UTAH PHILLIPS IN CONCERT DEC. 8

Bruce (U. Utah) Phillips—"The Golden Voice of the Great Southwest"—pays another welcome visit to FSGW on December 8 at Georgetown University's Hall of Nations, 36th and Prospect Streets, N.W. Admission to the 8 pm concert is $4. for FSGW members, $5. for nonmembers, and the audience is promised an evening of good song and outrageous puns. In Utah's words, a Bruce Phillips concert is "a foot--that is to say a singular feat."

It's hard to pin a label on Bruce Phillips. Storyteller? Singer? Songwriter? Labor organizer? None of these labels really encapsulates this performer. In fact, encapsulation of Bruce is like getting the genie back in the bottle. But if words can tell anything about a person, those words -- storyteller, singer, labor organizer, song writer--tell us something of the man. His music tells us more.

Utah's singing voice is remarkably adequate (he says he has two styles, loud and soft) and his guitar-playing manages to uphold his voice without skating too near the edge of virtuosity. His humor is wry and outrageous, and his stories are filled with truth that may or may not have happened.

In Bruce's words, "I sing songs about trains, coal mines, Unions, factories, working people, lazy people, the old and new West, bums, politicians, and different things that happen to you when you're in love....Most of the songs I sing really belong to those people; they just don't know it yet."

DECEMBER PROGRAM NUBIAN LEAGUE

One of the most popular new groups at this past summer's Washington Folk Festival returns when the Nubian League performs its music, song, dance, and storytelling at 8:30 pm, Friday, December 9 at the WES auditorium for the Society's monthly program.

Led by Baba Ayabu Kamau, the Nubian League specializes in the folklore of Africa and Afro-America. Their skillful mix of dance, music, theatre and historical commentary are certain to create a festive mood for the audience, both those familiar with African culture and those new to this richly varied tradition.

Admission is, as usual, free to FSGW members, and $4. to nonmembers.

INSIDE: METRO CAROLING & HOLIDAY PARTY

METRO Caroling, Holiday Party December 17

Saturday, December 17 is the day for our fifth annual "Caroling through the Metro." As always, Cody Pfanstiehl, former public affairs director for Metro, will be our intrepid leader. Coordinators this year are Susan Hills and Sandy Solomon.

We will meet at 1 pm at 13th and G Sts. (Metro Center) and sing outside the station for 30 minutes to allow everyone to assemble. One 75¢ farecard will get us into the system and cover our entire tour, which this year includes:

*Metro Center *Dupont Circle *Gallery Place (change train lines)
*Rosslyn *back to Metro Center

Carol books (to be returned) will be supplied by FSGW. We expect to be done by around 3:30.

Come one, come all, and enjoy wonderful acoustics, harmonies, and general good cheer.

Holiday Party Features Program, Sing

All members and friends of FSGW are invited to join in our festive annual HOLIDAY PARTY on Saturday, December 17 at the WES auditorium. Doors open at 7:30 pm with the serving of wassail. The evening's program starts at 8:30, and will feature special holiday music and tales prepared by your fellow FSGW members--singing groups, storytellers, dancers, and musicians. Please bring some holiday goodies or other finger food to share after the program. Mulled wine, fruit punch, and coffee will be provided. Following the food break will be an open sing upstairs and an open jam downstairs. An admission of $2. for members and $3. for friends will help cover costs. If you have questions, or want to volunteer, call Nan Goland at 332-0232 or Tom McHenry at 533-1397.

Holiday Wreath-Making Workshop

Create your own holiday decoration with Janet Kerig (basket-maker at this year's Getaway) in a workshop at Ursy Potter's home in McLean, VA, at 1 pm, Sunday, Dec. 4. Bring a dish for a potluck supper, and music-making is always welcome. Materials cost $12. Call Carly Gewirz Mackall, (301)474-9180 for workshop information or Ursy, (703)821-1373 for directions.

OPEN SING

Join Us! December 2 at 9 pm. Dick and Diane Thies will lead us in "Songs by women and Songs from the woman's point of view." The Open Sing is held the first Friday of each month at the Washington Ethical Society Auditorium, 7750 16th St., N.W., and is open to all. Admission is $2. and includes light refreshments.

In January, Dick Hamlet's topic is: "United we stand, divided we fall." Songs about unions: Labor organizations, marriages, the North vs. the South, or even set theory or plumber's pipe connections

GOSPEL SING

"God Songs" from bluegrass and Pentacostal to old spirituals, starting at 4 pm on Sunday, December 11 at the home of Russ Scarato in College Park, MD. Potluck supper at 6 pm. For directions and details, call Russ at 345-7978.

SACRED HARP SING

Instead of meeting on the usual fourth Sunday --which in December is Christmas Day -- the Sacred Harp group decided to have the December meeting on the following Sunday, New Year's Day. Don't let that confuse you--come anyway! Singing begins about 4 pm and is followed by a potluck supper around 6 pm. And after supper they sing some more. New members always welcome. The place is the home of Alan and Glenna Centa in Takoma Park. For directions or more information call them at 270-3916.

