Cindy Kallet

Songwriting Steeped in Tradition

Saturday, April 21 • 8 pm

Maine songwriter and extraordinary fingerpicking guitarist Cindy Kallet will bring her finely crafted music to FSGW on Saturday, April 20, for FSGW's free monthly member program. With a voice that friend and musical collaborator Gordon Bok says "will give you the shivers," Cindy sings both traditional songs — many of them about the sea — and songs of her own making, accompanying herself on guitar. (Boston Globe columnist Scott Alarik calls her "a brilliant guitarist.")

This is a rare DC appearance for Cindy, who spends most of her time in Rockland, Maine, chopping wood, making music with friends, and being a mom to her two boys and an involved member of her community. She has made numerous recordings — five solo efforts on the Folk Legacy and Stone's Throw labels, two wonderful harmonic collaborations with Ellen Epstein and Michael Cicone, and a collection of favorite instrumental and vocal duets with neighbor Gordon Bok (aptly titled Neighbors).

Cindy has been a public school teacher, a baker, a carpenter, and a scallop shucker; and has used her formal education in biology working in wildlife sanctuaries and an entomology lab, running a wildlife museum, and teaching environmental education. Her original songs speak to a deep love of the land and the natural world, a passion for peace and justice, and an ability to distill the essence of life's moments, small and large, into pure poetry. One of her two recently released recordings, Leave the Cake In the Mailbox, a CD for children, offers a glimpse of her wacky sense of humor and ability to see family life as the circus it can be. Her other new CD, This Way Home, includes a riveting performance of the traditional sea chantey Shallow Brown, followed by a retelling of that chantey in the voice of the slave who became cargo bound for America. It is this ability to inform her original songs with a solid knowledge of tradition that sets Cindy apart as a songwriter.

Don't miss this chance to spend an evening in the company of Cindy Kallet. The concert begins at 8 pm, Saturday, April 20, at the Washington Ethical Society Auditorium, 7750 16th St. NW (Directions, Page 16). Admission is FREE for FSGW members, $15 for Non-members (half price for Non-member kids 12 and under).

FSGW English Country Dances

Wednesdays • 8 to 10:30 pm

Dance on a wood floor in the climate-controlled community room at the Glen Echo Town Hall (Directions, page 16). Enjoy the talented callers, accompanied by topnotch musicians playing melodies that are unique to each dance, featuring a delightful mix of instruments, which on a given evening might include piano, fiddle, flute, harp, oboe, concertina, bassoon, or viola. Enjoy the welcoming crowd, light refreshments, and dancing from 8 to 10:30 pm. Experienced and new dancers are welcome, and no partner is needed. Admission $6 for FSGW members, $8 for Non-members. Info: Norm Bernhardt at 301.320.2469; Rich Galloway at 301.589.0939, or Roger Broseus at English@fsgw.org.

April

3 Rich Galloway calls, with music provided by Laurie Mielke (recorder), Julie Gorka (piano), and Karin Loya (cello).
10 Barbara Harding calls to the playing of Becky Ross (fiddle), Liz Donaldson (piano), and Dan Gillespie (recorders).
17 Barbara Heitz (flute), Ralph Gordon (cello), and Liz Donaldson (piano) play for Martha Seigel’s calling.
24 Bob Farrall calls to music by Jeff Steinberg (fiddle), Colleen Reed (flute) and Donn Williams (guitar).

And don’t forget the 16th Annual Washington Spring Ball is scheduled for Saturday, May 18.
Info: Roger Broseus at English@fsgw.org

Run for it!

If you have enjoyed FSGW’s programming and would like to strengthen support for traditional music and dance in the Washington area, you may wish to consider running for the FSGW Board of Directors. Not only is it a pleasurable way to volunteer your time to an organization which needs your ideas and values your efforts, it is an extraordinary opportunity to gain arts management experience and to develop leadership skills. Elections are held in May and the term of office is one year.

