Annual FSGW Picnic Sunday, August 19th
River Bend Park, Great Falls, Virginia

Well, it’s been another long, hot, humid Washington Summer, but relief is available at the annual FSGW Picnic. On Sunday, August 19, FSGW members, friends, and any other interested folkies will gather at Riverbend Park in Great Falls, VA. Bring a potluck dish to share, musical instruments, and voices to join in music and friendship. An informal affair, the FSGW picnic has no fee and set schedule except the starting time of 12:30 pm. Things to remember — NO alcohol, NO pets (except on leashes). The park is on the Potomac River, so water safety rules should be remembered. The park, unlike other parks we’ve used before, is less developed. There are no ball fields or tennis courts, just trees, picnic groves, and hiking trails. There are boats to rent, if you want to.

To get to Riverbend Park, take Rte. 193 (Georgetown Pike) west from the I-495 Beltway. Pass the traffic light at Old Dominion Drive, and shortly thereafter turn right on River Bend Rd. Watch for the Signs! From River Bend Rd., turn right on Jeffrey Rd., and right again at the Park entrance. Follow the park road to the end, turn left toward the Visitor Center. The picnic pavilion is in the trees just past the far end of the parking lot. Hope to see you there!

26TH Annual FSGW Getaway
October 19-21, 1990

The 26th FSGW Getaway takes place October 19 - 21 at YMCA Camp Letts, near Annapolis, MD. A weekend refuge from the bustle of city life, the Getaway is devoted to folk music and song, crafts, tales, dance and fellowship. Last year’s event was so much fun that we expect another good turnout. The three nights and two days of activities include workshops and song swaps, informal music-making, children’s activities, tales, meals, and concerts.

Most Getaway participants are local to the Washington area, but the Getaway Committee also invites a number of special out-of-town guests, so there’s plenty of opportunity to meet some very interesting and entertaining people. Getaway Chair Mary Cliff hasn’t confirmed this year’s guests yet, but we expect to again have some fine ones. You don’t have to sing or play an instrument to enjoy a Getaway, either, and you don’t even have to be an FSGW member (although FSGW members do get preference if there is any shortage of space).

Full registration, including cabins, food, and all activities, costs $70 (adults) and $30 (children). There are also special rates for families.

To get a headstart in attending this year’s Getaway, complete and return the application form on page seven of this month’s Newsletter. The mailing address is FSGW Getaway, PO Box 13941, Silver Spring, MD 20911-3941. The deadline for applying is Sunday, October 14, but happy campers won’t delay too long, lest they miss out.

More FSGW News

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 14th Annual Washington Folk Festival, FSGW’s showcase for local performers and craftspeople in the folk arts, was a big success. Over 15,000 people were treated to two days of music, dance, storytelling and crafts from our wealth of local talent. The Festival Coordinating Committee gives a big THANK YOU! to all the performers, volunteers and staff people who gave their time, talents and energy to make the Festival happen.

The Festival is the biggest single event the FSGW produces each year, and is an important way to fulfill our chartered goal of promoting and preserving traditional arts in the Washington area. We’ve been lucky to have a rich diversity of local artists and performers who are willing to share their talents with the Festival audience. But the FSGW has also been fortunate in its other volunteers — all the people who share their skills at organizing, fundraising, building, running sound, cooking and doing all the other jobs involved in presenting 500+ performers.

If you volunteered this year, or in past years, you know how much fun it is to meet and work with other folks who share an enthusiasm for putting on a show like this. We’re already planning for next year — our 15th Anniversary. Be a part of it! We’re looking for people who’d like to get more involved with planning and organizing committees. We’d also like ideas for new local performers or topics for program workshops. Did you see things you liked this year? Do you have suggestions for changes you’d like to make happen next year? Let Coordinators Nancy King (301-933-3073) and Mary LaMarca (301-229-5845) know what you’d like to do next year. Thank you all for making this year lots of fun for everyone involved!

Smithsonian Hospitality Thanks!

Thanks to all those who volunteered and helped support the evening Participant Hospitality for the Smithsonian Festival of America Folk Life: Barbara Marriock, Bruce Gewirz, Fran Vall, Mike Kirby, Eleanor Schwartz, Charity Gourley, Walt Comisiak, Don Stallone, Gloria Lebowitz, Moodancer, Martha Hayes, Phil Hayden, Mark Miller, Jody Fitterer, Phyl & Mami Levy, Teresa Saunders, Virginia Witecke, Kyle Terrell, Pam Fox, Jennifer Woods, Bob Clayton, Mary LaMarca, George Stephens, Jerry Navratil, John Davis, and Nancy & Lou Shapiro.

The hotel crew were very helpful; the staff and participants let us know we were appreciated. As always, it was an experience unlike any other. Thanks! Mary Cliff.

Interested in helping plan the Getaway? Come to the planning meeting, Tuesday, August 7, at 8pm. Call Mary Cliff at 703-534-7581 for locations and further details.
August Open Sing
Friday, Aug 3, 8:30 pm
The August Open Sing will be held in the home of Dennis and Judy Cookin Laurel, MD. This month, we could find no leader, so the assembled Open Singers chose the topic of "Follow the Leader(less)," or another go-round of the blind leading the blind. The point of "Follow the Leader" is to produce a song that is connected, in some way, no matter how nebulously, no matter how convoluted your reasoning, to the one sung previously. The result is that you are often able to sing a song of your choice, instead of being confined to a topic. Conversely, one song can remind you of a song you haven't remembered for some time, which helps keep good songs alive.

There is no admission charge for the Sing, but attendees should bring munchies and liquid refreshment for themselves. Call Dennis or Judy at 301-776-4314 for details and directions. First time Open Singers are always welcome, too.

September's Open Sing will be held at the NEW Maryland home of Bob Clayton and Jennifer Woods in Silver Spring, MD.

Gospel Sing

Sacred Harp Sing
Sun., Aug. 26, 4 pm
Bask on the deck, throw a few burgers on the grill, and then sing in the air-conditioned indoor comfort of the Gaithersburg, MD home of Janine Smith on Sunday, August 26. Singing starts at 4 pm, breaks at 6 pm for the pot-luck supper, and resumes at 7 pm. All are welcome, and no prior musical experience is needed (we train!). Extra copies of the Original Sacred Harp and Christian Harmony, the shape-note singing books which form the basis of this historical style of harmony singing, are available for use.

For information and directions, call Janine at 301-926-9142. Call ahead to coordinate grill food.