FSGW SUNDAY NIGHT DANCES

The Sunday Night Dances are being held at the Takoma Park Jr. High School at Piney Branch and Grant St. Dances start at 8 pm, ending at 10:30 pm. Admission for FSGW members is $3. and $3.50 for nonmembers. The schedule for December;

- Dec. 4--An evening of contras with Tuppence Blackwell with the help of Bare Necessities (Mary Lea, Jackie Schwab and Peter Barnes) from Boston.
- Dec. 11--From Bloomington, Indiana, Paul Tyler - "dancing master" and Brad Peftwich and Linda Higginbotham will introduce us to Midwestern square dances along with other familiar and original squares and contras.
- Dec. 18--Bob Dalsemer will help us get into the holiday spirit with special renditions of familiar tunes played by Fiddlestyx and Steve Hickman. Bring holiday goodie and non-alcoholic beverages to share. This dance is FREE to FSGW members, nonmembers $3.50.
- Dec. 25--NO DANCE
- Jan. 1--NO DANCE

PLAYFORD AND APTED DANCES REVISITED

An FSGW-sponsored workshop evening of English Country Dances from the Playford and Apted Collections will be held for experienced dancers on Tuesday, December 13, from 7:30 to 9:30 pm. The workshop will be held in the Parish Hall of Christ Episcopal Church, Georgetown, at 3116 "O" Street, N.W. For further information on this workshop, and the series being planned for the Spring, call Peter Fricke at (202)342-0031 between 5 and 6 pm on weekdays.

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The FSGW Board met on Wednesday, November 2, at the home of Past president, Mary Cliff in Falls Church, Va. Among other actions, the Board:

- Accepted Past-president Mary Cliff's report on her research into FSGW incorporation, and directed her to proceed with the incorporation process in accordance with the provisions of the FSGW Bylaws.
- Approved the establishment of an FSGW Educational Programs Committee, and directed the President to appoint a committee chair as soon as possible.
- Discussed basic needs in a mini-festival site, and authorized Mary Cliff to sign a contract for a site before the December Board meeting.
- Approved the Getaway Committee's recommendation that Camp Letts be reserved for next year's Getaway, and selected the weekend of October 12-14 as the weekend of choice. (The camp has since been reserved for that weekend.)
- Approved the Getaway Committee's recommendation that the day rates for the Getaway be raised to $8. per day for FSGW members and $10. per day for nonmembers.
- Appointed Treasurer Dick Hamlet to pursue the possibility of reciprocity of member admission privileges between FSGW and the Baltimore Folk Music Society.

DECEMBER BOARD MEETING

The December meeting of the FSGW Board will be held on Wednesday, December 7, at the home of President Kathy Hickerson, in Takoma Park. The meeting begins at 8 pm. Any FSGW member is welcome to attend. For more information, directions, call Kathy at 587-1462 (evenings, weekends).

MINI-FESTIVAL SET FOR JANUARY 28

The annual FSGW Mini-Festival is set to take place Saturday, January 28, at Trinity College, Catholic University (Michigan Ave. & N. Capitol St., NE, Washington). The committee planning the mini-festival needs the help of many volunteers to make the event a success. If you're interested in helping out, call the FSGW hotline, 281-2228, and leave your name and number on the tape.

WASHINGTON FOLK FESTIVAL!

The Washington Folk Festival needs you! The Washington Folk Festival is the largest and most ambitious project undertaken by FSGW. Held on the first weekend in June at Glen Echo Park, the Festival is a showplace for over 500 local traditional performers and craftsmen. In order to make the Festival a success we need volunteers with nearly every imaginable talent. In particular, we are looking for someone to serve as an administrative assistant to the Festival committee, people to work on publicity for the Festival, and graphic artists. Everyone who is interested in the Festival is invited to our next planning meeting which will be held in the office at Glen Echo Park on Tuesday, December 13 at 8 pm. We're always looking for the energy and new ideas brought to the Festival by new volunteers, so don't hesitate to come out to the meeting. If you can't attend this meeting, but you're interested in the Festival or have questions about it, call Dean Clamons at (703) 830-3160 or Carly Gewirz Mackall at (301) 474-9180.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!! 1984 20th FSGW GETAWAY

Next year's Getaway (1984's--the 20th!!) has been booked into Camp Letts, Edgewater, Md, for the weekend of October 12-14, 1984. Save those dates!!

GETAWAY HISTORY, OR "FOR YOUR INFORMATION"

Several people have asked, "Why did FSGW leave Prince William Forest Park (the site of the first 17 Getaways)?" The primary reason was the unavailability of sufficient space. In 1981, 220 people tried to register for the Getaway, and in 1982, 230 registered. Our old camp ("Pleasant") holds only 180, and is now undergoing renovations --not due to finish till 1990 -- reducing this to 150. The only other large camp in Prince William sleeps 220, but feeds only 140, and has insufficient workshop space. No camp at Prince William Park being adequate, the 1982 Getaway Committee instituted a search, using the American Camping Association list of nearby camps, and settled on Camp Letts, near Annapolis, as the best available camp for our needs.

We have tried to make the Getaway available to as many as want to attend while keeping the friendly atmosphere we all remember from past years. Anyone with comments or suggestions should feel free to contact the committee via the FSGW hotline, 281-2228.

GETAWAY LOST & FOUND

One Muppet Show Mug
One blue and white girl's jacket
One beige knee-high sock
one navy blue towel
one blue sock
one white and blue sock.

NEWSLETTER DEADLINE

The deadline for the January 1984 Newsletter is Thursday, December 15. Copy must be received NO LATER THAN THAT DATE. The turnaround time, because of Christmas holidays is very tight, and I will not accept any copy after December 15. Please send copy to: Jennifer Woods, 2021 N. Kenmore St., Arlington, VA 22207. Do NOT send copy to the FSGW P.O. Box, as it will either be delayed, or not received at all.

IN MEMORIAM -- SARAH OGAN GUNNING

Southern labor organizer, singer and songwriter Sarah Ogan Gunning died October 13. One of 11 children (including Aunt Molly Jackson and Jim Garland), Sarah was active in Southern Appalachian labor struggles in the 1930's, and wrote many organizing songs based on Southern folk songs.
