

Dom Flemons and Daryl Davis • Online Sunday, April 18, 2021 • 7 pm • Concert starts at 7:30

Dom Flemons and Daryl Davis are a couple of folks who will entertain you and expand your knowledge of the music of the Black communities of America, while providing insights into how the music not only relates to African-American history and culture, but becomes a tool for bridging the social and racial gaps that ought not to divide us.

Dom Flemons has branded himself with the moniker “The American Songster” since his repertoire of music covers over 100 years of early American popular music. He is a music scholar, historian, and record collector, as well as a multi-instrumentalist who plays banjo, guitar, harmonica, jug, percussion, quills, and rhythm bones. He’s a Grammy award winner, a two-time Emmy nominee, and a 2020 United States Artists Fellow. Dom Flemons is originally from Phoenix, Arizona and lived in the Washington, D.C. area for a while before the pandemic struck, although he now lives in Chicago.

Dom is known for his work researching and bringing to life the historic music of Black Americans beyond the surface that everyone knows, co-founding the Carolina Chocolate Drops, and working with resources ranging from the Archive of Folk Culture at the Library of Congress and the Smithsonian Institution to many treasured repositories and source performers of music and culture across the United States.

Daryl Davis is an international recording artist, actor and leader of The Daryl Davis Band. He is considered to be one of the greatest blues & boogie woogie and rock’n’roll pianists of all time, having played with the Legendary Blues Band (formerly the Muddy Waters band) and Chuck Berry. Originally from Chicago, the “Electric Blues Capital of the World,” he now resides in the Washington, D.C., area.

Beyond his musical and performance skills, Daryl is the kind of person who can make friends with the most unlikely folks—people you’d assume were adversaries. He met members of the Ku Klux Klan, sometimes on their own turf, and forged lasting friendships that transcended race and politics. He recounts these experiences in his acclaimed book, Klan-Destine Relationships and his documentary, Accidental Courtesy. For his pioneering work in race relations, Daryl has received many awards for his bridge-building accomplishments.

The Orpheus Workshop • Online

Monday, April 19 • 7:30 pm

Join us online this year to learn tunes, dances, and cultural expressions from local musicians with the new Orpheus Workshop! This instructional class aims at engaging the audience in their own homes to learn new styles with familiar instruments and explore artistic skills. Instrumental workshops will be primarily focused on violin, guitar, and piano. To check out this month's offerings please visit <https://fsgw.org/orpheus> and register for the Zoom link. Cost to Register: Free! Info: Amanda Muir, secretary@fsgw.org

Recruiting New Board Members!!!

FSGW could not offer the hundreds of concerts, dances, festivals and other events each year without the many Society members who volunteer to make it all happen. The FSGW Board of Directors is recruiting Board members through our annual election process for a one-year term beginning on July 1. The Election Committee is compiling a slate of candidates for the May election for the 2021–2022 term and invites you to nominate candidates. Nominations may also be submitted directly to the Election Committee (prior to April 1) by petition signed by five current FSGW Members. You can contact the Election Committee at elections@fsgw.org.

SINGS

FSGW OPEN SING • ONLINE FRIDAY, APRIL 2 • 7:30 PM

SCHWEINHAUT SONG CIRCLE • ONLINE THIRD WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21 • 1 TO 3 PM

Everyone, regardless of age or talent, is welcome to participate in the Schweinhaut Song Circle. We sing old and new, humorous and serious, timeless and topical songs. As we go around the Zoom room, everyone has a chance to sing, request a song, or just pass. To help us get started, Wendy Lanxner will lead songs with guitar accompaniment. She's happy to accompany any song she knows or can find the chords for. It's helpful if you send your requests in advance using the form in the registration link below. April is Environmental Awareness Month and April 15 usually is Tax Day, so bring or request your favorite songs about taxes and about the environment! After 2 p.m., you're welcome to lead songs, with or without instrumental accompaniment. The Zoom link will be sent Wednesday morning to those who have previously attended the Song Circle using Zoom. If you are new to the Song Circle, please register at <https://forms.gle/jr4sR9tmu6VRMBdN8> by Tuesday, April 20, to receive the Zoom link. For more information about the Song Circle, see fsgw.org/event-4208411; for information about the latest version of Zoom, see support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/sections/201214205-Release-Notes

STORYTELLING

FSGW CO-SPONSORED:

THE GRAPEVINE • ONLINE WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14 • 7:30-9 PM

Join us via Zoom for our featured tellers this month, Noa Baum and Emily Lansana! The Grapevine is spoken word performance for adults and teens, celebrating the timeless art of the story, hosted by storytellers Noa Baum, Renée Brachfeld, and Tim Livengood. Please register at <https://fsgw.org/grapevine> to get the necessary Zoom information.

Emily Hooper Lansana is a cultural worker and performing artist. Her work gives voice to those whose stories are often untold, especially in the African diaspora. She has performed as a storyteller for over 20 years, with audiences throughout Chicago and the country. Emily teaches storytelling in a variety of settings, helping people to connect with their unique stories, passing on tradition to young people as a coach and mentor with Rebirth Poetry Ensemble. More about Emily at <https://taps.uchicago.edu/people/emily-hooper-lansana>

Born and raised in Israel, Noa Baum is an award-winning storyteller and author who uses her art to build bridges of peace and understanding. Her stories highlight our similarities, celebrate our differences, and encourage curiosity, awareness, and acceptance. Her recordings have won the Storytelling World and Parents' Choice Recommended awards. More about Noa at <http://noabaum.com> Please LIKE and FOLLOW us on Facebook, and leave a comment how you feel about the show. It helps us spread the word about storytelling!

