Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Green:

I am writing to thank you very sincerely for performing at the January meeting of the Society. In presenting you to that audience, we were trying to acquaint more people with gospel and blues songs and song styles, and we feel that your songs and your unique style contributed greatly to this goal.

We would like to invite you to come to our future meetings, to be our guest, and we hope you will accept this invitation. And thank you again.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
