Tom Paxton

in Concert

Saturday, June 9 • 8pm

Tom Paxton has become a voice of his generation, addressing issues of injustice and inhumanity, laying bare the absurdities of modern culture and celebrating the tenderest bonds of family, friends, and community. He is one of the great songwriters of the last century and will be reckoned as one of the greats in this new century, as well. An internationally recognized and loved cultural figure, he has always chosen goodwill over commercial success. His generosity has taken the shape of a benefit concert performance for a little girl fighting leukemia, or a personal note of encouragement to an up-and-coming songwriter. This is the man who wrote and lives the words, "Peace will come, and let it begin with me."

Tom Sauber, Brad Leftwich and Alice Gerrard

Old-time music

Friday June 29 • 8pm

Fans of old-time music will have cause to rejoice on Friday, June 29, when Alice Gerrard, Tom Sauber, and Brad Leftwich appear in a special concert at the Washington Ethical Society Auditorium. Each of Tom, Brad and Alice is recognized and respected as a trailblazer whose influence has been felt on a generation of younger musicians, and whose effect on the wider world of traditional music and culture has been far reaching. They have released two recordings, Been There Still and Holly Ding. The recordings will be available for purchase at the concert.

Alice Gerrard has had a long and glorious career as a singer, songwriter, instrumentalist and tireless advocate of traditional music. She has achieved legendary status among old-time and bluegrass musicians, first achieving fame for her groundbreaking collaboration with Appalachian singer Hazel Dickens during the 1960s and 1970s. Alice Gerrard has recorded with traditional musicians such as Tommy Jarrell, Enoch Rutherford, Otis Burris, and Matokie Slaughter. She also co-produced and appeared in two documentary films. She has won the Virginia Arts Commission Award, the North Carolina Folklore Society's Tommy Jarrell Award, and an Indy Award. She is founder and editor-in-chief of the Old-Time Herald.

Tom Sauber is one of the most influential old-time musicians in the western US. He is a singer and multi-instrumentalist who switches effortlessly between guitar, banjo, fiddle, and mandolin and who is at home in a number of genres including bluegrass, cowboy music, old-time and Cajun. His 30-year career has included long partnerships with Oklahoma fiddler Earl Collins (with whom he recorded the classic That's Earl), and Round Peak banjo picker Eddie Lowe. He also has performed with Byron Berline, John Hickman and Alan Munde, Joe Simien, and Weird Al Yankorich. He hosted radio show for 12 years on KPFK-FM, Los Angeles, and has a Masters degree in folklore.

Best-known for his virtuosity on the fiddle, Brad Leftwich is also an accomplished singer and banjo player. Brad grew up in Oklahoma in a family with musical roots in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia, and his music reflects the traditions of both these areas. Brad was a founding member of the Plank Road String Band in the mid-seventies and toured with his wife Linda as Leftwich & Higgenbotham through the 1980s. Later, Brad and Linda formed the core of the Humdingers. Brad has performed at the White House and has won numerous contests, including the Appalachian String Band Music Festival in Clifftop, WV, and the Old-Time Fiddlers Convention in Galax, VA. He is a recognized authority on old-time instrumental styles, having published a book on clawhammer banjo and several fiddle instruction videos.

Tom, Brad & Alice will appear at the WES Auditorium, 8850 16th St. NW, DC, (see Directions on page 14) on Friday, June 29, at 8pm. Tickets are $12 for FSGW Members and $16 for non-members.

CAROL
JONES AND
JAMES LEVA

An Evening of Country Roots Music

Friday June 8 • 8pm

Jones and Leva, the Virginia-based duo known for their original songs and accomplished harmony singing, will appear in concert in Takoma Park, MD.

Carol Elizabeth Jones and James Leva began their career at Rounder Records with two CDs of all-original material. In 2000, the duo moved to the Copper Creek label for their newest release, Vertie's Dream, which is a collection of new Jones and Leva compositions along with their arrangements of traditional Appalachian pieces. Their music has a traditional country sound, yet offers something brand new.

