Saturday, January 28
Afternoon Events 12-6 PM  Evening Concert & Dance 7:30-10:30 PM

Drive away those winter blahs and join your fellow folkies for a day of picking, singing, fiddling, dancing, storytelling and crafting at the FSGW's annual winter fundraiser, the MiniFest. We'll be back at the Takoma Park Middle School, 7911 Piney Branch Rd., Takoma Park, MD. The evening will be filled with a concert and dance (simultaneously) starting at 7:30 PM until 10:30 PM.

Afternoon Program

The afternoon's events feature YOU! Whether you're looking for a hands-on instrumental jam or a feet-on dance session, the MiniFest has something for you. Sessions are led by members of the folk community with participation by all encouraged. Singing and instrumental music sessions include swaps and jams on particular topics or folk styles, tutorials featuring folklorists and musicians demonstrating some particular facet of folklore, and mini-concerts by area singers, storytellers and instrumentalists. Dance workshops include demonstration and instruction to live music in a delicious variety of styles. A special Family Area will have all-afternoon programming aimed at kids. Crafters will exhibit their work and demonstrate techniques. Come share some homemade music and dance with your friends and family! Some of this year's program include:

- International: Music and stories from Asian, Klezmer, Balkan and Slavic, Finnish, West African traditions
- Song Swaps: Two all-afternoon tracks featuring Ballads (Scots' Border, Happy Endings, Non-Anglo, Women's Themes and Ballads Not in Child) and Work Songs (Mining and Lumbering, "Women's" Work, Agricultural, Labor Unions and Aquatic)
- Dance: Two rooms of teaching and demonstrations in Zydeco, Swing, English, Israeli, Contras, Balkan, Clogging and much, much more - ALL with Live Music!
- Instrumental jams and Tutorials: Honky-Tonk, Celtic, Blues, Autoharp, Lap Dulcimer, Performing with Microphones, Setting Up and Running Sound and more
- Mini-concerts: Spots featuring well-known and not-so-familiar performers in samplers of local and visiting talent; Mactalla, The Washington Toho Koto Society, Sidekicks, Van Mertz, Kathy Westra, Machaya and many more
- Children's Favorites: All-afternoon track includes Clogging with Diane Shaw, Mime with Mark Jaster, Irish tunes by the Irish Breakfast Band, Klezmer with the Klezmer Katz and more

Evening Concert and Dance

CHERRY HILL PARK
7:30 - 10:30 PM

From December through mid-March dances are held at Cherry Hill Park, 9800 Cherry Hill Road, College Park, Maryland. The hall was built for dancing, with a 60' by 60' suspended wood floor and good acoustics. Directions: Take the Beltway to exit 25B (Route 1 South). At the second light (1/10 mile) turn right onto Cherry Hill Road. Go one mile until you see the park on your left. Turn left and follow the entrance road one block past a Stop sign to a T intersection. Turn right and park near (or past) the clubhouse. If you're lost call (301) 595-7181.

Jan 22 Nancy Mamlin tears herself away from the Internet to call contras and squares to the spirited old time sounds of The Deadbeats: Mike Ballo on fiddle, Alan Firth playing bass, Kevin Enoch's guitar and Adam Yarmi on banjo.

Jan 29 From St. Paul, Minnesota, Pig's Eye Landing travels South and East in search of warmer weather. Combining eclectic instruments with Celtic and New England tunes, PEL consists of Erik Sessions, Andrew Munkres, Erik Peterson, Scott Spencer and Greg Dale. From Albany, New York, caller and former Minnesotan Peter Stix, will provide contras and a square or two gathered in his travels from New Mexico to New York.

Feb 5 Findhorn Trio

Jan 1 Could there possibly be a better way to start the year than with a dance? Tuppence Blackwell will call stylish and challenging contras to help you get started on the right foot. Beyond the Beltway provides sprightly New England tunes to keep you in a holiday mood.

Jan 8 Traveling south from Montague Center, Massachusetts, David Kaynor joins us to call an evening of contras with the Future Geezers, featuring Andrea Hoag's melodious fiddle teamed with Charlie Pilzer providing piano and Bob Mills on his magical mandolin.

Special Schedule for Swallowtail:
2:30 - 5:30pm and 7:30 - 10:30pm.

Jan 15 In their second decade of thrilling dancers with their unique sound, Swallowtail is one band that needs little introduction. Ron Grosslein (fiddle, mandolin), David Cantieni (lots o'winds), Tim van Egmond (hammered dulcimer), Timm Triplett (piano and virginal) combine with George Marshall on concertina to provide dance music ranging from raucous to classical. George and Tim share the calling.

Note: Special Schedule for Swallowtail
Since Swallowtail's popularity is guaranteed to outstrip the limited capacity of Cherry Hill Park we will be holding two dances on January 15. The first will run from 2:30- 5:30 and the second will begin at our regular time of 7:30.

