Guy Carawan
July 27, 1927 – May 2, 2015

Guy Carawan, singer, folklorist, civil rights and social justice activist, died on May 2 at the age of 87. The importance of Guy and singing to the Civil Rights movement is obvious in the following excerpts from a remembrance on the home page of the Highlander Research and Education Center (highlandercenter.org), which includes much more about Guy’s personal life.

[Excerpted from “Highlander Remembers Guy Carawan” article in www.highlandercenter.org]

Guy’s history with Highlander was decades long. He first came south and visited Highlander, known then as the Highlander Folk School, in 1953 with Ramblin’ Jack Elliot and Frank Hamilton. At the recommendation of Pete Seeger, he returned in 1959 as the music director, filling a void after Zilphia Horton’s untimely death.

Guy liked to tell the story of living on Johns Island, off the coast of South Carolina, working with Septima, Bernice Robinson and others organizing the first Citizenship School. One day while he was singing “Keep Your Hand on the Plow,” he was told by Alice Wine, a local resident, “Young man, we have another way of singing that song. We sing, “keep your eyes on the prize.” Guy liked the sound of that, and he helped spread “Keep Your Eyes on the Prize” to activists throughout the South. He also helped facilitate singers from Johns Island being invited to perform at the Newport and Smithsonian Folk Festivals.

While Guy was leading the music program at Highlander, he also helped spread another song: “We Shall Overcome.” Sung as “I Will Overcome” at the turn of the century in many African American Baptist and Methodist congregations, this song was brought to Highlander in the 1940s by South Carolina tobacco workers who had adapted it as a labor song. They taught it to FSGW member Steve “Fred” Friedman left this world in April 2015. Fred was a delightful, hyper-kinetic ball of contradictions. He was an intensely private person who could connect instantly with strangers. He was a modest man who could captivate a room full of people with his dazzling wit, erudition, and musical virtuosity.

Fred loved music, and he knew a lot about it. Friends would go to him to find out who recorded that song, when they did it, and whether it was still in copyright.

He was a founding member of the Dupont Music Circle (DMC). He and Chunga (his hammered dulcimer) hosted the DMC for several years in the 90’s and participated for many more. Repertoire sometimes was driven by whether or not Chunga had a B-flat string in tune on a given night, but it was as much fun to watch as to listen when the hammers started flying and he danced with the dulcimer.

The DMC was the kind of “We’ll sing anything” group he liked best. That was where Fred and the late Nancy Bailey developed harmonies for Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah that are still a favorite with DMC alums and FSGW Gospel Singers 20 years later.

Fred lived to jam. He was a master improviser, who reveled in the absurd. He would sneak in song parodies and unexpected musical choices—his autoharp rendition of themes from The Nutcracker would be hard to beat for originality, mastery, and general silliness.

He was a regular for many years at jams at the Washington Folk Festival and Mini-Fest. In recent years, he was one of the organizers of the Sing Out, Jam Out Meet-Ups in Northern Virginia.

Fred will be sorely missed. And the Gospel Singers and SOJO-ers might cry a little next time they sing, “Lay down, my dear brother, lay down and take your rest….” Because it will not be the same.

—Mary Jo Hlavaty Shapiro and Liz Milner

Zilphia Horton, who then included it in all of her Highlander workshops. With Pete Seeger and others, the song went through further evolution, and after Guy came to Highlander he continued singing and sharing it—teaching it during a 1960 Highlander workshop with Nashville sit-in leaders. A couple of weeks later, on April 15, 1960, Guy closed the first organizing meeting of the Student Nonviolent Coordination Committee with the song, and everyone in the room rose from their seats, singing and reaching out to join hands. In this way, the signature song of the Civil Rights movement was born.

Guy was [one of four people] arrested the night Grundy County sheriffs raided Highlander in a state-supported effort to stop its work for integration and civil rights. . . . Guy especially liked to remember how, as they sat in the dark singing to keep their spirits up while the sheriffs searched Highlander’s facilities, a young woman from the Montgomery Movement Association, Mary Ethel Dozier, added a new verse to “We Shall Overcome.” She sang, “We are not afraid, we are not afraid today . . .”
Maivish Trio
Saturday, June 6
8 pm

Maivish explores the landscape of time-honored melodies and songs, and comes home along new pathways. Gathering traditions from the British Isles, Ireland and America with a mix of original compositions, their performance is infused with lush vocal harmonies, inspired interplay, and captivating spirit.

