Martyn Wyndham Read House Concert

Fri., Oct. 16 McLean, VA

Friday, October 16 is the date for the welcome return of English singer Martyn Wyndham Read to FSGW, for a house concert at the McLean, VA home of Ursy Potter and Carter Hearn. Wyndham-Read is known for his clear, strong voice, his effective guitar accompaniments, and his wealth of Australian songs. With 10 albums to his credit, Martyn is an acknowledged authority on Australian folk music, and his love for the songs led him to actively seek out and learn the songs of the cattle drovers, shearers, cane cutters and bushmen of Australia. His presentations of the works of bush poets Henry Lawson and Shaw Nielson, for example, have helped keep those mens' work alive. Wyndham-Read has done FSGW concerts in the past and always has a few prizes and surprises in his repertoire, ready for the eager listener to capture.

The 8:30 pm concert costs $5 (FSGW members) and $7 (non-members), and light refreshments will be available. Call 703-821-1373 for details and directions.

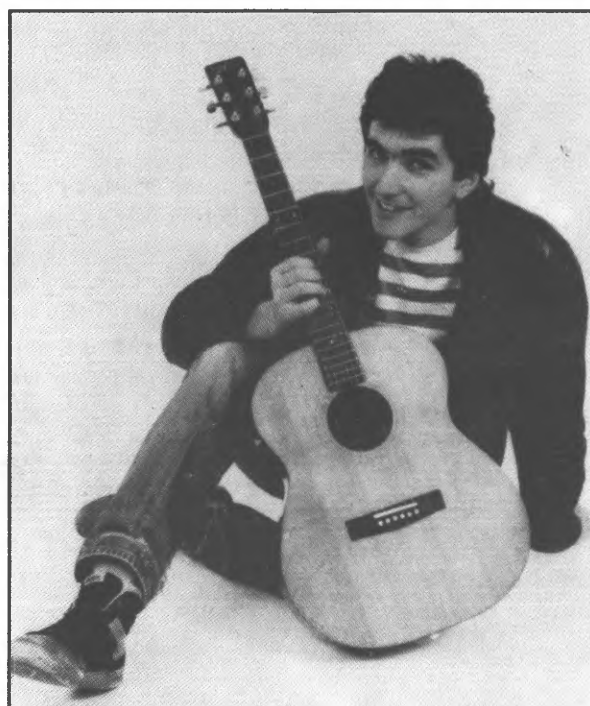

Jez Lowe House Concert

Tuesday, October 27 Silver Spring, MD

English songster and multi-instrumentalist Jez Lowe makes an all-too-rare Washington, DC appearance in an FSGW House Concert Tuesday, October 27, at the Silver Spring, MD, home of Bob Clayton and Jennifer Woods. Jez Lowe is one of the true gems of the English folksong revival. A fine singer of traditional songs, Jez is also a songwriter of genuine strength, wit and polish, with songs like "Durham Jail," "The Bergen," and "Father Mallory's Dance" which are beautifully self-contained and complete in themselves. His dexterous and inventive original accompaniments, on cittern, guitar, and harmonica, set off the jewels of songs he presents without distracting from or competing with them.

Jez has worked with other fine performers, including Jake Walton, but this trip he's performing solo. His many albums reflect to his credit, as well as his reputation on the folk circuit. FSGW audiences will not be disappointed.

The concert starts at 8:30 pm, and admission is $5 (FSGW) and $7 (non-members). Light refreshments will be served. Call 301-587-7174 for details and directions to the Clayton/Woods house.

Note from the chair: Over Labor Day weekend, I had the opportunity to attend a gathering of musicians and dancers in Swannanoa, NC, called "Dance Band in the USA". It was a very free-flowing weekend with lots of good food, good music, and good dancing. Part of the focus of the weekend was to get us thinking about music and dance communities, how they have evolved over the years to their current state, and what we might be able to do individually to increase everyone's enjoyment and sense of belonging. A sentence or two can't do this topic justice, so if you'd like to get together and talk with me about these issues, give me a call. If there's enough interest, I may set up an informal meeting in the near future. What do you think, dancers? musicians? callers?

Note from the Newsletter editor: Due to lack of time and space, the editor did not print the calendar. Thanks to Ginny Klein for editing the September Newsletter while the editor was in England. Full written copy would be appreciated as it is extremely time consuming to create articles from flyers.

