Dear Diane,

I thought it would be a good idea to summarize our conversations on how the Folklore Society and Glen Echo Park might work together in producing the summer dance series.

The series has a will continue to be a Glen Echo Park function. The park will be responsible, as the sponsor, for: overall program guidance; provision of an appropriate hall; making the parks sound system available; and maintaining records for year to year continuity.

The Folklore Society will assist in organizing and advising a group of ~~Volunteers~~ These volunteers who will plan and operate the dance. ~~This group~~ will be responsible for booking the series in advance, setting up and taking down the park's sound system, taking admissions, and paying the performers, from them.

I hope this meets your needs.

local school,PTA etc.,

To Promote local country dance and music traditions, and to foster more community involvement in these traditions, the folklore society is offering to co-sponsor a family dance program with community based organizations such as yours.

A family dance, although varying somewhat with the particular staff, includes squares, contras and circle dances. The dances are normally run where all ages dance to progressively more complex material. No particular skills are required to enjoy oneself and "grown up only" dances may be thrown in on occasion. The ages can range from 9 to 90.

Specifically, the folklore society will provide a band and caller to preform in a hall provided by you. Both organizations will contribute to promotion,attendanees~~and~~. Costs will be shared equally and profits will be donated to your organization. ~~As a rule of thumb, A dance can be produced~~ as a rule of thumb, the cost of a dance is in the range of $200.00 (excluding the hall) which is about 33 family's at 6.00 admission. A pot luck dinner or refreshments can be present and can defer costs further, but would be your responsibility.

We are very interseted in your response to this ~~propoosal~~ program and look forward to discussing it with you~~r~~ further.
