14TH ANNUAL WASHINGTON FOLK FESTIVAL - JUNE 2 & 3
at Glen Echo Park

It's almost summer, and it's festival season again! Like the swallows returning to Capistrano, and the buzzards returning to Hinckley, the Washington Folk Festival returns to Glen Echo Park for two days of FREE music, dance, storytelling, kids' programs and crafts!

The Festival goes on, rain or shine, from noon until 10 PM, Saturday, June 2, and from noon until 6 PM, Sunday, June 3. Glen Echo National Park is located at Goldsboro Rd. and MacArthur Blvd. in Glen Echo, MD. Parking is very limited after last year's flood, so carpool or catch the N8 bus from the Friendship Heights Metro stop. Bring a picnic, a blanket and the whole family!

This year's program features both familiar and new faces. You'll hear the tight Balkan harmonies of Slaveya, the intricate music and dance of a Balinese kenreling, and the masterful duo of Fink and Marxer. Workshops feature everything from old time country music to bagpipes from around the world to the rhythms of tap and step dancing. Storytellers Sharon Butler, Linda Fang and many others will enthral with their tales. Craftspeople will show the arts of quilting, ornamental inlay, instrument construction and much more. Kids can join in the fun of singing nonsense songs or seeing how musical instruments really work. See the schedule on the next page for a host of other acts!

As always, all the performers and artists in the Festival are from the Washington area. They, and all the staff, are volunteers. If you'd like to help, too, visit the Festival Office. The Festival is made possible with the support of the National Park Service, the Montgomery County Council on the Humanities, and the kind donations of individuals and organizations. Thanks to all of you, and enjoy the Festival!

SPARKY & RHONDA RUCKER HOUSE CONCERT
Saturday, June 23, 8pm

Sparky Rucker, folk-blues performer, storyteller, historian, folklorist and educator, and his wife, Rhonda, pay a special visit to FSGW for a house concert June 23, 8pm, at the home of Lars Hanslin in Chevy Chase, MD. Sparky's voice ranges from a throaty growl to a warble, backed by the rhythm of his bottleneck guitar playing. Rhonda Rucker is a versatile performer, singing harmonies with Sparky and playing harmonica. Rhonda has studied with Washington's Phil Wiggins, and applies her techniques when accompanying Sparky. Their concerts are total experiences in sound, history and culture, mixing song, legend, tale, and historical narrative in an exploration which tells the story of American life. Once a teacher and now a travelling troubadour, Sparky mixes jokes and comments on contemporary life with the historical roots of the traditional material he loves so well. Admission to this intimate concert is $5, FSGW; $7, non-members. Call (301) 654-4317 for directions to the Hanslin house.

Thomas & Tarmo Urb
Estonian Freedom Songs

June Program at WES: Friday, June 8, 8:30pm

The FSGW June Program features two brothers from Estonia who bring to the US a view of Eastern Block life not often heard. This is the first DC concert appearance by these recent emigres, who just have been honored by the Congressional Human Rights Foundation. They will be featured later this month on Diane Rehm's WAMU talk show. Their songs are topical, original, mostly in English, and accompanied by guitar. It is reminiscent of topical folk music of the '60s. Changing politics in changing times! Join us at Washington Ethical Society Auditorium, 7750 16th St. NW, DC. Programs are FREE to members, including those who join at this event, and $6 all others.

FSGW "On the Way Home"
Friday, July 13, 8pm

Friday, July 13 will be "FSGW Night" at Arena Stage's Old Vat Room for an 8pm performance of Stephen Wade's "On the Way Home". After 8 years at Arena with his previous show, "Banjo Dancing", Stephen Wade has prepared a new selection of American stories, songs, tales, and historical narratives all accompanied by his favorite banjos and banjo pieces. Steve (an FSGW member) is a veteran researcher of folk and traditional sources and has prepared materials for film and television as well as for his own shows. He came to Arena for a 3 week run in January 1981 and his engaging and effervescent manner have been charming audiences and critics alike ever since. Now, through a special arrangement with Arena Stage, FSGW members can see the new show at 35 percent off the normal ticket price. The tickets cost $9.75 and must be reserved in advance by calling the Arena group sales office at (202) 488-4380. Ask for the FSGW group on July 13. You will need your membership card to pick up your tickets on the night of the performance. A block of seats will held until July 2. Additional seats will be on an as available basis. Reserve your seats now for a special opportunity to enjoy this delightful evening.

NEW! NEW! NEW! Sunday night dancers are invited to gather before the dances for "Picnics in the Park." Show up at 6:30. BYO Everything: share conversation & the chance to get to know your fellow dancers better. Let's enjoy even more of Glen Echo Park!

