Remembering Jean Ritchie
with Dan Schatz, Jon Pickow, Susie Glaze, and Kenny Kosek
Saturday, April 28 • 8–10 pm

“Dear Jean…over the years, you have inspired and influenced generations of musicians, both through your careful preservation of the songs you grew up with and the poetry of your own pen…with unfailing kindness and generosity you have mentored, encouraged and laughed with us, sharing your dedication to the music and culture of the Kentucky mountains.” Thus read the liner notes to the Dear Jean compilation CD produced by Washington area native Dan Schatz, now a Pennsylvania-based recording artist and Unitarian–Universalist minister, along with Takoma Park’s Charlie Pilzer and labor organizer/singer Mick Lane. In 2015, Schatz returned to Washington to cohost a tribute to Jean Ritchie at the Washington Folk Festival. Two days later, the National Heritage Fellow, Fulbright Scholar, singer, and dulcimer player passed away at the age of 92. Her son Jon Pickow and singers Susie Glaze and Kenny Kosek, all of whom performed on the Dear Jean recording, join Dan for a long-overdue memorial concert. At Seekers Church. $20; members, $10.

Join us for the 36th Annual Chesapeake Dance Weekend!

How to submit a listing to the FSGW Newsletter

1. Please look at this Newsletter and determine under what category your listing should appear. When submitting copy by email, put that category in the subject line, followed by the month. E.g., Classes [Month], Concert [Month], Dance [Month], and so forth. Putting the category in the subject line makes it easier for the editor to retrieve groups of events.

2. Please submit all listings in FSGW format. All information should be submitted in the following sequence:
   - Event Title • City, State Abbreviation
   - Day of the week, Date • start time - end time
   - One or two sentences only. Location (+ zip code for GPS). Ticket prices.
   - Info: Contact Name at Phone number or email/website.

NB: The city and state appear in the header; do not repeat them in the body, but in this age of Droids and GPS units, you need to include the 5-digit zip code—it goes right after the street address. Submit entries to newsletter@fsgw.org

FSGW Newsletter Editorial and Advertising Policy

The Folklore Society of Greater Washington endeavors to print copy it deems relevant to its membership and purpose as stated in its by-laws: "The main purpose of the Society is to further the understanding, investigation, appreciation, and performance of the traditional folk music and folklore of the American people."

- All copy must be submitted by e-mail to newsletter@fsgw.org in text format in the body of the e-mail by the 8th of the preceding month.
- All listings must be submitted in the format set out in the “How to Submit” Box above. The format is also on our website (fsgw.org). Just click on Newsletter and look for a paragraph in green.
- The Editor reserves the right to edit or omit copy as necessary. Ad content must be approved by the Editor.

Basic Ad charges: 1/4 page ads (3.4” x 4.5” or 7.25” x 2.5”): $65 for one month, $120 for two. Commercial business: $8 for 10 words. Noncommercial and individual: $4 for 10 words. 25% discount for any single ad placed in 11 consecutive issues (one year) and paid in advance. We will work with you on larger ads. Copy, with check made payable to FSGW, must be received by the newsletter deadline. Mail to FSGW, P.O. Box 323, Cabin John, MD 20818.

Richmond Blues Boys:
Justin Golden, Andrew Alli, and Josh Small

Friday, April 6 • 8–10 pm

FSGW and the Archie Edwards Blues Heritage Foundation jointly present this trio of phenomenal young acoustic blues artists out of Richmond; all were faculty at Augusta Heritage Center’s Blues Week in 2017, curated by Phil Wiggins and Joan Fenton. Justin Golden’s Mississippi Delta, Chicago, and Virginia Piedmont roots are apparent in his soulful guitar and smooth voice, as is his inventiveness, as he brings his creativity to traditional blues forms. Richmond native Andrew Alli’s harmonica style is influenced by Little Walter, Big Walter Hornton, Sonny Boy Williamson II, and Junior Wells; featured at The Richmond Folk Festival for several years, he is also a great songwriter with a powerful voice. Josh Small is also a creative songwriter, and his slide guitar, banjo, and body percussion, as well as his infectious spirit, can’t help but lift one’s own spirits. At Archie’s Barbershop. $20; members, $10. Info: program@fsgw.org or events@acousticblues.com.