FSGW DANCES

FSGW ENGLISH COUNTRY DANCE • ONLINE WEDNESDAYS • 8–10 PM

FSGW English Country Dances are now on Zoom! The dances will be called to recorded music, with the program adapted to one or two dancers. Zoom details and other particulars for the dances will be sent via email. Contact ecd@fsgw.org (and include your first and last name) if you would like to receive the e-blasts about these online dances. ### GREENBELT INTERNATIONAL FOLK DANCE • ONLINE FRIDAYS • 7:30 PM

Friday night Greenbelt International Folk Dancing has gone "virtual." As we all practice good social distancing, many in our folk dance community are feeling the absence of our usually scheduled local dances. In response, please join us for the Greenbelt Virtual Folk Dance Session. Let's keep dancing!

- Connect and dance in our own homes
- Watch hosts leading familiar dances
- See each other; listen and dance to our favorites

How: We will be using the ZOOM video conferencing app to share music and live videos of the leaders and each other. This can be used on a desktop, laptop, or smartphone. What to Expect: Your hosts are Linda Mansdorf, Vita Hollander, Ben Hole, and John Robinson. Collectively they will play 25 to 30 dances, which should approximate the number of dances normally done on a Friday night in-person event. The hosts will do a quick teaching or demonstration of the steps to some of the dances that may be less familiar to you or just as a refresher, but the session is not designed as a workshop, so the majority of the evening will be spent playing dances that many of us already know and love to do.

How To Join Us: Each week we will send an email with the Zoom Meeting link ID. Make sure John Robinson knows you would like to receive this email with the link. John's email address for Info: j\_srobinson@verizon.net.

KARDEMIMMIT: SONGS AND KANTELE FROM FINLAND • ONLINE WEDNESDAY, APRIL 7 • 12 NOON-12:30 PM

Kardemimmit is a quartet consisting of Maija Pokela, Jutta Rahmel, Anna Wegelius, and Leeni Wegelius, four women who sing and play kantele. The kantele is a zither or plucked psaltery which is the national instrument of Finland, and comes in several sizes. Their singing has a strong foundation in Finnish, Eastern European, and Scandinavian traditions. The band has been playing together since 1999, when they came together in the musical institute Juvenalia in their home town of Espoo. Kardemimmit is considered a pioneering kantele band: they have been the Kantele Association's band of the year and won the International Kantele Competition. The group has released five albums, one of which was published by The Rough Guide. Their 2012 album Autio Huvila was chosen as the Finnish folk album of the year. Admission: FREE! Info: Thea Austen taus@loc.gov Watch concert at this link: <https://www.loc.gov/concerts/folklife/kardemimmit.html>

ÁNNAMÁRET: YOIKS AND OTHER SONGS FROM FINNISH SÁPMI • ONLINE

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 7 • 12:30 PM TO 1 PM

Ánnámáret is the performing name of Sámi musician Anna Näkkäläjärvi-Länsman. Ánnámáret performs yoik, a distinctive singing and songwriting tradition of the Sámi people, and also plays clarinet. In recent years, she has explored the yoik tradition of her family by studying archival tapes of family members. Through this work, she has created the multi-form work of art called Nieguid duovdagat (Dreamscapes), in which yoiking, the playing of the bowed lyre called a jouhikko, and modern live electronics are combined with live visuals. Ánnámáret's strength as an artist springs from having grown up between two cultures and, thus, in understanding these cultures and their collisions and similarities. For her Homegrown concert, Ánnámáret will be joined by two members of her Nieguid duovdagat project: Ilkka Heinonen, who specialises in folk music on the jouhikko, G-violone and contrabass; and Turkka Inkilä, who plays flutes and electronic instruments. Admission: FREE! Info: Thea Austen taus@loc.gov Watch concert at this link: <https://www.loc.gov/concerts/folklife/annamaret.html>

The American Folklife Center is co-sponsoring these two concerts with the Embassy of Finland.

VRI: CHAMBER FOLK FROM WALES • ONLINE

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21 • 12 NOON-12:30 PM

Vri is a trio from Wales in the U.K., whose members describe their music as 'chamber-folk'. Bringing together the experience of Jordan Price Williams (cello, voice) Patrick Rimes (violin, viola, foot percussion, voice) and Aneirin Jones (violin, voice), Vri plays tunes and songs from the Celtic nations and beyond, attempting to combine the energy of a rowdy pub session with the style and finesse of the Viennese string quartet. They combine high-energy dance music and stately traditional melodies with delicate arrangements, and sing in both Welsh and English. Vri's intricate and infectious interpretations of Welsh traditional melodies and songs have gained them widespread critical acclaim. Their debut album Ty Ein Tadau (House Of Our Fathers) received Best Album and Best Traditional Welsh Language Track in the Wales Folk Awards and a nomination at the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards for Best Traditional Song, as well as a nomination for the Welsh Music Prize. Admission: FREE! Info: Thea Austen taus@loc.gov Watch concert at this link: <https://www.loc.gov/concerts/folklife/> American Folklife Center's Homegrown at Home Virtual Concert Series

HOW TO SUBMIT A LISTING TO THE FSGW NEWSLETTER

1. Please look at this Newsletter and determine under what category your listing should appear. When submitting copy by email, put that category in the subject line, followed by the month. E.g., Classes [Month], Concert [Month], Dance [Month], and so forth. Putting the category in the subject line makes it easier for the editor to retrieve groups of events.

2. Please submit all listings in FSGW format. All information should be submitted in the following sequence:

Event Title • City, State Abbreviation

Day of the week, Date • start time - end time One or two sentences only. Location (+ zip code for GPS).

Ticket prices.

Info: Contact Name at Phone number (no parentheses in phone numbers) email/website.

NB: The city and state appear in the header; do not repeat them in the body, but in this age of Droids and GPS units, you need to include the 5-digit zip code—it goes right after the street address. Submit entries to newsletter@fsgw.org
