A wonderful weekend of music and fun!

October 2-5, 2015

West River Conference Center
West River, MD

If you like good music shared with great people, you’ll love the FSGW Getaway! Each year we gather at a beautiful spot on a Chesapeake inlet and spend a whole weekend celebrating the music we love with old friends and new. If you’ve been to the Getaway before, you’ll surely want to come again, and if you haven’t yet experienced this marvelous gathering, now is the time!

The weekend starts off on Friday evening with a pot-luck supper and a big sing-around. Saturday and Sunday we have a full program of informal participatory workshops, mini-concerts, song circles, and jam sessions, with 3 or 4 (and sometimes 5) events occurring simultaneously, so there’s always plenty to choose from. Each evening we have sign-up concerts — a chance to show us all what you can do — and lots of spontaneous songfests and jam sessions until the wee hours. There are CDs and some instruments for sale, and a silent auction to benefit our scholarship fund — bring an item to donate and take a different one home!

We’re hoping to encourage more folks to bring their kids — or grandkids or nieces or nephews — and want to plan appropriate activities for them, so do let us know in advance how many children you’ll be bringing, and their ages.

We have an exceptional lineup of Special Guests this year: Cindy Kallett and Grey Larsen will bring their remarkable voices and many instruments; The Short Sisters (Kim Wallach, Fay Baird & Kate Seeger) will come together from their diverse home towns with their special brand of songs old and new; Sheila Kay Adams and The Scofflaws (Dan Lewis & Branson Raines) come from Western North Carolina with their authentic string band sound, stories, and more; Jill Rogoff visits from Israel with wonderful Celtic songs and Jewish music; and Tim Radford will be here with lots of ballads and rousing maritime songs. All of these folks will be performing in mini-concerts and participating in lots of workshops.

Accommodations: There are 50 bedrooms in buildings with heat, AC, and hot showers, with up to four bunks per room (a discount is offered if you’ll volunteer to take an upper bunk; if you cannot get yourself into an upper bunk, please let us know). Tents and RVs are OK, but no hookups are available. Public gathering areas and some bedrooms are handicapped accessible. Special dietary needs may be accommodated if you let us know in advance. Limited kitchen facilities (fridge, freezer, microwave) are available to us at all times. No smoking is permitted indoors, and we are asked not to bring any alcohol.

What to bring: Along with voices, instruments, and your love of music, bring bedding, pillows, towels & soap, flashlight, and a coffee mug to help save paper. No pets, please.

Rates and registration: See registration form on page 23 and explanation below. Rates are for one, two, or three nights, and for day-trippers who bring their own food. To dine at the Getaway buffet, you MUST register in advance. If you register for two nights, the fee covers three meals and a late-night snack both Saturday and Sunday. A three-night registration gives you an additional night’s lodging and breakfast on Monday morning. A one-night registration gives you all meals and snacks on either Saturday or Sunday, and, if you wish, a bed on either adjacent night.

Payment notes: We have been able to keep our prices as low as possible this year, but recognize that some folks may still have a problem with the cost. If you need help with the tuition, there is a scholarship fund to assist; contact Charlie Baum at cbaum@fsgw.org to inquire about scholarships. You may register online with your credit card at fsgw.org, or print out the registration form and mail it in to the address on the form. If you can’t register online and need to pay in a foreign currency, contact Dick Greenhaus at dick@camscomusic.com.

Special FSGW Cosponsorship with the American Folklife Center of the Library of Congress

Brian Peters and Jeff Davis:
Sharp’s Appalachian Harvest
Folk Music Presentation/Concert at Library of Congress • Washington, DC

Monday, July 13 • 7-9 pm

Sharp’s Appalachian Harvest is a special multimedia folk music presentation performed and researched by English folk musician Brian Peters and American old-time musician Jeff Davis. Their presentation is devoted to the astounding collection of songs and music made by English collectors Cecil Sharp and Maud Karpeles in the Southern Appalachians over three summers in 1916, 1917 and 1918, one of the most extensive folk song collections ever made.

