Bok, Trickett and Muir in Concert
Saturday, November 10, 8:30pm
Bradley Hills Church, Bethesda MD
The popular trio of Gordon Bok, Ed Trickett and Ann Mayo Muir return to FSGW for a special concert Saturday, November 10, 8:30pm, at Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church, 6601 Bradley Blvd., Bethesda MD. The three singer/instrumentalists have been blending their voices in song for a number of years, but their many fans haven't tired of the wonderful sounds they make. Backed by the 6- and 12-string guitars of Gordon and Ed, as well as the music of Gordon's cellamba, a sort of fretted cello, the trio always presents a marvelous collection of songs. Some of the music comes from the fertile mind of Gordon Bok, while some of the rest comes from the best of today's songwriters, captured by Ed's musical radar, which is unerring.
Tickets are $10 (FSGW) and $12 (non-members). Advance tickets can still be ordered from FSGW Tickets, c/o J. Woods, PO Box 13941, Silver Spring, MD 20911-3941. Orders received on or after Saturday, November 3, will be held at the door. Be sure to check availability of tickets at the door on the day of the concert by calling the FSGW Hotline (703)281-2228.

Bayley-Hazen Singers
Friday, November 30, 8:30pm
Friends Meeting House, McLean VA
Revolutionary-era fugue tunes and folk hymns as well as Malcolm Dalglish's Hymnody of Earth will be featured on Fri., Nov. 30, 8:30pm, as Vermont's acclaimed Bayley-Hazen Singers perform in concert at the Friends Meeting House, 6410 Georgetown Pike (Rte 193), McLean VA. Admission is $6, FSGW; $8, general public.

Hailed by the Washington Post for their "sheer agility, vitality and color," the dozen members of Bayley Hazen are among the country's foremost performers and proponents of the lively and arresting music of the late 18th century New England singing school tradition. These songs were created by itinerant master singers for the hearty rural singing movement that flourished in the years 1770-1810. It is immensely powerful music, featuring open, medieval-sounding harmonies, haunting modal melodies, energetic rhythmic counterpoint, and the fiery rhymed verses of Isaac Watts. This is the music that formed the basis of the Southern Sacred Harp tradition. (Continued on Page 2.)

The concert also includes selections from Hymnody of Earth, an evocative cycle of songs by the well-known traditional music performer Malcolm Dalglish. The musical roots of this masterpiece can be found in shape-note singing, Shaker hymns, Georgia Sea Island songs and a variety of traditional instrumental styles.

On Saturday, December 1, beginning at 10am, Larry Gordon, Bayley-Hazen's director, and the ensemble will lead a workshop and Northern Harmony sing at McLean's Friends Meeting House (same as the previous evening's concert). At 10am there is an introduction to shape-note singing. At noon a pot-luck meal will be shared, and then the singing will continue until 3:30pm. This event is FREE and open to the public; in the shape-note singing tradition, donations will be accepted. Bring your best friend, your favorite dish to share, and - if you have one - your Sacred Harp book, as well.

For both of these events, it is essential that we stretch the limited parking by meeting at Langley High School (located on Georgetown Pike a short distance west of the Friends Meeting House) and carpooling from that parking lot to the concert location. Or, you can take the pleasant half-mile walk along a real sidewalk from the High School to the Meeting House. Information is available both from the FSGW Hotline and from Janine Smith's answering machine (301) 926-9142.

There are jobs for people of every interest and every level of skill. And you can contribute as much or as little time as you like. All we need is your interest and enthusiasm.

As a volunteer you can...
• Develop new skills.
• Receive "optional" admission to specified FSGW events.
• Meet people who share your interests.
• Help contribute to the success of one of the largest and most active folk arts groups in the country.
• And, most importantly, have fun!

Currently we are expanding and updating our volunteer files. We need ticket-takers, sound crews, volunteer coordinators, painters, legal experts, program organizers, word processors...You Name It! So, whether you're a first-time volunteer or a seasoned veteran, we invite you to complete a volunteer survey.