With arrangements built around James's award-winning fiddling and the duo's complementary guitar styles, Jones and Leva's beautiful harmonies enchant and enthrall. From foot-stomping Appalachian fiddle tunes to tender portraits of love and life, their writing captures sounds ancient not only to urban ears but to folks steeped in the Appalachian tradition.

The Jones and Leva house concert will be held on Friday, June 8, at 8pm in the home of Tom Hall in Takoma Park, MD. Admission is $10 for non-members and $7 for FSGW members. Children under 13 years old are admitted free of charge. For directions call 301.270.0110.

Good-Bye From One Editor; Hello to Another!

This is my last issue of the FSGW Newsletter before a new editor takes over with the August 2001 issue. I have enjoyed serving the Society as Publications Chair very much over these past two years. My able committee (Jennifer Woods, Mary LaMarca) and I have tried to bring you newsletters that were easy to read and informative. We have tried to include as much news of area acoustic music events as possible and still include feature articles like the wonderful historical pieces written by Joe Hickerson and Julie McCullough. I hope readers have found the "local folkie focus" section useful, as well as the reorganization of dance events by genre rather than by chronology. I am sure the new editor will have lots of her own ideas to keep the Newsletter responsive to the needs of its readers. Please welcome April Grastorf!

Kathie Mack
Outgoing FSGW Newsletter Editor

PS -- NOTE that all standing articles must be resubmitted starting with the August issue.

35 Years Ago - June 1966

by Joe Hickerson

The June 17 special event at Pierce Hall was a Frank Proffitt Memorial Concert featuring John & Ginny Dildine, Joe Hickerson, Chuck & Nan Perdue, and Sacred Harp Singers led by John Shortridge, Howie Mitchell, and Joe Hickerson. Botkin (Croton-on-Hudson, NY), John Cohen (New Lost City Ramblers), Barbara Dane (NYC), Anita "Sunbird" De Frey (NYC), Louis Ford (NYC), Ira Gershwin (composer, lyricist), Lena Gitter (Amer. Montessori Soc.), James Masterson (National Historical Publications Commission), Wm. Bruce Olson (Silver Spring), Jon & Marcia Pankake (Little Sandy Review), Radmila Petrovi (Institute of Musicology, Belgrad), Regula Qureshi (Edmonton, Can.), Richard Reuss (Indiana Univ.), Anne Romaine (Southern Student Organizing Committee), Irwin Silber (Sing Out!), Mary Wilmot (W. J. Gage, Ltd.).

On July 30 there was an informal potluck and singing at the home of Chuck and Nan

35 Years Ago, July 1966 continued from page 8

Perdue. There was no newsletter this month. Joe Hickerson reported to the board that $135.00 had been spent on performer's fees for FSGW programs from October 1965 through June 1966.

The vol. 1, no. 1 (July 1966) issue of Bluegrass Unlimited, with office addresses in Falls Church and Wheaton, appeared this month. Its 8 pages included a report on County Records by Richard Spottswood and the following sections which have continued to this day: record reviews, upcoming events, radio programs, fan clubs, publications. Besides Spottswood, other officers of the new organization were Pete (Roberts) Kuykendall, Richard Freeland, Gary Henderson, and Dianne Sims.

The following were scheduled to perform in the area this month: Mitchell Trio, Serendipity Singers, Tom Lehrer (Cellar Door); Chad Mitchell, New Christy Minstrels (Shady Grove), Harry Belafonte (Carter-Barron); Donald Leace (Lake Anne Village Center); Charlie Moore & Bill Napier & The Dixie Partners (Willis Hall Community Park); Benny & Vallie Cain & The Country Clan (Jimbo's); Alice Foster, Hazel Dickens & Smiley Hobbs (Fillmore Restaurant); Bob Goff's Bluegrass Buddies (Vienna Moose Lodge); Spruce Mountain Boys (Buddy's Bar and Andrews AFB); Francis Tinsman & The Potomac Mountain Boys (Sterling Puritan Club); The Virginians (Suitland Moose Lodge); Virginia Ramblers (Phil's Truck Stop).

