Patrick Ball In Concert Friday, November 19, 8:30pm

FSGW is delighted to present Celtic harpist and storyteller Patrick Ball in a solo performance at 8:30pm Fri., Nov. 19, at Capitol College Auditorium in Beltsville, Maryland.

Although he insists that he didn't set out to become a harp player, but chose the Celtic harp as a way to accompany the folktales he told, Patrick has gone on to become "...An American master of the instrument.. a peripatetic modern day bard" (San Francisco Chronicle). He is well known for his six solo harp albums, on which he uses a traditional wire-strung Celtic harp to present lively Irish melodies, particularly those of Turlough O'Carolan. But his live performances are truly magical experiences, combining his powerful gift for traditional story telling with his consummate prowess on this difficult, yet enchanting instrument.

Tickets at $8 (FSGW) and $12 (non-members) are available in advance at the House of Musical Traditions, 7040 Carroll Ave., Takoma Park, MD. A large turnout is anticipated for this special evening, so tickets are also available by mail until Nov. 12 from FSGW Tickets, % Susan Morgandale, 3962 Bel Pre Rd. #4, Silver Spring, MD 20906. Please enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope with mail orders. You MUST include the names of all FSGW members you are ordering tickets for. Individual members are entitled to only ONE ticket at member price. Ticket orders received after Nov. 12 or that do not include a SASE, will result in tickets being held at "Will Call" at the concert. For info call Susan at 301-871-2611.

Gordon Bok Solo Concert Saturday, November 20, 8:30pm

What can one say about Gordon Bok that tells the true measure of the man? What can one say that tells the depth of his music? Sandy Paton (Folk Legacy Records) says, "[He] sings of the sea with the authority of a man who has been there, and he sings of life with the zest of a man who lives it as he chooses." A resident of Camden, Maine, Gordon has worked on or near salt water much of his life, either in shipyards or sailing vessels, serving as everything from cabin boy to captain. His music is self-taught; he has designed and built instruments, including 6- and 12- string guitars and a bowed, fretted "cellamba," a bass viol da gamba on a cello body.

Gordon makes a welcome solo appearance at a special FSGW concert at 8:30pm, Sat. Nov. 20 at St. Columba's Church, 4201 Albemarle St., NW. Gordon is an excellent singer, guitarist and songwriter. His unique guitar style owes much to classical technique, and his gorgeous, deep-toned voice always puts the story in the song forward. Several of his own songs have become modern folk classics, and have been recorded by numerous other performers.

Tickets at $10 (FSGW) and $14 (non-members) are still available by mail from FSGW Tickets, 8401 Cedar St., Silver Spring, MD 20910, or can be purchased at the House of Musical Traditions, 7040 Carroll Ave., Takoma Park, MD. Unsold tickets will be available at the concert. Please include a self-addressed stamped envelope with mail orders and a phone number for any questions. You MUST include the names of all FSGW members you are ordering tickets for. Individual members are entitled to only ONE ticket at member price. Ticket orders received after Nov. 14 or do not have a SASE will be held at "Will Call" at the concert. For info call Jennifer Woods at 301-587-7174.

FSGW SUNDAY NIGHT DANCES

At Glen Echo Park, 7:30 - 10:30 PM

The Sunday night dances at Glen Echo Park in the Spanish Ballroom are held in cooperation with the National Park Service. These weekly dances are aimed at intermediate to advance dancers (i.e. little teaching, short walk-throughs, lots of music and dancing). Dances start & end promptly. Admission is $5 for FSGW, BFMS, MMFAC, ATDS and CDSS members, NPS Golden Eagle Pass Holders and Senior Citizens; $7 for non-members.

