Andy Stewart and Manus Lunny Friday, July 15

Scottish singer/songwriter Andy Stewart and singer/instrumentalist Manus Lunny will make their FSGW debut in a special concert Friday, July 15, at Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church, located at 6601 Bradley Blvd., Bethesda. The concert begins at 8:30 p.m. Plenty of free parking is available. Admission is $6. for FSGW members and $8. for nonmembers, with a $1. discount for senior citizens. Tickets will be sold ONLY at the door; doors will open at 7:45 p.m.

Andy Stewart needs little introduction to American audiences, having toured here since 1979 with the famed Scottish band Silly Wizard, and since 1984 with Manus Lunny. He has gained recognition for his beautiful interpretations of the traditional songs of Scotland and Ireland, as well as for his fine songwriting in the traditional style. His solo album, By the Hush, was named Folk Album of the Year by Melody Maker.

Manus Lunny, born into a Gaelic-speaking family in Kildare, uses his fluency in the language not only to sing the traditional Gaelic songs, but also to compose songs of his own. He accompanies Stewart on guitar and bouzouki.

12TH WFF JUNE 4 & 5

The 12th Annual Washington Folk Festival is here! On June 4 and 5 at Glen Echo Park. The Festival presents 500 performers and craftspeople, all Washington area residents. From noon to 10 pm Saturday, and noon to 6 pm Sunday, music and dance performances on five stages, plus children's and storytelling stages, crafts demonstrations, dance workshops and a square and contra dance from 8:30 to 11 pm Saturday in the Ballroom.

The Festival is free, and goes on rain or shine. Parking in the Park lots is limited -- carpool or use public transportation if you can. (The Park is on MacArthur Blvd. at Goldsboro Rd. -- a short ride on the N8 bus from the Friendship Heights Metro station.) Food is available (hot dogs, hamburgers, etc) -- or bring a picnic to eat on the grass. There is a full schedule on page two of this Newsletter.

Shantey Singer Stan Hugill

June 18

British sea shantey singer Stan Hugill will return to Washington for a special FSGW concert on Saturday, June 18. The concert begins at 8:30 p.m. at the WES auditorium, 7750 16th Street, NW (just south of the D.C./Silver Spring line at Kalmia Rd.) Admission is $5. for FSGW members and $7. for nonmembers, with a $1. discount for senior citizens. Tickets will be sold ONLY at the door; doors open at approximately 7:45 p.m.

Hugill, now in his 70s, is a legend among sea-song singers and collectors. He has served aboard sailing vessels and collected much of his material from sailors he met in his travels. He is the author of Shanties of the Seven Seas and other books of sea songs and lore, and has recorded some of that material on two LPs. He'll be doing only three concerts on his current U.S. visit, one of them in Washington. Don't miss it!

Songwriter Bob Franke June 24

Now that he has recovered from the broken arm that postponed his winter concert for FSGW, songwriter, singer and guitarist Bob Franke is ready to return to Washington for a rescheduled FSGW debut concert on Friday, June 24. The concert begins at 8:30 p.m. at the WES auditorium, 7750 16th St., NW (at Kalmia Rd., just south of the D.C./Silver Spring line). Admission is $5. for FSGW members and $7. for nonmembers, with a $1. discount for senior citizens. Tickets will be sold ONLY at the door; doors open at approximately 7:45 p.m.

Singers like Helen Schneyer, Magpie, Sally Rogers and Claudia Schmidt have introduced folk music audiences to many of Bob's fine songs -- songs like "Beggars to God," "Thanksgiving Eve," "The Great Storm is Over," "A Still Small Voice," "For Real," and "He Turned the Water into Wine." Bob will bring these and other originals, plus a variety of traditional material to Washington for his first-ever FSGW concert. Don't miss it!

"Labor's Troubador" Joe Glazer June 10 Program

Joe Glazer, ("Labor's Troubador") will be featured in the the final program of this season, at 8:30 pm on Friday, June 10 at the WES Auditorium, 7750 16th St., N.W., D.C. Admission free to members, $4. for nonmembers.

A long-time Washington-area resident, Joe sings songs of labor, protest, politics and civil rights. For more than 40 years he has performed all over the U.S. and in 60 countries. His 20-some recordings can now be mostly found on his own Collector Records label, a company that specializes in political and labor song collections. He has performed numerous topical programs for the Smithsonian, performed at the Carter White House, and led the singing on "Solidarity Day" in 1981 before some 400,000 attendees. His most recent recording is "Old Folks Ain't All the Same," songs against ageism and stereotyping. He promises an election year program of songs old and new, many of his own composition. Come join in the singing!