Most Board positions may be occupied for two consecutive terms, at which point office holders run for new offices or rotate off the Board. The two Member-at-large positions are an exception, limited to one annual term. These positions introduce new Board members to the policies and responsibilities of the Board as a whole. Program chairs and executive officers often start as Members-at-large. In addition to monthly meetings, many of the Board’s informal discussions are carried out through email, and basic computer skills for Board members are becoming increasingly useful.

Candidates may run for any position, though the nominating committee presents its own slate of candidates, at least one name per office. Additional nominations may be made from the floor at FSGW programs (free to members). A nominee may also submit his or her name backed by five petitioners. All nominees, seconders, and petitioners must be members of FSGW in good standing. Elections are held in May. For further information on each position’s description, go to http://www.fsgw.org/jobs.htm or contact current officers of the society by phone or email. To submit nominations or make further inquiries contact the Nominating Committee: Carl Mintz (202.543.4999; pastpresident@fsgw.org) or Lisa Null (301.587.2286; elisabeth.null@tcs.wap.org).
FSGW House Concert

Patrick Ourceau, Eamon O’Leary & John Walsh

Irish Musicians • Playing Across the World

Tuesday, April 16 • 8 pm

Patrick Ourceau, Eamon O’Leary, and John Walsh—three excellent Irish musicians, from France and Ireland and Alaska (really)—bring their tunes and songs to the shores of the Potomac.

Patrick Ourceau is a gifted fiddler. A Paris native, he was introduced to traditional Irish music as a teenager and eventually made his way to Ireland, where he studied the regional styles of Clare and East Galway. In 1989, he moved to New York, where he is a fixture in the Irish music scene and in great demand as a teacher.

Eamon O’Leary sings and plays guitar, banjo and bouzouki. Originally from Dublin, he also now lives in New York, where he performs regularly (often with Patrick Ourceau) when he’s not touring with today’s leading Irish musicians. He has taught workshops in Irish guitar styles at New York University.

John Walsh plays tenor banjo and mandolin. Also a native of Dublin, John Walsh became a fisherman, and learned much of his repertoire from the fishing community. He now lives in Alaska, where he plays with the Anchorage-based band Last Night’s Fun. He is on the staff for Irish Week at the Augusta Heritage Workshops in Elkins, WV, and on the Speaker’s Bureau of the Alaska Humanities Forum, where he is considered the state’s foremost authority on Irish music and culture.

Info: Visit the FSGW website, or contact Charles Baum at 301.587.2286. Hosts Karen Helbrecht and Gordon Johnston live in the Del Ray section of Alexandria. Directions: 703.548.5784 or mjkandg@erols.com. FSGW Members and members of the Irish Breakfast Band, $10; Non-members $14.

E-GADS!

There’s a new link on the FSGW home page (fsgw.org) that provides current members access to both a more comprehensive calendar of events — one that lists more than just FSGW events — and to an on-line membership directory. The link is to the Members Page. The information you need to access it is on your Newsletter mailing label: Your last name (right or wrong, however we’ve spelled it), your membership ID number (the digits following the F, I, or S), and the year and month of your membership expiration.

dows into the cultures that produced them. Sparky's rich baritone is accompanied by guitar, banjo, and spoons, with guitar work that ranges from the gentle strum of a ballad to intricate bottleneck blues slides.

Sparky began playing guitar at age eleven, and sang in church, school, and community choirs throughout his childhood. Active in the Civil Rights movement, he played freedom songs at rallies, marches, and sit-ins, alongside folk singers such as Guy Carawan and Pete Seeger. He learned guitar techniques and songs from mentors Reverend Pearly Brown, Babe Stovall, John Jackson, Buddy Moss, Johnny Shines, and Sister Bessie Jones.