- Nov 7 All the way from Seattle, we welcome caller Suzanne Girardot, calling hot squares and contras to the old time sounds of Bruce Molsky, Audrey Molsky, John Hermann and Meredith McIntosh. Bruce, of course, will play fiddle, with Audrey on guitar, John on banjo, and Meredith on bass. This combination of musicians, with Suzanne's dynamite calling, will knock your socks off!!
- Nov 14 One of the most requested callers these days is Robert Cromartie, of Chapel Hill, NC, who will be calling an evening of contras to the Asheville, NC band, The String Beings. The String Beings include Laurie Fisher and Mark Mueller on fiddle, and Tom Troszak on guitar. This will be a great dance! Don't miss it!
- Nov 21 The ever-popular George Marshall will call this evening to the unique music of The Clayfoot Strutters. These guys blew us away when they came by last winter, and we're glad to have them in a larger hall this time to make room for everyone!! This band features Jeremiah McLane on accordion and piano, Lee Blackwell on drums and guitar, Christopher Laver on Highland pipes and flute, Sam Bartlett on tenor banjo and mandolin, and Pete Sutherland on guitar and fiddle.
- Nov 28 Last chance to dance at Glen Echo!! (at least this year) Work off that turkey dinner dancing to the calls of Tuppence Blackwell and the music of Charlie Pilzer, John Devine and Sandy Mitchell. Charlie, on piano and bass, brings with him fiddler Sandy Mitchell and guitar player John Devine. Come kick up your heels to end your all-too-brief vacation with a bang!
- Dec 5 ***Back at Cherry Hill*** Michael Schechtman and Folk Remedy.

Note from the Dance Chair: Well, another season at Glen Echo is ending, and we move to the warmer hall at Cherry Hill Park on December 5. (We'll be returning to Glen Echo on the first Sunday in March.) I know I've said it before, but I wouldn't be able to do this job without the many folks who volunteer their time and energies to help things run smoothly from week to week. My travel schedule has really picked up this year, and so I've depended on the door and sound committee a lot! Thanks, y'all!! Also, look on page 5 in this newsletter for information about the New Year's Eve Dance, held in cooperation with the Friday Night Dancers - featuring Robbin Schaffer calling to the music of Andrea Hoag, Charlie Pilzer, Bob Mills and Ginnie Snowe.

IN MEMORIAM

DAVE OLIVE AND LINDA LIEBERMAN

Long-time FSGW members Dave Olive and his wife Linda Lieberman were killed in an auto accident Tuesday, October 12, 1993. They were active in FSGW for much of its 29 years, particularly in the 1970's and early '80s. Dave had been a member of the Society almost from its beginnings in 1964. He served in many different FSGW Board positions, including Treasurer, Program Chair, Dance Chair, and Special Events Chair. Linda served as Treasurer at one time..

Dave was a Stage Manager and Presenter at the Washington Folk Festival on several occasions, and was often a performer as well. He was known for his blues performances and for singing wonderfully outrageous songs like Eternal Doom. A native Washingtonian, Dave was born September 12, 1942, attended Anacostia High School and Federal City College (now the University of the District of Columbia). He served in the Army in the Medical Corps during the Viet Nam War, and had worked for several years for the Federal Government. Linda, born May 28, 1947, was also a native Washingtonian, attending Coolidge High School and Montgomery Junior College. She was a free-lance accountant and was known for her volunteer efforts on behalf of young cancer patients as well as for nursing injured wild animals.

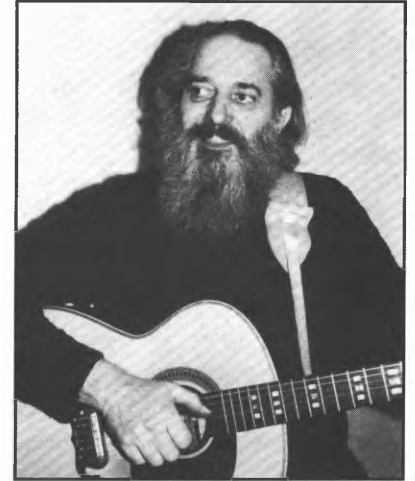

Dave met Linda through FSGW, and they were married April 18, 1982. Together, they ran many Mini-Festivals and Getaways, and Linda was responsible for meal preparation at these events, and for several years for the Washington Folk Festival.

