Dave Webber & Anni Fentiman
Friday, October 2 • 8 pm

Dave Webber & Anni Fentiman are two warm and wonderful vocalists from London, England who present a delightful combination of traditional, contemporary, and original music. Their enthusiasm sparkles in their powerful vocal performances which have developed from their involvement in traditional and traditional-style music for over 25 years. Their first love is a cappella singing, both solo and in harmony. They present a varied cross section of material from the delicate solo to the rousing chorus.

Michael O’Leary-Johns

from Wales, with strong Irish background

Tuesday October 20 • 8pm

Michael O’Leary-Johns is a fine traditional singer of Irish heritage, who has lived all his life in Wales. Possessing a strong, rich bass voice, Mike has a repertoire of songs from his family that are often little known or unusual variants of more familiar songs. He also sings a wide range of songs he has picked up through the years from other sources.

Mike sings unaccompanied in a simple but very winning style. Many will remember Mike from his first trip to the U.S. two years ago, with Roy Harris and Tony Fraser as the group Mainbrace. This is Mike’s first solo concert in our area.

Lovers of good old fashioned traditional singing will have a great time at this program at the home of Ursy Potter & Carter Hearn in McLean, VA, just outside the beltway. Admission is $10, $7 for FSGW members. Directions: 703.821.1373.

House Concert

Silver Spring, MD

Vic Legg

from Cornwall in England

Tuesday October 27 • 8pm

Come visit with Vic Legg and share an evening of wonderful unaccompanied songs in the southern English style. Vic is a warm and thoroughly delightful person, a fine traditional singer, and a fascinating raconteur of stories from Cornwall.

Vic was born in Launceston, Cornwall in 1941, the son of a settled Gypsy mother and an itinerant laborer father. From the age of seven, he lived very close to his aunts and uncles since his grandfather bought seven houses in a terrace and gave a house to each of his children. The family, living in such close proximity, gave Vic a golden opportunity to sing and learn the songs passed down from his great-grandfather.

This early grounding in his family songs grew in later years as he became interested in the wider aspect of traditional songs and in related customs. Living in Cornwall was the ideal place to be, where he was able to learn from many local singers. Vic helped to start a folk song club in 1968, and was invited to join the Bodmin Traditional Wassailers.

Around this period Vic was invited to sing at clubs and festivals around the country. He met and readily made friends with other singers — young and old. He met singers from other parts of the British Isles and beyond, broadening his repertoire and enhancing his reputation in the southern English style.

The majority of his singing is unaccompanied, but Vic greatly enjoys harmony singing. He is looking forward to singing with the FSGW folks - a few of whom he had heard when he was on staff at Pinewoods.

Vic will provide a fun evening, so come join us at the spacious home of Jennifer Woods and Bob Clayton in Silver Spring. Admission is $10, $7 for FSGW members. Directions: 301.587.7174.
Come to FSGW’s English country dances and find a mix of fun and refined dancing led by talented callers who are accompanied by top-notch musicians playing tunes that are unique to each dance. On a given night you may hear anything from the ubiquitous piano and fiddle to the flute, harp, oboe, concertina, bassoon, or viola, many of which you will hear playing for us during the summer months. Dance on a wood floor in the fine community room at the Glen Echo Town Hall. Enjoy the friendly crowd, known for its welcoming nature, light refreshments, and dance from 8:00 to 10:30 p.m. Open to dancers of all experience levels. Cost: members $5, non-members $6. The Town Hall is climate controlled: that means air conditioned for enjoyable dancing during the hot, muggy, Washington summer.

September

30 Caller: Rich Galloway with Liz Donaldson (piano), Bruce Edwards (bassoon and concertina), and Colleen Spence (flute).

October

7 Caller: Stephanie Smith with Liz Donaldson (piano and accordion), Barbara Heitz (flute) and Laurie Mielke (recorder).

14 SPECIAL EVENT: English country dances especially for contra dancers. Contra and square dances share common roots with English country dancing, a forms of dance that developed in the sixteenth century. The repertoire of these dance forms has changed and matured over the years, refreshed by newly created works. Charlottesville’s Brad Sayler returns to call this special event that was extremely popular last year, and is joined by Elke Baker (fiddle), Liz Donaldson (accordion and piano) and Ralph Gordon (cello). Brad’s program will be constructed especially for dyed-in-the-wool contra dancers as well as those who cross over from time to time.

21 Caller: Diane Schmit with Liz Donaldson (piano and accordion), Becky Ross (fiddle) and Dave Wiesler (guitar and piano).

a college student in the late 1960s, Debby has toured the US and Europe, appearing at nearly every major festival in the US and the United Kingdom. Debby now lives in central Pennsylvania, where she divides her time between performing and running “Trail’s End Kitchens,” a catering business whose clients include the FSGW Getaway! Debby is a fine songwriter and singer, equally adept at banjo, guitar and concertina. She also uses a variety of “lost” instruments, such as the marxophone and the ukelin.

As a treat, Debby is planning to supply some of the refreshments for this concert (those who’ve been to the Getaway can attest to how delicious her desserts are!).