Sparky weaves music into captivating stories that the history books don't always tell. His programs include The Buffalo, Eagle, and Silver Spur, which tells the hidden history of minorities in the American West, and The Blue & Gray in Black & White, a look at the American Civil War. He is currently researching Confederate General James Edward Rains, who had a promising political career before the war as editor of the Nashville Banner and Davidson County's attorney general. Sparky and his wife Rhonda (also a performer and author) have written articles for the Encyclopedia of Appalachia, soon to be published by the University of Tennessee Press.

Join Sparky at 8 pm, Thursday, April 11, for an evening of story, song, history and entertainment. FSGW Members $10, Non-members $14. Info: visit the FSGW website or contact Charles Baum at 301.587.2286. Glen Echo Town Hall, 6106 Harvard Ave. (Directions, page 16). An elevator for handicap access to the upper floor is located behind the building, where there is very limited parking. The Glen Echo parking lot is nearby, and there is also usually space on the other side of Macarthur Blvd. FSGW appreciates the cooperation and support of the Town of Glen Echo in making traditional music available in the area. Glen Echo residents will be admitted free to this concert as a thank you for the use of their beautiful Town Hall.

Other FSGW Events

FSGW Open Sing • Silver Spring, MD

Friday, April 5 • 8:30 to 11:30 pm

Come to the FSGW Open Sing on the first Friday of each month. We take turns doing music that's connected (however vaguely) to a given topic. Sing, play, request a song, or just listen. People new to the Sing may present any song regardless of topic. Donations of refreshments are welcome, and singing usually lasts until 11:30 pm. The April Sing will be held at the home of Susan Clark in Silver Spring. The topic is "Scales and Scales" Bring songs about wage scales, the scales of justice, scaling a wall, animals with scales, things that are large-scale or small-scale, we might even do some musical scales! Join us. Info/directions: 301.565.5126 or songsue@aol.com

FSGW Gospel Sing • Takoma Park, MD

Sunday, April 14 • 4 to 8 pm

Gospel sings are held every second Sunday at various homes, from 4 pm to 8 pm, with a break for a covered dish supper at 6 pm. Everyone is welcome! The April Gospel Sing will be at the home of Kathie Mack in Takoma Park. Info/directions: 301.270.5367.

FSGW Sacred Harp Singing • Arlington, VA

Sunday, April 28 • 3:30 to 6:30 pm

St. Peter's Episcopal Church, 4250 North Glebe Road. This fourth Sunday we'll be in the sanctuary instead of the side chapel for the FSGW-sponsored monthly singings of early American hymns, anthems, and fugues in four-part harmony. The principal source-book is The Sacred Harp (1991 edition), but Christian Harmony (Deason-Parris revision), Northern Harmony, and An American Christmas Harp are also used. Original shape-note compositions by local singers are also sometimes sung. We sing from 3:30 to 6:30, then share a potluck supper. All are welcome to come and sing or simply listen. Loaner tunebooks are available. Admission is free. Directions: St. Peter's is one-half mile south of Chain Bridge, on the west side of Glebe Road. The church is not visible from Glebe Rd. Turn on Tazewell St. to reach the parking lot. Info: 301.229.8534.

Storyswap • Beltsville, MD

Saturday, April 13 • 7:30 pm

Storytellers and listeners are invited to the home of Bill and Maren Mayhew for an evening of shared tales. Potluck snacks. Info/directions/rsvp: 301.595.7920.
What's a Singing Convention?

by Mary Ann Daly

The singing schools and shape-note tunebooks of the 19th century, originally intended to permit backwoods pioneers to sing interesting choral music, have become the basis for a community activity and participatory entertainment that began in the South over one hundred fifty years ago, and has spread across the United States and around the world. Small local singings are the foundation of this movement, and conventions its glory.

In 1845, a year after publishing The Sacred Harp tunebook (a collection of spiritual songs, from stark folk hymns to late baroque polyphony), B.F. White organized the Southern Musical Convention to promote the music and establish an ongoing constituency for his tunebook. Though the Southern Musical Convention no longer meets, it set the style: Group singing, brief business meetings, sumptuous “dinner on the grounds,” and memorials to deceased members.

