

Hashdance Weekend

Friday - Sunday, July 13 - 15

(in the Bumper Car Pavilion, except in Ballroom Friday Night)

What is this weekend?

Don't miss this one-of-a-kind weekend of hash calling, no-walk-throughs, ambicontras, ultra-challenging contras, squares, and other formations that will challenge you to your core. Hash calling is non-choreographed, spur-of-the-moment, just-in-time calling, designed to challenge and delight. Will Mentor and Seth Tepfer are your callers for a wonderful one-off weekend of dancer fever dreams! The weekend price is $100; $80 for members of FSGW, CDSS, BFMS, and ATDS; $50 discount for youth/students and a limited number of $30 volunteer scholarships.

Friday (included in weekend registration; walk-ins welcome - $10, free under 17): Join us and our partner, Friday Night Dancers, for their regularly scheduled Friday Night Dance. Seth Tepfer calls with the fabulous Glen Echo Open Band. Come to dance or play, experience the amazing Spanish Ballroom, meet up with your hosts/guests, and look for some surprise appearances on stage (hint: The Ripples, Barefoot...).

Saturday daytime (registered weekend attendees only): Starting at 9 am with a callers workshop, other workshops, dancing from 10 to lunch (provided), and dancing from 2 to potluck dinner (evening dancers welcome to potluck).

Go to GREAT Concerts for FREE!

Go to great concerts for free! Most FSGW concerts rely on volunteers: See the "Details" page of a concert on the calendar at fsgw.org to sign up to volunteer at that event. You get in for free and you get a pass for free admission to a future FSGW event of your choice (except those listed as "no passes" or "suggested donation")—or to bring a friend.

How to SUBMIT A LISTING TO THE FSGW NEWSLETTER

1. Please look at this Newsletter and determine under what category your listing should appear. When submitting copy by email, put that category in the subject line, followed by the month. E.g., Classes [Month], Concert [Month], Dance [Month], and so forth. Putting the category in the subject line makes it easier for the editor to retrieve groups of events.

2. Please submit all listings in FSGW format. All information should be submitted in the following sequence:

- Event Title • City, State Abbreviation
- Day of the week, Date • start time - end time
- One or two sentences only. Location (+ zip code for GPS). Ticket prices.
- Info: Contact Name at Phone number or email/website.

NB: The city and state appear in the header; do not repeat them in the body, but in this age of Droids and GPS units, you need to include the 5-digit zip code—it goes right after the street address. Submit entries to newsletter@fsgw.org

FSGW Newsletter Editorial and Advertising Policy

The Folklore Society of Greater Washington endeavors to print copy it deems relevant to its membership and purpose as stated in its by-laws:

"The main purpose of the Society is to further the understanding, investigation, appreciation, and performance of the traditional folk music and folklore of the American people."

- All copy must be submitted by e-mail to newsletter@fsgw.org in text format in the body of the e-mail by the 8th of the preceding month.
- All listings must be submitted in the format set out in the "How to Submit" Box above. The format is also on our website (fsgw.org). Just click on Newsletter and look for a paragraph in green.
- The Editor reserves the right to edit or omit copy as necessary. Ad content must be approved by the Editor.

Basic Ad charges: 1/4 page ads (3.4" x 4.5" or 7.25" x 2.5"): $65 for one month, $120 for two. Commercial business: $8 for 10 words. Noncommercial and individual: $4 for 10 words. 25% discount for any single ad placed in 11 consecutive issues (one year) and paid in advance. We will work with you on larger ads. Copy, with check made payable to FSGW, must be received by the newsletter deadline. Mail to FSGW, P.O. Box 323, Cabin John, MD 20818.

Alexandria, VA

Ship's Company Chanteymen Friday, July 13 • 6–8 pm

The Ship's Company Chanteymen will blow you down with gale-force voices and traditional chanteys and forebitters from the age of wooden ships powered by wind, elbow grease, and sometimes the cat o' nine tails. Cosponsored by the Office of Historic Alexandria and FSGW, this is the July concert in the "Alexandria After Work" concert series held in the heart of Old Town Alexandria at 6 pm on the second Friday of each month. Take the free trolley that runs every 15 minutes from King Street Metro station. At the historic Lloyd House — garden or parlor, depending on the weather. $15 suggested donation; cash bar. Info: program@fsgw.org.

