

Enclosed are exactly 200 copies of the By-Laws of the Folklore Society of Greater Washington. They are divided by paper dividers into groups of fifty (50). Also enclosed are the stencils from which they were run. The paper is legal size, 8 1/2 inches by 14 inches. The stencils are still in good shape, and if cared for, there is no reason why 1000 more copies couldn't be run, if run properly.

There are a few minor typographical errors that slipped by me, but they are, for the most part, a matter of an upper case letter where a lower case letter should be, or vice versa. The wording of the first copy of the By-Laws has been kept intact, as has the format.

I hope they will prove satisfactory, and useful to the Society.

Thomas C. Nash

March 4th, 1965.