Message from Your President

Glen Echo Update

Many FSGW members are Glen Echo fans and FSGW is lucky to have the park available for dances, festivals, and other events. Some may have forgotten that a struggle is still underway to preserve Glen Echo for future users. I asked Diane Leatherman of the Glen Echo Foundation for an update on the Foundation's activities, especially fundraising for renovation of the Spanish Ballroom. Here is her update:

"A few Glen Echo friends met in a living room in April of 1986 and formed the nucleus of the present-day Glen Echo Park Foundation membership of 2,300 households. The mission of the Foundation is the preservation of Glen Echo Park and its cultural, educational, and recreational programs. It took the Foundation one year to negotiate an agreement with the National Park Service; it was signed at a celebration in May of 1987. Two years later, the State of Maryland voted the Foundation a State bond of $300,000 towards renovation of the Spanish Ballroom if the Foundation succeeds in raising another $300,000 by June 1, 1991.

This fall the Foundation is slightly over one-half of the way to matching the Bond. The source of the $150,000 is at this time more or less, one-third from persons who have invested in their spot on the dance floor; one-third from the benefits being held for the Ballroom, and one-third from the Park Service expenditures on repairing the roof in the fall of 1989.

Less than half of the floor space on the sign in Ballroom that represents "Invest in a space on the dance floor" needs to be sold to match the State Bond. The sale of the entire floor space would represent $730,000.

Pan Masters Steel Orchestra

NOVEMBER PROGRAM
Friday, November 9, 8:30pm
at Silver Spring Unitarian Universalist Church

The FSGW November program on Nov. 9, 8:30pm features the Pan Masters Steel Orchestra at the Unitarian Universalist Church of Silver Spring, 10309 New Hampshire Avenue, Silver Spring, MD (four blocks north of the New Hampshire Ave. Beltway exits; the same location as HMT's Mon. Night Concert Series). Note the different location! The monthly programs are FREE to members, including those joining at this event; $6 others.

The playing of the steeldrum, better known as "pan" to the people of its native land, the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, is the predominant art form in the Caribbean. The Pan Masters Steel Orchestra is committed to performing the highest caliber of music on these instruments. Members of the orchestra entertain and educate their audiences on the potpourri of Caribbean musical styles with particular emphasis on the steeldrum. The repertoire includes calypso, soca, folk, samba, reggae, and classical music. The Pan Masters Steel Orchestra has appeared at many venues in and around Washington, DC. and is identified by many as the preeminent steel orchestra in the area.

On December 14, the FSGW monthly program returns to the WES Auditorium and features Tom Paley.

A few volunteers are needed to help with the program each month. The work involves setting up for the program; assisting with admissions, sound, and sales of artists' recordings; and clearing chairs from the hall after the program. If you would like to assist, please contact Program Chair Charlie Pilzer (301)565-8818, Volunteer Coordinator Coco Glass (703)931-5837 or leave a message on the FSGW Hotline (703)281-2228.

The Watersons are Coming!

Tuesday, December 4, 8pm, at the Birchmere

The Waterson Family, England's premiere performers of traditional English harmony singing, will hold forth on Tues., Dec. 4, 8pm, in a concert sponsored by FSGW at the Birchmere (3901 Mt Vernon Ave, Alexandria VA). Sing in the Season with Wassail songs, Kissing Boughs, and carols. Admission, available only at the door, is $8, FSGW; $10, others. Mark your calendars for this December event!

When the Foundation is successful in matching the $300,000 next June-- the resulting unspent $550,000 ($50,000 was already spent by the Park Service on the roof) will provide a good start on structurally repairing the building. It will probably not accomplish all of the long range hopes for Spanish Ballroom:
1. To make it structurally sound. 2. To restore it historically and cosmetically. 3. To make it a year-round facility."

If you have more questions or if you wish to get involved, call the Foundation office at (301)320-2330. Remember, we still have a lot to do to preserve Glen Echo for future enjoyment. -- Joel B.
FSGW Sunday Night Dances

at Takoma Park Intermediate School, 7-10pm

Starting with the November 4th dance, we return for the winter to Takoma Park Intermediate School, 7611 Piney Branch Rd, Takoma Park MD. The dance is designed for intermediate to advanced dancers (i.e. little teaching, short walk-throughs, lots of music & dancing). Dances start at 7pm & end at 10pm promptly. Admission: $4, FSGW, BFMS, ATDS, CDSS, and Senior Citizens; $6 non-members.

Nov. 4: Larry Edelman & the Critton Hollow String Band. Larry calls a dynamic evening of mixed contras & squares to the music of Critton Hollow. Joe Herrman, fiddle; Sam Herrman, guitar & hammer dulcimer; and Joe Fal- lon, guitar.