June 3: Robbin Schaeffer; band TBA. Robbin will call an evening of all contras to the music of a band not worn out by the festival.

June 10: Bridget Edwards with The New Findhorn Ceili Band. Dance an evening of contras & quadrilles to the calling of Bridget Edwards, currently of Bloomington, Indiana to the music of one of Washington's Irish bands, New Findhorn Ceili. The band is Steve Hickman and Olivia Carter Pokras, fiddles, Marty Taylor, flute & concertina; Matt Kuldell, drums; Len Mitchell, bass; Liz Donaldson, piano.

June 17: Tuppence Blackwell & Triple Delight. Washington's own Tuppence Blackwell returns to call an evening of mixed contras & squares (mostly contras) to the music of Triple Delight. A stir fry of music from New England & Quebec, Ireland & Shetland, the band is Charlie Pilzer, piano; Ellen Jacobs, fiddle; Karen Ashbrook, hammer dulcimer; Dan Blum, guitar.

June 24: Frank Hall & The Bodyrockers. Frank Hall, also of Bloomington, Indiana makes a rare appearance in Washington, DC to call an evening of mixed contras & squares to the music of The Bodyrockers. As the name suggests the music will make your feet want to move. The band is Greg Hooven, fiddle & guitar; John Hermann, bass & guitar; Dirk Powell, banjo.

July 1: Wild Wild Asparagus. George Marshall calls an evening of all contras and plays concertina, bodhran and bones along with the rest of the gang - Ann Percival, piano, guitar, synthesizer, & vocals; David Cantieni, the woodwind wizard, oboe, flute, fife, saxophone & recorder; Susan Sternberg, fiddle.

July 8: Bob Dalsemer with Tripping up Stairs. There will be no walkthroughs. Workshop starts 4:30pm. $2, members; $3, non-members. Potluck supper 6:15pm in the bumper car pavilion; the dance starts 7:30pm.

The days music is by one of Princeton's hottest New England Style Bands, last appearing in Washington 2 years ago on the hottest day ever recorded in May (or almost) and consists of Robert Mills, Jan Dressier, & John Pranio. Don't miss this event. It will be the last afternoon workshop until October.

July 15: Ron Buchanan with TBA. A mastermind behind contemporary square dancing, Ron's dances are fast moving, challenging, contain new and unusual figures and are, of course, a lot of fun. For those of you who were at this year's Chesapeake Dance Weekend, Kathy Anderson almost exclusively called Ron Buchanan's squares. Coming from Pittsburgh & not often seen in Washington, this will be a night not to miss.

July 22: Carlotta Wellington with Devil Among the Taylors. Carlotta calls an evening of all contras to the lyrical music of Devil Among the Taylors: Marty, flute and concertina; Wayne, fiddle; the devil is Jonathan Jenson, piano.

July 29: Sue Dupre with Klesmos. Sue calls an evening of contras & geometric shapes to music of Washington's newest contradance band. Klesmos, many of whose tunes are based on traditional Klezmer music: Marc Glickman, piano; Wendy Morrison, accordion; Jonah Blaustein, clarinet.

FSGW Editorial Policy

We try to print all copy that is relevant to FSGW's purpose, and membership (Quote from the FSGW Bylaws: "The main purpose of the Society is to further the understanding, investigation, appreciation, and performance of the traditional folk music and folklore of the American people."). However, in most instances, it is simply impossible to print copy in full. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news followed by listings of out-of-town, non-FSGW events.

Congratulations to Our New Board!
We extend a warm welcome to the 1990–1991 board: both new and returning members! Elections are over & the results are in the box below.

Not being on the Board does not mean "hands off" to the rest of the membership. Volunteer organizations rely on members to do all tasks, both large and small. So, folks, call the Board Member of your choice today & find out how you can help FSGW!

National Folk Archive
Volunteers Needed!
Once again, the Archive of Folk Culture at the Library of Congress is accepting volunteers. If you can spend a day (or a few hours) a week & want to help out at the hub of federal folk activity, call Joe Hickerson, the Archive's Head, Mon.-Fri., 8:30am-5pm, (202) 707-5510 to arrange a starting time. More time available? How about the Archive's Intern Program. You too can join the ranks of 250+ past interns & bold volunteers, going all the way back to Pete Seeger in 1938!

If your schedule does not permit volunteering or interning at the Folk Archive, but you would still like to help out, please consider making a tax-deductible donation to the Friends of the Folk Archive Fund (make payable to the Archive of Folk Culture, Library of Congress, Washington, DC 20540).
