The NexTradition

Ken Schatz & Alison Kelley

Traditional Music in Motion

Saturday, December 20 • 8 pm

Born in June of 1997 at the Mystic Sea Music Festival in Mystic, Connecticut, The NexTradition was christened by Heather Wood (of The Young Tradition) on the back of a beer menu a few months later.

Alison Kelley and Ken Schatz both grew up with folk music—Alison in New York City, Ken in the DC area with FSGW (his mother is Nancy King). Together, as The NexTradition, they perform sea songs and chanteyes, gospel and blues, work songs of the railroads, mines, prisons, factories, and fields—the traditional music of the US, Great Britain, and the world.

At Knox Presbyterian Church, 7416 Arlington Blvd. at Allen St., Falls Church, VA. No advance tickets. The monthly program is free to FSGW members. Knox Church members $10; non-members $15, or join at the door. For further details, see the FSGW website at www.fsgw.org, or call the FSGW hotline at 202-546-2228. If that doesn't answer your questions, you can contact Charlie Baum at 301-587-2286.

Directions to Knox Presbyterian Church: I-495 Beltway in Virginia to Exit50B—US 50 East, 'Arlington'; go one half mile, left at second traffic light onto Allen St. Church is on near left corner. Parking lot on left off Allen Street behind church. If that lot is full we suggest the library across Route 50 or Loehmann's Plaza one block farther East on Route 50 (there's a protected walk-light crossing of US 50 at Allen St.). Metro: Orange Line to Ballston, then take the 1B, 1C, or 1F Metro Bus (Wilson Blvd-Fairfax Line) to Allen St. and Arlington Blvd.

Please note that this is a RESCHEDULED CONCERT! NexTradition was scheduled to perform in September, but was cancelled due to the aftermath of Hurricane Isabel.

CHRIS ROSER

Fine Songwriting — Eclectic Music

Saturday, December 13 • 8 PM

Chris Rosser is definitely not your typical singer-songwriter wielding an acoustic guitar. He plays guitar, Indian dotar, Turkish saz, Wurlitzer electric piano, electric sitar and more, combining folk, pop and world music into a refreshingly beautiful sound that is anything but ordinary. Self-recorded and produced in his Asheville, NC home studio, Rosser's second solo album The Holy Fool showcases his talents as a singer, multi-instrumentalist, arranger, and foremost, as a songwriter. With songs of homecoming queens, ashrams, relationships, spirituality, Federico Fellini and small town churches, he displays his unique lyrical voice in "lovely homages to the experience of being alive and human." (Dirty Linen)

Since the release of his highly successful debut album, Archaeology (ISG Records), Chris Rosser has toured the country, winning first place in the Rocky Mountain Folks Fest 2000 Troubadour contest. He received a grant to study Hindustani classical music with world famous Indian musician, Ali Akbar Khan. In 1997, Archaeology was also selected as one of the top independent albums of the year by several organizations. His songs have been recorded by Tom Prasada-Rao and Blueground Undergrass.

Raised in a Baha'i family, Chris was exposed to a diversity of cultures. He was particularly attracted to the haunting music and chanting of the Iranian Baha'is at religious gatherings. A fondness for the music of Bruce Hornsby, Jaco Pastorius and Pat Metheny (and a full scholarship) led him to the prestigious University of Miami School of Music where he studied jazz piano and studio recording.

During his last year in Miami, he taught himself to play acoustic guitar and began to focus seriously on songwriting after discovering contemporary folk musicians like Shawn Colvin, Nanci Griffith, David Wilcox and Patty Larkin. At the same time he began lessons on the tabla drums. Since pursuing music full time since 1995, he has released a duo album Face the East (with his wife, Lynn), two solo albums, and shared stages with many of the finest performers in acoustic music.

Admission: $10 FSGW members/$12 nonmembers. Glen Echo Town Hall, 6106 Harvard Ave., Glen Echo, MD. Directions Page 14.

Info: the FSGW Hotline at 202-546-2228 or webpage fsgw.org or Betsy Platt 301-320-8255.

William Bruce Olson

1930-2003

The Folklore Society recently lost a friend and longtime member in William Bruce Olson, who died October 31, 2003. He was 73 years old.

Bruce was an amazing man — brilliant, determined and thorough in what he did, who shared his music research without reservation. He had a PhD in physical chemistry, specializing in infra-red and molecular spectroscopy.