Potomac River Shape Note Singing Convention

Great Falls, VA

Saturday & Sunday, April 7 & 8 • 10 am to 3:30 pm

Join singers from across the country for two days of spirited, vibrant, unaccompanied singing at the 29th Annual Potomac River Shape Note Singing Convention. All are welcome, and no experience is necessary. At the Great Falls Grange, 9818 Georgetown Pike, 22066. The convention is free and open to the public. Free-will offering will be accepted to cover expenses. Info: Facebook, “DC Shape Note Singers”; Matt Roberts, Chair; saotomesan@gmail.com; or dcshapenote.squarespace.com. For more information about The Sacred Harp, The Shenandoah Harmony, or shape note singing, visit fasola.org or shenandoahharmony.com.

FSGW Special Event

Takoma, DC

Janie Meneely & Rob Van Sante
Saturday, April 7
8–10 pm

If you missed them in snowy, icy February, Janie Meneely & Rob Van Sante offer a do-over: an encore concert featuring material from their new CD, Partners. Janie is known around the world for witty original maritime songs in the forebitter tradition with a feminist twist—and for songs that paint a vivid picture of the Chesapeake Bay, where she sails for real. Dutch-born guitarist and singer Van Sante lends his knack for melodies and flair for harmony to Meneely's compositions. Plus they’ve got a few collaborations up their sleeve. At Seekers Church. $20; members, $10. Info: program@fsgw.org.

FSGW Concert

(Tentative)

Thomas McCarthy
Saturday, April 14 • 8–10 pm

If U.S. authorities grant him an artist visa in time—not at all certain as this newsletter goes to press—Thomas McCarthy, singer and storyteller in the Irish Travellers community and tradition, will be back by popular demand for a feature concert at Seekers Church on his way home from the Brooklyn Folk Festival in early April. Watch fsgw.org and our Facebook page for updates!

FSGW House Concert

Takoma Park, MD

Ari & Mia Friedman
Sunday, April 22 • 12–2 pm
(brunch at 11 am)

"New England’s Americana Sister Act" Ari & Mia Friedman describe themselves as a “chamber folk” duo. They visit from Boston with their acclaimed vocal harmonies and fiddle, cello, and banjo. No Depression magazine writes: “Ari & Mia reference the styles of Southern and Northeastern fiddle music and the early American songbook to create a realm where their own compositions cross paths with older traditions. Their stylish and sophisticated music honors the sounds of Appalachian cottages, rural dance floors, and urban concert halls... the sisters sing in unison like two violins.” Touring since 2008, the New England Conservatory graduates have opened for Cheryl Wheeler, performed with Sarah Jarosz, and won the 2010 John Lennon Songwriting Contest in the folk category. If you like their music at the April 20 Friday Night Dance at Glen Echo Park, come to Janie Meneely’s for an encore over Sunday brunch. $15 donation suggested. RSVP/directions: program@fsgw.org.

Lithuanian Centennial Celebration
with Abraham Brody and Trys Keturiose

Sunday, April 15 • 5–7 pm

The Republic of Lithuania declared independence from the Russian Empire on February 16, 1918, and its diplomatic mission to the United States is celebrating the centennial all year with a series of special events. Presented by the Embassy of the Republic of Lithuania in the United States in partnership with FSGW, this free concert brings to Washington performing artists tapping deep roots of Lithuanian folk music. Bringing together music, performance art, and multimedia, Abraham Brody pushes the boundaries between performer and public and challenges the traditional notions of a performer in the 21st century by uniting these three art forms into one cohesive whole. Drawing inspiration from the roots, rituals, and folklore of diverse backgrounds, he weaves them into performances combining his own compositions, improvisation, and multimedia works. Since 1981, Trys Keturiose, led by ethnomusicologist and head of the Department of Ethnic Music at the Lithuanian Academy of Music and Theatre Daiva Vyčinienė, has performed sutartinės, traditional Lithuanian polyphonic songs distinguished by the use of seconds, entwined voices, accentuated rhythmic patterns and the simultaneous sound of two different texts (verse and refrain). The word sutartinė is derived from the verb sutarti, “to agree, to reach accord.” The sutartinė tradition is dying out in rural Lithuania, but folk ensembles keep it alive in the cities. At Heritage Hall in Father O’Connell Hall, 620 Michigan Ave NE, 20064, on the campus of the Catholic University of America (Metro: Brookland or bus H2/H4). Free. Info: program@fsgw.org.

