SALLY ROGERS with KATZBERG & SNYDER

Saturday, May 18, 8:30 pm

George Mason High School, Falls Church, VA

Singer/songwriter/recording artist Sally Rogers will perform in a double bill with Katzberg & Snyder at George Mason High School, 7124 Leesburg Pike (Rt. 7) in Falls Church, VA (walking distance from E. Falls Church Metro) on Sat., May 18, at 8:30 pm. Sally Rogers performs traditional, contemporary and original songs, interwoven with stories from her life as a performer, a wife and a mother. She accompanies herself on guitar and Appalachian dulcimer, or performs without accompaniment in a voice that reviewers have described as "remarkable" and "mesmerizing." Her material includes her own compositions, many of which are considered popular and folk classics.

Katzberg & Snyder (Kate and Steve), known for their musical buffoonery and political satire, sing in an energetic close-harmony style. They've performed together for 14 years, chronicling aspects of modern life from convenience stores to shopping malls, homophobia to xenophobia, and the struggles of the downtrodden to the joys of yuppiedom. Tickets at the door; $8 FSGW members, $10 others.

TOAST STRING STRETCHERS

Old Time String Band

MAY PROGRAM

Friday, May 10, 8:30 pm

Last year FSGW invited Paul Brown to perform, but the concert was snowed out. This year we asked Paul back and he is coming with his whole band, the TOAST STRING STRETCHERS. You don't have to be familiar with old time string band music to like the Toast String Stretchers. Instrumentation includes fiddle, guitar, standup bass, mandolin, fretless and fretted old-time banjo and the banjo-ukelele, plus vocals. The band offers a wide range of bluegrass, old time and early country songs.

TOAST STRING STRETCHERS

(cont. from front page) The Toast String Stretchers have won many prizes at fiddlers' conventions in Virginia, North Carolina, and Tennessee, and still perform regularly on radio. Band members are Frank Bode, who performed with the Smokey Valley Boys; Ginny Bode, who comes from a musical Surry County, NC family; Verlen Clifton, a member of the legendary Camp Creek Boys in the 1960s who later played with the Smokey Valley Boys; Terri McMurray, formerly of the Old Hollow String Band; Paul Brown, who played with the Smokey Valley Boys and Surry County Boys and has collected music in the area; and finally Barbara Poole, who grew up in a musical family that included fiddler Norman Edmonds of the Old Timers band.

The program will be held at the Washington Ethical Society Auditorium, 7750 16th Street, NW., Washington DC. on Friday, May 12, starting at 8:30pm. The monthly programs are FREE to members, including those joining at this event; $6 others.

There will be no June program due to the Washington Folk Festival the weekend of June 1-2. The Program Chairman thanks Future View for the video equipment used in the March program, and all the volunteers who made each program possible throughout the year.

FSGW Editorial Policy

We try to print all copy that is relevant to FSGW's purpose and membership. (Quote from the FSGW Bylaws: "The main purpose of the Society is to further the understanding, investigation, appreciation, and performance of the traditional folk music and folklore of the American people.") However, in most instances, it is simply impossible to print copy in full. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news, followed by listings of out-of-town, non-FSGW events. In addition, we print a calendar each month unless it pushes the entire issue into a more expensive category for either postage or printing.

FSGW BOARD CANDIDATES' STATEMENTS

The following statements have been prepared by the candidates for the 1991-1992 FSGW Board. Statements for contested positions are presented in alphabetical order. Please use this information to help you decide how to cast your vote. A ballot for members is enclosed in the Newsletter. For your vote to be counted, it must be received no later than Sunday, May 12. Ballots may be sent by mail, or they may be turned in at the FSGW Program, Friday, May 10, or the FSGW Sunday Night Dance, May 12.

President

Dean Clamons--I guess the fact that I've done the job before makes me qualified. The fact that I'm willing to do it again may bring my sanity into question. I would like to see our membership take a more active role in our events. The president's most difficult task is to find people willing to run our major programs. There's a tendency to rely on people who've done jobs before, but for the Society to remain vital, we need to find new people to serve on event planning committees. I intend to expand membership participation in Society activities at all levels, from singing along to chairing events.

Vice President

David Eisner--I tend to consider board positions as 2-year commitments, so I am delighted to run unopposed for the second half of my tenure! We will have a lot of new faces on the Board this year, so it's important for corporate memory to have some repeats. But enough about me, what about you? The office of the vice president doesn't specifically have duties, so here is your chance to not only make suggestions but give them to someone not already burdened with the Society's business. How about some performer suggestions for a major concert or two? Any ideas or campaigns to increase our membership? Feel free to call me at the House of Musical Traditions or at home. Forget about them O's, keep your eye on the Yankees this year. Thanks for your continued support of the Society and don't let your membership lapse.

Secretary

Dottie Hurley--I've been a member of FSGW since Nixon was president, maybe even Johnson. I feel that I owe the Society a great deal since it has given me so much in the way of wonderful music and participation and so many good friends. This includes one of my main joys, shape note singing. For the past two years, I have been secretary of the Potomac River Sacred Harp Convention. Being secretary of FSGW is a pretty big job, and if elected I will do my best to serve well.

