FSGW Screens New Lost City Ramblers Film

"Always Been a Rambler"

by Yasha Aginsky and the Arhoolie Foundation

Friday, September 25 • 8 pm

This film traces the journey of The New Lost City Ramblers and their pioneering influence in the revival of old time music. All along the way the group, Mike Seeger, John Cohen, and Tracy Schwarz, (who replaced founder Tom Paley) gathered and documented music at its sources, then exposed the old music to new audiences and musicians. A treasure trove of archival footage, photos, and music, the film includes performances and interviews by Doc Watson, Ricky Skaggs, Maybelle and Sara Carter and many other masters of old time music. Bonus footage includes eight rarely seen songs.

FSGW Sunday Night Dancing

at Glen Echo Park, MD

(Directions, page 23)

Contras & Squares • 7:30-10:30 pm
Introductory lesson every Sunday from 7-7:30 pm

Join us for an evening of dancing at Glen Echo Park. Every Sunday FSGW (in cooperation with the National Park Service, Montgomery County, and the Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture) presents contras and squares danced to live music by fabulous bands with entertaining callers. Experienced and new dancers welcome; no partner needed. Welcome/Orientation session every Sunday at 7 pm. Come early for an introduction to the basic moves, and check out YouTube instructional videos as well (see below). Dances often become more challenging as the evening progresses. During the summer, most FSGW Sunday dances are in the Bumper Car Pavilion, so bring water or a sports drink, and dress appropriately in layers. Smooth soled shoes are kindest on your knees and ankles when turning. If you use scented products such as perfumes, note that some dancers have allergies – please apply it, if you must, with a light hand. Info: Penelope Weinberger, dance@fsgw.org.

Admission: $9 for FSGW, BFMS, CDSS, and ATDS Members.
 $12 for the general public

Favorite Quotes

Here we offer a new addition to the newsletter. Favorite quotes, (loosely defined) collected by an individual from our community. This first batch is courtesy of area folk maestro and contra dancer Orrin Star.

"The last time I played for a shut-in, she just laid there and showed no response. After awhile, I decided that was enough and in parting said, "I hope you get better soon." She replied, "I hope you do too!"

What is the American Folklife Center?

Charged by Congress in 1976 to 'preserve and present' American folk culture, the center is part of the Library of Congress. Now, in over four thousand collections, plus ongoing projects, it is documenting the images, sounds, and written accounts of our national traditional life. It does not look to collect artifacts, but rather is recording and digitizing the voices, music, and way of life of countless regional, ethnic, and cultural groups.

FSGW is currently working on donating a collection of over 1,000 tapes of concerts, festivals, and other events to the library. Look for more details of this project next month, and how help will be needed.

What is Folklife?

Folklife has been defined as community life and values, artfully expressed in myriad forms and interactions. What does it mean to you? Does the name you bear invoke a connection with an ancestor or cultural hero? Do you speak the slang of any working group, or welcome a new family member at a bris or christening? Remember the games you played and the stories and parables you have heard and feel the music and rhythm embedded within you. Folklife allows us to express who we are and know how we fit into the world.

A Rambler Passes On: Mike Seeger

The Folklore Society mourns the loss of Mike Seeger, a former FSGW board member (member-at-large 1967-68), friend and supporter of many in this community. He is remembered with warmth for his friendly, good natured manner and lack of pretension. Having lived most of his life in Maryland and Virginia, he was well loved locally. Friends are sharing memories of him, especially stories of impromptu jams, ("Does anyone have a banjo?"), and his love of dance, particularly flatfooting. Some of his dance quote collections are scattered through this issue.

Many have spoken of seeing Mike perform with his family, his sister Peggy, and his brother, the legendary artist, Pete Seeger, and of feeling the harmony and admiration between them. In 2007, the family played for the FSGW in a sellout concert following the Library of Congress Seeger Family tribute.

Mike is legendary for his devotion to the preservation of traditional southern roots music. Most notable are his recordings of roots music and musicians for the Smithsonian with grants from the National Endowment for the Arts. Just this year he was awarded a National Heritage Fellowship, the nation's highest honor in the folk and traditional arts, and would have received the award this month on September 24.

( See below.) Mike died at home after a long fight with leukemia. He was 75. He is survived by his wife, Alexia, and an extensive family.

For further information on his life and music go to www.mikeseeger.info.

Condolences may be sent to Folklore Productions, 1671 Appian Way, Santa Monica, CA 90401, or mkaldin@folkloreproductions.com

In Memoriam

Sandy Paton * January 22, 1929-July 26, 2009

Charles Alexander "Sandy" Paton, founder and artistic inspiration of Folk-Legacy Records, and cherished friend to many of us, died on July 26 after a brief hospitalization in Sharon, CT. He was 80 years old. Sandy's death came soon after his beloved grandson, Kaelan Alexander Paton, drowned on June 16 while rescuing two friends from the rain-swollen Housatonic River.