American Folklife Center's 2018 Homegrown Concert Series

Jeff and Gerret Warner

From the Mountains to the Sea:
The Anne and Frank Warner Collection

Friday, July 20 • 7–9 pm

"From the Mountains to the Sea" is a two-hour live presentation with multimedia, focusing on the Anne and Frank Warner collection. The Anne and Frank Warner collection is one of the great treasures in the American Folklife Center archive, containing a wealth of material collected by the husband-and-wife team of folklorists from 1938 to 1966 as they traveled through rural America in search of old songs. This important collection contains such seminal field recordings as North Carolina farmer Frank Proffitt's rendition of the murder ballad "Tom Dooley." This field recording was adapted and recorded in 1958 by The Kingston Trio, whose version became a number-one hit, won the very first Grammy in country music, and set off the folk boom of the 1960s. Frank Warner was also a popular folksinger, and the Warners' sons, Jeff and Gerret, got their start as musicians backing up their dad on his recordings and performances; they have been renowned performing musicians for over 50 years. Cosponsored by the Folklore Society of Greater Washington. At Library of Congress, Madison Building 6th Floor, Mumford Room. Free. Info: Thea Austen, 202-707-1743; loc.gov/folklife.

Cat and the Fiddle

Friday, Aug 10 • 6–8 pm

Cat and the Fiddle (Joe & Cyd Shelby) have delighted crowds at the Maryland Renaissance Festival for years with their morris tunes, jigs, danse macabre and pub songs. They brought a lively, colorful, and kid-friendly take on early music to the 2018 Midwinter Festival and to countless morris ales and East Coast renaissance fairs. Cosponsored by the Office of Historic Alexandria and FSGW, this is the August concert in the "Alexandria After Work" concert series held in the heart of Old Town Alexandria at 6 pm on the second Friday of each month. Take the free trolley that runs every 15 minutes from King Street Metro station. At the Murray-Dick-Fawcett House. $15 suggested donation; cash bar. Info: program@fsgw.org

SUPPORT FOLK MUSIC ON YOUR LOCAL COMMUNITY RADIO STATIONS!

Saturday nights listen to Mary Cliff's Traditions (Washington's longest-running radio show devoted to folk music) from 9 pm to midnight on WERA-FM Arlington (96.7 FM or streaming at wera.fm). FSGW congratulates Mary on receiving a Sammie Award in recognition of her many years of support for the Takoma Park Folk Festival and the folk musicians of the Washington area.

And tune in to WOWN-LP Takoma Park (94.3 FM or streaming at takomaradio.org); many shows of interest to blues, folk, reggae, and other traditional music enthusiasts. Full schedule/show descriptions at takomaradio.org.

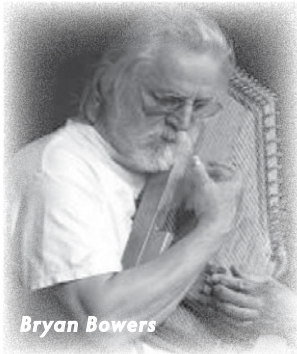

54th Annual FSGW Getaway

Coming Soon!

Friday, October 12 to Monday, October 15

West River Conference Center, West River, MD

Get ready to get away! Or, more specifically, get ready for the FSGW Getaway! Once again this year a wonderful group of music lovers will gather at a beautiful spot on a Chesapeake inlet to spend a whole weekend celebrating the music we love. We'll sing and jam all day and into the wee hours. We'll talk about our favorite songs, learn new instrumental techniques, enjoy chatting with old friends and new ones, or just relax by the water's edge. A friend from California has described the Getaway as "a gathering of musicians, with all attendees being 'just folks,' whether they are professional musicians or shower singers." Note the dates (we're a bit later than we've been the last couple of years) and come along for a great weekend. If you can't make it for the whole weekend, come for the day – you'll love it!