Treasurer

Carl Mintz--I have been a member of FSGW since 1975. My primary interest has been in FSGW's dance activities. However, if elected, I look forward to participating in other FSGW activities and events.

Program Chair

Tom Hall--has 10 years of leadership experience in folklore societies in Oregon and Florida, serving as newsletter editor, dance caller and organizing music festivals, concerts and dance weekends. Tom permanently moved back to the D.C. area last fall from Florida. He has been a member of FSGW since 1989, when he was working temporarily at USA Today. Tom, who is now a copy editor at Insight magazine (at the Washington Times), was originally nominated for Publicity Chair. He has received the Nominating Committee's endorsement to run instead for Program Chair, following the previously announced nominee's withdrawal.

Special Events Chair

Grace Kraemer--I wish to bring to the position of Special Events Chair my experience as Washington Folk Festival Program Committee Co-chair and stage manager, Mini-Fest Co-chair and FSGW Getaway Program Committee member. With the support of the FSGW membership, I would accept the challenge to continue the tradition of outstanding special events presentations.

Marika Partridge--There is a wealth of exotic and exciting music out there... and through fellow music enthusiasts and my work at National Public Radio, I do my best to keep up with it. I work for "All Things Considered" as well as for the national weekly showcase "Afropop Worldwide" (--which sadly is not on the air in Washington). If I am elected,

I will attempt to book the music that I would rush to see in live performance: merengue from the Dominican Republic, electrified European folk, forro and samba from Brazil, klezmer music and its Eastern European parents, contemporary Asian folk, experiments in modern Persian music, and plenty more. So if you'd like to see the Folklore Society sponsor such varied and inspiring music in concert, go ahead and vote for me.

Dance Chair

Pat Isman--I have had the Friday/Sunday night contra dance habit for six years now. This familiarity does not breed contempt--au contraire--it has resulted in my desire to contribute to the dance community. My dance mania extends to swing, cajun and tap; my interest encompasses most dance forms. I am familiar with many of the special dance events FSGW and others sponsor in the area. I am the 1991 registrar for Victoria's Revenge in Cape May. I have a great deal of experience managing conferences and workshops; my profession is development management and training. If elected I would continue to support local talent and also keep inviting out-of-towners to add variety and spice. I would like to continue to identify new ways to increase opportunities for enhancing dance skills. I would welcome working with others to expand the variety of dance opportunities in the DC area.

John Nolan--Having lived in places where there is no traditional dancing, it's a pleasure to be part of the active, varied dance community in Washington. My main goal as Dance Chair would be to help keep it an active community. FSGW should support a range of dance styles and encourage instruction for newer dancers. Suggestions for improving the dances will be welcomed; continuing and new volunteers will be cherished! In the past I've managed the Prism, a volunteer coffeehouse in Charlottesville, and been secretary of the Annapolis Traditional Dance Society.

Publications Chair

Ginny Klein--Editing the Newsletter has intensified my appreciation, gained over the past five years as a member of FSGW, for the diversity of talents and interests in the folk community. I hope to see the Newsletter continue to reflect this range of interests. Working with such a dedicated staff has helped immeasurably!

Publicity Chair

We are still seeking a candidate for this position, which involves promoting and publicizing FSGW programs, concerts and special events. If you know of someone with the "awareness of local media, instinct, experience and perseverance" (FSGW Board job description) to fill this position, please contact Nominating Committee Chair Mary K. Friday at 202-543-0355.

Membership Chair

Don Nichols--No statement received.

Members-at-Large (Two Board Positions to be Filled)

Bruce Gewirz--No statement received.

Carly Gewirz--In my nearly two decades with the Society (has it really been that long?!), I've served on many committees, chaired a few of them, helped organize some of the major events (Getaway, Mini-Fest, Washington Folk Festival), and chopped lots of vegetables. A personal commitment to the goals of the Society and the willingness to attend meetings and make phone calls are also among the assets I offer as a member-at-large.

Jane Gorbaty--This is my first year as a member of FSGW. I've loved the Sunday nite dances, the Glen Echo and Mini-Fests, and of course, the Chesapeake Dance Weekend. I have volunteered at festivals and currently help out with the Newsletter. I'd like to learn about what goes on behind the scenes and contribute to FSGW events.

Scott McKnight--I've been a member of FSGW since I moved to this area in 1975 and I consider traditional music and dance to make the world a better place in which to live. I've gotten a lot of enjoyment and made a lot of friends through my participation in the Society over the years, and I'm looking forward to having the opportunity to give something back. I humbly solicit your vote.

Michael Schechtman--I'm interested in helping FSGW continue its long tradition of nurturing D.C. folk music and bringing a wide range of music and dance to D.C. from all over the world. As a dancer, I particularly want FSGW to bring in new musicians, teachers, and callers for contra dances, English dances, and workshops for other dances and would like to help bring yet more dance to the Mini-Fest.
