In the summer of 1989, Eleanor, an FSGW member, received a grant from NEA to produce a documentary of a "country folk" blues jam and houseparty held at the home of John, Cora and James Jackson in Fairfax Station VA. The houseparty once served as the social and cultural hub of rural communities. Blues Houseparty features music, dance and memories of a group of musicians invited to the Jacksons, including John Jackson, Archie Edwards, John Cephas, Phil Wiggins, Flora Molton, John Dee Holeman and others.

Parties at the Jacksons' always feature fine music and attract local musicians. The Piedmont blues they play is a rhythmical finger-picking style from the foothills of the Appalachians, and the artists in the documentary are recognized as masters of this style. Three of the featured artists (John Cephas, John Jackson, and John Dee Holeman) are recipients of National Heritage Award Fellowships. The liveliness of the conversational exchanges among the artists, along with the quality of the music and dance, are the heart of the video, which Eleanor will introduce.

John Jackson learned to play Piedmont blues at country parties. Today he is a brilliant guitarist and a songster in the very best sense of the term, as likely to play a ballad, boogie, ragtime or breakdown piece as he is to play a blues tune. A native of Rappahannock County, Virginia, he is known to audiences in Europe, Asia, South America and throughout the United States as a commanding storyteller and charismatic stage presence.

Archie Edwards recalls that he used to "drink whiskey and play all night long" at houseparties with the late bluesman Mississippi John Hurt. Edwards' musical roots go back to old-time country blues played by family and friends in Franklin County, Virginia. His mastery of many styles has evolved into an authentic personal sound characterized by a versatile mixture of finger-picking and slide guitar.

Join us March 8 at WES Auditorium for a multi-media program long anticipated by our members!

MARCH PROGRAM

Friday, March 8, 8:30pm

This month's FSGW program is Friday, March 8, 8:30pm, at the Washington Ethical Society Auditorium, 7750 16th Street NW, Washington DC. As always, the monthly programs are FREE to members, including those joining at this event; $6 others.

Featured will be a showing of the Piedmont blues video documentary, Blues Houseparty, followed by a performance by John Jackson and Archie Edwards, two of the artists appearing in the video. FSGW assisted Eleanor Ellis, the video's producer/editor, with the administration of her grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.

☛ COTILLION DANCERS PLEASE NOTE!!! ☚

The location of the March 2 Spring Cotillion has changed to River Road Unitarian Church--see Page 2.

F S G W S u n d a y N i g h t D a n c e s at Takoma Park Intermediate School, 7-10pm, March 3, 10, & 17 AND at Glen Echo Park, 7:30pm, March 24 & 31

The FSGW Sunday night contra & square dance is held weekly. March dances will be at Takoma Park Intermediate School, 7611 Piney Branch Road, Takoma Park MD, through the 17th, and then at Glen Echo Park's Spanish Ballroom, off MacArthur Blvd, Glen Echo MD. Designed for intermediate to advanced dancers (i.e. little teaching, short walk-throughs, lots of music & dancing), dances start at 7pm & end at 10pm promptly (TPIS). Glen Echo dances start at 7:30pm. Admission: $4, FSGW, BFMS, ATDS, CDSS, and Senior Citizens; $6 non-members.

March 3: Beverly Smith and the Dukes of Earl. Beverly and the Dukes team up for their second appearance at the Sunday night dance. This evening's dance will be a mix of contras and squares to the driving southern-style music of Earl White on fiddle, Vicki Ornstein on banjo, Gary Wright on guitar and Ginny Snowe on bass.

March 10: OFFICIAL MEETING OF THE SOCIETY FOR THE PURPOSE OF NOMINATIONS TO THE BOARD: Bring membership cards, as the dance is FREE to FSGW members as per our bylaws! Bob Dalsemer with Pete Sutherland and Karen Billings. Baltimore's Bob Dalsemer will call an evening of mixed contras and squares to the varied, hot-tempo music of Pete Sutherland on fiddle and Karen Billings on guitar. This evening is a rare opportunity to hear two of traditional music's concert performers play a dance. Pete and Karen, of Bloomington, IN, are as comfortable with old time Appalachian music as they are with New England style and will probably throw in some of their own tunes. Enough said - don't miss it.