It's fair to say that the Folklore Society—and others who enjoy, study, or listen to folk music—would not be the same if it hadn't been for Sandy Paton, his wife Caroline and business partner Lee Haggerty. Sandy's labor of love, Folk-Legacy, has, in many ways, been the rock on which our singing community has been built over the years. As I think about the songs we sing, so many were learned from Sandy and Caroline, or from the many singers who came first to us via those wonderful Folk-Legacy recordings. Sandy and Caroline would almost certainly have become materially richer had they pursued another line of work. But we would all be poorer if they had done so.

Local performers (and FSGW founders) like Helen Schneyer, Jonathan Eberhart, Joe Hickerson, and Howie Mitchell found a musical home on Folk-Legacy recordings. Through Sandy and Caroline's company, we also learned about performers like Frank Proffitt, Sara Grey, Norman Kennedy, Gordon Bok and so many more. Sandy's physical body may be gone, but his legacy—his Folk-Legacy—lives on in these wonderful recordings that are still available.

Friends from around the world join the Paton family—Caroline; their two sons and families, in grieving Sandy's loss. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 10, at 1:00 p.m. at Music Mountain in Falls Village, CT.

—Kathy Westra

Sandy Ives * September 4, 1925 -August 1, 2009

My friend and mentor, Edward D. ("Sandy") Ives died on August 1, 2009. I am just one individual among generations of folklorists, musicians, oral historians, and former students transformed by having known him and his work. He is survived by his wife, "Bobby," (Barbara Ann Herrel), with whom he worked intimately, their three grown children, and spouses.

Sandy taught at the University of Maine in Orono for 44 years, collecting songs and stories of the forest and lumbering traditions. With a background in English literature, then a doctorate in folklore from the University of Indiana (1964), he wrote three books exploring song-making traditions, and the relationship of a singer and his craft to his or her community. Sandy was a scholar fascinated by narrative and poetry, and never forgot that folksong was art.

As a guitarist and singer with a Folkways album, Folksongs of Maine, Sandy was known for the warm respect he showed those with whom he worked. It was under his guidance that I began moving away from my unsatisfactory attempts at sean nos Irish singing to the magisterial cadences of what he called the "Northeast Tradition," a style with Celtic roots that he himself eventually mastered.

As a scholar, Sandy founded and directed The University of Maine's Maine Folklife Center. This dynamic repository documents an entire region's traditional cultural heritage, much of which was assembled by Sandy's students. Recently, because of the recession, the university has cut all its funding. Those who wish to make a contribution in memory of Sandy Ives may do so through the Maine Folklife Center, c/o The University of Maine Foundation, Buchanan Alumni House, Two Alumni Place, Orono, ME 04469-5792.

—Elisabeth ("Lisa") Higgins Null

Jerry Holland, Cape Breton fiddler 1955-2009

Jerry Holland, a fiddler strongly rooted in Cape Breton, Scottish and Irish dance music traditions died after a two-year battle with cancer. He was fifty four. Born into a musical family, Jerry, began playing at the age of 5, performing for the first time at age 6.

Initially, his family settled in Boston, but always made summer visits to Cape Breton, when he was a boy. Eventually Jerry moved there in 1975.

Jerry created over a dozen recordings of traditional songs as well as his own and performed on twenty five others. His energetic, emotional playing has endeared him to audiences worldwide. For more information, see www.jerryholland.com

ALL ROOMS HAVE 4 BEDS with upper and lower bunks. If you wish to share with specific people, we can put 4 of you in a room. (There is ONE 6-room.)

Privacy at the camp is hard to come by; there are only 50 rooms.

ROOMING/LODGE OPTIONS YOU MAY SPECIFY:

- Lodge with music ALL night (not guaranteed, unless we get an entire cabin of willing musicmakers), • Lodge with no music at night; • Lodge that's always quiet (no music any time). • Room only with other men. • Room only with other women. (All lodges have separate men's and women's bathrooms.) • Prefer with other children. • Prefer no children. • REQUIRE a lower bunk, • PREFER a lower bunk, and • DON'T CARE either way about lower bunk. • Wheelchair/handicapped accessibility. Let us know if there's anyone (or any group) you'd like to room with, and if you have any special physical needs.

Lower bunks are at a premium, so we're giving a discount for volunteers for upper bunks.

Children 8 and younger must be accompanied by at least an equal number of adults who are responsible for their care and supervision throughout the event. There is a maximum of 3 children under 12 per adult.
