaway Co-Chairs: Bob Clayton (703-528-8537) or Mary Cliff (703-534-7581).

CDSS Ski/Dance Weekend January 12-15, 1990

Think Snow!! The CDSS Ski/Dance Weekend will be on Martin Luther King Weekend in the Laurel Highlands of Pennsylvania. Cross-country ski, ice-skate, toboggan during the day; in the evening dance contras, etc, to music of "Hold the Mustard" & "Amaryllis" with callers Sue DuPre, Connie Waring, Marlin Whitaker, Peter Fricke. Co-sponsored by FSGW & Pittsburgh Country Dance Society to benefit Country Dance & Song Society (CDSS). Registration form available by sending self-addressed, stamped, long envelope to: CDSS Ski/Dance Weekend, c/o Peter Fricke, 2106 Seminary Rd., Silver Spring, MD 20910. Better hurry...these ski/dance weekends are very popular.

Thanks to Kyle Terrell for lettering this month's calendar.

Cajun
Dance-Concert
with Beausoleil
at Glen Echo Park
Monday, October 2,
6:30pm thru the evening

On Monday evening, Oct. 2, at Glen Echo Park, Beausoleil will play a "dance-concert" to benefit the Washington Folk Festival's last spring's benefit.

As you remember, last spring Glen Echo Park had its own 70-car bayou which played havoc with events held at the park. The flood added new meaning to the phrase "the event was a real wash-out!" Anyway, that's all in the past & a benefit with the nation's hottest cajun-zydeco Louisiana music band is set for Monday, Oct. 2.

The festivities will start with a cajun covered-dish supper at the Bumper Car Pavilion (no, that's not the lower parking lot!) at 6:30pm FSGW will supply juices, soda, paper goods & hot sauce. You supply a dish large enough to feed twice the size of your party. That way, the Beausoleilans get to eat too!

If you can't make the supper, be there for the dance which starts at 8pm. Admission is $10. Remember 2 years ago? We had over 500 people for this event. Eat, drink, & Be Cajun! & support the Washington Folk Festival.

Tommy Sands & Pat Kilbride - September Program
September 8, 8:30pm

The September FSGW Program, Friday, Sept. 8, at 8:30pm in the Auditorium of the Washington Ethical Society, features two great Irish musicians, Tommy Sands & Pat Kilbride.

Tommy Sands' career has spanned nearly 20 years, generated 15 albums & seen him headlining appearances with his siblings in Europe & the U.K. He is an outstanding performer, a committed social activist, & one of Ireland's most powerful songwriters. His best-known song, "There Were Roses," is a ballad on the futility of sectarian violence; it already has become a folk classic. It can be heard on his album Singing of the Times (Green Linnet SIF 3044). Down by Benny's Lane, Tommy's magical recording of Irish songs & stories for children of all ages (Green Linnet CSIF 1085) is fast becoming a family favorite. Sands plays guitar, bodhran, tin whistle & banjo. He is also a storyteller of traditional Irish tales. Pete Seeger says, "Tommy Sands has achieved that difficult but wonderful balance between knowing & loving the traditions of his home & being concerned with the future of the whole world."

Pat Kilbride is originally from County Kildare & recently moved to the U.S. A former member of the popular Scottish group the Battlefield Band, Kilbride has been acclaimed as "one of Ireland's finest guitarists." He is also a fine singer whose heartfelt interpretations of both traditional & contemporary songs have broad appeal. His inventive arrangements combine diverse musical influences (jazz, classical, African & middle eastern, rock & roll, & -of course- traditional Celtic music). In addition to Ireland, Pat has lived in Brittany & Brussels. Frequent concert & festival appearances won him an enthusiastic following in Europe, where he continues to tour quite regularly. More Rock and Roses, Kilbride's new recording (CD & cassette only--on Flying Fish) will be released in the U.S. this fall.

Programs are FREE to FSGW members, $5 for nonmembers. WES Auditorium is at 7750 Sixteenth St. NW, D.C. (16th NW & Kalmia Rd.).

VOLUNTEERING: A Chance to Join In the Fun!

Volunteers & Thanks!

Special Events Notes

Thanks to all who called with offers to help with Special Events this year. Your willingness to help is much appreciated; you can be sure we'll call you!

Volunteers still are needed to do such things as:

- * provide housing
- * transportation for performers
- * transport the sound system to & from concerts
- * run the sound system

* sell tickets

* sell performers' recordings before & after concerts & during intermissions

* pick up & transport performers from airports & train stations

* help set up chairs before concerts.

If you'd like to help in one or more capacities, please call Kathy Westra Hickerson (984-5254 (w) or 270-5881 (h)). Volunteer Chair Janine Smith 926-9142 also has info on other FSGW volunteer opportunities.

FSGW Editorial Policy

We try to print all copy that is relevant to FSGW's purpose, and membership (Quote from the FSGW Bylaws: "The main purpose of the Society is to further the understanding, investigation, appreciation, and performance of the traditional folk music and folklore of the American people."). However, in most instances, it is simply impossible to print copy in full. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news followed by listings of out-of-town, non-FSGW events.

