Former all-Ireland fiddle champion Brendan Mulvihill, accompanied by Donna Long on piano, will headline the FSGW's first monthly program of the 1991-1992 season. This double concert (FREE to FSGW members) will open with the Celtic music group Connemara at 8 p.m. Friday Sept. 13 at the Silver Spring Unitarian-Universalist Church, 10309 New Hampshire Ave. (just outside Beltway off Exit 28A).

Brendan Mulvihill's remarkable intonations and innovative bowing have long impressed the followers of traditional Irish music. The son of the late fiddle master Martin Mulvihill, Brendan began playing at age 13, shortly after the family migrated to America from Limerick in Western Ireland. He has recorded both solo albums and with his former group, the Irish Tradition. Donna Long is a classically trained pianist whose accompaniment ranges from the subtleties of slow O'Carolan airs to the stirring, foot-stomping rhythms of reels and jigs. Both she and Brendan now live in Baltimore.

Connemara is the confluence of four talented area musicians. The purity of Grace Griffith's voice is well known from her singing with Hazlewood, The Hags and The Celtic Connection. Cathy Palmer's classic violin training is evident in her elegant playing style. She was a finalist in last year's National Scottish Fiddling Championships and also plays with the Annapolis-based band Lark in the Morning. Don Stallone (concertina, pennywhistle, bodhran) drives the rhythm for Connemara. He specializes in ballads, sea chanteys and historic songs. Tracie Brown (harp) is a former U. S. National Champion of the Scottish Harp and bronze medalist in the All Ireland Harp Competition. She is also a veteran performer at Celtic music festivals.

All regular FSGW monthly programs are FREE to members, including those who join at this event. Admission for non-members is $6. Upcoming concerts will feature Cajun music, old-time fiddle and banjo, swing and other ingredients that make up the melting pot of America's folk music heritage.

For more information, call 301-270-2770.

FSGW ANNUAL PICNIC

On Saturday, Sept. 7, FSGW will say good-bye to summer at the annual picnic in Clifton, Virginia. Enjoy a relaxing day with other music and dance lovers--this is a great opportunity to meet your fellow and sister FSGW members in a friendly atmosphere, and everyone is welcome! We will begin to gather at 12:30 pm. Please bring a dish to share, something to drink, a blanket or lawn chair(s), and musical instruments. While there is no formal schedule, lots of singing and picking usually take place as well as plenty of socializing. (cont. on p. 3)
FSGW Sunday Night Dances

September 1st at Takoma Park Intermediate School, 7-10pm
All Other September Dances at Glen Echo Park, 7:30-10:30pm

The dance on September 1st will be held at Takoma Park Intermediate School, 7611 Piney Branch Road, Takoma Park, MD, 7-10 pm. The dances on September 8, 15, 22 and 29 will be held at Glen Echo Park in the Spanish Ballroom, 7:30-10:30 pm. Our dances at Glen Echo are held in cooperation with the National Park Service. The weekly dances are aimed at intermediate to advanced dancers (i.e., little teaching, short walk-throughs, lots of music & dancing). Dances start & end promptly. Admission: $4 FSGW, BFMS, ATDS, and CDSS members, NPS Golden Eagle Pass Holders and Senior Citizens; $6 non-members. Please continue to carpool to Glen Echo—the parking lot is not yet completed.

Sept. 1 AT TAKOMA PARK! Dance to Claudio Buchwald calling & playing piano with Evening Star: Steve Hickman on fiddle & harmonica, John Devine on guitar & David Crandall playing saxes and flute. This will be a night of eclectic sounds.

Sept. 8 Bob Dalsemer with call a mix of contras and squares to Cathy Whitesides playing a hot fiddle (or is that hotly playing a fiddle) and Brad Foster on the keyboard. Cathy will join us from the San Francisco area and Brad from N. Massachusetts—they'll play a mix of northern and southern tunes. This will be Bob Dalsemer's last dance as a local before he departs for a year at the John C. Campbell Folk School in Brasstown, NC.

Sept. 15 Robbin Schaffer will call a mix of squares and contras to the tunes of the Porcupine Chasers. Andy Porter will play fiddle, Alan Leader guitar, Doc Rosenstock banjo and our own Tom Hinds piano in their Sunday night dance debut.

Sept. 22 Tuppence Blackwell will call to Devil Among the Taylors with Marty Taylor, flute and concertina; Wayne Taylor, fiddle; and Jonathon Jensen, piano. An evening of contras to elegant New England-style music.

Sept. 29 Larry Edelman will call an evening of mostly contras to tunes of Ireland from Brendan Mulvihill on fiddle and Donna Long on piano.