A Memorial Service, sponsored by FSGW, is planned for Sunday, November 7 at 5pm at the Washington Ethical Society Auditorium, 7750 16th St. NW. Washington, D.C. Details will be posted on the FSGW Hotline 703-281-2228.

Direct From England: Johnny Collins: The Singer's Singer Special Guests: CornuCopia Friday, November 12, 8:30pm

On Fri., Nov. 12 at 8:30pm the FSGW Membership Concert Series will feature Johnny Collins, one of England's best known performers of traditional song. Collins plays guitar and concertina but has earned his reputation as a zestful and knowledgeable master of unaccompanied vocal stylings. He has a quick ear for a good chorus song and invariable gets his audience to join in. He also draws from an extensive repertoire of ballads and topical lyrics.

Born in Norfolk, an East Anglian County known for its inimitable dialect, Johnny's love of song has led him all over the world - playing guitar in a ship's band, running a folk club in a Hong Kong brothel, and busking in London's streets. He has a loud, superbly resonant voice and the authority of a man whose artistry has been tempered by hard experience. His rollicking humor is that of a natural survivor. These days, Johnny tours regularly through England, Belgium, Germany, Holland and the US. He has three albums and a fourth in the works: Johnny Collins: Peddler of Songs.

Opening the evening will be local favorite, CornuCopia, a British-American quartet known for its tight vocal harmonies, satirical wit, and participatory approach to traditional and contemporary song. "We try to put the folk back into folk music," says Peter Benson, Yorkshire man and principle songwriter for the group. "We provide the music; you provide the folks." Two of his own compositions, Lamplay and Grand Pubs of Yorkshire were finalists in the Mid-Atlantic Songwriter's Contest (1991) and bass guitarist/singer Sue Trainor's ironic The Mowing Song won honorable mention that year. These songs can be heard on Semerwater, their first CD. Rounding out the group are John Jacobs and John Gorozdos whose tasty accompaniments collectively employ mandolin, banjo, bouzouki, penny whistle and recorder.

The concert (FREE to members and $8 to the general public) will be at the Washington Ethical Society, 7750 16th St. N.W., Washington, DC. Concert attendees may join the society the evening of the concert. For info FSGW Hotline 703-281-2228.

Gerry Armstrong House Concert Saturday, November 6, 8:30pm

Storyteller and folksinger Gerry Armstrong will treat listeners to an evening of sharing and genuine pleasure at a house concert this month at the Clayton-Woods home in Silver Spring, MD. Gerry's clear, lyric soprano will be familiar to all you Folk Legacy "Golden Ring" listeners. For 35 years, Gerry has been involved with the music that helped to define America's musical history. Her priceless repertoire ranges from American Indian to British Isles, from Child ballads to contemporary songs that convey her concern for the earth, the home and the simple joys of community life.

Admission for this event is $5 (FSGW) and $8 (non-members). Refreshments will be served. Call 301-587-7174 for directions.

Festival Staff Needed

Do you want to have fun, meet new people, share your skills or develop new ones? Then volunteer now to work behind-the-scenes of the 18th Annual Washington Folk Festival! We have a number of staff positions to fill on the various planning committees critical to the production of the Festival and we could use your help! To volunteer, call Kathy Smith at 301-585-4489.

Sacred Harp Singing
Sunday, November 28, 4pm

Traditional singing of shape-note folk hymns, revival spirituals, anthems, and fusing tunes will be in Steven Sabol's living room at 5504 Lincoln St., Bethesda, MD. Introduction to shape-note singing at 3pm; regular singing from 4 to 6pm; pot-luck dinner from 6 to 7pm; more singing after 7pm. All are welcome, particularly those who avoid churches (where we usually sing) and those who need an emotional lift on this Thanksgiving weekend. No experience necessary; loaner tunebooks available. Don't worry about overcrowding; Sacred Harp singing is always better when the room is too small rather than too large. Directions; From I-495 in MD, exit south toward Bethesda on Old Georgetown Rd. (exit 36). Proceed 1.3 miles to Lincoln St. (at Suburban Hospital). Turn right and go 1.5 blocks to 5504. For info call Steven Sabol at 301-897-5274.

