SPECIAL EVENT

The Copper Family

Saturday, February 7, 8:00 pm

At the Washington Ethical Society (NW, DC)

Admission $15 / $12 (FSGW members)

From rural Sussex England, Bob, John, Jill and Jon share their wonderful living-tradition with their family stories and rich harmonies. Keepers of a body of song and a style of harmony singing that has become immensely popular in Britain and America, The Copper Family brings us over 400 years of family singing tradition.

PROGRAM

Simple Gifts

Saturday, February 21, 8:00 pm

At the Unitarian Universalist Church of Silver Spring (4 blocks outside the beltway on New Hampshire Ave. in Silver Spring).

Admission is $10 but is FREE to FSGW members.

This trio of outstanding, eclectic instrumentalists provide a delightful variety of lively tunes from around the world. Linda Littleton plays violin, recorder and hammered dulcimer. Rachel Hall plays English concertina and piano. Karen Hirshon plays violin, mandolin, banjo, guitar, spoons and tambourine.

TWO HOUSE CONCERTS

Paul Sutphin on Saturday February 14 and Judy Cook on Saturday, February 28. Details on page 5.

The Minifest is Here!

Eastern Middle School  Saturday, January 31st, Noon - 10:30 pm

During the afternoon festival-goers choose among 9 different programs taking place simultaneously at various locations in the school, including concerts, dances, song swaps, jams, and crafts demonstrations. There will also be an evening concert and dance. Kick up your heels to the tunes of National Champion Scottish fiddler Elke Baker and Craig DeBose on guitar and piano, with Tom Hinds calling, or listen to the blues of John Jackson, the singing of Hot Soup, and more. Or take in some of both.

See page 6 & 7 for more details and schedule of events.

Glen Echo Park needs your support - please read the info on page 4 and come to the meeting on Feb. 3.
New Winter Location - Cherry Hill Park  Sundays, 7:30 – 10:30 pm

We are moving to the Conference Center at Cherry Hill Park for the winter. It has a great wood floor. Our costs are somewhat higher at Cherry Hill than at Glen Echo, so we are leaving our admission prices unchanged; the dollar per dancer donated to Glen Echo will be allocated to rent at CH. We'll still be short, so please encourage your friends to dance with us and enjoy the climate-controlled dance hall.

Directions from the Capitol Beltway: Take exit 25 (US Route 1 South). At the first light, turn right onto Cherry Hill Road and go 1 mile (you will pass over the beltway). The entrance is on the left (there is a left hand turn lane). Go to the end of this road and turn right. The Center is about 1/4 mile on your left.

Directions from I95: Take exit 29B (MD Route 212) and go 1 mile. Turn left on Cherry Hill Road. Go another mile and the entrance is on your right. (Then follow directions above.)

There are a few rules / conditions to observe so we can be good neighbors: Please drive SLOWLY and be considerate of the Park residents! Please car pool if at all possible so we take up less space outside the hall. Also, we cannot have small children running around the hallways or the side rooms. Thanks.

Note: Do not park in any empty RV spaces. Park BEYOND the conference center only.

Our dances feature a mix of traditional American contras and squares performed to wonderful live music. We welcome both experienced and new dancers, and you do not need to bring a partner. New dancers should come early, since dances become more challenging later in the evening. Admission is $6.00 for members of FSGW and affiliated groups (BFMS, CDSS, ATDS), $8.00 for all others.

The following is reprinted from the Country Dance & Song Society News (Jan-Feb 1998).

The author wishes to remain anonymous.

"...Each dance takes on a life of its own - a personality, a spirit. Mistakes get made, feathers get ruffled, but it all gets ironed out. And that's how it should be ... I got upset about a little incident at last night's dance. A dear friend of mine, great dancer, has just finished a dance. Actually she hasn't been dancing for a while due to her one year old. Exhilarated and happy, she turned from the dance floor only to be confronted by a man who said, "You really screwed up that dance for everyone." She was dumbfounded and hurt and left the dance shortly thereafter.

"I think that fellow has missed the point. It is true that even the best dancers can get turned around, whether through play or confusion. It doesn't matter. We are a dance community. We have not gathered here, or anywhere, to prove our prowess. We have gathered to dance - and to do that with others. I have watched shy, clumsy beginners become wonderful and happy parts of the dance community. And I am sure you have seen people whose lives have been profoundly changed by contra dancing and its wonderful welcoming community of dancers.

"Let us always welcome newcomers. Let us always share our understanding and warmth - even when mistakes are made. And as you and I grow gray, and our knees hurt and we are a bit slower, let's hope the younger dancers will see us as part of the same dance community - that they, too, will share their tolerance and friendliness - that they will smile warmly and point us in the right direction when we get turned around. And that this sharing tradition will go on and on. Meanwhile, let's keep the spirit of dance alive by giving our thanks and sharing our love for one another through dance."