Dancers and Callers Picnic, Sunday, Sept. 8, 5-7 pm. Contra and square callers (and dancers) are invited to picnic and powwow prior to the dance at Glen Echo Park, Sept. 8. Bring a picnic and ideas for improving the quality of dancing in the area. We'll eat, talk and maybe try out a few new dances. This will be the Dance Callers Association's farewell toast to its founder, Bob Dalsemer, who will be guest of honor with visiting caller Brad Foster. Meet at 5 pm at picnic tables by dance hall. Info: 301-270-2770 (D.C.), 301-268-0231 (Annapolis).

Upcoming Events

Nov. 15: Ira Bernstein with Evo and Jemmy Bluestein (dance and string band), location TBA
Nov. 22: John Roberts and Tony Barrand (English folk), Unitarian Universalist Church of Silver Spring
Dec. 13: Margaret MacArthur (traditional New England songs), at WES
Late Dec. Anne Dodson (Maine folksinger), exact date and house concert location TBA

Deadline for October Issue: 9pm, Thursday, September 12.
(Picnic, cont. from p. 1) To reach the picnic, which will be held at the home of FSGW President Dean Clamons, Member-at-Large Carly Gewirz, and their son Sam, take Route 66 from Washington or the Beltway as far as the exit for Rt. 50 west. You will be on Rt. 50 for only a short distance. Take West Ox Road heading south to Rt. 29. Turn right and go to the light for Clifton Road, then turn left. Follow Clifton Road past Braddock Road until you come to a T intersection. Turn right into the Town of Clifton. Immediately before the railroad tracks (how many railroad songs do you know?), turn right onto Richards Lane. At the end of the road past the church you will be at 12800 Richards Lane, the picnic site.

For more information, call the picnic coordinator, Dolores Nichols, at 703-938-4564 evenings and weekends, or Dean & Carly at 703-631-9655.

GANGA
House Concert. Saturday, September 28, 8:30 pm
The folk ensemble Ganga represents a family heritage of music. The group performs songs of Bengal, which reflect the history and continuity of many regional folk traditions in India which in turn are part of an extraordinary oral tradition preserved for several thousand years.

Ganga has represented India at the Smithsonian Folklife Festival; participated in the inaugural festival of the Sackler Gallery; and played an important part in the Washington Folk Festival for over 10 years. Ganga will also be appearing at the 53rd National Folk Festival in Johnstown, Pennsylvania this Labor Day weekend.

This concert will take place at the home of Mike Rivers in Falls Church, Virginia. Admission is $5 FSGW, $6 nonmembers. For more information/directions call Mike at 703-241-7445.

Linda Fallon
It is with great sorrow that we mourn the passing of Linda Fallon, who died on August 11, 1991 at the age of 39 after battling inflammatory breast cancer for over a year. Linda is known to the folk music and dance community for her work with the Hudson Clearwater Project in New York, Augusta Heritage workshops and the Morgan Arts Council in West Virginia. She is survived by her husband Joe (a member of the Critton Hollow String Band), two wonderful children, Katie and Monika, her parents, Gloria and Jim Mitchell, brother Bill Mitchell, and hundreds of friends.

Linda was a person who did everything she could to help other people. Her generosity, patience, and strong sense of community made her a valued friend and a loving parent. Her enthusiasm for music and dance spilled over to her children and friends through her work with dance camps and concerts. She was a gentle but powerful organizer who knew that life, love, community and the arts all belonged in the same world.

Linda received exceptionally good care and treatment from the National Cancer Institute at NIH, and her family would appreciate any actions or contributions toward helping others who suffer from the same condition. Also, last year the Fallon Family Support Fund was established to help with Linda’s medical expenses. If you would like to contribute to the fund, which will also be used to help support the family during this time, please send a check to P. O. Box 928, Berkeley Springs, WV 25411. Finally, Linda requested that her family and friends write down any memories of her they would like to share. These recollections, which can be sent to the address shown above, will be combined into a book for Katie and Monika.

FSGW Board Meeting
Wednesday, Sept. 4, 8pm
The next meeting of the Board is Wed., Sept. 4, 8pm at the home of Special Events Chair Jennifer Woods in Silver Spring, MD. Any FSGW member may attend; call Jennifer for directions, 301-587-7174. If you have items for the Board to consider, call Pres. Dean Clamons, 703-631-9655 or Sec. Dottie Hurley, 301-871-7652.

Board Highlights
On Aug. 7, the Board met at the home of Dottie Hurley in Aspen Hill, MD. Topics discussed and action taken included:
• Special Events, headed by Jennifer Woods, now has a complete committee: David Eisner, Grace Kraemer, Mariika Partridge, Susan Morgandale, Charlie Pilzer and Tom Hall.
• Open Sing is leaving WES for the downstairs gallery of Takoma Traders from Oct.-Dec.
• Dave Renne resigned from the Board, as he is moving away. Dwain Winters will replace him on the WFF Coordinating Committee, and Gloria Johnson will replace Nancy King, whose three year tenure has ended. David and his dedication will be greatly missed.
• FSGW will assist in support of Bruce Hamilton’s workshop for English Country Dance callers on Nov. 22-24.