Remember: Drive slowly and carefully in the Park. Avoid blocking campsites and remember that people are trying to sleep when we leave. Please remember to bring a pair of clean, soft-soled shoes to change into for dancing.

Deadline for Feb Issue: 9pm, Tues. Jan. 10.

North Carolina's Sheila Kay Adams

Friday, January 13, 8:30pm

For the January membership program, the Folklore Society is proud to present North Carolina's Sheila Kay Adams, a seventh-generation ballad singer with a rare and beautiful repertoire of ancient ballads. The concert will be held at the Washington Ethical Society auditorium on Fri, Jan. 13, at 8:30pm.

Sheila Kay Adams was born and raised in the town of Sodom in the mountains of western North Carolina, a region long recognized as home to some of the oldest and rarest musical traditions in the United States. It was in these mountains that English folklorist and ballad collector Cecil Sharp made his famous ballad collecting expeditions; there he found that the local people had preserved more completely than in Britain, the traditional English ballads and songs, some dating back to the Elizabethan time. Sheila grew up hearing these ancient ballads still sung in the old, unaccompanied style, by family members, particularly her great aunt Dellie Norton, and by older members of the community including Cas Wallin, Evelyn Ramsey and Inez Chandler. As a young woman Sheila, was encouraged by her great aunt and by others to learn and preserve these ancient songs, which would otherwise die out with the older women in the community. She has taken to this mission with a vengeance, learning the old repertoire and singing it in a clear, unaccompanied style with roots stretching back three hundred years and across an ocean. She has brought her music to concerts and festivals all over the country and is recognized by many as one of the best young singers of traditional mountain ballads.

Sheila is also recognized as a fine storyteller. Possessed of a keen ear and a singer's sense of timing, she presents the unique ways of speech and life in the southern mountains in an authentic honest voice. She is a fine banjo player, having learned the instrument as a teenager from Dwight Diller and her uncle, Bayard Ray. She plays in the clawhammer or frog-thumb style, and mentions that Tommy Jarrell is another major influence. Sheila has recorded three albums of her own and has appeared on two albums by hammered dulcimer player Jim Taylor. Jim, who is her husband, will occasionally accompany Sheila on dance tunes during the concert. Washington Ethical Society auditorium is located at 7750 16th St. N.W. in Washington, DC at the corner of 16th & Kalmia Rd. Admission for this program will be FREE to FSGW members and $9 to nonmembers, who may join the society at the door.

19th Annual Washington Folk Festival Needs Your Help June 3rd & 4th, 1995

PERFORMERS:
Do you know someone down the street from you who plays Cajun fiddle, sings the blues, or does dances from Uzbekistan? Do you perform folk music or dance of any kind? Then the Washington Folk Festival would like to hear from you! We are planning the program for the 19th annual Washington Folk Festival which will be held on June 3 and 4 at Glen Echo Park. The Festival aims to present a wide variety of traditional music forms from around the world performed by people living in the Washington metropolitan area. If you would like information about performing at the Festival or if you have information about an act you would like to see at the Festival, please call program committee co-chairs Carol Lite at 301-681-7768 or Donna Fletcher at 202-547-5217.

VOLUNTEERS:
The 19th Washington Folk Festival is looking for a few good folks---no, make that lots of good folks---to help plan and stage this year's event. This year will mark the 19th Annual WFF, to be held as always at Glen Echo Park, on Jun 3 & 4th. The Festival, co-sponsored by FSGW and the National Park Service, is produced through a coordinated volunteer effort over several months; performers donate their services.

Committee work for 1995 has already begun, and the staff invites all interested people to join in working with one of the several committees. This year there is a particular need for help on the Volunteers, Publicity and Operations committees. Skills are helpful for each of these roles, but more important is a general willingness to contribute to the overall success of the Festival. You'll be especially welcome if you can work a few hours on some weekends before the Festival---making phone calls, assembling and mailing publicity kits, circulating fliers, preparing the site, building stages and setting up equipment.

If you have ideas for this year's WFF, or can volunteer some time between now and June 3 & 4, please call one of the WFF Coordinators. You'll find their phone numbers listed with the FSGW Board in the box below.
Chesapeake Spring Dance Weekend

Plan now for a great time dancing in the Spring. The Chesapeake Spring Dance Weekend returns to YMCA Camp Letts on April 7-9, 1995. Once again, Chesapeake brings you great music and dance that you won't find anywhere else. This year's line-up will include New England contras called by Mary DesRosiers with music provided by Jeremiah McLaine, Pete Sutherland and Keith Murphy. From America's heartland, Frank Hall will call squares to music by the Red Mule Stringband, featuring Jeff, Susie and Rick Goehring. Kari Smith will teach Marley clog and English clog styles. And more. Flyers will be sent out to past attendees and will be out at your local dance shortly. Just as last year, we will have a registration lottery in mid-January to avoid penalizing anyone with poor mail service. Call 202-544-7512 for more information or if you haven't found a flyer by early January.
