Bill Ochs Jan. 10 Program

The Irish uilleann pipes or union pipes are one of the world's rarest and most beautiful wind instruments. Part of the bagpipe family, the uilleann pipes have a soft voice suited to a variety of styles. Bill Ochs is one of a small group of virtuoso pipers performing today and has performed throughout the U.S. and Ireland. Bill has also done extensive research on the history and lore of the pipes in Ireland and under a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts. He has written, arranged, and performed for Broadway and public television. Bill will bring his pipes to the FSGW monthly program on Jan. 10 at 8:30 p.m. at the WES Auditorium 7750 16th St. N.W. Don't miss this program of music, songs, stories, and piping lore. This is an opportunity to hear a lovely and complex instrument played by an expert. Admission is free to FSGW members, and $4.00 to non-members.

KanKouran Special Event Jan. 18

Among the Mandingo of Senegal, West Africa, during a young man's initiation rite, a spirit called "KanKouran" emerges to teach the way of life. The spirit embodied in the KanKouran West African Dance Co. visits FSGW for a Special Event on the stage of Hoover Auditorium, Saturday, Jan. 18 at 8:30 p.m.

KanKouran is a non-profit organization in D.C. with the purpose of providing the community with historical presentations of traditional dance, music, storytelling and musical instruments. The company features dancers from Africa, the Caribbean, and the U.S., and is remembered for its incredible set at 1985's Washington Folk Festival.

The Hoover Auditorium is on the first floor of the main Dept. of Commerce building on 14th St. between Pennsylvania and Constitution Aves. N.W. (entrance on 14th St.) Admission is $6.00 for FSGW members and $8.00 for non-members.

FSGW House Concert News

There will be two house concerts this month! The first will be Lucy Simpson, a wonderful singer from New York. Many of you might know of her from her singing on the Sharon Mountain Harmony gospel album, with D.C.'s own Rock Creek. The concert will take place at Helen Schneyer's house in Kensington at 8:00 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 11. Admission is $4.00. For directions call Helen at 949-4552.

On Friday, Jan. 31, Boston guitar-picker Larry Unger will perform at the home of Mike Rivers in Falls Church. Larry plays blues and rags and assorted other treasures, and is not to be missed. This concert is at 8:30 p.m., and admission is $4.00. Call Mike for directions at 241-7445.

More FSGW News

OPEN SING

Tom McHenry knows that everyone will be too busy during the Holidays to learn new songs for the Jan. Open Sing, so he says he wants to hear all the old, mossy, done-to-death songs in "Oh, No! NOT AGAIN!" on Friday, Jan. 3 at the WES auditorium, 7750 16th St. N.W. The singing starts at 8:30 p.m., and the $2.00 admission fee includes light refreshments.

Feb.'s Open Sing will be led by Tim Slattery on the topic of "Western Songs, Songs of the West." Be prepared, pardner.

GOSPEL SING

The Gospel Sing for Jan. will be on Jan. 12 at the home of Peggy and Hunter Jones in Potomac, MD. Come at 4:00 p.m. with a covered dish contribution for dinner. Call 762-6343 for directions. Volunteers are needed to host the Sing in future months.

STORYTELLERS

Storytelling and goody swap will be on Saturday, Jan. 18 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Cay Wiant in Falls Church. Please don't wait until the 18th to call 533-3831 for directions.

Correction!!!

The Washington Folk Festival is May 31 and June 1 this year. Due to a misunderstanding with Glen Echo Park, the WFF was mistakenly announced as being held on June 7 & 8 in last month's Newsletter. Please correct your calendars. The first planning meeting is still Jan. 14 at 8:00 p.m. in the Glen Echo Park Office. See you there.

SACRED HARP SING

One way to beat the winter "blahs" is to come to the Sacred Harp Sing, on Sunday, Jan. 26, at the home of Dottie Hurley in Aspen Hill, MD. Call 871-7652 for directions, and please bring something for the pot-luck dinner.

ENGLISH DANCE WORKSHOPS

The Spring Series of English Dance Workshops will be held on the third Tuesday of each month through June. The first workshop will be on Tuesday, Jan. 21 at 7:30 p.m. at the Christ Church Parish Hall, 3116 O St. N.W. in Georgetown. Series subscriptions are $18.00, admission to individual workshops is $3.50 for FSGW members and $5.00 for non-members. Musicians interested in playing for Playford and 18th Century dances should contact Elizabeth Donaldson at 986-1291. For other information call Peter Fricke at 565-9530.

BOARD MEETING

The next FSGW Board meeting will be on Wednesday, Jan. 8 at 8:00 p.m. at the home of Past President Kathy Hickerson in Takoma Park. For directions call Kathy at 270-1107

EDITORIAL NOTE

Every effort is made to include all notices submitted by the deadline to the FSGW Newsletter. However, in some instances it is impossible to print an announcement in full due to space considerations. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news, with last priority given to out-of-town non-FSGW news.

14th Annual Mini-Festival

Once again, as the dead of winter makes the months following the holidays dreary, the Folklore Society's annual Mini-Festival arrives to brighten the scene. This year's event, on Saturday, January 25th, at Takoma Park Jr. High, 7611 Piney Branch Rd., features a full afternoon of workshops and mini-concerts, dance events, crafts and food starting at 12 noon, and an evening devoted to dance (with the fine New England band Swallowtail; photo at right), and a sampler concert (with Helen Schneyer, Dave Olive, Bruce Hutton & Craig Johnson, and Anne Sheldon).

The afternoon starts with the Rock Creek Morris Women driving Evil Winter away. Other events included workshops and Mini-Concerts with Ed Trickett, Bob Hitchcock, Eric & Linda

Rice-Johnson, Reuben Musgrave, Sweet Accord, Rock Creek, Joe Glazer, Mary Cliff, Karen Ashbrook, Craig Johnson, Joe Hickerson, Wendy Morrison, Janice Cole, Tom McHenry, K.C. King, Helen Schneyer, Chris Romaine, Bob Clayton and Kathy Westra Hickerson, to name a few.

The dance workshop leaders include members of Swallowtail, the special guests for the evening dance, as well as the best local dance callers and teachers.

Admission to either the day or evening sessions is $5. (FSGW members) or $7. (non-members), or a combined all-day ticket can be purchased for $8. (FSGW) or $10. (non-members). Children 14 and under are half-price, (2 & under free) and senior citizens a dollar less then the regular prices.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED! We need help, especially with food preparation (before noon) and serving (12-6). Call Bob or Jennifer at 528-8537.

BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The Board met on Dec. 4. Last year's Nominating Committee recommended developing strategies to address the shortage of visible well-qualified people for Board positions, including expanding the informal use of committees to support many Board functions. The Board decided to appeal to FSGW members now for suggestions about who might serve on the Nominating Committee, and who might run for the Board this Spring. Please call Dwain Winters with ideas at (202) 382-7407.

Other Board decisions include inaugurating a senior citizen discount for all concert and dance events excepting house concerts, and the FSGW will no longer share its mailing list under any circumstances with any other groups.