In concert Maivish delivers a vibrant performance that include step-dancing, songs and original compositions. Their sound is mercurial, enchanting, powerful and uplifting. Their palette encompasses fiddle, cello, guitar, cittern, blackwood flutes, percussion and vocals.

The name Maivish comes from an English colloquial term for the Song Thrush.

At its core, the group is a collaboration between American fiddler Jaige Trudel and British born guitarist Adam Broome, who have been playing together for over a decade, for dances, festivals and concerts in North America and abroad. Maivish frequently includes Matthew Olwell, who will join them for this concert on flutes, bodhran, and percussive dance. You can learn more about Maivish at www.maivish.com.

Concert held at the home of Jamie and Betsy Platt in Potomac, MD. $15. Reservations and info: dancingplanet@erols.com or 301-717-4641

Brian Peters and Jeff Davis: Sharp’s Appalachian Harvest

Folk Music Presentation/Concert at Library of Congress • Washington, DC

Monday, July 13 • 7-9 pm

Sharp’s Appalachian Harvest is a special multimedia folk music presentation performed and researched by English folk musician Brian Peters and American old-time musician Jeff Davis. Their presentation is devoted to the astounding collection of songs and music made by English collectors Cecil Sharp and Maud Karpeles in the Southern Appalachians over three summers in 1916, 1917 and 1918, one of the most extensive folk song collections ever made.

The program will take place in the Mumford Room on the 6th floor of the James Madison Building of the Library of Congress, at 101 Independence Ave, SE. More information: http://www.loc.gov/concerts/folklife/appalachianharvest.html, call 202-707-5510 or email folklife@loc.gov

This concert is presented with the generous support of the Folklore Society of Greater Washington.

MAY 2015 BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

- The Web Migration team has narrowed its search for a more modern system. They report that working on the electronic ballot was a helpful experience for the team. Cost of each paper ballot was $2.72; the Board will consider making electronic balloting the default, and paper ballots an “opt in”.
- The Board congratulates new Newsletter Editor Jeanne Kaplan on the excellent job she did on her first issue.
- FSGW will have a membership booth at the FSGW Washington Folk Festival.
- FSGW bylaws need to be updated, with advice from the Web Migration Committee. A subcommittee to draft new language will begin the process soon.
- FSGW is considering outreach programs to local senior-living centers and nursing homes. The Hope and Home outreach program has been suspended for the summer.
- The monthly FSGW Family Dance needs a volunteer to do more outreach -- to contact schools, scouts, clubs and church groups with information about the dance.

Next Board meeting is Wednesday, June 3.
FSGW Sunday Night Dances
at Glen Echo Park, MD
Contras and Squares · 7:30–10:30 pm
Introductory lesson every Sunday · 7–7:30 pm
All Dances will be in the Bumper Car Pavilion in June.

Join us for an evening of dancing at Glen Echo Park. Every Sunday FSGW (in cooperation with the National Park Service, Montgomery County, and the Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture) presents contras and squares danced to live music by fabulous bands with entertaining callers. Experienced and new dancers welcome; no partner needed. Welcome/Orientation session every Sunday at 7. Come early for an introduction to the basic moves. Dances often become more challenging as the evening progresses. Bring water or a sports drink, and dress in layers. Smooth-soled shoes are kindest on your knees and ankles when turning.

Info: Penelope Weinberger or Steve Burnett; dance@fsgw.org

Admission: $10 for FSGW, BFMS, CDSS, and ATDS Members
$5 youth (with student ID if over 17)
$13 for the general public

June
7 Frannie Marr is a caller, dance organizer, and dance gypsy residing in Southern California. Maivish draws inspiration from traditional sources, reinterpreting the old and contributing to the new with their hypnotic and scintillating melodies and grooves. At its core, the group is a collaboration between American fiddler Jaige Trudel and British born guitarist Adam Broome who have been performing together as a duo for over a decade.

14 Michael Hamilton comes to us from PA to call with Gallimaufry’s Irish, Quebecois, and Old Time inspired energy. Gallimaufry is Brian Lindsay (fiddle, vocals), Alex Sturbaum (guitar, accordion, vocals), Ness Smith-Savedoff (drums), Donal Sheets (cello) and Arthur Davis (piano, trumpet, banjo, vocals).

21 STEAM! brings a knack for pouncing on the balances and flowing on the heys. Dave Firestine (mandolin), Robert Rosenberg (guitar, banjo), Claire Zucker (bodhran, vocals) and Alice Boyle (fiddle) feature flying fiddle and mandolin harmonies with solid foot happy drive. One of Sunday Night’s favorites, Gaye Fifer, returns to call.

