

OCCIDENTAL GYPSY

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15 • 8–10 PM

According to David Bromberg, this New England quintet delivers “great singing, fantastic guitar and violin work, with high-energy originals that leave the crowd crazy.” Occidental Gypsy in its own words promises “an exhilarating blend of gypsy swing, jazz and world music that enraptures the listener with a complex acoustic sound, burnished by smooth vocals reminiscent of the first era of swing.” Lead guitarist Brett Feldman is the combo’s composer and arranger, joined by lead singer Jeremy Frantz on rhythm guitar, Eli Bishop on fiddle, Jeff Feldman on bass, and Jon Chapman on percussion.

In addition to Bromberg, “OG” has performed with Rickie Lee Jones, Jorma Kaukonen, Stanley Jordan, and Joe Sample, and the band was named a “Best Bet for Weekend Entertainment” by the Boston Globe. For samples, visit www.occidentalgypsyband.com. At Seekers Church. $20/$10 members.

FSGW Midwinter Festival • Silver Spring, MD

Saturday, February 2 • noon–10:30 pm

The afternoon in the Cafetorium begins with the bluesy quartet of Miles Spicer, David Bird, Marcy Cochran, and Yaya Patterson. Hannah Jaye and the Hideaways are new to the Festival, and bring string-band folk to us. The Washington Revels Maritime Voices offer sea chanteys and other songs of the water, with singing along encouraged. The DC Labor Chorussings for peace and for economic and social justice, and, again, encourages us to sing along. The Capitol Hillbillies play roots music based around a New-Orleans style rolling piano; the school piano will stand in for their usual “Rollo,” which gets rolled around Capitol Hill. Ha Segá! are a duo from Lyuti Chushki, offering Bulgarian music in sinuously crooked rhythms. And the Bog Band brings together young Irish musicians with dancers from both Shannon Dunne’s and Sean Culkin’s schools.

The evening in the Cafetorium offers the old time music of Bruce Hutton, Chris Romaine, and Bill

Go to GREAT Concerts for FREE!

Go to great concerts for free! Most FSGW concerts rely on volunteers: See the "Details" page of a concert on the calendar at fsgw.org to sign up to volunteer at that event. You get in for free and you get a pass for free admission to a future FSGW event of your choice (except those listed as "no passes" or "suggested donation")—or to bring a friend.

How to SUBMIT A LISTING TO THE FSGW NEWSLETTER

1. Please look at this Newsletter and determine under what category your listing should appear. When submitting copy by email, put that category in the subject line, followed by the month. E.g., Classes [Month], Concert [Month], Dance [Month], and so forth. Putting the category in the subject line makes it easier for the editor to retrieve groups of events.

2. Please submit all listings in FSGW format. All information should be submitted in the following sequence:

- Event Title • City, State Abbreviation
- Day of the week, Date • start time - end time
- One or two sentences only. Location (+ zip code for GPS). Ticket prices.
- Info: Contact Name at Phone number or email/website.

NB: The city and state appear in the header; do not repeat them in the body, but in this age of Droids and GPS units, you need to include the 5-digit zip code—it goes right after the street address. Submit entries to newsletter@fsgw.org

Together as the Alligator Pears, they put a fun spin on traditional Piedmont blues.

Take the free trolley that runs every 15 minutes from King Street Metro station! At the Lyceum. $15 suggested donation; cash bar.

FSGW FREE TO MEMBERS Concert

Takoma, DC

Turnspit Dogs

Saturday, February 16 • 8–10 pm

From the haunting booms of the antique serpent, a wooden-bodied brass instrument carried by 18th-century marching bands, to the treble trill of the pocket fiddle, the Turnspit Dogs of historic Yorktown, VA keep the sounds of Colonial America alive. Scholarly folklorists, talented musicians, and boisterous singers, this trio is a polished pageant of living history as well as a great American folk band. Named after the livestock tasked with running on a treadmill to turn a rotisserie.

Gabe Stone plays the serpent, hurdygurdy, baroque flute, guitar, bagpipes, bones, bodhrán, tuba, and ophicleide; David Gardner plays early and modern fiddles, guitar, and mandolin; Cliff Williams plays guitar and recorder; and they all sing like chanteymen making wooden ships move.

This event will be one of the two concerts per year where nominations for the FSGW board of directors are accepted from the audience during intermission. (FREE to FSGW members! Please bring your current membership card.) Seekers Church. $20, non-members.

Mansfield, storytelling from Tim Livengood, and songs from Flawn Williams (who steps out from behind the sound board, because he really can sing!).

All afternoon, two rooms of dancing offer everything from contradance to waltzes, French balfolk, Balkan, Scandinavian, Irish, and Tango, not to mention an introduction to rappersword dancing! and there's a dance in the evening called by Janine Smith with music by Honey and Tea.

A Family Room designed to entertain children of all ages offers an introduction for Morris Dancing designed for youngsters, music from Audrey Engdahl, who knows how to entertain and educate kids simultaneously, an opportunity to act in a drama, songs from Gabrielle Zwi about friendship, barriers and identity, a Family Dance with Kappy Laning, and Play-Party games with Molly Hickman and her mother Busy Graham.

The Traditional Song Room, hosted by Lisa Null, features some of the area's established masters of traditional song as well as some promising newcomers. Nita Korn was an early star of the legendary Irish group Celtic Thunder but will be singing solo today. So will Celtic singer Barbara Tresidder Ryan, lead vocalist of Iona. The Spilsbury Sisters offer us a harmonious program of ballads with happy endings. Ya Ya Patterson shares blues and creates her own vibrant songs from African-American roots and her own personal experiences. Youthful divas Sarah White and Bea Lehman prove that the good songs live on in the next generation, as do the rousing choruses and cheerful harmonies of Jocelyn and Darriel Day. Steve Woodbury and Ann Bauer lead off the program with duets, choruses, and songs drawn mostly from New England and Appalachia. Martha Burns delivers old-time and cowboy songs with poignant authority and a "just right" guitar. The stalwart singer, Don Stallone, returns with his strong voice and a vow to stir up songs of class struggle, resentment, and resilience from past to present.

An American Roots room presents families that make music together: Ulrike and Lizzy Brauneis; the Metz Brothers; Zoe and Alaya Zsebenyi; Emily Martin and her daughter Elora, and Pearse Marschner and son Willie.

Another room offers storytelling by great tellers all day, with a chance for you to tell your stories at the end of the day.

Participatory jamming opportunities include a Morris Chorus, a Gospel sing, a Shape Note sing, a chantey sing, a blues jam with Archie's Barbershop, and a Doo-Wop sing, a hammered dulcimer workshop, a small-pipes workshop, and an Old Time jam and singalong. You'll also find an hour of Carter Family songs, Italian-American songs with Paul Oorts and the Rigatoni Brothers, and Blues music with Eleanor Ellis and Pearl Bailes (as the Alligator Pears).

There are crafters and vendors in the halls, food available in the kitchen off the Cafetorium, and a good time to be had by any and all who show up!

The Election Committee is compiling a slate of candidates for the May election for the 2019-2020 term and invites you to nominate candidates. You may offer your nominations for the FSGW Board at the Sunday contra dance on February 24 and at the monthly concert on February 16. These events are official Folklore Society meetings for the purpose of receiving nominations for the Board from the membership. Nominations can also be made at membership meetings in March, specific dates to be announced and nominations may be submitted directly to the Election Committee (prior to April 1) by petition signed by five current FSGW Members.