Sunday Night Dances

FSGW Sunday night dances are geared toward the intermediate to advanced dancer -- meaning little teaching, short walk-throughs, and lots of music and dancing. In the summer, dances are held at the Spanish Ballroom at Glen Echo Park, just off MacArthur Blvd. in Glen Echo, MD. Dances start at 8 pm and go until 11 pm. Admission is $3.50 for FSGW members and $5. for nonmembers.

The schedule for June and July:

- June 5: NO DANCE! Because of the 12th Annual Washington Folk Festival. Dance Saturday Night at the Festival -- see the article on the front page.
- June 12: LOU SHAPIRO with the NEW FINDHORN CEILIDH BAND. Lou will call a mixture of contras and squares with Steve Hickman and Malcolm Stephens on fiddle, Marty Taylor on flute and concertina, Liz Donaldson on piano, Jim McConnell on guitar and Matt Kuldell on drums.
- June 19: KATHY ANDERSON and STEWED MULLIGAN. Kathy Anderson brings us lots of lively squares and contras from Ohio to driving old-timey music with flavor from West Virginia. Stewed Mulligan is Joe Wack (banjo, fiddle, guitar, recorder), Keith McManus (fiddle, banjo, mandolin, guitar), John Obremski (guitar), Pat McIntire (autoharp, harmonica, pennywhistles), and Stumper (bass).
- June 26: TOM HINDS with BEYOND THE BELTWAY. Tom plans to do more New England contras this time along with some squares. Beyond the Beltway is Al Taylor on fiddle, Marty Taylor on flute and concertina, Liz Donaldson on piano and Larry Brandt on guitar and mandolin.
- July 2: CONNIE WARING with TRIPLE DELIGHT. Light up your holiday weekend with Connie's smooth Philadelphia style and mostly contras. Triple Delight is composed of Ellen Jacobs on fiddle, Charlie Pilzer on piano and bass, and Dan Blum on mandolin and tenor banjo with special guest Dan Beerbohm of Hold the Mustard on clarinet.

- July 10: CLAUDIO BUCHWALD and SODABREAD. Claudio will call an eclectic collection of contras and squares to music by Dennis and Angela Botzer (fiddles), Marc Glickman (piano), Ken Wright (banjo) and Myron Bretholz (bodhran).
- July 17: BOB DALSEMER and THE BLARNEY STONES. (tentative). Bob brings us a fine combination of squares and contras to music by Steve Hickman (fiddle), Dennis Botzer (piano), John O'Loughlin (pennywhistle, guitar and trombone), Richie Schuman (guitar, mandolin and tenor banjo), and Bruce Hickman (drums).
- July 24: WALTER LENK with MARY LEA, JACK O'CONNOR, and DEBBIE KNIGHT. From Boston, a wonderful evening of contras and squares called by Walter Lenk to the glorious music of Mary Lea on fiddle, Jack O'Connor on mandolin, and Debbie Knight on piano.
- July 31: TUPPENCE BLACKWELL with THE CONTRA DOCTORS. A selection of Tuppence-tested dances, both contras and squares, to the healthy tunes of Dennis Botzer on fiddle and pennywhistle; John O'Loughlin on pennywhistle, guitar and trombone; Marc Glickman on piano; and Dan Blum on tenor banjo, five-string banjo, guitar, and mandolin.

For more information or directions call Bill at (301)-946-2161.

The site for the July meeting will be determined at the June Meeting. The July meeting will be held on Wednesday, July 6 at 8 pm. Board meetings are held the first Wednesday of each month, except for the June meeting, which is usually a week later due to the Washington Folk Festival.

APRIL AND MAY BOARD REPORT

At its April and May meetings, the FSGW Board discussed and took action on the following topics:

- Approved FSGW co-sponsorship of a regional CDSS Dance and Music Leaders' Conference, and to act as host organization for the Mid-Atlantic region.
- Decided to continue to support the Open Sing at WES, and to review attendance, finances and alternatives in six months.
- Discussed raising membership dues to cover increased costs of programming, publicity, postage, etc.. Discussion will continue at the end of the fiscal year when final budget figures are known.
- Voted to sponsor a Special Dance Event featuring an advanced Cajun Dance Workshop and Dance with Millie Ortega and the Dewey Balfa Band on August 14.
- Discussed the need to control use of the FSGW Sound Systems more closely, and clarify requirements and responsibilities for loans.