Today there are over fifty such annual conventions in addition to hundreds of memorial, all-day, and monthly singings, not only in the South but in Chicago, Albuquerque, Seattle, Toronto, and overseas. Unlike many choral music festivals, shape note singing conventions are wholly participatory. While there are usually a few listeners, singings are not intended to draw an audience. And there's no competition. At our convention, for instance, Baltimore's Sacred Harp group does not compete against ours, but joins with ours to create a bigger sound.

The FSGW began holding monthly Sacred Harp singings in 1968. Janine Smith organized the first Potomac River Singing Convention in 1990, and it has met every year since, usually the first weekend in April.
35 Years Ago This Month — April 1967
By Joe Hickerson

The April 14, 1967, FSGW monthly program at Pierce Hall featured a discussion of the Society's “activities and goals,” nomination of officers, and the showing of some folklore films. Three concerts were presented jointly with Stanley-Williams Presentations at Lisner Auditorium: Clancy Brothers & Tommy Make on the 1st, Buffy Saint-Marie on the 7th, and Tom Paxton on the 29th. An Open Sing was held the 22nd at the Union Methodist Church. The 4-page April 1967 (Vol. 3, No. 6) Newsletter described these events, initiated a “folk calendar,” presented the president's column, reported on discussions about a proposed coffee house or similar venue involving FSGW, and announced two conferences on folk culture and some new publications.

Also announced were (1) the second in a folk music concert series at the U.S. Department of Agriculture co-sponsored by the National Folk Festival Association on April 13, which featured a presentation similar to last month's FSGW program: Amos Barnes, Lawrence Ferguson, Willie Mae Stanley, Francine Hargrove, and John Jackson, moderated by Helen Schneyer; and (2) a Carter Stanley Memorial Concert on April 9 at the University of Maryland. The latter event included the following performers: Bill Monroe & The Blue Grass Boys; Ralph Stanley & The Clinch Mountain Boys; The Country Gentlemen; Buzz Busby, Bill Emerson, and The Bayou Boys; George Winn & The Bluegrass Partners; Doc & Merle Watson (Merle's first appearance with his father); Don Stover; Mac Wiseman; Jim Greer & The Mac O'Chee Valley Folks; Mike Seeger with Alice & Hazel, Tex Logan, and Lamar Grier; Roy Sykes with Patsy Stoneman; and The New River Boys.

The April 4 board meeting minutes reported that the National Folk Festival Association has offered FSGW the use of its Dupont Circle office for its board meetings as well as certain other amenities. The April 18 minutes conclude with: “It was also decided that we would not invite Simon and Garfunkel to the Getaway because we might be invaded by teeny boppers.”

The following were also scheduled to perform in the area this month: Judy Collins, Carlos Montoya (Cellar Door); Chinese Opera (Roosevelt & Western High Schools); Don Cossack Chorus & Dancers, Tabernacle Echoes and two other gospel groups (Constitution Hall); Rev. E. E. Cleveland and his gospel group (New School of Afro-American Thought); Tamburitzans (Rockville Civic Auditorium); Joe Hickerson, John & Ginny Dildine (Camp Springs Unitarian Church); Benny & Vallie Cain & The Country Clan (Jimbo's); Country Gentlemen (Shamrock); Bill Emerson & Buzz Busby (Lamplighter); Bob Goff's Bluegrass Buddies (Candlelite Inn); Page Valley Boys (Elden St. Restaurant); Spruce Mountain Boys (Buddy's Bar); The Virginians (Turf Club). Most of the above events were announced in issues of Bluegrass Unlimited and Washington Folk Strums; eight were reviewed in the Washington Star by Joe Hickerson.