His interest in folk music started in the 1950's. To his regret he was not a singer. He bought a dulcimer, thinking it might help, but gave it up and went back to listening, researching and educating.

Bruce was a willing volunteer for many FSGW events, helping out even when it meant missing a lot of the music he so loved. For years, he set up the room and the refreshments and monitored the door for open sings at the Ethical Society, and for the first three years of the Washington Folk Festival, he directed traffic in the parking lot.

Bruce earned an international reputation as a researcher, scouring primary sources for clues to the origins of traditional songs. He provided background information to the Boarding Party and Stephen Wade among others. He took special pleasure in having earned access to collections such as the Folger Shakespeare Library.

He published his sources and findings on the Internet and was a regular and respected contributor to on-line forums. Often a stranger's query would produce a lengthy reply culled from his large database. On one forum he posted seldom, and anonymously. Sometimes when an anonymous "Guest" replied in depth to some arcane question, people simply replied, "Thanks, Bruce."

If he thought you cared, he would try his best to add to your knowledge about a song (sometimes in detail that exceeded your attention span.) Later you might receive an additional packet in the mail.

Bruce's research can be seen at http://users.erols.com/olsonw/. Arrangements are being made to preserve and, if possible, continue to update it. A Curriculum Vitae listing his many scientific and folkloric publications is at http://users.erols.com/olsonw/VITA.TXT. Many FSGW members have fond memories of Bruce Olson (some of trying to gracefully get away when he was determined to relate one more fact about an old song or tune.) Mostly we remember a generous, brilliant man who was focused, unswerving and dedicated to his passions. We are all beneficiaries of that dedication.

Follow 16th past East-West Hwy (Rte 410); cross the MD/DC line at Portal Dr. Kalmia Road is the first traffic signal south of the line, and WES is the second building on the right after you cross Kalmia. You may park on Kalmia Road by turning right at the light, or on either side of 16th St.

VIRGINIA side: get into the far right hand lane at the top of the bridge. At the first fork, bear right. Stay in the left lane; watch for Cabin John traffic merging from the right at the overhang. MD/VA: Watch for signs to MacArthur Blvd. Make a very sharp hairpin turn and move immediately into the right lane. At the T intersection/stop sign, turn left onto MacArthur Blvd. Upper parking lot on the left. For lower parking lot, go around the small traffic circle and make the first left onto Oxford St.

Give an FSGW Membership as a Gift!

If there's a lover of dance, folk music, storytelling, etc on your gift list this year, why not give FSGW membership as a gift? An individual membership is $28 per year, family membership $38 per year.

Request for Archival Material

The FSGW Board is still attempting to locate all FSGW archival material currently in the possession of individual members. FSGW needs to ascertain approximately how much space will be required to properly store all documents, tapes, newsletters, articles, photographs, etc. If you have archival material in your possession, we would very much appreciate receiving a letter or email from you, describing the type and volume of such material, and its approximate condition. Please send the information to secretary@fsgw.org.

— Joe Hickerson —

The December 13 FSGW program at the Washington Ethical Society featured Bill Vanaver. Among the many folk musicians scheduled to appear this month were Ian & Sylvia, Tom Rush, Jerry Jeff Walker; Country Gentleman; Currie Family, Cliff Waldron & The Lee Highway Boy, and Bob Goff & The Bluegrass Buddies. These events were reported in issues of Bluegrass Unlimited and Washington Star.

Meanwhile, the Library of Congress Archive of Folk Song registered the following researchers and visitors: Joel Bailes (Silver Spring); Ann Briegleb (UCLA); Duncan Emrich (retired Head of LC FOLK); Frederic Lieberman (Brown University); Ralph Rinzler (Smithsonian Institution); Earl Spelman (University of Wisconsin); T. Temple Tuttle (University of Maryland), and Jesse Winch (Howard University).

Joe Hickerson, head of the Archive of Folk Culture at the Library of Congress until his retirement in 1998, is available to sing and lecture about folk music. A founding member of FSGW in 1964, he has served as the Society's President, Program Chair and Book Review Editor, and now contributes this monthly column describing FSGW and other area events 35 years ago. If any readers have relevant flyers, clippings, etc. from 1968-69, please mail copies to Joe at 43 Philadelphia Ave., Takoma Park, MD 20912 for possible inclusion in this column.
