FSGW Sings/Swaps/Events

FSGW JULY OPEN SING • KENSINGTON MD FRIDAY, JULY 1 • 8 PM NOTE: EARLIER START TIME (BUT IT'S GETTING TO BE THE DEFAULT!)

Singers go around the room, giving everyone a chance to sing a song, play a tune, or pass. Most songs are presented from memory, but cheat sheets often appear. Everyone is welcome. The open sings have a loose topic to encourage us to learn new songs or put the polish back on some old ones. Don't worry if you can't think of a song on the topic—come join in the fun anyway! Theme: (stolen from her son Ken Schatz, who runs the Exceedingly Good Song Night in New York City) will be "Scandal and Shame: Songs of impropriety & dishonor, songs of disgrace, gossip, embarrassment, injustice, infamy and disrepute!" Firefly viewing at the break! Hosted by Nancy King. Contact Nancy nlking2@verizon.net for directions.

SCHWEINHAUT SONG CIRCLE • SILVER SPRING, MD WEDNESDAYS, JULY 20 AND AUGUST 17 • 1-3 PM

On the third Wednesday of each month, this song circle provides a daytime opportunity to enjoy great songs, old or new, humorous or serious, timeless or topical. The song circle is about the joy of singing, not about talent. You don't have to read music, and printed words are provided for songs that have been suggested in advance. Of course, you may lead or request any song, whether or not we have printed words. All are welcome, regardless of age or experience, including instrumental accompanists. Come when you can and leave when you must, but do come to sing or just to listen! Free! Cosponsored by FSGW and Carpe Diem Arts. Margaret Schweinhaut Senior Center, 1000 Forest Glen Road, 20901. For more info or to suggest songs in advance, contact Fred Stollnitz at fstollnitz@comcast.net.

Loaner books are available, and all are welcome. Usually the singing is held upstairs in room 19 and the supper from 6-7 on the ground level of the Fellowship Hall. Delightful and refreshing are two words one can use to describe the duo of Nanne Kalma and Ankie van der Meer. Nanne and Ankie have been playing together since 1980. Singing in Frisian, Dutch, Esperanto and English, their engaging wit and terrific arrangements (and harmonies) captivate any American audience. The songs need no translation.

The duo has produced nearly 40 albums (LP and CD), and they regularly tour in Europe, North America and Australia. Traditional as well as newly written songs fill out their wide repertoire. They like to sing about different subjects. Maritime and historical themes play an important role, but they also sing about humorous events from daily life. At festivals, concerts, on ships or in singing workshops, Nanne and Ankie's program is always witty and adapted to the situation wherever they are. They accompany themselves on guitar, mandolin, concertina and shawm.

The 52nd Annual FSGW Getaway

if you haven't yet experienced this marvelous gathering, now is the time! Do take note of the dates for this year – we're a bit earlier than usual!

The weekend starts off on Friday evening with a pot-luck supper and a big sing-around. Saturday and Sunday we have a full program of informal participatory workshops, mini-concerts, song circles, and jam sessions, with 4 (and sometimes 5) events occurring simultaneously, so there's always plenty to choose from. Each evening we have sign-up concerts—a chance to show us all what you can do—and lots of events running concurrently, songfests and jam sessions until the wee hours. There are CDs and some instruments and crafts for sale, as well as a silent auction to benefit our scholarship fund – bring an item to donate and take a different one home!

We're encouraging folks to bring their kids and/or grandkids, and want to plan appropriate activities for them, so do let us know in advance how many children you'll be bringing, and their ages.

We have an exceptional lineup of Special Guests this year: We're delighted to welcome Sally Rogers, a marvelous songwriter and singer of traditional and contemporary songs. British-born David Jones presents music-hall songs, stories, sea songs and ballads that will make you laugh or melt your heart. Larry Kaplan is a fine guitarist and singer-songwriter with a maritime bent. If you like songs of cowboys and other working people, Steve Cormier will fill the bill. Geoff Kaufman, a shanty-man at Mystic Seaport, will share songs of the Northeast and the sea. Saro Lynch-Thomason comes to us from Asheville, NC, with lots of Appalachian ballads and regional songs. And to top it all off, the trio Bare Bones (Bill and Rebecca Kimmons and their "spare rib" Dock Cutlip) will bring us exquisite harmonies and gospel songs. All of these folks will be performing in mini-concerts and participating in lots of workshops.

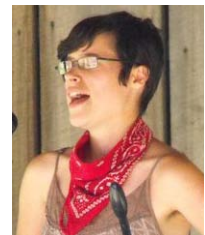

Accommodations: There are 50 bedrooms in buildings with heat, AC, and hot showers, with up to four sturdy bunks per room (a discount is offered if you'll volunteer to take an upper bunk; if you cannot get yourself into an upper bunk, please let us know). Tents and RVs are OK, but no hookups are available. Public gathering areas and some bedrooms are handicapped accessible. Special dietary needs may be accommodated if you let us know in advance. Limited kitchen facilities (fridge, freezer, microwave) are available to us at all times. No smoking is permitted indoors, and we are asked not to bring any alcohol.

