

Report of Special Events Committee

Folklore Society of Greater Washington

The Special Events Committee meeting July 28th, 1965, recommends the Folklore Society of Greater Washington present four concerts as special events during the 1965-66 season. The concert would present 1) local folk talent; 2) bluegrass; 3) the Beers family, and 4) blues and gospel.

- 1) "Home Folk" concert, ^{Friday} ~~Saturday~~, September ²⁴ 25th, at Pierce Hall. Hazel Dickens and Alice Foster, Howie Mitchell (or Chuck and Nan Perdue), John Jackson, and Don Leace (or Charlotte Daniels). General admission $1.50, members $1.00. Total budget $150.
- 2) Bluegrass concert, Saturday, November 27th, at Rockville Civic Center. Kentucky Colonels or Stanleys or Osbornes or Country Gentlemen. Admission as above. Total budget $300.
- 3) The Beers family in January or February (maybe between semesters).
- 4) Blues and gospel concert in April or May (maybe after finals).

Respectfully submitted,