FSGW HOSTING PARTICIPANT HOSPITALITY FOR FOLKLIFE FESTIVAL -- VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

FSGW is again hosting Participant hospitality for evenings at the hotel during the Smithsonian Folklife Festival on the Mall, from June 21 to July 4. Four to six people each evening are needed to set-up, run and clean up a lounge-type area where participants and staff can relax, socialize and make music. We try to make performers feel at home here in Washington, and appreciated for their talents. We are very much appreciated by our visitors. To volunteer for one evening or several, or if you have questions about what's needed, call Mary Cliff at (703)534-7581.

DEADLINE FOR AUGUST NEWSLETTER

All copy for the August issue of this Newsletter is due, on Friday, July 15th. All copy is due at the home of NEW editor Lennice Zickefoose, NO LATER THAN MIDNIGHT, Friday, July 15th. No copy will be accepted over the telephone. AND hand delivered copy is a problem!

All contributors with standing notices (articles that run every issue, and don't change) MUST resubmit in August.

Also, it makes copy less likely to be lost if you send it on standard 8 1/2 x 11 paper. Copy has literally gone through the cracks because it was on such small sheets of paper or post cards. Please include a phone number where you can be reached in case the editor has any questions concerning your copy.

Send all copy for August to:

Lennice Zickefoose, FSGW Newsletter
111 Lee St. Apt. 304
Takoma Park, MD 20912

For those who have questions call (301)270-6848, or leave a message, 9-5 with Lennice's answering service (202)828-0728. Hand delivered copy is a problem, (there's no place to leave it.) so please mail your copy.

REMINDER: AUGUST A NEW EDITOR!

With the August issue there is a NEW Newsletter editor. That means a new address to send copy to, AND that any notice that is a standing notice, (i.e., running every month, unchanged.) needs to be resubmitted for the August Newsletter. See deadline article for the address and phone number of the new editor.

FAREWELL FROM OUTGOING NEWSLETTER EDITOR

After doing this Newsletter for four of the past five years, I am now bidding farewell to you all. FSGW bylaws forbid anyone from holding the same position on the Board for more than two years in a row, thank god, so I am now retiring from the Board for a well needed rest. I have enjoyed doing the Newsletter, and shall miss it in some ways, but in others I am very glad to see the end of my terms (44 issues!). I wish to thank all those who have been so good about meeting the deadlines, and also to thank those who have helped me every month. The Newsletter would never even get to the printer without the assistance of my husband, Bob Clayton, nor the proofing of George Stephens, or Mary LaMarca's wonderfully legible tiny handwriting on the Calendars. The mailings would never happen if it weren't for Don and Dolores Nichols, George Stephens, Mary LaMarca, Kathy Westra Hickerson, Bob Clayton and Jane Amidon Woods, plus the help of Dean Clamons, Carly Gewirz, Lennice Zickefoose, Mary Cliff, Dan Burgess, and numerous others that I can't remember right now.

I also want to prasiie the work of GW Press, who have printed the Newsletter for the past two years, meeting deadlines, and putting up with all the insertions (of ballots and flyers and such). They have been a pleasure to work with.

THANK-YOU'S FROM SPECIAL EVENTS CHAIR

Many volunteers have helped over the past two years to do all the things it takes to put on an FSGW Special Event: hauling and setting up the sound system, housing performers, selling tickets and records, and much more. There's not enough space to list you all here, but I'm grateful for all your help.

Special thanks to the core Special Events crew who helped out again and again! Without Bill Day, George Stephens, Jennifer Woods, Bob Clayton, Pete Reiniger, Mike Rivers, Don and Dolores Nichols, Mary LaMarca, Mary Cliff, Kathy Smith, and Joel Blues-tein, it wouldn't have worked.

COMING UP IN THE FALL!

The outgoing special events chair, Kathy Westra Hickerson has booked some last events for us, not wanting us to miss wonderful performers who were already setting up their tours for the fall:

Saturday, Aug. 13, FSGW Annual Picnic, site TBA.

Saturday, Sept. 10, Lorraine Lee and Bennett
Hammond, House Concert, location TBA

Saturday, September 17, Shay's Rebellion, from Seattle, Washington, WES

Saturday, September 24, Our own Helen Schneyer, Bradley Hills

And finally,

Saturday, October 22, Martyn Wyndham-Read, English singer of Australian songs and more. WES.