March 17: O'pen calling with The O'Conradactors. It's St. Patrick's Day, so the O'Conradactors will play at least a few Irish tunes and who knows what else to your calling. Tom Hinds is organizing the evening's program. If you would like to call please phone Tom at 301-588-4745 with an idea of the type of dance you'd like to call. The music for the evening will be played by Dennis Botzer on fiddle, Marc Glickman on piano, Dan Blum on guitar and John O'Loughlin on trombone and whistle.

March 24: Tuppence Blackwell with Ellen Jacobs, Larry & Susan Brandt and Marc Glickman. Tuppence will call an evening of Tuppence-tested dances to this combination of Washington all-star musicians. Ellen will be playing fiddle, Susan is on flute, Larry will play guitar and Marc will be hammering out the rhythm on piano. First dance back at Glen Echo Park and the dance will start at 7:30 pm.

March 31: Kate Charles with Cathy Fink, Marcy Marxer, Chris Romaine and Joe Fallon. Kate will call an evening of mixed contras and squares to the swinging music of Cathy and Marcy, Chris and Joe. Often heard in concert and on radio, two well-known recording artists will display their virtuosity in another medium. Cathy Fink plays guitar, Marcy Marxer plays banjo and mandolin, Chris Romaine is on fiddle and Joe Fallon on bass. Remember, this dance is at Glen Echo 7:30pm.

Saul Broudy

House Concert

Saturday, March 16, 8pm

Saul Broudy is a masterful harmonica player and a superb singer of country songs. He's been traveling the folk circuit for nearly 20 years, tastefully dressing up the sounds of other performers' music with some of the most versatile harmonica styles around. From old Jimmie Rogers tunes to Hank Williams classics to contemporary honky tonk, Saul has a repertoire of hundreds of country songs. His acoustic guitar, voice and harmonica are all it takes to fill a night with great music as he weaves in and out of songs about railroads, hoboes and lost loves.

Saul, a Philadelphia native, has a Ph.D in folklore, but he doesn't let that get in the way of his music. He's appeared at the Philadelphia Folk Festival, Winnipeg Folk Festival, the Smithsonian Institution's Old Songs Festival, and many clubs and colleges across the country.

Come hear him Saturday, March 16 at 8pm in McLean, VA, at the home of Ursy Potter and Carter Hearn. Members $5, non-members $6. Call 703-821-1373 for directions.

MINI*FEST FUN AND PROFITABLE

This year's Mini*Fest, like so many before it, was a big success. The day was filled with lots of music, dance and stories, and all who wanted to participate had a chance. Attendance was up from last year and the festival raised over $4,000, which will be used to support the June Washington Folk Festival and other FSGW activities.

As co-chairs, we would like to thank the many people who contributed their time and energy to make the Mini*Fest possible. All of the performers volunteered their talents, and it is due to their generosity that the Mini*Fest goes on year after year.

Many folks, including some of the performers, were active backstage in helping organize and run the festival. Our thanks to the many members of the program committee: Dottie Hurley, Bob Clayton, Jennifer Woods, and Terry Mulligan. Six program committee members took on special duties and organized special theme areas: Dave Shombert, old time music; Charlie Baum, world music; Bill Mayhew, storytelling; Mary Cliff, family room; and Jamie Platt and Robin Youngelman, dancing. Artists need technical support, and thanks go to Dan Fox for organizing the sound crews, Gary Hutzler for coordinating volunteers, Phil Hayden for publicity, and Jennifer Woods for designing the program.

Many of you volunteered to work at the festival. We only have room to name the volunteer team captains--Zollie Perry, Kathie Mack, Holly Wagner, Dan Burgess and David and Eileen Alexander--but our thanks go to all of you.

MINI*FEST LOST & FOUND

Finally, no Mini*Fest report would be complete without the list of lost items found: a red 3-ring binder full of Balkan or Slavic music, nalgene bottles, a thermos carafe, non-prescription eyeglasses, a music stand, and a fine assortment of jewelry and clothing--everything a scarecrow needs except underwear. (Do scarecrows wear underwear?) Call Annie Storr or Joel Greer at 301-589-6058 before we plant our garden.

SILENT AUCTION TO BENEFIT WFF!

DONATIONS OF GOODS OR SERVICES NEEDED

Would you like to help support the Washington Folk Festival? Do you bake cakes, crochet baby blankets, throw pots or handcraft wooden boxes? Can you teach a lesson on a skill or craft like canoeing or bread-baking? Can you offer an evening of ethnic cooking, musical entertainment or storytelling, or provide a service like massage, counseling or even window-washing? Do you have a getaway home that's free for a weekend? Do you grow something special, like herbs, fresh veggies or mushrooms?