Nov. 11: Bill Trautman & Roustabout. Bill calls an evening of mixed contras and squares to the driving southern-style music of Roustabout. Chris Romaine plays fiddle; Nancy Mamlin, bass; and Larry Edelman, mandolin (Chris has also promised a special guest appearance by a well-known political figure - my lips are sealed).

Nov. 18: Callers' Graduation Ceremony with Evening Star. The participants in this months callers' workshop will share the program for tonight's dance. Washington's swinging band, Evening Star (starring Steve Hickman, fiddle; Claudio Buchwald, piano; David Crandall, saxophone, flute & clarinet; and John De- vine, guitar) will play their own special blend of toe-tapping, foot-stomping music with a twist. Don't miss this special evening of debut callers.

Nov. 25: Connie Waring & New Original Sin. Eat too much over the Thanksgiving weekend? The Sunday Night Dance is a perfect cure. Connie Waring travels from Philadelphia to call an evening of mixed contras and squares to the hot-tempoed music of one of Washington's newest bands: Claudio Buchwald, fiddle; Marc Glickman, piano; Wendy Morri- son, concertina & accordion; and John De- vine, guitar.

ROBIN'S CORNER: After a fairly exhaustive search, TPIS seemed to be the most appropriate place for the SND - I hope the new times work out. Let me know. Unfortunately, in order to change hours, we would be forced into what I felt were significantly less desirable halls. For those of you accepted into the Callers' Workshop, they run from 1:30-5pm, November 4, 11 and 18.

FSGW is again sponsoring two New Year's Eve dances. There will be a contra dance at the Leland Community Center and an English Country dance at the Adelphi Mill. Further information is available inside this Newsletter and on flyers at local area dances.

If you would like to volunteer for the contra dance, please speak with me or Betsy Platt, who has generously agreed to chair this year's event. Thanks to this month's volunteers.

First Call:
Minifest Coming Your Way
Saturday, February 2, 1991
The Folklore Society Minifest is coming, Sat., Feb. 2, 1991 at Takoma Park Intermediate School. One purpose is to blast away the mid-winter blahs with song, dance, crafts, and bringing merriment and renewing the creative spirit. The other purpose is to raise funds for FSGW and its many programs to come. The day features workshops, dance and jam sessions presented in a relaxed, informal environment. The emphasis is on participatory events designed to expand skills, and allow folks to meet new friends and have a good time. The evening offers a choice of a concert or a contra dance. All staff and performers donate their time, and proceeds from the admission fee go directly to FSGW.

Preparations are underway, and Minifest needs your help. The festival is the result of many people contributing their effort, imagination and skills. We especially need people to help with publicity, to contact performers, and to organize volunteers.

There is still time to volunteer to perform at the festival, or to propose the workshop you've always wanted to attend--or to lead. Suggestions of crafts activities and family programs are especially welcome. And, of course, many more hands will be needed the day of the festival to help with setup and cleanup and everything in between.

If you can contribute in any way, contact co-chairs Joel Greer or Annie Storr at (301) 589-6058. Above all, mark the date, February 2nd, on your calendar (yes, it's time to get a 1991 calendar) for a day of singing, dancing and companionship.

New Membership Directory: Coming Soon!
After a two-year lapse, FSGW will publish a new membership directory approximately Dec. 1. We would like the information in it to be as accurate and up-to-date as possible. If you have any changes to your address or home telephone number (we do NOT publish work numbers!), please inform the membership committee on or before Nov. 26. We can omit your address or your telephone number or both or your entire entry as you wish. Please tell us this also (if you haven't already) by Nov. 26. Call Don or Dolores Nichols, FSGW membership committee, at (703)938-4564 evenings and weekends. An answering machine will be there when they are not.

Details on cost and how to obtain a directory will be in next month's newsletter. We do NOT automatically mail a copy to all 3000 members! Thanks for your help and co-operation!

FSGW Editorial Policy
We try to print all copy that is relevant to FSGW's purpose and membership (Quote from the FSGW Bylaws: "The main purpose of the Society is to further the understanding, investigation, appreciation, and performance of the traditional folk music and folklore of the American people."). However, in most instances, it is simply impossible to print copy in full. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news, followed by listings of out-of-town, non-FSGW events.