THE SCHEDULE

Feb 1  Baltimorean Robbin Schaeffer calls to the music of Martin's Flight. The band includes Alexander Mitchell on fiddle, Marc Glickman on piano & Ralph Gordon on bass.

Feb 8  Bev Smith, guitarist with Big Hoedown, is also a fine caller. Playing for her, and us, are local fiddler Elke Baker & Zan McLeod on guitar.
Feb 15 Baltimore-area dancer Steve Gester calls, with music by the popular Charlottsville trio, Adam's Housecat. Bo Bradham on fiddle, Craig DuBose on keyboard, guitar & piano, and a mystery guest on bass.

Feb 22 Once again Baltimore supplies the caller; tonight it is Susan Denise, accompanied by Some Assembly: Paul Miller on guitar, Mary Carlotta Flora on flute & Donna Boylan on piano.

Mar 1 Nancy Mamlin calls, music by the Wabash Cannibals.

Mar 8 Caller Tom Hinds is joined by members of his recent calling class, music by the White Cockade.

Mar 15 We return to Glen Echo with George Marshall & Wild Asparagus.

Mar 22 Beth Molaro calls, music by Jimmy Triplett & the Raincrows.

Mar 29 Peter Amidon calls, music by Popcorn Behavior.

Chesapeake Dance Weekend • April 3 - 5 at Camp Letts in Edgewater, MD. Staff includes Hillbillies from Mars with Tony Parkes and Bruce Molsky & Big Hoedown with Kathy Anderson. For more information, call 703-845-0426.

FSGW WEDNESDAY NIGHT ENGLISH COUNTRY DANCE

Glen Echo Town Hall Wednesdays, 8:00 – 10:30 pm

Attend the FSGW's English country dances and find a mix of fun and refined dancing led by talented callers who are accompanied by top-notch musicians playing tunes that are unique to each dance. Dance on a wood floor in the fine community room at the Glen Echo Town Hall. Enjoy the friendly crowd, known for its welcoming nature, light refreshments, and dance from 8:00 to 10:30 p.m. Open to dancers of all experience levels. Cost: members $5, non-members $6.

Feb 4 Brad Sayler calls to the music of Susan Brandt on flute, Liz Donaldson on piano, and Ken Wright on cello.

Feb 11 Rich Galloway and Norm Bernhardt pair up to call to the music of Elke Baker on fiddle, Liz Donaldson on piano, and Sue Richards on harp.

Feb 18 Mary Kay Friday calls, accompanied by Barbara Heitz on flute, Jeff Steinberg on fiddle, and Dave Wiesler on piano.

Feb 25 Diane Schmit calls to music by Becky Ross on fiddle, Liz Donaldson on piano, and Hope Stanton on concertina.

ATTENTION FRIENDS OF GLEN ECHO PARK

The fate of Glen Echo Park, including the Spanish Ballroom, is in jeopardy. The first step in the process of determining its fate will be a public scoping meeting held February 3. THE PARK AND THE BALLROOM NEED YOUR HELP! Please, we need all dancers and other friends of the park to show up and demonstrate public support for the continued use of the Ballroom as it is now. Show the Park Service you care about our favorite place to dance, and home of the Washington Folk Festival!

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3 AT 7:00 pm *
CLARA BARTON RECREATION CENTER, 7425 MACARTHUR BLVD.
(Across the one-lane bridge from Glen Echo Park - on the right: less than a mile north of the ballroom)

If you are unable to attend the meeting, please call the Park Service at 703-285-1924; tell them you wanted to come to the meeting but were unable to, and ask to be put on the Park Service's mailing list to be apprised of developments (this is different from the list that is being compiled at the ballroom).

* please note - time has been changed from the originally scheduled 6:00 pm

NOMINATIONS TO THE FSGW BOARD

Each spring the Folklore Society elects new Board members, who serve as committee chairs as well as making policy decisions for the Society. It's a big commitment of time and energy to sit on the Board, but the rewards can also be great. If you feel you are in a position to give something back to the ongoing, all-volunteer efforts of the Folklore Society of Greater Washington by running for office, or if you would just like more information, please call Carly Gewirz at 703-631-9655 or Dean Clamons at 202-767-2732.

The Copper Family, our February Special Event

Bob Copper, now 82, is the clan elder and recorded with his cousin Ron Copper in the 1950's. They appeared extensively on BBC radio for many years and Bob has collected a wonderful body of song from England's south coast in addition to the family tradition. Bob's children, Jill and John, and Jill's husband Jon Dudley carry on the singing tradition with style and grace and a deep love of the old songs. The Coppers have been a strong influence during the revival of traditional singing since the middle of this century.