New Year's English Dance

The dance will be held Fri., Dec. 31 at historic Adelphi Mill from 6:30pm to 12:45am. Registration is limited and must be made in advance. Look for the registration flyers at BFMS and FSGW events, or send a stamped self-addressed envelope and check payable to FSGW ($16/members, $18/non-members) to Gina Jenkins, 32 Columbia Ave., Takoma Park, MD. 20912. Gender balance will be maintained. For further info call Tom Anastasio or Gina Jenkins at 301-270-2069.

Getaway Thanks

Thanks to everyone for making the 20th Annual Getaway a great success. What really makes the Getaway work is the people who attend, but I'd like to send my personal appreciation out to the people who worked on the Getaway committee. Barry Schlesinger was a great help in doing set-up on Friday and clean-up on Monday. Jennifer Woods designed and printed the name buttons. She and Dolores Nichols were responsible for cabin assignments. Carly Gewirz served on the program committee, handled registration, and generally did everything which I forgot to do. Finally, thanks to Dave Olive for putting together the Friday night dance and the excellent blues program for the Getaway. He and his wife, Linda Lieberman, had been active in planning Getaways several years ago, and Dave this year once more brought his enthusiasm and love for the music to the Getaway committee. Tragically, they died in an automobile accident on their way home from the Getaway. We will all miss them very much. Dean Clamons

New Year's Eve Ball
Friday, December 31, 8pm

The Future Geezers of America and Robbin Schaffer headline this year's NEW YEAR'S EVE CONTRA BALL, co-sponsored by FSGW & the Friday Night Dancers. The FGA feature Andrea Hoag, Charlie Pilzer and Bob Mills from Princeton, NJ. The dance will be held at the Leland Community Center, 4301 Willow Lane, Bethesda, from 8-12:45am. Light refreshments will be served throughout the evening, with a champagne toast at midnight. Preregistrations will be accepted until December 23. This year, to avoid a space crunch, registration will be limited to 165 people, so don't get left out in the cold -- register early! Send your ****stamped, self-addressed envelope**** with check payable to FSGW for $15/FSGW members, $18/non-members to FSGW CONTRA BALL, 807 E Street, S.E., Washington, DC 20003. Confirmation letter will be sent upon receipt of registration. A balance of the sexes will be maintained. For more information about registration, availability of tickets at the door (after 12/26) or to get in on the fun of volunteering * for this event, call Betsy at (202) 547-6419. * Volunteers get free admission and many other exciting tax-free perks!

Two Great Ski-Dance Weekends Planned for 1994

The American Ski-Dance Weekend (January 14-17) will feature calling by Tom Hinds and Carol Kopp to the music of Charlie Pilzer, Andrea Hoag, Elke Baker and David Wiesler. Washington's Ski-Dance Weekend (February 18-21) will have a mostly-English dance program called by Erna-Lynne Bogue, Brad Saylor and Peter Fricke to the music of The Mighty Possum's (Joe DeZarn, Tabbie Finch, Ralph Gordon and Seth Austen), Elke Baker and David Wiesler. Both weekends will be held at Camp Soles, a rustic winter-sports camp, in the Laurel Highlands, PA. Cross-country ski-instruction, song sessions and dance workshops are planned for each Friday evening to Monday afternoon weekend. Cost of each weekend (exclusive of travel) is $126 for FSGW and Sierra Club Outings Section members, $140 for non-members, and $88 for children 12-years old and under. A gender-balance will be maintained. Look for flyers at area dances or send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to : Ski-Dance Weekends, P.O. Box 2011, Shepherdstown, WV. 25443.

National Folk Archive Volunteers Needed!

Once again, the Archive of Folk Culture at the Library of Congress American Folklife Center is accepting volunteers. If you can spend a day (or a few hours) a week and want to help at the hub of federal folk activity, call Joe Hickerson, the Archive's Director at 202-707-1725 to arrange a starting time. If you have more time available, inquire about the Archive's Intern Program. You too can join the ranks of up to 300 past interns and bold volunteers, going all the way back to Pete Seeger in 1938!