More FSGW Events*Open Sing*"This is My First Time Here"*Friday, September 1, 8:30pm

COME and SING, or just listen at the September Open Sing. The leader will be Ellen Aaron who has chosen the above mentioned topic. You can sing or suggest any songs that you can relate to the topic, however circuitously: sing a song you sang at your first open sing; sing a song you've never done before at an open sing; sing a song about first times; if it really is your first open sing, sing any song you want to. Everyone is welcome to come, relax, and enjoy a good sing. This sing will be September 1, 8:30 p.m. at the home of Dennis & Judy Cook in Laurel, MD. Call for directions days or evenings 953-3510 (no toll from VA), or 776-4314.

October will find us back at the Auditorium at the Washington Ethical Society, 7750 16th St., N.W. Admission will be lowered to $3.00 per person to help cover the cost of the hall.

Open Sings are held the first Friday of every month.

Gospel Sing*Sunday, September 10, 4pm

The September 10 Gospel Sing will be at the home of Joe Rose in Wheaton, MD. Call him at 871-8887 for directions. Singing will start around 4pm. Covered dish supper will be shared, with more singing to follow. Many styles of religious music are likely to be sung--bluegrass, spirituals, church hymns, etc. All welcome!

Sacred Harp Sing*Sunday, September 24, 4pm

Jane Taylor hosts the monthly sing on Sunday, Sept. 24. Singing is from the Original Sacred Harp songbook; begins at 4pm; breaks at 6pm for pot-luck supper social hour; continues 7pm. Extra songbooks are available. No previous experience necessary. All are welcome. Info/directions: (703) 764-0936.

Sacred Harp Dinner-Sing*Wednesday, September 27, 6pm

FSGW's Sacred Harp group has arranged for a dinner/sing with a busload of visiting Alabama singers at Mt. Vernon Unitarian Church on Wed., Sept. 27. Dinner 6pm; singing starts between 7:30-8pm. We will use shapenotes and will sing in a hollow square. Info: (301) 926-9142 or (703) 960-5945.

Storytellers Meeting*Saturday, September 23, 7:30pm

On Sat., Sept. 23, Storytellers & listeners are invited to the home of Paul van Gulick in NW DC to share stories & snacks & hear about Paul's bicycle travels. RSVP/directions: (202) 332-8381.

Advanced English Country Dance Workshop*Tuesday, September 12, 7:30pm

This series of 2nd Tues. monthly workshops begins Tues., Sept. 12, 7:30pm. The series is not for beginning dancers. Location: Christ Church Parish Hall, 3116 "O" St. NW, Georgetown. Music by Liz Donaldson & friends; dancing led by Peter Fricke. Admission: $3.50, FSGW members; $5, nonmembers. Info: (301) 565-9530 or FSGW Hotline.

Capital Vintage Dance Society

National Folk Archive Volunteers Needed!

Once again, the Archive of Folk Culture at the Library of Congress is accepting volunteers. If you can spend a day ( or a few hours) a week & want to help out at the hub of federal folk activity, call Joe Hickerson, the Archive's Head, Mon.-Fri., 8:30am-5pm, (202) 707-5510 to arrange a starting time. if you have more time available, inquire about the Archive's Intern Program. You too can join the ranks of over 250 past interns and bold volunteers, going all the way back to Pete Seeger in 1938!

If your schedule does not permit volunteering or interning at the Folk Archive, but you would still like to help out, please consider making a donation to the Friends of the Folk Archive Fund. Such donations are tax deductible, & can be made payable to the Archive of Folk Culture, Library of Congress (Washington, DC 20540).

Dance Events

Editorial Policy for Dance Events

Because so many dancers seek dances with live music, all dance event articles submitted should state whether the music is recorded or live. We do this as a service to our members. No dance copy will be used that does not state live or recorded music.

Own a Spot on the Dance Floor! Glen Echo Park Foundation

The $300,000 awarded by the State of Maryland for refurbishing the Spanish Ballroom must be matched by private funds. To raise these funds, the Foundation is "selling" square feet of the dance floor for $144 each. The floor is divided into different dances so that your own square foot can be in the dance of your choice! If you aren't into dancing but have a green thumb, you can buy a $25 piece around the edge of the room (wallflowers) in a popular corsage flower. If your budget truly imposes restraint, you can buy square inches, $1 each of dances or flowers.

You will receive a handsome deed for your property but must leave your property at the Park (ahem!). Info: Diane 320-2330, or send your check to The Glen Echo Park Foundation, 7300 MacArthur Blvd., Glen Echo, MD 20812.

Dance & Stress

Judith Lynne Hanna, folklorist, has written a new book, Dance and Stress: Resistance, Reduction, & Euphoria. Available from AMS Press, 56 E 13th St. NY 10003, $20.75 - includes postage. (212) 777-4700.