Here's your chance to help raise money for the June WFF by offering your specialty as an item in our Second Annual Silent Auction! We need folks willing to donate items, services, lessons, performances, or anything else that might be auctioned. Please call Beulah "Bubbles" Blinder at 301-229-3759 if you'd like to make a donation, or to get more information.

FALLON FAMILY BENEFIT

On April 14, there will be a concert at Takoma Park Intermediate School AND a dance at Glen Echo Park to benefit the Fallon Family. Save the date, and watch next month's Newsletter for further details!

FESTIVAL VOLUNTEERS I: THE OPERATIONS CREW

For 15 years, the FSGW and Glen Echo National Park have cooperated to put on the Washington Folk Festival. The Park is a wonderful place for a festival; it has outdoor sites for large crowds, indoor stages for a more intimate setting, a ballroom for dancing and lots of spaces for family picnics, friendly jamming and just enjoying the day and the music. But before the show can go on, this June 1-2, all those spaces have to be made ready for the performers and the audience!

On most spring weekends, rain or shine, the Operations staff and volunteers get together to prepare Glen Echo Park for the music and fun. They take equipment out of storage, build platforms, tables, and booths, paint signs, run fences, clean tents, do landscaping, run power cables and phone connections, repair broken pargos, set up stages, eat pizza and chocolate cookies and have fun while working outdoors. In recent years, the Park staff and volunteers from the WFF, Irish Festival and other groups have worked together to help repair and revitalize the Cuddle-Up and Bumper Car Pavilions. At the end of May, a grand tent-raising is held, as the big tops go up over the Crystal Pool and Yurt Village stages.

If you like working outdoors, if you're good with your hands, if you enjoy carpentry, painting, construction, tinkering with engines, welding, wiring, ditch-digging, lettering signs, pigeon-proofing or have ever had a secret yen to raise the Big Top at the circus, volunteer an afternoon with Operations! We need people most Saturdays in April and May, and every evening from May 27-31. If you'd like to volunteer (even a couple of hours will help) or want more info about Operations, call Kathy Smith (301-530-7862); or just come down to the Park any Saturday in spring. Wear comfortable, grubby clothes and sturdy shoes, and prepare to meet and work with a great bunch of folks!

FSGW Editorial Policy

We try to print all copy that is relevant to FSGW's purpose and membership. (Quote from the FSGW Bylaws: "The main purpose of the Society is to further the understanding, investigation, appreciation, and performance of the traditional folk music and folklore of the American people.") However, in most instances, it is simply impossible to print copy in full. When space is tight, FSGW news receives top priority, followed by local non-FSGW news, followed by listings of out-of-town, non-FSGW events. In addition, we print a calendar each month unless it pushes the entire issue into a more expensive category for either postage or printing.

In Memoriam GUS MEADE

Long time FSGW member and fiddler Gus Meade died of a stroke at his home in Frankfort, Kentucky on Saturday, February 9.

Gus moved to the Washington area in the earliest days of the FSGW and brought along his fiddle, some wonderful songs, and an intense interest in old time music. Throughout the mid 1960s and for the next 15 years, Gus' fiddling was heard in many of the bands that brought live music back to square dancing in the area. Gus was also a music historian and collector, and, from his personal collection and family and field recordings, brought the music of some wonderful old-time fiddlers to the public in a series of phonograph recordings.

We'll miss his music, knowledge, guidance, and friendship. Friends wishing to contact Gus' family may write to: Mary Meade, 334-A St. Clair Mall, Frankfort, KY 40601

FSGW Board Meeting Wednesday, March 6, 8pm

The next meeting of the Board is Wed., Mar. 6, 8pm. at WETA-FM in Arlington, VA. Any FSGW member may attend; call Mary Cliff for directions, 703-534-7589. If you have items for the Board to consider, call Pres. Joel Bluestein, 202-544-7512 or Sec. Kyle Terrell, 301-986-4133.

On Feb. 6 the Board met at the home of Program Chair Charlie Pilzer. Topics discussed and action taken will be described in next month's Newsletter.

