If you've never been to FSGW's Getaway, this 40th anniversary year is a great time to give it a try. Your can share a whole weekend of folk music with fellow FSGW members and others who come from as far away as California, Alaska, Canada, and the British Isles for the friendship and the fun.

This year's guests include singer Ed Trickett; Sandy and Caroline Paton, founders of Folk Legacy Recordings; “Big Mick” Lane; Norman and Betty MacDonald, from Newcastle-on-Tyne, “Alaska Mike” Campbell (from Alaska) and Elizabeth LaPrelle, 17-year-old Appalachian ballad singer from Rural Retreat, VA.

The Getaway offers chances to participate in or hear almost every imaginable kind of folk music. Everyone is welcome to lead a song, or join in with voice or instruments. There are wonderful jams, late-night sings, workshops and concerts and special moments. Not everyone is a pro or accomplished musician, but every year there are countless wonderful musical moments. For non-musicians there are crafts, beautiful countryside to explore, and storytelling, a campfire sing and other events for kids.

Many people come back year after year. New people attend every year and are considered "old friends" by the end of the weekend. Here are a few quotes from past Getaway attendees:

"Come once and you'll want to come every year. You have to be there to really understand. I love it."

"Arriving that first day I didn't know anyone by sight and only a few names. In no time at all I felt welcomed and at ease. The atmosphere of the Getaway is friendly and supportive in every respect."

"I was thrilled to find so many talented voices in one place and time."

"This Getaway is truly a magical event that will leave an indelible impression on you when it's over."

We hope we'll see you there this year. For more details on the Getaway see page 5, registration form is on page 6.

Deadline for November 2004 Newsletter: SUNDAY, October 10th
Eve Goldberg
Toronto Troubadour

Saturday, October 30 • 8 pm

Eve Goldberg is an engaging performer with a warm stage presence and a clear, expressive voice that will pull you in, whether she’s singing a cappella or accompanying herself on fingerstyle or flatpicked guitar. Her music is an appealing blend of the styles that have deeply influenced her, including folk, blues, bluegrass, swing, jazz, old-time, and gospel. Singing a mixture of her own songs, songs by other writers, and traditional material, she combines a heartfelt respect for the music of earlier times with a love of contemporary folk styles. Eve lives in Toronto, Ontario, where she spent many years running Borealis Records, Canada’s premier folk label.

Born in New England, Eve grew up in a musical family that exposed her to musicians like Pete Seeger, Woody Guthrie, Ella Fitzgerald, The Weavers, The Beatles, Bessie Smith, and Jim Kweskin and the Jug Band, among others. Since the start of her performing career in 1990, she has performed to appreciative audiences at festivals and clubs across North America. Her first CD, “Ever Brightening Day,” received enthusiastic reviews and extensive airplay in Canada, the U.S., and overseas; her newest release is “Crossing the Water,” on the Borealis Records label.

Audiences love the rich musical texture of Eve’s performances, as she sings a quiet ballad one minute, picks a guitar instrumental the next, belts out a blues the next, and tops it off with an uplifting a cappella chorus. But more than anything, listeners respond to Eve’s music because it is about the everyday lives of ordinary people — their joys, hopes, struggles and triumphs.

Donation: FSGW Members: $10 / Non-Members: $12. At the home of Kathie Mack in old town Takoma Park. Call Kathie at 301.270.5367 for directions.

Glen Echo Town Hall, Glen Echo, MD

Saturday, November 6 • 8 pm

Jane Voss is an earthy singer and superb songwriter, and Hoyle Osborne is a master of ragtime and early jazz piano and a distinctively original composer. The concert will be held at Glen Echo Town Hall. Further information available on the FSGW website, www.fsgw.org and in next month’s Newsletter.

General FSGW Concert Information

Unless specifically announced in the Newsletter, there are no advance tickets for FSGW events. All tickets are general admission, and are available at the door.

Doors generally open thirty minutes before the start of the concert.

Absolutely no audio recording or videotaping or photography is allowed at any FSGW concert without the express advance permission of BOTH the concert manager and the performer.
For four decades, FSGW has held its Getaway weekend so that members and friends can share music, stories, crafts and dance in a relaxed camp setting.

The Getaway is:
- Music-making under the trees, on the lawn, by the pond, or by the pool;
- Group singing and jamming at its best;
- Informal workshops on singing, dancing, crafts and storytelling led by FSGW members and friends;
- Trying a craft—quilting, basket-making, puppets, and mask-making have been highlights of past years;
- A terrific weekend for the whole family, with children's activities;
- A chance to renew old friendships and make new ones;
- A beautiful camp with modern facilities in scenic rolling hills adjacent to the Susquehanna River;

Facilities
The dining hall, several common rooms, the pub, the drama barn, the dance barn (with a hardwood sprung floor), and the outdoor pavilion offer all-weather spaces for music making and dancing. NO SMOKING is allowed in any of the camp buildings.

When you choose to go to bed, there are more than 50 rooms, mostly in modern cabins. They feature indoor flush plumbing and hot showers; comfortable beds with box-spring mattresses (bring your own linens and bedding). The buildings are not heated, but we may bring electric space heaters. There are handicapped-accessible cabins with wheelchair-accessible bathrooms for those who need them; please indicate any special needs when you register. If you prefer to bring a tent or your own RV, you may do so, and camp on the grounds (no discounts). There's a pond with boats (and stocked with fish), tennis courts, ball fields, and a trail through the woods to the banks of the Susquehanna. (See more of Camp Ramblewood at its website: www.ramblewood.com.)

Volunteer Help
We'll need volunteers to help set up on Friday, to welcome and register guests, to clean up after our Friday night potluck dinner, and to help make sure everything is in order when we check out.

Fees
Getaway fees are determined by our actual costs to run this event — food, camp rental, etc.