28 Fiddler Joe DeZarn, pianist Liz Donaldson, and bassist Ralph Gordon have been playing traditional dance music together as The New Hip Trio since 2007. Blending their collective experience playing tunes from mostly the Irish, American, Quebecois and Oldtime fiddle repertoire, their music brings spark and flair to the dance floor. Susan Taylor brings her high energy and irrepressible sense of humor to the dance.

FSGW Square Dance • Washington, DC
Saturday, June 27 • 8:30–11:30 PM
FSGW’s DC Square Dance Collective presents another fabulous traditional Appalachian old-time square dance. Come on down – all are welcome. Young and old, new and experienced, hipsters and outta-the-loopers. No partner, lessons, overalls, pointy-toed-hand-tooled boots or fancy dress needed. St. Stephen’s Church, 1525 Newton St NW, 20010, near the Columbia Heights Metro. $5 at the door. Info: dcSquareDance.com

NOTE: The DC Square Dance needs your help! St. Stephen’s Church will be undergoing major renovations in the second half of 2015, and we are on the hunt for one or more alternate venue(s) that can host dances during that time - preferably large enough to hold 300+ people. Our budget is small. If you have connections or ideas, please email us at dcsquaredance@gmail.com or find us at the dance.

HOW TO SUBMIT A LISTING TO THE FSGW NEWSLETTER:

1. Please look at this Newsletter and determine under what category your listing should appear. When submitting copy by email, put that category in the subject line, followed by the month. So if you want to list a contra dance, your subject line is: Dance Contra [Month]. No punctuation, please. If it's a workshop: Workshop [Month]. If it's a single concert: Concert Individual [Month] And so forth. Putting the category in the Subject Line makes it easier for the editor to retrieve groups of events.

2. Please submit all listings in FSGW format. All information should be submitted in the following sequence:
   - Event Title • City, State Abbreviation
   - Day of the week, Date • start time - end time
   - One or two sentences only. Location (+ zip code for GPS). Ticket prices.
   - Info: Contact Name at Phone number or email/website.

NB: The city and state appear in the header; do not repeat them in the body, but in this age of Droids and GPS units, you need to include the 5-digit zip code – it goes right after the street address.
51st Annual FSGW Getaway Coming SOON!

The 2015 FSGW Getaway, to be held October 2-4, 2015 at West River Conference Center on the Chesapeake Bay, is coming soon! The Getaway is FSGW’s annual weekend-on-the-water -- we’ve been doing this for over 50 years now, and it’s always a great time. We have a fine lineup of special guests this year -- The Short Sisters (Kim Wallach, Fay Baird, & Kate Seeger), Cindy Kallet and Grey Larsen, Jill Rogoff, Tim Radford, and Sheila Kay Adams and the Scofflaws (Dan Lewis & Branson Raines). The Getaway is a wonderful gathering of folk music friends from near and far, and we can promise a memorable weekend! The last few Getaways have included several children — something that was lacking for a long time. We’d love to see many more, so please bring your kids! Or your grandkids! And do tell us in advance how many you’ll be bringing, and their ages, so we can plan appropriate activities for them! We’re looking forward to seeing you all at the Getaway! Stay tuned; registration opens in July.

FSGW Election Results

On behalf of the FSGW Election Committee I am pleased to announce the following results of the election for the 2015-16 The Folklore Society of Greater Washington Board of Directors. FSGW Board Meeting

Wednesday, June 3 • 8 pm

The monthly FSGW board meetings will be held in Classroom 301 Arcade Bldg. at Glen Echo Park, MD. All FSGW members may attend. If you wish the Board to consider a particular matter, please contact the appropriate board member, or April Blum by e-mail, president@fsgw.org, or call afternoons or evenings 301-422-0292 in advance of the meeting.
The Folklore Society of Greater Washington is a not-for-profit [Section 501(c)(3) of the IRS code] institution, and we encourage the financial contributions of our members. Contributions in excess of annual dues are welcome and may be tax-deductible. Please mail your gift to FSGW, P.O. Box 323, Cabin John, MD 20818. Subscriptions to the Newsletter are available only outside the Greater Washington Metro area.

FSGW IS DEDICATED TO PRESERVING AND PROMOTING TRADITIONAL FOLK ARTS IN THE WASHINGTON, D.C., METROPOLITAN AREA. MEMBERSHIP IS OPEN TO ALL WHO SUPPORT THESE GOALS UPON PAYMENT OF DUES.