Last Chance for Dance

Going once, going twice, gone! There may still be a few places left for the Ninth Chesapeake Spring Dance Weekend, April 5-7. The staff includes Steve Zakon and Fresh Fish, Kathy Anderson with the Poodles, English dance leader Brad Sayler with Steve Hickman and Claudio Buchwald, and master tapper Chris Belliou. There will be great music and great dancing in beautiful surroundings. Check for fliers at your local dance or call Joel (202-544-7512) or Alice (703-892-2943) for information. Sign up now before it's too late!

March WFF Meeting Wednesday, March 13, 8pm

The next planning meeting for the 15th Annual Washington Folk Festival will be Wednesday, March 13, at 8 pm in the Glen Echo Park Ground Classroom (beneath the Park Office). All Committee Chairs are requested to attend, or give a report to the Coordinating Committee. Anyone interested in learning about the June Festival is welcome to come; call Coordinators Nancy (301-933-3073), Mary (301-229-5845) or Dave (301-589-3580) for information.

Open Sing Friday, March 1, 8:30pm

The March open sing will be held Friday Mar. 1 8:30 pm. at the Washington Ethical Society, 7750 16th St. NW., DC. Rita Ferrara leads; the topic is "Wars, Squabbles, Feuds, Spats, Disputes, Fights, Disagreements, Arguments and Other Such-Like Cantankerousness."

Paul Lentz will lead April's Open Sing, also at WES. His topic: "Spring has Sprung, the Grass has Riz, I Wonder Where the Flowers Is." (Emphasis on flowers.)

BYO refreshments. Admission $3 to help cover the cost of the hall.

Storytellers' Meeting Saturday March 23, 7:30pm

An informal gathering of storytellers will be held on Saturday, Mar. 23 at 7:30pm. in the home of Anne Sheldon in Silver Spring, MD. Potluck refreshments; listeners welcome! Call 301-588-5516 for directions and RSVPs.

Gospel Sing Sunday, March 10, 4 pm

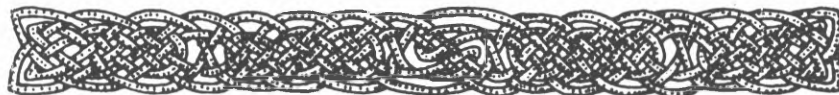

The March Gospel Sing will be March 10 at the home of Judith Johnson in Silver Spring, MD. Call her at 301-431-0862 for directions. Singing will start around 4:00 pm, followed by a covered dish supper and then more singing. Everyone is welcome!

Sacred Harp Sing Sunday, March 24, Singing School 3pm, Monthly Sing 4pm

Sunday Mar. 24 will be your last chance to shape up those fa-so-las before the BIG singing - the Potomac River Sacred Harp Singing Convention coming up in April. (See blurb on p. 9 of the Newsletter.) We'll meet at the Falls Church, VA home of Bob Hall and Ella Wilcox for a cram session. Come at 3pm for a follow up to last month's singing school - which may include learning some of the more difficult or less often called songs which are bound to be sung at the Convention - and a quick review of all the Convention details. This would be a good orientation for anyone who has never attended a Sacred Harp Singing Convention. The regular monthly singing starts at 4pm, breaks at 6pm for the potluck supper/social hour, and continues at 7pm. All are welcome and loaner songbooks are available for use. Extra folding chairs would be appreciated. Call 703-204-1532 for more information and directions.

Advanced English Country Dance Tuesday, March 12, 7:30pm

A Message from the President - THANKS!

I had a great time at the Mini*Fest last month and from all appearances everyone else there was having at least as good a time. So I'll start by thanking Joel Greer and Annie Storr and all who helped them put together a great festival. It was especially nice to be at an FSGW event where everyone looking for "Joel" wasn't looking for me.

Also thanks to all who have responded to my recent appeals for ideas and information. It's good to know that you're listening. And while I'm on the subject of participation and good ideas, let me remind you for the 10,000th time that the FSGW is an all-volunteer organization and that right now we are looking for some members to serve on the Board next year. It's an excellent opportunity to put some of your good ideas to work, organizing events, organizing the board, or just finding out how things happen. All Board positions are open, so if you are intrigued or interested or just want more information, call any Board member or Nominations Chair Mary K. Friday.

If, by chance, this sounds like more than you're ready for right now, take a smaller step and volunteer to help out with the Washington Folk Festival. There are tasks of every description, and it's both fun and eminently worthwhile. See elsewhere in this issue for more information on this June's WFF. FSGW has a bunch of great events coming up in the next six months. Let's all help out in the work as well as the enjoyment. Thanks - Joel B.
