

18 THIRD AVE., PORT WASHINGTON,
N.Y. 11050

JAMES KRAUSE

~~4 OAK STREET, SAYVILLE, NEW YORK~~

~~LT 9-2275~~

SEP

1965

DEAR FSGW —

WOULD IT BE POSSIBLE TO RECEIVE A COMPLIMENTARY ISSUE OF PENNY DREADFUL FOR SUBSCRIPTION CONSIDERATION?

I ALREADY SUBSCRIBE TO WASHINGTON FOLK STRINGS $
COMMENT #2 (BACKSIDE)

SINCERELY,

James Krause

4 Glen Terrace
Scotia, New York 12302
June 30, 1965

Penny Dreadful

Rt. 1
Box 15
Oakton, Va. 22124

Dear Sir:

I read about the folk singing magazine Penny Dreadful, published by the Folklore Society of Greater Washington, in the March, 1965, issue of Sing Out! Please send me information about the magazine, as I am interested in subscribing to it. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Susan Karnes

P.S. - Please tell me the extent of folk song topics you cover; i.e., singers, history, styles & types of songs & singers, etc. Thank-you again.

Oct. '65 issue sent

242 West Victoria Avenue
Rialto, California 92376

Folklore Society of Greater Washington
Rt. 1, Box 15
Oakton, Virginia 22124

Gentlemen:

Would you please inform me as to the single copy price of your publication, the Penny Dreadful? I am interested in obtaining a copy. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Bob Morris

Bob Morris

Oct. '65 issue sent.

1423 Greenworth Pl.
Santa Barbara, Calif.

June 10, 1965

SEP 1965

Dear Sirs,

I am interested in your publication Penny Dreadful and would appreciate a sample copy if possible. I have friends in the Washington area (Silver Spring) and plan to visit. My main interest lying in folk music, I would like to see your magazine.

MISS TRINA SIMON

1423 GREENWORTH PLACE

SANTA BARBARA, CALIF.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Trina Simon

2655 Aquicola St.
Halifax City
Nova Scotia
Canada

SEP 1965

Dear Sir;

I would like very much to have a sample copy of your magazine "Country & Roadside"

I presently am doing a research on Folk music and am trying determine which magazine subscriptions would be most helpful. I hope you can help me in this regard.

Yours truly
Lois Hartnett

Penny Breadful inquiries

These all came because ling out mentioned that name which was applied to the March, 1965, issue of the newsletter.