Bryan Bowers

We're very pleased to have a great lineup of special guests this year: The one and only Bryan Bowers will be joining us with his autoharp and banjo and songs and stories. Jean Ritchie's son Jon Pickow will bring lots of family lore and songs along with his dulcimer, banjo, and guitar. Dan and Bonnie Milner will be with us – he is an expert on Irish traditional music and she, as a member of The Johnson Girls quartet, knows all about sea songs. An old friend of the Folklore Society and the Getaway, Bill Destler will contribute his beautiful tenor, banjo expertise, and wealth of songs. The wonderful blues singers and multi-instrumentalists Resa Gibbs and Jackie Merritt promise great songs and blues technique. From the southern mountains, we welcome Melanie Rice Penland and Donna Ray Norton (the daughter and cousin of Sheila Kay Adams), who will beguile us all with traditional Appalachian songs and stories. And – to top it all off – the fabulous Sally Rogers will be with us again!

Melanie Rice Penland

The weekend starts off on Friday evening with a potluck supper and a big sing-around. Saturday and Sunday we have a full program of informal participatory workshops, mini-concerts, song circles, and jam sessions, with 4 (and sometimes 5) events occurring simultaneously, so there's always plenty to choose from. Each evening we have sign-up concerts – a chance to show us all what you can do – and songfests and jam sessions until the wee hours. There are CDs and some instruments and crafts for sale, as well as a silent auction to benefit our scholarship fund – bring an item to donate and take a different one home.

We're encouraging folks to bring their kids and/or grandkids and want to plan appropriate activities for them, so do let us know in advance how many children you'll be bringing and their ages.

Accommodations:

There are 50 bedrooms in buildings with heat, AC, and hot showers, with up to four sturdy bunks per room (a discount is offered if you'll volunteer to take an upper bunk; if you cannot get yourself into an upper bunk, please let us know). Tents, RVs, and sleep-aboard boats are OK, but no hookups are available. Public gathering areas and some bedrooms are handicapped accessible. Special dietary needs may be accommodated if you let us know in advance. Limited kitchen facilities (fridge, freezer, microwave) are available to us at all times. No smoking is permitted indoors, and we are asked not to bring any alcohol.

All-Night Music: We fervently hope to have a music-all-night cabin, but this will require that enough folks sign up to bunk there. As an extra incentive, no workshops will be scheduled in the Peace Cabin until after lunch, so all-night singers can sleep in! Please be sure to indicate on the application form if you would like to be in the music-all-night cabin.

What to bring:

Along with voices, instruments, and your love of music, bring bedding, pillows, towels and soap, flashlight, and a coffee mug to help save paper. No pets, please.

Rates and Registration:

See registration form on page 35 and explanation below. Rates are for one, two, or three nights and for day-trippers who bring their own food. To dine at the Getaway buffet you MUST register in advance. If you register for two nights, the fee covers three meals a day and a late-night snack both Saturday and Sunday. A three-night registration gives you an additional night's lodging and breakfast on Monday morning. A one-night registration gives you all meals and snacks on either Saturday or Sunday and, if you wish, a bed on either adjacent night. Be sure to register by October 1 — after that space cannot be guaranteed.

Payment notes

You may register online with your credit card at fsgw.org. We have been able to keep our prices as low as possible this year, but recognize that some folks may still have a problem with the cost. If you need help with the tuition, there is the Lieberman/Olive Scholarship Fund to assist; contact Charlie Baum at cbaum@fsgw.org to inquire about scholarships.

Julia Patinella Trio

Saturday, Aug 18 • 8–10 pm

Based in Brooklyn and Sevilla, Spain, Julia Patinella presents Andalusian music "steeped in the celebration and the laments of southern Spain...sub-genres that are only passed down through oral tradition and have been barely exported beyond Andalucia." She also brings original songs in Spanish, Sicilian, and English that reflect themes of the immigrant experience from the perspective of a first-generation American woman. Julia's singing and flamenco guitar are accompanied by bouzouki and cajon. At Seekers Church. $15; members, $8. Info: program@fsgw.org

Noted young blues musician and scholar Jontavious Willis is working on a project this summer to document elder (age 60+) African American blues/jazz/gospel musicians and singers who have never recorded or interviewed. If you have a recommendation of someone for him to interview, please message him at facebook.com/jontavious.willis.7 (or search for Quon Willis).