The parish records in Rottingdean Church document The Copper Family to 1593 in the same Sussex England village where they still live, work, and sing. In the early days working folk were largely self-sufficient. Entertainment was all homespun, whether it was round the cottage hearth or in the tap-room of the inn on a Saturday night. A songster was welcome in any company for there was nothing like a song to cheer flagging spirits. Through the generations, The Coppers have had a reputation locally for singing and it was upon this more than anything else that their fame rested. Their love of the songs was handed down in turn from generation to generation.

Come share a delightful evening with this wonderful family. The Washington Ethical Society is at 7750 16th St. NW (5 blocks south of the Silver Spring Metro). Admission is $15, $12 for FSGW members.

Linda brings her love for the music of her Jewish and Eastern European ancestors, Rachel brings memories of her travels in Scandinavia and Ireland, and Karen contributes her joy in old-time American music. Although they treat each style of music with respect, you won’t find the usual arrangements here. It is obvious that Simple Gifts is a band that enjoys exploring new musical territory.

Linda Littleton can barely remember a time before she played violin. Rachel Hall grew up in a musical family and began playing piano for Cincinnati’s contra dance when she was in junior high school. Karen Hirshon is largely a self-taught musician. She was a founding member of, and toured nationally with, the bluegrass band Whetstone Run.

Simple Gifts will also present a workshop on Making a Band Work on Saturday afternoon. Learn the tricks and skills of making good music with other musicians. The workshop is for all levels of musicians interested in playing music with other musicians. The workshop will deal with issues of arranging music and performing. They will talk some at the beginning, then divide people into groups where they work out a tune together as a band. (Who knows, we may form some fun bands that will keep going). The workshop is $30/$25(FSGW members). Attendance is limited. The workshop will be at the home of Judy and Dennis Cook in Laurel, MD. Call them at 301-776-4314 for further information.

House Concerts

Paul Sutphin Saturday, February 14, 8:00 pm
Featuring “Round Peak” Old Time songs and tunes by North Carolina Folk Heritage Award Winner, Paul Sutphin, accompanied by Paul Brown and Terri McMurray.

Paul Sutphin is a singer and guitar player from the Piedmont area of North Carolina who has been playing and singing traditional string band music from his childhood. Now 79, he is in his prime as a musician and singer. In addition, he is renowned as a primary force in developing the “Round Peak” style of old time music, having started both the Camp Creek Boys and the Smoky Valley Boys, among others. Many of his versions of old time songs, have become the standard among old time bands. In addition, he developed his own unique style of guitar picking for song accompaniment and string band backup.

Paul will be joined by Paul Brown (on fiddle and vocals) and Terri McMurray (banjo and vocals) of Toast, North Carolina, fine singers and musicians in their own right. Paul and Terri are well known as hosts and teachers at festivals and music camps throughout the United States.

This concert will be at the home of Lars and Becky Hanslin, Chevy Chase, MD Call 301 654-4317 for directions. Admission is $6 for FSGW members and $8 for non-members.

Judy Cook Saturday, February 28, 8:00 pm
Judy Cook brings a powerful voice, a great unaccompanied style and a deep respect for tradition to her performances of a huge repertoire of (mostly) American songs and ballads.

Born in Virginia, the third of four children, Judy grew up with singing from both parents. Coming of age in the folk boom of the late 1960's and early 1970's, Judy began researching the background of the songs she loved and found many new and wonderful sources of traditional music. Judy began performing professionally in the early 1990's and is well respected on both sides of the Atlantic as a singer and propagator of the old songs.

Judy's singing is marked by a command of narrative that pulls the audience in to really understand what the song is about. Her style and presentation are a credit to the sources.

Come hear Judy in the comfort of Ursy & Carter's living room in McLean, VA. Call Carter or Ursy at 703-821-1373 for directions. Admission is $6 for FSGW members and $8 for non-members.
The 1998 Minifest is Here!

Eastern Middle School, Silver Spring, MD  Saturday, January 31st, Noon - 10:30 pm

To get there: from 495 (Washington Beltway) take exit 29 (University Blvd.) East toward Langly Park, and turn left at first light (Franklin); from Metro (red line), take Silver Spring exit, then Ride-On Bus #14 to Eastern Middle School. (Bus #14 departs Metro at :01 and :31 past every hour -- Last bus leaves Silver Spring Metro 6:01 pm; last bus leaves Eastern Middle School 6:38 pm). Festival cost is $15 for full day, maximum. Members get discount, kids are less than half price. (See last month's Newsletter for price schedule). If you cannot take in the whole festival, a half-day ticket will get you into just the afternoon or just the evening, but you'll probably want to do it all! IF IT SNOWS: CALL 202-244-9161 to find out if the Minifest is postponed.