38th Annual FSGW Washington Folk Festival
(June 2 and 3)—Call for Volunteers

Do you LOVE the Washington Folk Festival? Dream of being a Roadie to an awesome band? Wish you could get right up close to the performers with your camera and have permission to do it? VOLUNTEER!

The Washington Folk Festival is a celebration of the many cultural traditions that are a part of our Greater Washington community—and we need you! Ages 14 and up, for fun tasks including set up and take down, performer and volunteer hospitality and sign-in, stagehands, sound operators, craft area assistants, member service area, information booth greeters, and event photographers and archival videographers. This year’s Festival will again provide a rich smorgasbord of international culture along with American blues, bluegrass, old-time string bands, contemporary singer-songwriters, gospel, storytellers, craft demonstrations, and more. Volunteer now at washingtonfolkfestival.org. Want to get more deeply involved? We are also seeking people to help with the planning and management of the event, including festival coordination, publicity, web design, performer/staff hospitality coordination, and craft sales management. We’ll train you! Info: Jen Furlong, membership@fsgw.org. Volunteer with a friend for a full day, and we’ll give you both this year’s FSGW membership free! If you’re already a member, we’ll renew you membership in person as a massive thank you for volunteering. We also have volunteer jobs before the festival: earn community service volunteer hours for school!

April

1 Bob Isaacs with Tempest One of our favorite East Coast callers, Bob Isaacs, with Tempest: Chuck Abell (guitar, vocals), Tim Ball (fiddle, vocals), Harry Aceto (bass), and Eric Metzgar (drums) blending traditional tunes with inventive, progressive grooves and harmonies that draw from jazz, world music, and pop/R&B!

8 Alex Deis-Lauby with ContraPositive No-tune-repeated Midatlantic tour: ContraPositive and Alex Deis-Lauby are coming to town, with an all-new slate of tunes every single night! Blending sweet Irish fiddle, Scottish drive, and harmonic improvisation, ContraPositive: Matt Diaz (guitar and more), Joe de Paolo (drums), and Matthew Christian (fiddle, flute, whistle) bring the best of contemporary contra styles. Caller Alex Deis-Lauby's smooth voice, clear teaching style, and engaging dance selections delight dancers from coast to coast.

15 Don Veino with Dead Sea Squirrels
From the Scout House in Concord, MA, Don Veino calls with the Dead Sea Squirrels: Cathy Mason (fiddle), Henry Yoshimura (guitar), and Paul Boyd (fiddle and banjo), a versatile band that plays the traditional music of the south with African-rooted rhythms; Cajun Waltzes; Celtic-influenced guitar nuances; and old-time fiddle and banjo for your dancing pleasure.

22 Kappy Laning with Squirrelly Dan and the Eastern Rounders Calling is Kappy Laning, with Squirrelly Dan and the Eastern Rounders: "Squirrelly" Dan Levenson, originally from the Squirrel Hill community of Pittsburgh, PA (fiddle, banjo, vocals) and from Tucson, John Walkenbach (guitar) and Jerry Weinert (bass) bringing humor and keeping us grounded in the music.

36th Annual Chesapeake Dance Weekend!

Any dance party with callers Janine Smith and Will Mentor is sure to leave you feeling energized and pampered at the same time. Switching between compelling contras and sizzling squares, these polymaths will amaze you with their versatility and make you feel like a real expert. You won’t want to miss our hash-contraset! Complementing our dance gurus, our bands are new combinations of classic talents. Chameleon (formerly Gigmeisters), featuring Alexander Mitchell (fiddle), Dave Wiesler (piano), and Paul Oorts (mandolin, banjo, accordion, and more), will captivate you with their unique interpretations of traditional tunes. Rachel Eddy & the Rock Farmers, featuring Rachel (fiddle), Jonathan Vocke (guitar), and Jay White (banjo) will keep your feet moving with their sweet, hard-driving southern sound. And if you’re up for trying something new, take the honky-tonk plunge! What is honky-tonk? Let Ed Fizdale and Su Peck fill you in, accompanied by the soulful vocals and crisp back-beats of Jesse Milnes (vocals & fiddle), Emily Miller (vocals & guitar), and Joe Dejarnette (bass).

