37th Annual Getaway

Friday October 19, thru Sunday October 21, 2001

Camp Ramblewood (Darlington, MD)

Your chance to get away from it all, at the height of the autumn color season, and make music together with your neighbors and musicians from all over the world. Camp Ramblewood is a lovely spot with lots of inviting places to jam or sing, from first light to the wee hours. There is plenty of beautiful land for walking and hiking and for kids to run around in.

Sandy & Caroline Paton

EVENTS SCHEDULED SO FAR

FSGW Sunday Night Contra Dance

Sundays • 7:30 to 10:30 pm

Spanish Ballroom at Glen Echo Park (Directions, page 14). Live music by excellent bands, entertaining callers. Experienced and new dancers are welcome, and no partner is needed. Called dances are mostly contras, with occasional squares. New dancers should come early, as dances become more challenging later in the evening. Admission $6 for FSGW, BFMS, DCSS, and ATDS Members; $8 for Non-Members. The Ballroom is neither heated nor air-conditioned. Dancers should dress appropriately and bring water. Info: Anne Sergeant at dance@fsgw.org or check the webpage at www.fsgw.org.

October

- 7 Bill Olson (from Maine) calls to music by Abrazo Sin Fin featuring Laura Lengnick on fiddle, Dave Wiesler on piano and guitar, Paul Oorts on banjo, mandolin, and maybe accordion, and Ralph Gordon on bass.
- 14 Ridge Kennedy calls to music by Philadelphia's Raise the Roof: Mat Clark, Judi Stellar, Kathy Talvitie, and Pete Soloway. Ridge calls at dances and dance festivals in southern New England and throughout the Middle Atlantic States. His repertoire includes a wide variety of carefully-selected contras with distinctive features that dancers enjoy, along with occasional contra medleys, hot squares and your favorite dance "chestnuts."
- 21 Caller TBA, music by Taconic Tonic. Fiddler George Wilson lives near Albany and has played fiddle at contra dances for over 20 years in the Northeast. His collaboration with pianist Becky Ashenden and guitarist Chuck Corman has led to a mix of Celtic and Balkan sounds influenced by Uncle Dave Macon, Leadbelly and even Scandinavian music. To maintain the integrity of Celtic and Balkan music they use appropriate instrumentation whenever possible (accordion, tambura and banjo, among others). Whatever ethnic style they're playing, Taconic Tonic presents lively music for dancing or just downright listening pleasure.
- 28 Ted Crane (from New York) calls to music by our own Whiskers Before Breakfast: Al Taylor on fiddle, Steve Benka on hammer dulcimer, and Ritchie Schuman on piano. The Whiskers have been playing at Washington-area contra dances since the Concordia days (late Pleistocene, for you geology buffs). Their repertoire is mostly northern but occasionally strays below the Mason-Dixon Line.

What Kept You Coming Back When You First Started Dancing?

The first of an occasional series

I've been asking dancers what got them hooked when they first started dancing. Many people's answers were similar, and I think they might provide some insight into what makes dancing such a habit-forming activity. Here are some of their replies:

"People invited me to dance." "I remember people smiling and just laughing off my mistakes." "I remember some guys who physically (but gently) helped me get to where I needed to be." "I remember a Celtic band ... it was the first time I'd ever heard a hammer dulcimer, and I was just amazed at how wonderful it sounded." (From a man) "A woman asked me to dance ... I still remember her." (From a woman) "Another woman told me 'You can ask a man to dance.' I had been sitting on the side waiting to be asked."

What do you remember from your early dancing days? A special place? A little tip that made it instantly clear what you were supposed to do? A gesture that made you feel welcome? If I've missed anything here, please do let me know; my email is dance@fsgw.org.

I'll publish occasional columns in the future. If you have ideas or suggestions for other topics you'd like to see addressed this column, feel free to email me at dance@fsgw.org. Thanks! Anne Sergeant, Dance Chair

Gordon Bok and Bob Zentz

Companions by the Sea
Friday, November 2 • 8 pm

From different shores of the same ocean, Bob Zentz and Gordon Bok have become friends -- across the miles, years and songs. Every decade, or so, they combine forces and take to the road, sharing the music that bridges the distance with friends old and new.