AMERICAN FOLKLIFE CENTER'S 2018 HOMEGROWN CONCERT SERIES LONE PIÑON – ACOUSTIC CONJUNTO

FROM NEW MEXICO
WEDNESDAY, AUG 1 • 12–1 PM

Lone Piñon is an acoustic conjunto from northern New Mexico whose music celebrates the diversity and integrity of their region's cultural roots. Using violins, accordion, quinta huapangera, bajo sexto, guitarrón, tololoche, and vocals in Spanish, English, Nahuatl, and P'urépecha, the group has revived and updated the Chicano stringband style that once flourished in New Mexico, bringing a devoted musicianship to northern New Mexican polkas and chotes, virtuosic Mexican huapango and son calentano, and classic borderlands conjunto. The musicians of Lone Piñon – Noah Martinez, Jordan Wax, and Leticia Gonzales — learned from elder musicians, who instilled in them a respect for continuity and an example of the radicalism, creativity, and cross-cultural solidarity that has always informed folk music. At Library of Congress, Jefferson Building, Coolidge Auditorium. Free. Info: Thea Austen, 202-707-1743; loc.gov/Folklife.

AMERICAN FOLKLIFE CENTER'S 2018 HOMEGROWN CONCERT SERIES GRUPO REBOLÚ – AFRO-COLOMBIAN MUSIC

FROM NEW YORK

WEDNESDAY, AUG 8 • 12–1 PM

Grupo Rebolú is an Afro-Colombian musical ensemble that includes some of the finest Colombian musicians in the United States. The group was created by Ronald Polo (vocalist, composer, and player of the native Colombian flute known as a gaita), Morris Cañate (master traditional drummer), and Johanna Castañeda (vocalist and percussionist) to promote the rich musical traditions of their heritage: the African descendants of Colombia's Caribbean coast. They believe these folkloric traditions should continually evolve over time and incorporate the musical ideas and creativity of new generations of musicians. The original compositions of Ronald Polo for Grupo Rebolú forge new paths for Colombian music, while respectfully remaining faithful to traditional Afro-Colombian rhythms such as gaita, tambora, chalupa, and bullerengue. At Library of Congress, Jefferson Building, Coolidge Auditorium. Free. Info: Thea Austen, 202-707-1743; loc.gov/Folklife.

Thursdays
AMERICAN FOLKLIFE CENTER'S
2018 HOMEGROWN CONCERT SERIES
NEWPOLI – TRADITIONAL ITALIAN MUSIC AND SONG FROM MASSACHUSETTS

THURSDAY, JULY 12 • 12-1 PM

Newpoli performs folk songs and dance music from southern Italy, mainly from the regions of Campania and Puglia. They integrate a wide variety of styles such as Tarantella-Pizzica, Tammuriata, Villanella, and the Neapolitan Canzone, encompassing music from the Middle Ages to the 19th century. Because Italian folk music, with the exception of a small number of Neapolitan songs, has not received much global attention or recognition, Newpoli concerts are often the first exposure audience members have to these traditions – even among Italians. Newpoli members highlight the joy and beauty of the music while explaining the rituals behind the dances and the ancient stories described in the lyrics. Most of the members are graduates of the Berklee College of Music and the New England Conservatory and are proficient on a wide range of folk and early instruments including bagpipes, flutes, drums, accordions, viols, and lutes. At Library of Congress, Jefferson Building, Coolidge Auditorium. Free. Info: Thea Austen, 202-707-1743; loc.gov/folklife.

FSGW OPEN SING • KENSINGTON, MD
FRIDAY, JULY 6 • 8 PM

 Nancy King's annual firefly extravaganza. Topic: Songs you learned (or at least first heard) from a person, rather than from a book or recording. Singers go around the room, giving everyone a chance to sing a song, play a tune, or pass. Most songs presented from memory, but cheat sheets often appear. Everyone is welcome. The open sings have a loose topic to encourage us to learn new songs or put the polish back on some old ones. Don't worry if you can't think of a song on topic – come join the fun anyway! Firefly show in the backyard between rounds of singing. RSVP/Directions: Nancy, nlking2@verizon.net. NOTE: If you're willing to host on a future first Friday, please email Vince Wilding, Vince@VinceWilding.com.