Admission to the monthly program is FREE for FSGW members, $10 for the general public. If you are not a member, or your membership has lapsed, you can join FSGW using the form on the back of this newsletter. Bring the completed form to the concert with a check (or cash) and your admission will be FREE! The WES Auditorium is located at 7750 Sixteenth St., NW, at Kalmia Rd., NW, about four blocks inside the District from the Maryland line.

Anni’s intuitive harmony adds color and depth to the duo while her solo performance is clear and sensitive. Hailing from Northeast of England, Anni is a “Geordie” and presents an unusual repertoire featuring dialect songs earning Anni a well deserved reputation in English traditional music circles.

Dave sings with a rich and powerful style. His love of this music is clear in his performance, from the gentle and plaintive traditional ballad to the stirring chorus songs which inspires even the most reticent audience to join in. Dave is also a song writer of note with many of his better known songs often assumed to be traditional.

“A pleasure to know and magical in performance” — Reddith Folk Festival, UK

You will want to hear their superb close harmonies, but you will also want to join in on their oh-so-singable choruses.

Dave and Annie will perform at the home of Ursy Potter & Carter Hearn in McLean, VA, just outside the beltway. Admission is $10, $7 for FSGW members. Directions: 703.821.1373.

34th FSGW Getaway
Friday-Monday, October 9-12, 1998

The FSGW Getaway features good music, good food, and good fellowship under the trees beside the water of YMCA Camp Letts, just south of Annapolis MD. This 34th annual cabin-camping folk music weekend promises to be as enjoyable as all the previous ones were. Invited guests this year include Heather Wood, Max Ochs, Murray Callahan, Mike Agranoff, Dwayne Thorpe, and Saul Broudy, but a number of our local FSGW regulars will also be there, making music and sharing their knowledge on a number of musical subjects. Workshop topics include Sea Songs, Mississippi John Hurt, Job Descriptions, Historic Songs, Parodies, Ballads, Love Songs, and “Themes in a Hat.” Other activities include crafts, jamming and children’s activities - the days are packed with good times. Food will once more be provided by Debby McClatchy’s “Trail’s End Kitchen”. Camp Letts will provide fall colors, hiking trails, canoes and horseback riding.

The Getaway is not limited to overnight campers, though. Many folks choose to “day trip” on Saturday or Sunday while enjoying their own beds at home each night. Special rates for day-trippers include a $30 one-day or $55 two-day rate (with two meals) or $10 each day (with no meals). Children’s day rates are $15 (one-day w/ meals) or $25 (two-day w/ meals), and $5 (no meals). Non-FSGW member rates are $5 per person higher for days with meals (non-meal rates are the same as for members). Non-meal day-trippers may register on-site.

Bring the family for a day’s outing or stay the whole weekend. Camp Letts is off US 50, less than an hour’s drive from Washington -- even if you live in Northern Virginia. For directions and other info, call Dolores Nichols at 703-938-4564 or Judy Cook at 301-776-4314.

Sacred Harp Singing  Sunday October 25 • 3:00pm
FSGW sponsors monthly singings of early American hymns, anthems, and fugging tunes in four-part harmony. The main tunebook is The Sacred Harp, 1991 Edition, but Christian Harmony (Deason-Parris revision) is also used, and original shape-note compositions by local singers are frequently sung. These singings are held every fourth Sunday afternoon (except in December) and also on New Year's Day. We usually sing until about 6:30, then share a potluck supper. All are welcome to come and sing or listen for as long as desired. Loaner tunebooks are available. Admission is free. (At some church locations a free-will offering is taken.)

This month's singing will be the Susan Wantland Memorial Singing at McCathran Hall, Chestnut & Center Streets, Washington Grove, MD. This is the beautiful, sonorous, octagonal hall where Susan last sang with us in September 1997. Note that the kitchen has no stove or oven, only a microwave. Take I-270 toward Gaithersburg and exit at Shady Grove Road. Go right on Shady Grove. Take the first left (2nd light, opposite Sears warehouse) after crossing 355, onto Oakmont. Follow Oakmont about a mile to the stop sign. Turn right on (unmarked) Railroad Ave. & cross the tracks. Just after the road winds to the left, take the first right, onto Grove Rd. At the 2nd stop sign, go left on Center St. 1/2 block to the town hall. Info: 202.543.3539.

In Memoriam:

Lal Waterson

Elaine (Lal) Waterson passed away from cancer at age 55, Friday, September 4, at home in Robin Hood’s Bay, England, surrounded by family and friends. The Watersons were unpretentious and unconventional folk music stars, worlds away from the commercial glamour of pop music. They came to prominence in the mid-1960s, and have appeared many times for FSGW audiences.

There were four in the original group, Michael, Norma and Lal (two sisters and a brother), and their second cousin, John Harrison. A later grouping replaced Harrison with Martin Carthy, Norma Waterson’s husband. Their own handcrafted harmonies, an immediately recognizable and uniquely distinctive group sound, led to a boom in unaccompanied singing groups in the English and (later) American folk “scenes.”