The no. 27 (July 1966) issue of Dick Rodgers' Washington Folk Strums listed the following results of its annual poll of favorite performers: visiting male - Pete Seeger, female - Judy Collins, group - Ian & Silvia; local male - Howie Mitchell, female - Libba Cotten, group - Country Gentlemen, instrumentalist - Mike Rivers. Live broadcast of Dick Cerri's Music Americana Hootenanny from the Cellar Door began this month.

Meanwhile, the Library of Congress Archive of Folk Song registered the following researchers and visitors: members of the Bryant family of Evansville, IN, who had performed for the Archive in 1939; Ernest & Barbara Calabria (part of Belafonte troupe); Jacob Evanson (Pennsylvania College for Women); Lee Fairley (American Embassy, Morocco); Charles Faurot & David Freeman (County Records); Dorothy Gaus (Catholic Univ.); Richard M. Loomis (Dean, King's College); Carlle Tart (from the NC family that was the source of Ginny's Gone to Ohio).

Joe Hickerson's folk music credentials are almost too numerous to mention. Head of the Archive of Folk Culture at the Library of Congress until his retirement in 1998, he is now even more available to sing and lecture about folk music. One of the founding members of FSGW, he has served as the Society's President, Program Chair, and Book Review Editor, and has kindly agreed to contribute a column each month describing FSGW and other area events 35 years ago. If any readers have flyers, clippings, etc. concerning local events in 1966, please mail copies to Joe at 43 Philadelphia Avenue, Takoma Park, MD 20912 for possible inclusion in this column.

Local Folkie Focus

The Washington area is enjoying a blossoming of venues for local performers at area bookstores, coffee shops, and community halls. We'd like to be able to list every folk event going on, but space considerations prevent us from listing every performer's schedule individually. The Newsletter will provide a monthly listing of local folk performers who are appearing at small venues. If you would like to be included, please send your name or band name, a BRIEF description of your musical style ("bluegrass," "unaccompanied singer," "contemporary songs," "Balkan dance band," etc.) and how people can find out about your performance schedule (web address, e-mail, or your phone number). As space permits, we will try to accommodate everyone whose performance is related to the traditional folk orientation of the Folklore Society and who submits their contact information to the Newsletter Editor by the deadline.

John Fahey (1939-2001)

A Personal Reminiscence

By Dick Spottswood

I guess many of us locals of a certain age remember John Fahey as the local boy who made good, along with Duke Ellington, John Duffey, Roberta Flack and Emmylou Harris. But John did a lot of it the hard way, adapting what appealed to him from old white and black country music and forging it into a simple, though not simplistic, music of his own, overlaid with his literary, theological and philosophical interests, and overlaying that still further with fearless torrents of make-believe. Well, that's the polite word for it.

In the sixties, he was the only Bad Boy of music who disdained both rock n' roll and what was passing for folk. His compositions and LP record sets were crowned with bizarre titles that John enjoyed passing off on an adoring public. Of course, if you took them (and him) seriously, he had little use for you. But if you were disdainful instead, you'd quickly find out he was a serious person with more than a smattering of musical knowledge and depth.

John and I knew each other best when we were in our teens, traveling to Sunday shows in the hillbilly music parks, and venturing into small southern towns and hamlets in search of music both live and recorded. He left for California in the early sixties to pursue a degree at UCLA, where he wrote an authoritative work on Charley Patton that's about to be republished. We rarely saw each other again, but we never forgot either. I got a note in February that John had been hospitalized, and I called him, never expecting to actually get through. But I did, and we talked for twenty minutes, exchanging stories and a few memories. It was a cheerfully optimistic conversation, and neither of us thought it would be the last time we would talk.

RIP, John. It was just a little too soon.

Although John Fahey was never a member of FSGW, it is undeniable that he caused a lot of people to listen to folk music who otherwise never would have. Dick Spottswood's long-running program of traditional music on WAMU-FM likewise introduces listeners to music they can hear nowhere else, roots music recordings from long ago. The Editor of the FSGW Newsletter feels very fortunate to be able to run this short personal reminiscence of one folk legend by another.