Vintage Dance Classes and Tea Dance

All beginning dancers or newcomers to Vintage Dance are invited to participate in a 6-week series of classes on Thursday evenings beginning Oct. 10 in the Silver Spring/Takoma Park area (time and location TBA). Basics in 19th century waltz, polka, and schottische and early 20th century one-step, tango, and fox-trot will be taught by Sherry Selevan and Anita Schubert. Period music will be provided by Francine Krasowska on piano. Admission is $35 for the series for FSGW members, and $40 for non-members, or $8 per class. No pre-registration required...come with or without a partner. Please bring non-rubber smooth-soled shoes (not used for street wear) to protect your knees and the wood floor.

Students (and others) will be able to put their new-found skills to use at a Tea Dance on Sunday afternoon, November 24th at 3 pm preceded by a beginners' workshop at 2 pm (location TBA). No pre-registration required. Music by Devil Among the Taylors. Questions about the classes or Tea Dance? Call Sherry (evenings) 202-543-7178.

20th ANNUAL MINIFEST

FSGW will present the 20th Annual MINIFEST on Jan. 25, 1992. The MINIFEST is a one-day festival featuring music and song workshops, dance events, storytelling, children’s activities, crafts and informal jamming. Participatory events are emphasized. All staff and performers donate their time and proceeds from the admission fees go to FSGW.

Individuals are needed to help with the program planning, publicity, and volunteer coordination. Ideas for publicity, craft activities and family programs are especially welcome. If you would like to be considered for performing or leading a workshop or you have an idea for a workshop you would like to see at the festival, contact Charlie Pilzer, the Festival Chair, at 301-565-8818. A meeting to plan the festival will be held on Sept. 10 at Charlie’s home, 7425 Buffalo Ave, Takoma Park, MD.

Another Membership Tale . . .

The phone rings. Member: Hi! I joined/renewed recently and did not receive the new Newsletter. Chair: When did you send in your application? Member: Oh, I sent it with my (pick one) election ballot, Newsletter classified ad, application to the Getaway, dance weekend, ski-dance, etc. Chair: Well, the (pick one) election committee, Newsletter editor, Getaway, dance weekend, ski-dance registrar has neither sent me your application nor told me about it. It would have been quicker and easier to send it to the membership committee directly. Once I track down your form and check, you will get your membership card and Newsletter.

FSGW GETAWAY, OCTOBER 11-14

The 27th edition of the FSGW Getaway, the annual camping, singing, music and dancing weekend, is taking shape, and registrations are running slightly ahead of last year’s rate. The Getaway takes place at YMCA Camp Letts, near Edgewater, MD, south of Annapolis.

The program committee is busy looking for good workshops to showcase the talents of the invited guests--such as Lorraine Lee in a dulcimer session, or Bennett Hammond in a Celtic music jam. Saul Broudy is sure to cover all the bases on harmonica or country music, and Bob Zentz will make his contribution, too. Unfortunately, Bob Franke can be with us only on Friday night, so his fans should be ready to arrive early if possible. John and Ginny Dildine, old FSGW hands, will be on hand again, as will Tom Gibney (he of the unique voice and storehouse of chorus songs). Englishman David Jones will undoubtedly have a few new/old songs, and Louise Sherman may have a story or two. Singer-songwriter Trooper will be here from Arizona, and the redoubtable Pete (the Spy) is rumored to be flying east again to provide another interesting Sunday night meal. Debby Mc Clatchy, whose Trail's End Kitchens will prepare the other meals, may also play a banjo tune or two.

We are still getting responses from our other invited guests, so there should be several others by the time of Friday night's potluck supper and Open Sing. The Getaway is a marvelous way to get to know some of these performers and your fellow and sister campers as well. There are workshops and song swaps, free-style sings and dancers' swings, a guitar-picking mood and finger-licking food, new songs and old, and friends as good as gold.

This year, FSGW will not have exclusive use of the camp--a money-saving move--but the result should be a more compact, less spread-out Getaway. But early registration is a necessity to assure yourself a space. An application form is on page 15 of this Newsletter, and you should use it! Whether you come for the weekend, or come for a day, you will enjoy the FSGW Getaway.

If you are interested in helping create the Getaway, we can still use volunteers beforehand. We need a Volunteer Chair and a sign-maker. If you can help, or want more information, call Jennifer Woods, Getaway Chair, at 301-587-7174.

NEWS FROM THE NORTH
...Your former Editor, Helen Gordon, sends greetings from her new home in Cape Cod. She very much appreciates being kept abreast of various folk events in the area via the Newsletter notices that have been forwarded to her since she moved, but she strongly suspects that the intended contributors would have been happier had the notices reached the current Editor. SO, if you've sent in a notice but don't see it here, CHECK THE ADDRESS YOU ARE USING. The correct address is printed on the back cover of every issue...

Deadline for October Issue: 9 pm, Thursday, September 12.
LOCAL DANCES

Editorial Policy for Dance Events
