

Folk Music Weekends in the Country

featuring

- Entertainment
(Folk music of course)
- Hoots
- Detensionizing sessions
- Guitar workshops
- Swimming
- Mountain climbing
- Hiking
- Or just get away from it all and relax in the mountains

Spend the weekend in a mountain cabin in one of the most beautiful natural settings within a hundred miles of Washington.

Each weekend a group of not more than twenty people goes to OLD RAGGED MOUNTAIN FARM located in Nichols Hollow between Old Ragged Mountain and Turkey Hole Mountain. The farm is a 600-acre spread that borders on the Shenandoah National Park near Skyline Drive, about an hour and forty-five minutes from D.C.

Food, lodging, and transportation will be provided.

The price for the whole weekend is just fifteen dollars.

Reservations must be made a week in advance.

For more information and reservations call:

Ron Connally
543-2848