So come join the Chesapeake Dance Weekend at Camp Letts, our home for the last 36 years. This scenic getaway overlooks the pristine natural setting of a Chesapeake Bay inlet, fifteen minutes from Annapolis and less than an hour from DC. All meals are included from Friday dinner through Sunday lunch. Campers are housed in heated dormitory-style cabins; tenting is also available as an option. For more details or to register, visit ChesapeakeDanceWeekend.org. See you at camp!

Sundays

Mason Dixon Border Morris • Frederick, MD

Some Sundays • 12–2 PM

Possibly the oldest and most fictitious morris team in North America. Gender irrelevant, steampunk a plus. Practices usually twice a month. Location rotates between Frederic, Ellicott City, Columbia, and Adelphi, somewhat randomly; weather- and space-dependent. Info/directions: bgraham_99@yahoo.com or facebook.com/masondixonbordermorris.

Mondays

Join the Indonesian Embasy Gamelan Ensemble Monday & Thursday evenings

The Embassy of Indonesia offers a free program to learn and perform Javanese Gamelan music with an instructor from Indonesia, Mr. Muryanto. The Gamelan is an orchestra of gongs, gong-chimes, and xylophone-like instruments. Rehearsals are Monday and Thursday evenings. Come one or both days. No experience required. Contact Marc Hoffman, Indonesian-American Association, wildwoodflower@gmail.com or 202-271-2291.

Tuesdays

Capital Accord Chorus • Silver Spring, MD

Tuesdays • 7:30–10 PM

You are cordially invited to the Capital Accord Chorus Spring Concert, Sunday, April 8, 4 pm, at James Hubert Blake High School (see Concerts section). We are an all-women’s a cappella group singing in the barbershop style. If you like what you hear, join us Tuesday evenings for free and open rehearsals. We meet at Northwood High School Chorus Room, 919 University Blvd W, 20901. Info: 1-301-392-SONG (7664), admin@capitalaccord.org, or capitalaccord.org.

Wednesdays

Rock Creek Morris Women • Silver Spring, MD

Wednesdays • 7:30–9:30 PM

Come learn English traditional morris dancing and become part of a community that dances, sings, and socializes together. We love having new dancers join us at practice. At Takoma Park Middle School, 7611 Piney Branch Rd, 20910 (walkable from Takoma Metro; or catch the 14 from Takoma Metro and someone will get you back to a metro afterward). Info: RCMW@uswet.com, or uswet.com/RCMW.html.

Washington Balalaika Society Orchestra

Arlington, VA

Wednesdays • 7:30–9:30 PM

We are seeking people who play (or want to learn) balalaika, domra, or bayan/accordion or who play some orchestral wind and percussion instruments to perform the music of Russia, Ukraine, and Eastern Europe. At Faith Lutheran Church, 3313 Arlington Blvd, 22201. Info: balalaika.org or 703-549-0760. See ad for our spring concert, page 25.

Thursdays

Carpathia Folk Dancers • Washington, DC

Thursdays • 6:30–9 PM

Carpathia is Washington’s multiethnic Eastern and Central European dance performance ensemble. We are currently looking for 3–4 new men and women who are interested in performing dances from a variety of countries including Ukraine, Poland, Romania, Germany, and Bulgaria. We rehearse in Foggy Bottom and have dancers from 16 years old to their mid-40s (we are open to any interested in fast-paced performance dance, age 14 and up). Costumes are provided by the ensemble. Info/directions: carpathiadc@gmail.com, carpathiadc.org, or facebook.com/carpathiadc.

Foggy Bottom Morris Men • Takoma, DC

Thursdays • 8–10 PM

Experience the vigorous thrill of the morris and the camaraderie of a morris team. Learn and perform dances from English Cotswold villages, mummers’ plays, and occasional long sword dances. We welcome new and slightly used dancers to our practices at Knock On Wood Tap Studio, 6925 Willow St NW, 20012, and/or at the pub afterward. Info: Alan Peel, 301-920-1912, squire@fbmm.org, or fbmm.org.