If your schedule does not permit volunteering or interning at the Folk Archive, but you would still like to help out, please consider making a donation to the Friends of the Folk Archive Fund. Such donations are tax deductible, and can be made payable to the Archive of Folk Culture, Library of Congress (Washington, D.C. 20540-8100).

LOCAL DANCES

Editorial Policy for Dance Events

Because so many dancers seek dances with live music, all notices about dances should state whether the music is recorded or live. We do this as a service to our members. No dance copy will be used that does not state live or recorded music. N.B.: All copy must contain Area Codes in the Info Tel. #!

ABBREVIATIONS USED IN THE LISTINGS:

BEG: Beginning INT: Intermediate

N/E: No experience necessary N/P: No partner necessary

TPIS: Takoma Park Intermediate School, 7611 Piney Branch Road, Takoma Park, MD.

FRIDAY NIGHT DANCES

The Friday Night Dancers and the National Park Service sponsor contra dances (and some square dances as well) every Friday night at the Spanish Ballroom at Glen Echo Park on MacArthur Boulevard. The dances begin at 8:30. The admission price is $5 unless otherwise noted. A four-week series of classes for beginning dancers starts on November 5 at 7:30 PM. The cost of the series is $12 and does not include admission to the dances. Because these lessons are progressive, participants should plan to start the series only on the first Friday of the month, and to attend all four classes. For more information about the classes or about the dance, call the Dance Hotline at 301-270-1678. If you are interested in volunteering to help with various necessary but fun tasks involved in producing the Friday Night dances, please call Betsy Platt at 202-547-6419.

Winter Dance Week at John C. Campbell Folk School December 26 - January 1

Winter Dance Week at the John C. Campbell Folk School features contras, squares, English country dances, Scandinavian and international couple dances, singing, dance band, dance calling and more. Highlighting this year's staff is special guest Marianne Taylor, founder of the Folk Arts Center of New England. Contras will be called by Susan Kevra from Massachusetts. Bob Dalsemer will offer his now infamous class Modern Western Squares for Contra Dancers. Singing will be lead by Jeff Warner. Live music will be provided by Steve Hickman, Bill Tomczak, Claudio Buchwald and John Devine. Winter Dance Week is limited to 90 dancers as evenly balanced as possible. Single men are requested to register early so single women are not placed on a wait list. For more info write John C. Campbell Folk School, Rt. 1 Box 14-A, Brasstown, NC 28902 or phone Bob or Hanne Dalsemer at 1-800-365-5724 or 704-837-2775.

FSGW Editorial Policy

We try to print all copy relevant to FSGW's purpose and membership. (from the FSGW Bylaws: "The main purpose of the Society is to further the understanding, investigation, appreciation, and performance of the traditional folk music and folklore of the American people.").

In most instances, it is simply impossible to print copy in full. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news, followed by listings of out-of-town, non-FSGW events. In addition, we print a calendar each month unless it pushes the entire issue into a more expensive category for either postage or printing.

DEADLINE FOR December Newsletter.

Wednesday, November 10

All copy for the Nov. issue of this Newsletter is due at the home of EDITOR Cecily Pilzer, NO LATER THAN 9 PM, Wed. Nov. 10

- Please use standard (8 1/2 x 11") paper, so copy does not get lost.
- Computer readable submissions may be on 3 1/2" or 5 1/4" MS-DOS formatted diskettes, WordPerfect 5.1 format preferred
- Please include a phone number where you can be reached in case of questions about your text.
- It helps GREATLY if you send your copy in short article form.
- NO copy will be accepted over the telephone.

Questions/directions for hand-delivered copy, file format details, call 301-565-8818. Use of the Traditional Computer Bulletin Board for uploading articles strongly encouraged; call D. Nichols (Membership) at 703-938-4564 for details. Thanks!
