

Report

Special Events Committee

1. Ren Connally written, told of Board rejection of proposal for 1965 Old Rag Festival.
2. Pete Rowan, Bill Monroe's guitar player, called in Nashville. He said the artist's regular fee was $500 minimum, but that for the Society he would possibly work for less, but under no circumstances less than $300. This pretty well shot chances of an August concert.
3. Civic Center, City of Rockville, booked for 8 p.m., November 27. Fee is $15 per hour (minimum $45), or 15% of gross receipts, whichever is greater. Pierce Hall booked for 8 p.m., September 24. Fee is $35. Closing time is 11 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

George Simpson

4. Spoke with minister at Union Methodist Church about lining the church up for use the last Saturday of every month (December excluded) October thru May, at a fee of $15 per single use (to be increased in much money is made). The minister approved of the idea, but will have to have his decision confirmed by the church governing body.