Their individual and combined repertoires include sea songs and chanteys, poems set to music, contemporary works, regional songs, traditional ballads, instrumental tunes, recitations, and original selections in the folk tradition — all played on an incredible variety of acoustic instruments including guitars, cittern, cellamba, squeeze-boxes, whistles and banjo.

This concert will be a rare treat, because each artist performs solos and duets in an informal style that allows the song to take center stage, and allows the listener to savor and reflect upon meanings and moods, while enjoying the camaraderie of two souls who enjoy each other's thoughts, music, sense of humor, and company. "Musical Synergy at its very best!"

Come enjoy this FSGW Special Event on Friday, November 2, at the Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church (Bethesda, MD). (Directions next month or at fsgw.org) Members: $14, Non-Members: $18

Mary Kay was active in organizing FSGW activities and a regular caller at the Wednesday evening FSGW English Country Dance (see page 5 of the May 2001 newsletter). Many generous members of the folk community have already contributed. Help push the scholarship fund over the top. Make your tax-deductible contribution by sending a check (payable to the Country Dance and Song Society) to Post Office Box 338, Haydenville, Massachusetts 01039, and mark it "In memory of Mary Kay Friday."

and Chanteys, Stephen Foster, Music of the '30s, open sings and jams, Country & Western, and many more. We may even be lucky enough to have a lesson in Yorkshire Sword Dancing!

FOR CHILDREN, A KID-FRIENDLY ENVIRONMENT

Activities for kids will include interactive games and stories and an evening campfire complete with singing, stories and marshmallows. If any parent would like to provide materials for a do-it-yourself crafts table or a toy chest (contributions of outgrown toys) please call Rita at 301-946-2161.

FOOD, HOUSING, FEES AND OTHER LOGISTICS

Camp Ramblewood is on the banks of the Susquehanna River just a few miles upriver from Havre de Grace, Maryland. Friday evening is our usual potluck dinner, with foods that change as each successive party arrives. Your registration fee covers lodging in cabins with real mattresses and hot showers, as well as all meals on Saturday and Sunday (and even a breakfast on Monday, if you choose to linger). Or you may come for the day if you are unable to get away for the whole weekend. Daytrippers are offered two meals, lunch and dinner, each day. (But you MUST register in advance if you wish to dine!)

There are handicapped accessible cabins, and arrangements can be made to help people who need help negotiate the slopes of the site, but please let us know your needs when you register, or call the Getaway chair for details. A limited number of vehicles will be permitted to shuttle up and down the hill. And for those who are early-to-bed types (or have small children), a few cabins will be designated as quiet areas, with no singing after 10 pm.

Getaway fees depend on whether you're an FSGW member or not, and whether you're an adult or a child. See the registration form for the fee that applies to you. Fees are determined by our actual costs to run this event--food, camp rental, etc. If you're not yet a member of the FSGW, but you join now, you will pay the lower member rates for the Getaway.

SCHOLARSHIPS ARE AVAILABLE

We especially encourage families to come, and if the fees seem too steep, the Linda Lieberman/David Olive Memorial Fund may be able to make it affordable for you! Contact the Getaway chair, Charlie Baum at chbaum@earthlink.net or 301-587-2286.

On the other hand, if you can afford to contribute to the scholarship fund, you'll help to interest the next generation in folk music. And even if you're not money-rich, you can bring along something to the Getaway for the silent auction to replenish the Lieberman/Olive fund.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED TO HELP WITH SOME TASKS

We'll also need some volunteers to help out with some chores: We need to make sure the dining hall is cleaned up after the Friday night potluck. We need to manage the Silent Auction (which benefits the Scholarship Fund). We need to coordinate and provide shuttle service between workshop locations up and down the hill. And we'll need greeters, button-makers, and registration-folk at the camp. Call Rita at 301.946.2161 or Charlie at 301.587.286 if you'd like to help.

To register, mail the registration form on page 23, with your check to

c/o J. Woods 8401 Cedar St.

Silver Spring, MD 20910

For more details, contact the Getaway chair, Charlie Baum at chbaum@earthlink.net or 301.587.2286.