Meanwhile, the Library of Congress Archive of Folk Song registered the following researchers and visitors: John Allen (Southern Illinois University); Joel Bailes (New College); George Carey (University of Maryland); Ailene Goodman (Project 390); Alan Jabbour (Duke University); Edwin Kirkland (University of Florida); Philip Sheridan Proctor (Piscataway Indian); Aleksandar & Biljana Obradovi.

Joe Hickerson, head of the Archive of Folk Culture at the Library of Congress until his retirement in 1998, is available to sing and lecture about folk music. A founding member of FSGW, he has served as the Society's President, Program Chair, and Book Review Editor, and now contributes a monthly column describing FSGW and other area events 35 years ago. If any readers have relevant flyers, clippings, etc. from 1966-67, please mail copies to Joe at 43 Philadelphia Avenue, Takoma Park, MD 20912 for possible inclusion in this column.

Directions to Frequent Venues:

Washington Ethical Society (WES) Auditorium. 7750 16th St., NW, just south of the intersection of Kalmia Rd. and 16th St., about four blocks inside the DC/MD line.

From the Beltway: Take the Georgia Avenue South exit. Stay in either right lane. Go 0.4 miles from the exit ramp, where the right lanes curve and put you on 16th St South. Follow 16th past East-West Hwy (Rte 410); cross the MD/DC line at Portal Dr. Kalmia Road is the first traffic signal south of the line, and WES is the second building on the right after you cross Kalmia. You may park on Kalmia Road by turning right at the light, or on either side of 16th St.

Spanish Ballroom/Bumper Car Pavilion, Glen Echo Park. 7300 MacArthur Blvd. at Goldsboro Rd, in Glen Echo, MD. For specific locations of both buildings, please the map below.

MD/VA: Watch for signs to MacArthur Blvd. Make a very sharp hairpin turn and move immediately into the right lane. At the T intersection/stop sign, turn left onto MacArthur Blvd. Upper parking lot on the left. For lower parking lot, go around the small traffic circle and make the first left onto Oxford St. By public transportation: Take the #29 bus from the Friendship Heights Metro Station. Ask the driver to let you know when to get off for Glen Echo Park. The bus stops running before the dance ends. Ask the dance coordinator to announce you need a ride. We’ve never left anybody at the park. Last bus leaves Friendship Heights Metro at 7:30 pm.

Glen Echo Town Hall 6106 Harvard St., Glen Echo, MD: From the Beltway:

Maryland side: at 2-lane Exit 40 take the left fork for Cabin John Parkway. Where Cabin John merges with Clara Barton Pkwy, move into the left lane, under the overhang.

Virginia side: get into the far right hand lane at the top of the bridge. At the first fork, bear right. Stay in the left lane; watch for Cabin John traffic merging from the right at the overhang. MD/VA: Watch for signs to MacArthur Blvd. Make a very sharp hairpin turn and move immediately into the right lane. At the T intersection/stop sign, turn left onto MacArthur Blvd. Go around the small traffic circle. Third left is Harvard Ave.

Please note: Please park in the lot behind the hall, on University Drive, or on the east side of MacArthur, NOT on Harvard Street.

Care and Feeding of the Editor

Submissions are much more palatable if they arrive formatted to match this newsletter. For example, a new dance listing should include:

Event Name • City, State
Day of week, Date • Start and end time

Brief description, including specific location, Caller's name, Band name, members of band plus instrument played (in parentheses), existence of beginners' workshop, Admission price. Directions. Info name, telephone number, and e-mail or website.

Please note that telephone numbers are punctuated with periods, not hyphens.

General FSGW Concert Information

Unless specifically announced in the Newsletter, there are no advance tickets for FSGW events. All tickets are general admission, and are available at the door.
Doors generally open thirty minutes before the start of the concert.
Absolutely no audio recording or videotaping or photography is allowed at any FSGW concert without the express advance permission of both the concert manager and the performer.
In the event of questionable weather, always check the FSGW website (www.fsgw.org) to make sure a scheduled event will take place.