FSGW Getaway Update

The Getaway program is miraculously forming out of the void with a little help from a host of good people. Getaway workshops are most often song swaps with lots of chances to sing and sing along, but there will be instrumental jams, crafts, story telling, and kids activities as well.

Get Ready! Here's what we have put together so far, though these might not be the actual titles:

Is Overdone Rare? - Carly Gewirz. There are some wonderful songs that we stopped singing because many years ago they were sung too much. Maybe it's time to bring some of them back. Look back at your collection of really good old chestnuts and bring some with you. Slow Jam - Bob Frost. Bring your instruments. This is your chance to jam on some of those great jigs, reels, and other tunes but not so fast. Song Writing - Bob Zentz & Bennett Hammond. We've got a wealth of song writers to help you hone your own skills. Bob and Bennett in one session and Trooper in another. Singing for the Confidence Impaired - Lorraine Lee. Judging from the number of people who have said, "I love singing but I really don't sing very well" as they register for the Getaway, this workshop should be very well attended. Chorus Songs - Tom McHenry. Bring your favorites or just come to join in. Parodies - Joe Hickerson. Everyone knows a few. Story Song Writing - Trooper. The Arizona Commission on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts are helping Trooper to come and share his skills and enthusiasm for researching great stories and turning them into songs. English Music Hall - John Roberts & David Jones. Country/Western Jam - Nan Goland. Exploring Traditions - Jonathan Eberhart & Andy Wallace. Those of you who are so inclined (and you know who you are) are encouraged to remember those neat old songs where the story of your finding it is as wonderful as the song itself or maybe even to find some more and bring 'em along. Calypso - Dave Bosserman. A chance to sing and play along. If you have rhythm instruments, bring them along as well. Folk Toys - Horacio Quintanilla. This will start out as an informal hour after lunch in the picnic bench area but may well go on much longer. Gospel - Dwayne Thorpe. An annual favorite for Sunday morning. Turning Stories into Songs - Kay Zentz. A song writing and singing workshop for children. This workshop will take native American stories or traditional folk stories and put them into songs. Short Stories & Poetry - Louise Sherman. Bring your favorite recitation to share. Or just come and listen. Concertina - Jerry Epstein & Bob Zentz. Bring your squeezebox and pick up some good pointers. Jerry plays English Concertina, Bob plays Anglo. Children's Dramatic Production - Sheila Thorpe. Sheila will rehearse the kids in a play or musical on Saturday afternoon for a production for all of us right after lunch on Sunday. Rounds - Alan Rein. Ballads - Kathy Westra. A longer session this time. Natural Wonders - Kay Zentz. Crafts for kids; finding leaves and other natural objects to make door decorations. Active Adventures - George Rathbone. Wonderful, mystical stories that the children can participate in...not just listen. Average Workshops; Mean, Median, & Mode - This is our attempt at being clever. Lisa Null and Pete Kraemer will lead a workshop of Modal Songs. We are hoping to pull together the "Mean" (Songs of Meanness and Nastiness) and the "Median" (Road Songs) as well. Saturday Night Concert - Just 12 slots this year to make room for the dance so we are asking those who wish to perform to appear only once and to make your "set" just one song. Saturday Night Dance - Roustabout will provide the music with Nancy Mamlin doing the calling for two hours of Contras and Squares after Saturday's Concert. Bring your dancing shoes. Sunday Night Concert - A little more time but we are still going for one appearance per person to give more folks a chance to perform. Great Food - Debbie McClatchy. The folk caterer extraordinaire, will again trek down from Pennsylvania to prepare the meals with a little (1 hour/adult) help from us all. Bring a favorite vegetable chopping shanty and an appetite for fabulous food. We hope we can get her out of the kitchen long enough to give us a little music as well!

We are also working on workshops of Topical Songs, Sacred Harp (bring your books!), Songs of Discovery (the title is because, after all, it is Columbus Day and the 500th anniversary; but the topic is wide open...), Blues & Jazz Jam, Skiffle Band Jam, and Juggling (beginning and advanced).

The Getaway is October 9 thru 12 (Columbus Day Weekend), at YMCA Camp Letts less than an hour east of Washington. See the application form on page 15. Call Getaway Chair Dennis Cook at 301-776-4314 if you have questions. Finally, a reminder to those who registered with partial payment. Your balance is due no later than October 4 to hold your place. See You There!