This year's Minifest gets off to a great start at noon with the Toho Koto Society, three great mini-concerts, a "Too Much Too Soon" swap on songs of Excess, and a Sacred Harp sing. This is just the beginning. Schedule inside (still awaiting a few confirmations at press time) gives most activity details from noon until 6:00 pm for the two dance rooms, two participatory workshop rooms, two showcase rooms, jam room, and rooms for the international program and for kids.

(PARENTS NOTE: for nap-time in kids' room you may wish to bring nap mats, blankets, teddies, etc. for your toddlers.) There will also be some hands-on crafts demonstrations, and food, and House of Musical Traditions in the cafeteria throughout the afternoon.

In the evening is the evening dance with Tom Hinds calling to the tunes of Elke Baker (fiddle) and Craig DuBose (guitar and piano), and there is the TRIPLE BILL evening concert featuring Hot Soup (Sue Trainor, Sue Ribaudo, and Christina Muir), John Jackson, and the Andean music of Mystic Warriors.

This year's Minifest brings back many old favorites, such as performers Ed Trickett, Tom McHenry, and Andy Wallace, to name but a few, and time honored workshops such as Sacred Harp, Gospel, Sea Songs and Ballads. This year we also present some new Minifest performers such as Marge Bunday, Gail Snider, Gwilym Davies, and Jan Wuester and some new groups composed of old and new friends, as well as some fresh workshop ideas, such as the opening and closing pair of song-swaps in room 601, the biography in song on Woodie Guthrie, Napoleonic Songs led by Jennifer Woods, and story and song swap about What Went Wrong at the Wedding. This year's crafts will have hands-on and demonstrations, with Origami, Grow-Your-Own Shiitake Mushrooms, the Northern Virginia Carvers, and others.

There's sure to be something for everyone. See you there!

MORE FOLKLORE SOCIETY EVENTS

Open Sing
Friday, February 6, 8:30 pm
Come to the home of Lisa Null and Charlie Baum in Silver Spring. The topic is “Hello, I Must Be Going.” Songs of greeting and/or parting. We usually go around the room, giving everyone a chance to sing a song, play a tune, or pass. Most songs are presented from memory, but cheat-sheets often appear. Everyone is welcome. The open sings have a loose topic to encourage us to learn new songs or put the polish back on some old ones. Don't worry if you can't think of a song on the topic, come join in the fun anyway.

Storyswap
Sunday, February 8, 7:30 pm
Storytellers and listeners meet in the home of Alan Centa in Takoma Park. Call 301-270-3916 for directions and rsvps.

Gospel Sing
Sunday, February 8, 4:00 pm
The monthly Gospel Sing will be at the home of Bill and Bonnie Grimm in Glenmont, MD near Aspen Hill. Call them at 301 942-9342 for directions. Singing starts around 4:00 pm with a break for a covered dish supper at 6:00 and then more singing. Everyone is welcome!

Sacred Harp Singing
Sunday, February 22, 4:00 pm
Location undetermined by press time. Please call the FSGW Hotline at 202-546-2228 and press 42 for current information and directions to the February Sacred Harp singing.

Board Meeting
Monday, February 2, 8:00 pm
The February Board meeting will be at the Glen Echo Park Ranger Station. Any FSGW member may attend. If you have any issues for the Board to consider, please contact the appropriate Board member or our President, Carly Gewirz, at 703-631-9655.

"The Blues Is a Feelin'": African Traditions in America
Saturday, February 28, 7:30 pm
At Ulrich Recital Hall, Tawes Fine Arts Building, University of Maryland, College Park, MD. Tickets: $21 ($16 for FSGW members), $9.50 children & full time students w/ID. (includes admission to a workshop on improvisation from 10 - 11:30 am and a storytelling performance for children ages 8-12 from 2 - 3 pm). Call 301-403-4240 Mon-Fri 10 am - 4 pm.

Community Concert & Dance Program at the Glen Echo Town Hall
Sunday, February 8
It features a concert of family-friendly talent from 3:00 - 4:00 pm and dancing from 4:00 - 5:30 pm.
Judy Cook leads a songfest for the whole family, then plays for the dance along with her husband, Dennis. Susan Taylor, from Baltimore, calls traditional American dances.
These concerts and dances are a wonderful way for parents to introduce their children to the joys of music and dancing. But they are not only for families with children; dancers of all ages and skill levels are invited to attend. Admission: adults $5, children 5 & over $4, ($15 family max). For further info, call 301-320-7099. For directions to the Town Hall, see pg 3.

Deadline for the March 1998 Issue: 9:00 pm, Tuesday, February 10