Join the Indonesian Embasy Gamelan Ensemble Monday & Thursday evenings

See listing under Mondays.

Fridays

Glen Echo Open Band • Glen Echo, MD

2nd Fridays, April 13 • 8:30–11:30 PM

The fabulous Glen Echo Open Band plays for the second-Friday contra dance. All instruments and levels of ability welcome. FSGW Open Sing • Takoma Park, MD
Friday, April 6 • 8 PM
Topic: Paying the Tax, Financial or Otherwise.
This includes demanding and exhausting situations as well as money-grubbing authorities. Singers go around the room, giving everyone a chance to sing a song, play a tune, or pass. Most songs presented from memory, but cheat sheets often appear. The open sings have a loose topic. Don’t worry if you can’t think of a song on topic—come join the fun anyway! This month at Kathie Mack’s Craftsman bungalow (very near Takoma metro). RSVP/Directions: 301-270-5367 or kpmack2@gmail.com. NOTE: If you’re willing to host on a future first Friday, please email Vince Wilding, Vince@VinceWilding.com.

FSGW Doo-Wop Sing • Potomac, MD
Saturday, April 7 • 6:30 PM
(Optional Potluck, 5:30 PM)
Remember those classic harmonies from the early days of rock—from groups like the Platters, the Clovers, and the Drifters. Not to mention the great girl groups such as the Shirelles, the Angels, the Crystals, the Dixie Cups, etc. Come join us as we sing those wonderful songs from that era, such as: Under the Boardwalk; Goodnight, Sweetheart; Goin’ to the Chapel; My Boyfriend’s Back; Earth Angel; Charlie Brown; Yakety-Yak; and so many more. Lyrics are provided for anyone who wants them. At the home of Al Kehs and Lynn Blei. RSVP/directions: Ron Davies, 301-270-9365 or ron Davies7@icloud.com.

A LETTER FROM FSGW’S PRESIDENT

Dear Members,

I have spent quite a few hours going through FSGW’s database and have had the pleasure of talking with many of you. Others have received a phone message or email (or both) from me. If you have not yet responded to my voice mail or email, please do so. A few reminders:

Only two membership types will be available: Individual annual and Individual lifetime. For current Family memberships, adults will be migrated as Individuals; data for dependent children will not be migrated. Your current expiration date will be preserved. For current Family Lifetime memberships, two adults will be migrated; each will have a separate Individual Lifetime membership.

If you wish to log in to the members-only area (which will include the directory, and which may allow you to upload a photo), you must have a unique email. Shared emails, which were permitted under the old system, are not permitted under the new system. Many of you have already provided an additional email. If you have not done so, there are numerous free email services.

To cut the substantial costs of mailing paper ballots, this year all members who have an email in the system will receive an electronic ballot. Because each email is unique, and only one vote is permitted from each email, there is no need for special (expensive) paper and the creation of two ballot types (family and individual). Members without an email will receive paper ballots.

Thank you for your patience and cooperation.

Questions? Email me at President@FSGW.org, and I’ll do my best to answer them.

April Blum, President

Support folk music on your local community radio stations!

Saturday nights listen to Mary Cliff’s Traditions (Washington's longest-running radio show devoted to folk music) from 9 pm to midnight on WERA-FM Arlington (96.7 FM or streaming at wera.fm). FSGW congratulates Mary Cliff on her induction into the Folk DJ Hall of Fame at the recent Folk Alliance Conference in Kansas City.

And tune in to WOWD-LP Takoma Park (94.3 FM or streaming at takomaradio.org); many shows of interest to blues, folk, reggae, and other traditional music enthusiasts. Full schedule/show descriptions at takomaradio.org.
The Folklore Society of Greater Washington is a not-for-profit [Section 501(c)(3) of the IRS code] institution, and we encourage the financial contributions of our members. Contributions in excess of annual dues are welcome and may be tax-deductible. Please mail your gift to FSGW, P.O. Box 323, Cabin John, MD 20818. Subscriptions to the Newsletter are available only outside the Greater Washington Metro area.

FSGW is dedicated to preserving and promoting traditional folk arts in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area. Membership is open to all who support these goals upon payment of dues.