Brian Peters is a leading solo performer of English traditional songs and music who frequently tours in the United States. He sings and plays guitar, melodeon, and concertina, and is known particularly for his stunning arrangements of traditional ballads. He has taught at song schools including The Swannanoa Gathering and The Augusta Heritage Center, both in the Appalachians, and played many festivals and concerts. He’s also gaining a reputation as a researcher of song history. Jeff Davis was once a protégé of both Mike Seeger and Frank Warner, both collectors as well as musicians. He is a banjo player, fiddler, and singer with a rare authenticity gained from personal contact with old-time musicians. In their presentation, they perform some of the brightest gems from Sharp’s harvest, including old ballads, dance tunes, children’s songs and gospel. They give readings from Sharp’s diaries describing vividly the hardships and triumphs of song collecting, and show his evocative photographs of the singers and of mountain life.

The program will take place in the Mumford Room on the 6th floor of the James Madison Building of the Library of Congress, at 101 Independence Ave, SE. Washington, D.C. For more information visit loc.gov/concerts/folklife/appalachianharvest.html, call 202-707-5510 or email folklife@loc.gov

This concert is presented with the generous support of the Folklore Society of Greater Washington.

JUNE 2015 BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The June meeting included both the 2014-15 Board members and incoming 2015-16 Board members

Jerry Stein, Ingrid Gorman, and Steve Kaufman. The Board thanks outgoing Board members Richard Aigen and Liz Milner for their years of service.

The Board approved a contract for internet services through Wild Apricot. The Web Migration Committee continues to make progress toward data migration.

The Board discussed the archiving project in light of Pat McGee’s death. The Board is taking steps to retrieve any FSGW archival material, and will seek a replacement archivist.

The annual budget meeting will take place prior to the start of the fiscal year (September 1). The Treasurer and Past Treasurer will coordinate.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, July 8, and the August meeting will be Wednesday, August 5 at Glen Echo Park.

Sunday, August 23 • 4-8 PM
Every fourth Sunday, singers enjoy the old-time harmonies and spiritual poetry of The Sacred Harp (1991), Shenandoah Harmony (2013), and Christian Harmony (1959), along with a potluck supper. Loaner books are available, and all are welcome. Usually the singing is held upstairs in room 19 and the supper from 6-7 on the ground level of the Fellowship Hall of the First Christian Church of Alexandria, 2723 King St., about a mile out from the Metro & Amtrak stations & GW Memorial. For more information contact madaly@verizon.net or 301-229-8534

HOW TO SUBMIT A LISTING TO THE FSGW NEWSLETTER

1. Please look at this Newsletter and determine under what category your listing should appear. When submitting copy by email, put that category in the subject line, followed by the month. So if you want to list a contra dance, your subject line is: Dance Contra [Month]. No punctuation, please. If it’s a workshop: Workshop [Month]. If it’s a single concert: Concert Individual [Month]. And so forth. Putting the category in the Subject Line makes it easier for the editor to retrieve groups of events.

2. Please submit all listings in FSGW format. All information should be submitted in the following sequence:
   - Event Title • City, State Abbreviation
   - Day of the week, Date • start time - end time
   - One or two sentences only. Location (+ zip code for GPS). Ticket prices.
   - Info: Contact Name at Phone number or email/website.

NB: The city and state appear in the header; do not repeat them in the body, but in this age of Droids and GPS units, you need to include the 5-digit zip code – it goes right after the street address.

In Memoriam

James Patrick “Pat” McGee
1950–2015

On May 13, 2015, the folk music community of Washington, DC lost a valued friend in Pat McGee.

Pat came to us from Texas in the late 1990s and never lost that charming Texas accent. He served for several years as the Volunteer Coordinator and Webmaster for the Institute of Musical Traditions. During his tenure, Pat initiated a program of videotaping all IMT concerts with three cameras and posting the edited videos to imtfolk.org.

We were flattered that he loved our music and in awe of his skill with anything related to computers or electronics. Pat excelled at identifying projects that needed to be done and then quietly taking them on. One such project was digitizing all issues of the FSGW Newsletter (since 1964) and all programs of the Washington Folk Festival (since 1977).

Pat returned to Texas in 2010, but he was not lost to us. He would return for two or three months in festival season (May-July) to volunteer at various festivals and to continue various projects. Ongoing at his death was a project to digitize and catalog a vast archive of audiotapes of folk music belonging to the FSGW and the Library of Congress.

Pat’s life was not all folk music. He spent many hours one summer carefully marking up a draft manuscript submitted to him for review by a fellow computer programmer. And he also spent many hours organizing and digitizing family photographs.