What to bring: Along with voices, instruments, and your love of music, bring bedding, pillows, towels and soap, flashlight, and a coffee mug to help save paper. No pets, please.

Rates and Registration: See registration form on page 23 and explanation below. Rates are for one, two, or three nights, and for day-trippers who bring their own food. To dine at the Getaway buffet you MUST register in advance. If you register for two nights, the fee covers three meals and a late-night snack both Saturday and Sunday. A three-night registration gives you an additional night's lodging and breakfast on Monday morning. A one-night registration gives you all meals and snacks on either Saturday or Sunday and, if you wish, a bed on either adjacent night.

Payment notes We have been able to keep our prices as low as possible this year, but recognize that some folks may still have a problem with the cost. If you need help with the tuition, there is a scholarship fund to assist; contact Charlie Baum at cbaum@fsgw.org to inquire about scholarships. You may register online with your credit card at www.fsgw.org. If you can't register online and need to pay in a foreign currency, contact Dick Greenhaus dick@camscomusic.com.

Windborne

vocal quartet from Vermont

Saturday,
August 20

Vermont-based Windborne (Lauren Breunig, Jeremy Carter-Gordon, and Lynn & Will Rowan) bring polished harmonies and folk exuberance to songs from Corsica, Bulgaria, Quebec, the Republic of Georgia, the Basque country and early America; they've been described as "shifting effortlessly between drastically different styles of traditional music within the same concert." In addition to touring the eastern United States, they have performed in Angola, Kyrgyzstan and Turkmenistan as cultural ambassadors selected by American Music Abroad, a joint program of the Association of American Voices and the State Department.

Windborne has released two CDs as a quartet, Midwinter Meeting (2013) and Lay Around That Shack (2015). In addition, Lynn and Will released Windborne in 2008 and Sing the Sun's Return: Wassails and Carols for Yuletide in 2015.

On the day of their evening concert at Seekers Church, local singers (and folks who want to sing) will have the opportunity to learn from these tradition-bearers at a workshop in Takoma Park. As their web site notes, "In addition to performing in New England and around the world, Windborne has taught workshops in schools, community centers, singing camps, and universities. Seasoned teachers and song-leaders, they delight groups young and old with enthusiastic, clear, and nuanced instruction for musicians of all levels of experience. Singers not only learn the notes of a song, but also work on the varied vocal styles, language pronunciation, and gain an understanding of the song in its original cultural context." And everyone who attends the workshop on Saturday morning, August 20, will get $10 off admission to the concert Saturday evening – so, for FSGW members, the workshop is $10 and the concert is free!

FSGW Co-Sponsored Chorus Sing at Smithsonian Folklife Festival

Migration and Immigration Songs

Friday, July 8 • 4 pm & Sunday, July 10 • 4 pm

The National Mall • Washington, DC

FSGW will host participatory sessions of migration and immigration songs at the Smithsonian Folklife Festival's "On the Move" stage on the National Mall, near the Smithsonian's National Air and Space Museum. Lisa Null, Donna Fletcher, Steve Winick, and Charlie Baum (emcee) will lead off with one song each and then others in the audience, including FSGW folks, will be invited to contribute their own songs, in English or in any other language, and to join in on the choruses and refrains. FSGW's harmonies and strong voices are eagerly sought after to share with a broader public the joys of group singing.

Voluntary and coerced immigration, dreams fulfilled and lost, reasons for leaving or arriving in a new land, loved ones brought over or left behind, getting used to a different society are a few themes likely to be touched upon in some of the songs we sing.

The event is free, like the rest of the Festival, and each session lasts 30 minutes. These sessions are part of the Festival's "On The Move: Immigration and Migration Today" program. Other featured topics this year include Basque culture and the music of California.

Although FSGW has worked with the Smithsonian Folklife Festival before, this is the first musical collaboration between FSGW and the Smithsonian Folklife Festival on the National Mall itself. Please show up and help make this one of the most enthusiastic Open Sings ever! Look for the "On the Move" stage to find us.

HOW TO SUBMIT A LISTING TO THE FSGW NEWSLETTER

1. Please look at this Newsletter and determine under what category your listing should appear. When submitting copy by email, put that category in the subject line, followed by the month. So if you want to list a contra dance, your subject line is: Dance Contra [Month]. No punctuation, please. If it's a workshop: Workshop [Month]. If it's a single concert: Concert Individual [Month]. And so forth. Putting the category in the subject line makes it easier for the editor to retrieve groups of events.

2. Please submit all listings in FSGW format. All information should be submitted in the following sequence:

Event Title • City, State Abbreviation
 Day of the week, Date • start time - end time
 One or two sentences only. Location (+ zip code for GPS). Ticket prices.
 Info: Contact Name at Phone number or email/website.

NB: The city and state appear in the header; do not repeat them in the body, but in this age of Droids and GPS units, you need to include the 5-digit zip code – it goes right after the street address. Submit entries to newsletter@fsgw.org