35 Years Ago - October 1966

by Joe Hickerson

FSGW's first "Folk Get-Away" occurred September 30 through October 2 at Prince William Forest Park under the direction of Nan Perdue. Out-of-town performer Dave Sear joined numerous FSGW members for a rainy weekend of largely informal, participatory events. The Society sponsored: A showing of the film "Shadows of Long Ago and Far Away" on October 14 at the Washington Gaslight Auditorium; two concerts by Pete Seeger (with Stanley-Williams Presentations) on October 21 and 22 at Lisner Auditorium; and an Open Sing on October 29 at the Union Methodist Church. The four-page October 1966 (vol. 3, no. 1) issue of the FSGW newsletter featured Chuck Perdue's president's column, and announcements of the above events and of a reciprocal arrangement between FSGW and the Philadelphia Folksong Society.

The following were also scheduled to perform in the area during October 1966: Ian & Sylvia, Singing Spear Family and five other white gospel groups (Constitution Hall); Bob Clayton (Pilgrim's Cave); Benny & Vallie Cain & The Country Clan (Jimbo's); Bob Goff's Bluegrass Buddies (Donn-Mar Restaurant); Spruce Mountain Boys (Buddy's Bar); Francis Tinsman & The Potomac Mountain Boys (Sterling Puritan Club); Virginia Ramblers (Phil's Truck Stop, Vienna Moose Lodge, Margaret's Restaurant). An Oktoberfest in Upper Marlboro featured German folk dancing. Most of these events were announced in issues of Bluegrass Unlimited and Washington Folk Strums. Three of the events were reviewed by Joe Hickerson in the Washington Star.

Meanwhile, the Library of Congress Archive of Folk Song registered the following researchers and visitors: Freda Abrams (Antioch College); George Carey (University of Maryland); Michael Cooney ("Here & There"); Frank Gillis (Indiana University); Ailene Goodman (Voice of America); Archie Green (University of Pennsylvania); Charles Haywood (Queens College); Ting-Jui Ho (Indiana University); Helen Roach (Brooklyn College); Dick Spottswood (Melodeon Records); Bernard Stamler (Griffin Records); Darius Thieme (Catholic University); Jerome Wenker (UNIVAC). Several of these visitors were at the Library to attend an organizational meeting of the Association for Recorded Sound Collections. In addition, the Library announced the initiation of a project, funded by the Martha Baird Rockefeller Fund for Music, Inc., to duplicate thousands of aluminum and acetate discs in the Archive of Folk Song onto magnetic tape for preservation purposes.

Joe Hickerson, head of the Archive of Folk Culture at the Library of Congress until his retirement in 1998, is available to sing and lecture about folk music. A founding member of FSGW, he has served as the Society's President, Program Chair, and Book Review Editor, and now contributes a monthly column describing FSGW and other area events 35 years ago. If any readers have relevant flyers, clippings, etc. from 1966-67, please mail copies to Joe at 43 Philadelphia Avenue, Takoma Park, MD 20912 for possible inclusion in this column.

Thanks to the Linda Lieberman/David Olive Memorial Fund, some scholarship money is available for those who need help in affording the Getaway. If you need assistance, contact Charlie Baum (see phone and e-mail below). Contributions to replenish the fund are always welcomed and are tax-deductible! We hold a silent auction at the Getaway to help replenish the fund—you may wish to donate items to auction off to help others who can't afford the whole cost of the weekend.

Children 8 and younger must be accompanied by at least an equal number of adults who are responsible for their care and supervision throughout the event. There is a maximum of 3 children under 12 per adult.

I can help set up on Friday (3-6 pm).  I can help clean up Friday night's pot-luck.  I can help clean up on Monday (9 am-noon).
 I can help with registration of guests at the camp.  I am interested in a scholarship.

Please download and print out this form, and mail with payment to:
FSGW Getaway c/o J. Woods, 8401 Cedar St., Silver Spring, MD 20910

If you have any questions, contact Charlie Baum at 301-587-2286 or special@fsgw.org; cc: chbaum@earthlink.net