And Pat’s life was not all work. He was a faithful friend to many, always looking to be helpful or to enjoy a good conversation. And he loved enjoying music, especially live performance. His sense of humor once led him to show up at a Blue Moon Cowgirls concert wearing a cow hat.

He collected art, keeping in mind how much wall space could be devoted to his collection in each home where he lived. His generosity led him to drive halfway across Texas to return a rare instrument to the family of its maker, and to create a webpage for a friend’s one-man show about Ernie Pyle.

Pat McGee died in Dallas, Texas, of complications resulting from surgery. Pat, you will always be warm in our memories.

— Kathie Mack

37 Years Young — Sunday, September 20th
The Takoma Park Folk Festival was first organized in 1978 as a one-stage event, but now includes more than 50 performances on 6 stages. It’s an all-day, family-friendly celebration, and it’s free! There will be fabulous music and dance, food, games, information tables (including an FSGW membership table), juried crafts, and community outreach. As always, it will be on the grounds of the Takoma Park Middle School, 7611 Piney Branch Road. This year, because Rosh Hashanah begins on Sunday, September 13, the Festival is a week later than usual — September 20 – so mark your calendars accordingly. For more information, visit tpff.org.

Jean Ritchie (December 8, 1922–June 1, 2015): An Appreciation

Jean Ritchie, a major figure in the folksong revival who also came from one of Kentucky's great, traditional singing families, touched many hearts in the Folklore Society of Greater Washington. She performed for the Society on several occasions, made four appearances for the Smithsonian Folklife Festival (1968, 1972, 1973, and 2003), and appeared with The Washington Revels in 1985 (American Appalachian) Christmas Revels. During the summer, Jean also influenced local singers through workshops at Augusta and Pinewoods. Dan Schatz, son of FSGW member Nancy King, recently co-produced (along with FSGW member Charlie Pilzer and Mick Lane from Grand Rapids, MI) Dear Jean: Artists Celebrate Jean Ritchie, a two-CD tribute album of her own songs as well as those learned from oral tradition. Jean described her own way of singing as "Decorating a song with shakes and quivers in the old way, shaking up a note and quivering down," She is also recognized for awakening a national interest in the Appalachian dulcimer. More than a few FSGW members learned to play it from her The Dulcimer Book.

Jean and her husband, George Pickow, were noted collectors and documentarians of folksong and folklore and their lifetime collection of recordings, photographs, and papers are now at the FOLKlife Center at the Library of Congress. Her memoir of growing up, Singing Family of the Cumberlands, has become an American classic, and she recorded over 30 recordings during an active performing career.

Jean befriended folksong enthusiasts, known and unknown, and dedicated much of her time as well as her songwriting skills to the dangers and environmental degradation of coal mining, deforestation, and mountaintop removal. We will miss her, but her songs have already become an ongoing part of the folk tradition.

Art Thieme – an Appreciation

For Art Thieme, every song was a story and every story led to a song. His stories and jokes were borrowed by the best, including U. Utah Phillips, aka Bruce Phillips, who became more nationally famous than Art. Art preferred not to travel far from his family, wife Carol, and son Chris. He was central to the Chicago folk scene in the ‘70s, ‘80s and into the ‘90s. He was there as the Old Town School of Folk Music was born, as blues clubs came and went, as folk clubs came and went, as “Come For To Sing” magazine emerged and eventually ceased publication.

Art made his living as a folksinger — not a singer-songwriter whining about his own lost loves or pitiful life, but a collector of musical gold, folklore and jokelore, banjo styles, Travis picking on guitar, history, anecdotes, old songs and sometimes new songs. His few trips to Washington connected him with the Folklore Society, Craig Johnson, Bruce Hutton and like-minded folks.

Art’s last gigs were over 15 years ago, as music and story entertainment on the Mississippi Riverboat the Julia Belle Swain. As the boat meandered its way down the river, Art would tell true stories, jokes, point out places of interest, insert songs, and generally make the trip a 4-D experience for its travelers. Art has traveled on now, after living with MS for over 20 years. He was one of a kind, the likes of which won’t come around again.

Cards can be sent to his wife, Carol, at: Carol Thieme, 335 Illinois St., Crystal Lake, IL 60014.
